

AK Potter 77

Oh, come, let us sing unto the Lord:
let us make a joyful noise to the Rock of our salvation.

Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving,
and into his courts with praise:
be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God,
~~then out upon~~ ^{out of} God, shall bless us.

THE

CALVARY SELECTION

O F

SPIRITUAL SONGS

WITH MUSIC

FOR THE CHURCH AND THE CHOIR.

SELECTED AND ARRANGED BY

REV. CHARLES S. ROBINSON, D. D.

AND

REV. ROBERT S. MACARTHUR, D. D.

THE CENTURY CO., NEW-YORK.

The books of The Calvary Selection Series of Spiritual Songs are now offered to the Baptist churches for use in the different departments of religious work and devotion: I. The Calvary Selection of Spiritual Songs for Church and Choir; II. The Edition for Social Worship. To these has recently been added: III. Spiritual Songs for the Sunday-School. It is believed that the use of such a series of Manuals in the singing of the people, young and old together, will at once elevate the taste and increase the interest of all.

PREFACE.

THIS book has its origin in the desire expressed by some pastors for such a book, for use in the churches under their charge. It is published in the usual way, because of the surmise that what would be appropriate for them might be sought by others.

It is evident to all who have noted the drift of public sentiment and taste, during the past few years, that it has been moving in two directions almost diverse: on the one side, towards music with a decided melody and hymns accompanied by a refrain; on the other side, towards hymns of a more stately character and a more varied rhythm, and towards tunes constructed somewhat on the model of the English and German chorals. In this selection an attempt has been made to meet the popular taste in both directions, as far as was possible without a surrender of those hymns and tunes which are standard and beloved everywhere.

Some churches prefer to be led in their Sabbath praises by a precentor, with a view of encouraging the whole people to sing. Others are better satisfied to employ an educated choir, that a somewhat wider range of artistic cultivation may be reached. For both classes provision has been made in this volume. Parts of it are not set to music, in order that the choir may occasionally sing a hymn without help, adapting it for themselves.

The compilers offer this Manual of Worship to the churches in the hope that it may prove helpful to them in their services of song, and may thus contribute to the glory of their great Head.

DALSTON. S. P. M.

A. WILLIAMS.

The musical score consists of two staves of music in common time, G major. The top staff uses a treble clef, and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The melody is simple, featuring mostly quarter notes and eighth notes.

1. How pleased and blest was I, To hear the peo-ple cry, "Come, let us seek our God to - day!"

The musical score consists of two staves of music in common time, G major. The top staff uses a treble clef, and the bottom staff uses a bass clef. The melody continues from the previous verse.

Yes, with a cheerful zeal, We haste to Zi-on's hill, And there our vows and honors pay.

Psalm 122.

I. WATTS.

HOW PLEASED and blest was I,
To hear the people cry,
"Come, let us seek our God to-day!"
Yes, with a cheerful zeal,
We haste to Zion's hill,
And there our vows and honors pay.

2 Zion—thrice happy place—
Adorned with wondrous grace,
While walls of strength embrace thee round:
In thee our tribes appear,
To pray, and praise, and hear
The sacred gospel's joyful sound.

3 May peace attend thy gate,
And joy within thee wait,
To bless the soul of every guest:
The man who seeks thy peace,
And wishes thine increase,
A thousand blessings on him rest!

4 My tongue repeats her vows,
"Peace to this sacred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell;
And since my glorious God
Makes thee his blest abode,
My soul shall ever love thee well.

HENDON. 7s.

C. H. A. MALAN.

1. Lord, we come be - fore thee now, At thy feet we hum-bly bow; Oh, do not our suit dis - dain! Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain? Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

"Thy face we seek." W. HAMMOND.

LORD, we come before thee now,
At thy feet we humbly bow;
Oh, do not our suit disdain!
Shall we seek thee, Lord, in vain?

2 Lord, on thee our souls depend,
In compassion now descend;
Fill our hearts with thy rich grace,
Tune our lips to sing thy praise.

3 In thine own appointed way,
Now we seek thee; here we stay;
Lord, we know not how to go,
Till a blessing thou bestow.

4 Comfort those who weep and mourn;
Let the time of joy return;
Those that are cast down lift up;
Make them strong in faith and hope.

5 Grant that all may seek and find
Thee a God supremely kind;
Heal the sick; the captive free;
Let us all rejoice in thee.

Jesus intercedes. J. MONTGOMERY.

To THY temple we repair—
Lord, we love to worship there,
When within the veil we meet
Thee upon the mercy-seat.

2 While thy glorious name is sung,
Tune our lips—unloose our tongue;
Then our joyful souls shall bless
Thee, the Lord our Righteousness.

3 While to thee our prayers ascend,
Let thine ear in love attend;
Hear us, for thy Spirit pleads—
Hear, for Jesus intercedes.

4 While thy word is heard with awe,
While we tremble at thy law,
Let thy gospel's wondrous love
Every doubt and fear remove.

5 From thy house when we return,
Let our hearts within us burn;
That at evening we may say—
“We have walked with God to-day.”

CHAPEL. 7s.

GERMAN CHORAL.

1. To thy temple we re-pair—Lord, we love to worship there, When within the rail we meet Thee up-on the mercy-seat.

DIJON. 7s.

GERMAN EVENING HYMN.

1. To thy pastures fair and large, Heaven-ly Shepherd, lead thy charge,
And my couch with ten-d'rest care, 'Mid the springing grass pre-pare.

Psalm 23.

J. MERRICK.

- To thy pastures fair and large,
Heavenly Shepherd, lead thy charge,
And my couch, with tenderest care,
'Mid the springing grass prepare.
2 When I faint with summer's heat,
Thou shalt guide my weary feet
To the streams that, still and slow,
Through the verdant meadows flow.
3 Safe the dreary vale I tread,
By the shades of death o'erspread,
With thy rod and staff supplied,
This my guard—and that my guide.
4 Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps shalt attend;
And shalt bid thy hallowed dome
Yield me an eternal home.

WEBER. 7s.

Twilight.

S. F. SMITH.

- SOFTLY fades the twilight ray
Of the holy Sabbath day;
Gently as life's setting sun,
When the Christian's course is run.
2 Peace is on the world abroad;
'Tis the holy peace of God—
Symbol of the peace within
When the spirit rests from sin.
3 Still the Spirit lingers near,
Where the evening worshiper
Seeks communion with the skies,
Pressing onward to the prize.
4 Saviour! may our Sabbaths be
Days of joy and peace in thee,
Till in heaven our souls repose,
Where the Sabbath ne'er shall close.

C. M. VON WEBER.

1. Soft-ly fades the twi-light ray Of the ho-ly Sab-bath day;
Gent-ly as life's set-ting sun, When the Chris-tian's course is run.

RAKEM. L. M. 61.

1. The day of rest once more comes round, A day to all believers dear; The silver trumpets seem to sound, That call the tribes of Israel near;
D. C. — Ye people all, obey the call, And in Je-ho-vah's courts ap-pear.

"Day of Rest."

T. KELLY.

THE day of rest once more comes round,
A day to all believers dear;
The silver trnmpets seem to sound,
That call the tribes of Israel near;
Ye people all, obey the call,
And in Jehovah's courts appear.
2 Obedient to thy summons, Lord,
We to thy sanctuary come;

ADMAH. L. M. 61.

1. Great God! this sa - cred day of thine De - mands the soul's col-lect - ed pow'rs; With joy we now to thee re - sign These solemn, con - se - crated hours: Oh, may our souls, a - dor - ing, own The grace that calls us to thy throne.

Grace in Service.

A. STEELE.

GREAT God! this sacred day of thine Demands the soul's collected powers;
With joy we now to thee resign These solemn, consecrated hours;
Oh, may our souls, adoring, own The grace that calls us to thy throne.

Thy gracious presence here afford,
And send thy people joyful home;
Of thee our King, oh, may we sing,
And none with such a theme be dumb.
3 Oh, hasten, Lord, the day when those Who know thee here shall see thy face;
When suffering shall for ever close,
And they shall reach their destined place;
Then shall they rest, supremely blest,
Eternal debtors to thy grace.

LOWELL MASON.

2 Hence, ye vain cares and trifles, fly!
Where God resides appear no more;
Omniscient God, thy piercing eye
Can every secret thought explore;
Oh, may thy grace our hearts refine,
And fix our thoughts on things divine.
3 Thy Spirit's powerful aid impart;
Oh, may thy word, with life divine,
Engage the ear and warm the heart;
Then shall the day indeed be thine;
Then shall our souls, adoring, own
The grace which calls us to thy throne.

BROWNELL. L. M. 61.

FROM F. J. HAYDN.

1. The Lord my pasture shall prepare, And feed me with a shepherd's care; His presence shall my wants supply,

And guard me with a watchful eye; My noonday walks he shall attend, And all my midnight hours defend.

Psalm 23.

J. ADDISON.

THE Lord my pasture shall prepare,
And feed me with a shepherd's care;
His presence shall my wants supply,
And guard me with a watchful eye;
My noonday walks he shall attend,
And all my midnight hours defend.

2 When in the sultry glebe I faint,
Or on the thirsty mountain pant,
To fertile vales, and dewy meads,

My weary, wandering steps he leads;
Where peaceful rivers, soft and slow,
Amid the verdant landscape flow.

3 Though in a bare and rugged way,
Through devious, lonely wilds I stray,
Thy presence shall my pains beguile:
The barren wilderness shall smile,
With sudden greens and herbage crowned;
And streams shall murmur all around.

YOAKLEY. L. M. 61.

W. YOAKLEY.

1. { When, streaming from the eastern skies, The morning light salutes mine eyes, } [away,
O Sun of righteousness divine, On me with beams of mercy shine! } Oh, chase the cloud of guilt nd turn my darkness in - to day.

Oh, chase the clouds of guilt away,
And turn my darkness into day.

2 And when to heaven's all-glorious King
My morning-sacrifice I bring,
And, mourning o'er my guilt and shame,
Ask mercy in my Saviour's name;
Then, Jesus, cleanse me with thy blood,
And be my Advocate with God.

3 When each day's scenes and labors close,
And wearied nature seeks repose,
With pardoning mercy richly blest,
Guard me, my Saviour, while I rest;
And, as each morning sun shall rise,
Oh, lead me onward to the skies!

Constant Devotion.

W. SHRUBSOLE.

WHEN, streaming from the eastern skies,
The morning light salutes mine eyes,
O Sun of righteousness divine,
On me with beams of mercy shine!

LISCHER. H. M.

F. SCHNEIDER.

1. { Welcome, delightful morn, Thou day of sa - cred rest;
I hail thy kind re - turn;— Lord, make these moments blest: } From the low train Of mortal toys,

I soar to reach Im - mor - tal joys, I soar to reach Im - mor - tal joys.
I soar to reach Im - mor - tal joys.

Welcome Worship.

HAYWARD.

WELCOME, delightful morn,
Thou day of saered rest;
I hail thy kind return;—
Lord, make these moments blest:
From the low train | I soar to reach
Of mortal toys, | Immortal joys.

2 Now may the King descend,
And fill his throne of graec;
Thy sceptre, Lord, extend,
While saints address thy face:

Let sinners feel | And learn to know
Thy quickening word, | And fear the Lord.
3 Descend, celestial Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Disclose a Saviour's love,
And bless these sacred hours:
Then shall my soul | Nor Sabbaths be
New life obtain, | Enjoyed in vain.

MILLENNIUM. H. M.

I. WATTS.

11

Psalm 84.

LORD of the worlds above !
How pleasant, and how fair,
The dwellings of thy love,
Thine earthly temples are !
To thine abode my heart aspires,
With warm desires to see my God.

2 Oh, happy souls who pray,
Where God appoints to hear !
Oh, happy men who pay
Their constant service there !
They praise thee still ; and happy they,
Who love the way to Zion's hill.
3 They go from strength to strength,
Through this dark vale of tears,
Till each arrives at length,
Till each in heaven appears ;
Oh, glorious seat, when God, our King,
Shall thither bring our willing feet !

ENGLISH.

1. Lord of the worlds above ! How pleasant, and how fair, The dwellings of thy love, Thine earth - ly temples are ! To thine a - bode my heart as-pires, With warm desires to see my God.

H. M.

Psalm 43.

T. DWIGHT.

- Now, to thy sacred house,
With joy I turn my feet,
Where saints, with morning-vows,
In full assembly meet:
Thy power divine shall there be shown,
And from thy throne thy mercy shine.

2 Oh, send thy light abroad;
Thy truth with heavenly ray
Shall lead my soul to God,
And guide my doubtful way;
I'll hear thy word with faith sincere,
And learn to fear and praise the Lord.

SABBATH. 7s. 61.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Safe - ly through anoth - er week, God has brought us on our way; Let us now a blessing seek, Wait - ing in his courts to - day: Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest, Day of all the week the best, Emblem of e - ter - nal rest.

13

Sabbath morning.

J. NEWTON.

- SAFELY through another week,
God has brought us on our way;
Let us now a blessing seek,
Waiting in his courts to-day:
Day of all the week the best,
Emblem of eternal rest.

2 While we seek supplies of grace,
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciling face—
Take away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free,—
May we rest this day in thee.

3 Here reach thy bounteous hand,
And all my sorrows heal;
Hence health and strength divine,
Oh, make my bosom feel;
Like balmy dew shall Jesus' voice
My heart rejoice, my strength renew.

4 Now in thy holy hill,
Before thine altar, Lord!
My harp and song shall sound
The glories of thy word:
Henceforth, to thee, O God of grace!
A hymn of praise, my life shall be.

LOWELL MASON.

3 Here we come thy name to praise;
Let us feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes,
While we in thy house appear:
Here afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.

4 May thy gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief for all complaints:
Thus let all our Sabbaths prove,
Till we rest in thee above.

HALLE. 7s. 61.

F. J. HAYDN.

1. {Christ, whose glo - ry fills the skies, Christ, the true, the on - ly light, }
 Sun of Right - eous - ness, a - rise, Tri - umph o'er the shades of night; }

Day - spring from on high, be near, Day - star in my heart ap - pear.

14

Morning.

C. WESLEY.

CHRIST, whose glory fills the skies,
 Christ, the true, the only light,
 Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 Triumph o'er the shades of night;
 Day-spring from on high, be near,
 Day-star in my heart appear.
 2 Dark and cheerless is the morn,
 If thy light is hid from me;
 Joyless is the day's return,
 Till thy mercy's beams I see;
 Till they inward light impart,
 Warinthe and gladness to my heart.
 3 Visit, then, this soul of mine,
 Pierce the gloom of sin and grief;
 Fill me, radiant Sun divine !
 Scatter all my unbelief;
 More and more thyself display,
 Shining to the perfect day.

15

Evening.

T. HASTINGS.

Now, FROM labor and from care, .
 Evening shades have set me free;
 In the work of praise and prayer,
 Lord ! I would converse with thee:
 Oh, behold me from above,
 Fill me with a Saviour's love.
 2 Sin and sorrow, guilt and woe,
 Wither all my earthly joys;
 Naught can charm me here below,
 But my Saviour's melting voice;
 Lord ! forgive—thy grace restore,
 Make me thine for evermore.
 3 For the blessings of this day,
 For the mercies of this hour,
 For the gospel's cheering ray,
 For the Spirit's quickening power,—
 Grateful notes to thee I raise;
 Oh, accept my song of praise.

SAVANNAH. 10s.

I. PLEVY.

1. Hail, hap - py day ! thou day of ho - ly rest, What heavenly peace and transport fill our breast !

When Christ, the God of grace in love descends, And kind - ly holds communion with his friends

MENDEBRAS. 7s & 6s. D.

LOWELL MASON, arr.

1. { O day of rest and gladness, O day of joy and light, } On thee, the high and lowly,
 { O balm of care and sadness, Most beauti-ful, most bright; } On thee, the high and lowly,

Bend-ing be - fore the throne, Sing Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly, To the Great Three in One.

16

"Day of Rest"

C. WORDSWORTH.

O DAY of rest and gladness,
 O day of joy and light,
 O balm of care and sadness,
 Most beautiful, most bright;
 On thee, the high and lowly,
 Bending before the throne,
 Sing, Holy, Holy, Holy,
 To the Great Three in One.

- 2 To-day on weary nations
 The heavenly manna falls;
 To holy convocations
 The silver trumpet calls,
 Where gospel light is glowing
 With pure and radiant beams,
 And living water flowing
 With soul-refreshing streams.
- 3 New graces ever gaining
 From this our day of rest,
 We reach the rest remaining
 To spirits of the blest.

To Holy Ghost be praises,
 To Father and to Son;
 The Church her voice upraises
 To thee, blest Three in One.

17

"Thine holy day."

RAY PALMER.

THINE holy day's returning,
 Our hearts exult to see;
 And with devotion burning,
 Ascend, O God, to thee!
 To-day with purest pleasure,
 Our thoughts from earth withdraw;
 We search for heavenly treasure,
 We learn thy holy law.

2 We join to sing thy praises,
 Lord of the Sabbath day;
 Each voice in gladness raises
 Its loudest, sweetest lay!
 Thy richest mercies sharing,
 Inspire us with thy love,
 By grace our souls preparing
 For nobler praise above.

10s. Communion in love.

P. H. BROWN.

HAIL, happy day! thou day of holy rest,
 What heavenly peace and transport fill our breast!
 When Christ, the God of grace, in love
 descends,
 And kindly holds communion with his friends.
 2 Let earth and all its vanities be gone,
 Move from my sight, and leave my soul alone;

Its flattering, fading glories I despise,
 And to immortal beauties turn my eyes.

3 Fain would I mount and penetrate the skies,
 And on my Saviour's glories fix my eyes:
 Oh, meet my rising soul, thou God of love,
 And waft it to the blissful realms above!

MARLOW. C. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. This is the day the Lord hath made; He calls the hours his own; Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad, And praise surround the throne.

19*Psalm 118.*

I. WATTS.

This is the day the Lord hath made ;
He calls the hours his own ;
Let heaven rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

2 To-day he rose, and left the dead,
And Satan's empire fell ;
To-day the saints his triumph spread,
And all his wonders tell.

3 Hosanna to the anointed King,
To David's only Son ;
Help us, O Lord ; descend, and bring
Salvation from thy throne.

4 Blest be the Lord who comes to men
With messages of grace ;
Who comes, in God his Father's name,
To save our sinful race.

5 Hosanna in the highest strains
The church on earth can raise ;
The highest heavens, in which he reigns,
Shall give him nobler praise.

20*Psalm 122.*

I. WATTS.

How did my heart rejoice to hear
My friends devoutly say,—
“In Zion let us all appear,
And keep the solemn day.”

2 I love her gates, I love the road ;
The Church, adorned with grace,
Stands like a palace built for God,
To show his milder face.

3 Up to her courts, with joys unknown,
The holy tribes repair ;
The Son of David holds his throne,
And sits in judgment there.

4 Peace be within this sacred place,
And joy a constant guest ;
With holy gifts and heavenly grace,
Be her attendants blest.

5 My soul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains ;
There my best friends, my kindred dwell,
There God, my Saviour reigns.

MEAR. C. M.

WELSH AIR. A. WILLIAMS.

1. How did my heart re - joice to hear My friends de - vot - ly say,—

“In Zi - on let us all ap - pear, And keep the sol - emn day.”

LANESEBORO. C. M.

W. DIXON.

1. Ear-ly, my God, without de-lay, I haste to seek thy face; My thirsty spir-it faints a-way, My thirsty spir-it faints a-way, With-out thy cheer-ing grace.

21

Psalm 63.

1. WATTS.

EARLY, my God, without delay,

I haste to seek thy face;

My thirsty spirit faints away,

Without thy cheering grace.

2 I've seen thy glory and thy power

Through all thy temple shine;

My God, repeat that heavenly hour,

That vision so divine.

BEMERTON. C. M.

H. W. GREATOREX.

1. Lord! when we bend be-fore thy throne, And our con-fes-sions pour,
Oh, may we feel the sins we own, And hate what we de-plore.

Sincerity.

J. D. CARLYLE.

Lord! when we bend before thy throne,
And our confessions pour,
Oh, may we feel the sins we own,
And hate what we deplore.2 Our contrite spirits pitying see;
True penitence impart:
And let a healing ray from thee
Beam hope on every heart.3 Not life itself, with all its joys,
Can my best passions move,
Or raise so high my cheerful voice,
As thy forgiving love.4 Thus, till my last expiring day,
I'll bless my God and King;
Thus will I lift my hands to pray,
And tune my lips to sing.3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign;
Nor let a thought our bosom share,
Which is not wholly thine.4 Let faith each meek petition fill,
And waft it to the skies;
And teach our heart 'tis goodness still
That grants it or denies.

OAKSVILLE. C. M.

C. ZEUNER.

1. Sing we the song of those who stand A - round th'e - ter - nal throne,
Of ev - ery kin - dred, clime, and land, A mul - ti - tude un - known.

23 "Worthy the Lamb!" J. MONTGOMERY.

SING we the song of those who stand
Around the eternal throne,
Of every kindred, clime, and land,
A multitude unknown.

2 Life's poor distinctions vanish here:
To-day the young, the old,
Our Saviour and his flock appear
One Shepherd and one fold.

3 Toil, trial, sufferings still await
On earth the pilgrim throng;
Yet learn we in our low estate
The Church Triumphant's song.

4 "Worthy the Lamb for sinners slain,"—
Cry the redeemed above,
"Blessing and honor to obtain,
And everlasting love!"

5 "Worthy the Lamb," on earth we sing,
"Who died our souls to save!
Henceforth, O Death! where is thy sting?
Thy victory, O Grave!"

24

Psalm 122.

H. F. LYTE.

With joy we hail the sacred day
Which God hath called his own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at his throne.
2 Thy chosen temple, Lord, how fair!
Where willing votaries throng
To breathe the humble, fervent prayer,
And pour the choral song.

3 Spirit of grace! oh, deign to dwell
Within thy church below;
Make her in holiness excel,
With pure devotion glow.

4 Let peace within her walls be found:
Let all her sons unite
To spread with grateful zeal around
Her clear and shining light.

5 Great God, we hail the sacred day
Which thou hast called thine own;
With joy the summons we obey
To worship at thy throne.

25

"The Rising Day."

I. WATTS.

ONCE more, my soul, the rising day
Salutes thy waking eyes;
Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
To him that rules the skies.

2 Night unto night his name repeats,
The day renews the sound,
Wide as the heaven on which he sits
To turn the seasons round.

3 'Tis he supports my mortal frame;
My tongue shall speak his praise;
My sins would rouse his wrath to flame,
And yet his wrath delays.

4 Great God, let all my hours be thine,
While I enjoy the light;
Then shall my sun in smiles decline,
And bring a pleasant night.

CHURCH. C. M.

J. P. HOLBROOK.

1. My soul, how love - ly is the place, To which thy God re - sorts!
 'Tis heaven to see his smil - ing face, Though in his earth - ly courts.

26*Psalm 84.*

I. WATTS.

- My soul, how lovely is the place,
 To which thy God resorts !
 'Tis heaven to see his smiling face,
 Though in his earthly courts.
 2 There the great Monarch of the skies
 His saving power displays;
 And light breaks in upon our eyes,
 With kind and quickening rays.
 3 With his rich gifts the heavenly Dove
 Descends and fills the place;
 While Christ reveals his wondrous love,
 And sheds abroad his grace.
 4 There, mighty God, thy words declare
 The secrets of thy will;
 And still we seek thy mercy there,
 And sing thy praises still.

27*Psalm 25:14.*

C. WESLEY, alt.

- SPEAK to me, Lord, thyself reveal,
 While here on earth I rove;
 Speak to my heart, and let me feel
 The kindling of thy love.
 2 With thee conversing, I forget
 All time and toil and care;
 Labor is rest, and pain is sweet,
 If thou, my God, art here.
 3 Thou callest me to seek thy face;
 Thy face, O God, I seek,— Attend the whispers of thy grace,
 And hear thee inly speak.
 4 Let this my every hour employ,
 Till I thy glory see,
 Enter into my Master's joy,
 And find my heaven in thee.

1. How charming is the place Where my Redeemer, God,

28

The Sanctuary.

S. STENNERTT.

- HOW CHARMING is the place
Where my Redeemer, God,
Unvails the beauty of his face,
And sheds his love abroad !
- 2 Not the fair palaces,
To which the great resort,
Are once to be compared with this,
Where Jesus holds his court.
- 3 Here on the mercy-seat,
With radiant glory crowned,
Our joyful eyes behold him sit
And smile on all around.
- 4 Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy blest abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The servants of my God.

29

Psalm 63.

I. WATTS.

- MY God ! permit my tongue
This joy, to call thee mine;
And let my early cries prevail
To taste thy love divine.
- 2 My thirsty fainting soul
Thy mercy doth implore;
Not travelers, in desert lands,
Can pant for water more.
- 3 For life, without thy love,
No relish can afford;
No joy can be compared to this,—
To serve and please the Lord.

- 4 In wakeful hours at night,
I call my God to mind;
I think how wise thy counsels are,
And all thy dealings kind.
- 5 Since thou hast been my help,
To thee my spirit flies;
And, on thy watchful providence,
My cheerful hope relies.
- 6 The shadow of thy wings
My soul in safety keeps;
I follow where my Fathier leads,
And he supports my steps.

30

Psalm 84.

I. WATTS.

- WELCOME, sweet day of rest,
That saw the Lord arise !
Welcome to this reviving breast,
And these rejoicing eyes !
- 2 The King himself comes near,
And feasts his saints to-day ;
Here may we sit and see him here,
And love, and praise, and pray.
- 3 One day, amid the place
Where my dear Lord hath been,
Is sweeter than ten thousand days
Within the tents of sin.
- 4 My willing soul would stay
In such a frame as this,
And sit and sing herself away
To everlasting bliss.

1. Come, we who love the Lord, And let our joys be known; Join in a song with sweet accord, And thus surround the throne.

31 "Immanuel's ground."

I. WATTS.

COME, we who love the Lord,
And let our joys be known;
Join in a song of sweet accord,
And thus surround the throne.

2 Let those refuse to sing
Who never knew our God;
But children of the heavenly King
May speak their joys abroad.

3 The men of grace have found
Glory begun below;
Celestial fruits on earthly ground
From faith and hope may grow.

4 The hill of Zion yields
A thousand sacred sweets
Before we reach the heavenly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

5 Then let our songs abound,
And every tear be dry;
We're marching through Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

REV. 15:3.

W. HAMMOND.

AWAKE, and sing the song
Of Moses and the Lamb;
Wake, every heart and every tongue,
To praise the Saviour's name.

2 Sing of his dying love;
Sing of his rising power;
Sing, how he intercedes above
For those whose sins he bore.

3 Ye pilgrims! on the road
To Zion's city, sing!
Rejoice ye in the Lamb of God,—
In Christ, the eternal King.

4 Soon shall we hear him say,—
"Ye blessed children! come;"
Soon will he call us hence away,
And take his wanderers home.

5 There shall each raptured tongue
His endless praise proclaim;
And sweeter voices tune the song
Of Moses and the Lamb.

33*Hymn of praise.*

T. JERVIS.

With joy we lift our eyes
To those bright realms above,
That glorious temple in the skies,
Where dwells eternal Love.

- 2 Before thy throne we bow,
O thou almighty King;
Here we present the solemn vow,
And hymns of praise we sing.
- 3 While in thy house we kneel,
With trust and holy fear,
Thy mercy and thy truth reveal,
And lend a gracious ear.
- 4 Lord, teach our hearts to pray,
And tune our lips to sing;
Nor from thy presence cast away
The sacrifice we bring.

34*Christian outlook.*

P. DODDRIDGE.

NOW LET our voices join
To raise a sacred song;
Ye pilgrims ! in Jehovah's ways,
With music pass along.

- 2 See—flowers of paradise,
In rich profusion, spring;
The sun of glory gilds the path,
And dear companions sing.
- 3 See—Salem's golden spires,
In beauteous prospect, rise;
And brighter crowns than mortals wear,
Which sparkle through the skies.
- 4 All honor to his name,
Who marks the shining way,—
To him who leads the pilgrims on
To realms of endless day.

1. I love thy kingdom, Lord, The house of thine a - bode, The Church our blest Redeemer saved With his own precious blood.

35*Psalm 137.*

T. DWIGHT.

- I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode,
The Church our blest Redeemer saved
With his own precious blood.
- 2 I love thy Church, O God !
Her walls before thee stand,
Dear as the apple of thine eye,
And graven on thine hand.
 - 3 For her my tears shall fall,
For her my prayers ascend;

To her my cares and toils be given,
Till toils and cares shall end

- 4 Beyond my highest joy
I prize her heavenly ways,
Her sweet communion, solemn vows,
Her hymns of love and praise.
- 5 Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

1. Lord! in the morning thou shalt hear My voice as-cend-ing high; To thee will I direct my prayer, To thee lift up mine eye.

36 Psalm 5

I. WATTS.

LORD! in the morning thou shalt hear
My voice ascending high;
To thee will I direct my prayer,
To thee lift up mine eye;—
Up to the hills, where Christ has gone
To plead for all his saints,

Presenting, at his Father's throne,
Our songs and our complaints.

- 3 Thou art a God, before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.
- 4 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there;
I will frequent thy holy court,
And worship in thy fear.
- 5 Oh, may thy Spirit guide my feet,
In ways of righteousness;
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face.

HYMN. C. M.

MODERN HARP.

1. Come, thou Desire of all thy saints! Our humble strains at-tend, While with our praises and complaints, Low at thy feet we bend.

37 "Come, Lord!" A. STEELE.
COME, thou Desire of all thy saints!
Our humble strains attend,
While with our praises and complaints,
Low at thy feet we bend.
2 How should our songs, like those above,
With warm devotion rise!

How should our souls, on wings of love,
Mount upward to the skies!

- 3 Come, Lord! thy love alone can raise
In us the heavenly flame;
Then shall our lips resound thy praise,
Our hearts adore thy name.
- 4 Dear Saviour, let thy glory shine,
And fill thy dwellings here,
Till life, and love, and joy divine
A heaven on earth appear.
- 5 Then shall our hearts enraptured say,
Come, great Redeemer! come,
And bring the bright, the glorious day,
That calls thy children home.

ROLLAND. L. M.

1. How pleasant, how di - vinely fair, O Lord of hosts! thy dwellings are! With long desire my spir - it faints, To meet th' assemblies of thy saints, To meet th' assemblies of thy saints.

38

Psalm 84.

I. WATTS.

HOW PLEASANT, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hosts! thy dwellings are!
With long desire my spirit faints,
To meet the assemblies of thy saints.

2 My flesh would rest in thine abode,
My panting heart cries out for God;
My God! my King! why should I be
So far from all my joys, and thee?

3 Blest are the saints who sit on high,
Around thy throne of majesty;
Thy brightest glories shine above,
And all their work is praise and love.

4 Blest are the souls who find a place
Within the temple of thy grace;
There they behold thy gentler rays,
And seek thy face, and learn thy praise.

5 Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
Till all shall meet in heaven at length;
Till all before thy face appear,
And join in nobler worship there.

39

Psalm 84.

I. WATTS.

GREAT God! attend, while Zion sings
The joy that from thy presence springs;
To spend one day with thee on earth
Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.

2 Might I enjoy the meanest place
Within thy house, O God of grace!
Nor tents of ease, nor thrones of power,
Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.

3 God is our sun, he makes our day;
God is our shield, he guards our way
From all the assaults of hell and sin,
From foes without, and foes within.

4 All needful grace will God bestow,
And crown that grace with glory, too;
He gives us all things, and withholds
No real good from upright souls.

5 O God, our King, whose sovereign sway
The glorious hosts of heaven obey,
Display thy grace, exert thy power,
Till all on earth thy name adore!

Morning Hymn. J. CHANDLER, tr.

O CHRIST! with each returning morn
Thine image to our hearts be borne;
And may we ever clearly see
Our God and Saviour, Lord, in thee!

2 All hallowed be our walk this day;
May meekness form our early ray,
And faithful love our noon tide light,
And hope our sunset, calm and bright.

3 May grace each idle thought control,
And sanctify our wayward soul;
May guile depart, and malice cease,
And all within be joy and peace.

4 Our daily course, O Jesus, bless;
Make plain the way of holiness:
From sudden falls our feet defend,
And cheer at last our journey's end.

MELCOMBE. L. M.

1. Bless, O my soul ! the living God, Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad; Let all the powers, within me, join In work and worship so divine.

41 Psalm 103. I. WATTS.

BLESS, O my soul ! the living God,
Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad;
Let all the powers, within me, join
In work and worship so divine.

2 Bless, O my soul ! the God of grace;
His favors claim thy highest praise:
Why should the wonders he hath wrought
Be lost in silence and forgot ?

3 'Tis he, my soul ! who sent his Son
To die for crimes which thou hast done:
He owns the ransom, and forgives
The hourly follies of our lives.

4 Let the whole earth his power confess,
Let the whole earth adore his grace;

The Gentile with the Jew shall join
In work and worship so divine.

42 Psalm 135. I. WATTS.

PRAISE ye the Lord; exalt his name,
While in his earthly courts ye wait,
Ye saints, that to his house belong,
Or stand attending at his gate.

2 Praise ye the Lord, the Lord is good;
To praise his name is sweet employ:
Israel he chose of old, and still
His church is his peculiar joy

3 Bless ye the Lord who taste his love,
People and priests exalt his name;
Among his saints he ever dwells;
His church is his Jerusalem.

1 Sweet is the work, my God, my King, To praise thy name, give thanks, and sing; To show thy love by morning light, And talk of all thy truth at night.

43 Psalm 92. I. WATTS.

SWEET is the work, my God, my King,
To praise thy name, give thanks and sing;
To show thy love by morning light,
And talk of all thy truth at night.

2 Sweet is the day of sacred rest;
No mortal care shall seize my breast;

Oh, may my heart in tune be found,
Like David's harp of solemn sound !

3 My heart shall triumph in my Lord,
And bless his works and bless his word;
Thy works of grace, how bright they shine !
How deep thy counsels ! how divine !

4 Lord, I shall share a glorious part,
When grace hath well refined my heart,
And fresh supplies of joy are shed,
Like holy oil to cheer my head.

5 Then shall I see, and hear, and know
All I desired or wished below;
And every power find sweet employ,
In that eternal world of joy.

1. Thine earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love, But there's a nobler rest a - bove; To that our

44*"A nobler Rest."*

P. DODDRIDGE.

THINE earthly Sabbaths, Lord, we love,
But there's a nobler rest above;
To that our longing souls aspire,
With cheerful hope and strong desire.

2 No more fatigue, no more distress,
Nor sin nor death shall reach the place;
No groans shall mingle with the songs
That warble from immortal tongues.

3 No rude alarms of raging foes,
No cares to break the long repose,
No midnight shade, no clouded sun,
But sacred, high, eternal noon.

4 O long-expected day, begin!
Dawn on these realms of woe and sin;
Fain would we leave this weary road,
And sleep in death, to rest with God.

45*Invocation.*

I. WATTS.

COME, gracious Lord, descend and dwell,
By faith and love, in every breast;
Then shall we know, and taste, and feel
The joys that cannot be expressed.

2 Come, fill our hearts with inward strength,
Make our enlargéd souls possess,
And learn the height, and breadth, and length
Of thine eternal love and grace.

3 Now to the God whose power can do
More than our thoughts and wishes know,
Be everlasting honors done,
By all the Church, through Christ his Son.

46*Morning.*

J. HUTTON.

My opening eyes with rapture see
The dawn of thy returning day;
My thoughts, O God, ascend to thee,
While thus my early vows I pay.

2 Oh, bid this trifling world retire,
And drive each carnal thought away;
Nor let me feel one vain desire—
One sinful thought through all the day.

3 Then, to thy courts when I repair,
My soul shall rise on joyful wing,
The wonders of thy love declare,
And join the strains which angels sing.

47*"Return, my soul!"*

J. STENNELL.

ANOTHER six days' work is done,
Another Sabbath is begun;
Return, my soul! enjoy thy rest,
Improve the day thy God hath blessed.

2 Oh, that our thoughts and thanks may rise,
As grateful incense to the skies;
And draw from heaven that sweet repose,
Which none, but he that feels it, knows.

3 This heavenly calm, within the breast,
Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
Which for the church of God remains—
The end of cares, the end of pains.

4 In holy duties, let the day,
In holy pleasures, pass away;
How sweet a Sabbath thus to spend,
In hope of one that ne'er shall end.

T. KEN.

AWAKE, my soul, and with the sun
Thy daily stage of duty run;
Shake off dull sloth, and joyful rise
To pay thy morning sacrifice.

2 Awake, lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
High praises to the eternal King.

3 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refreshed me when I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless life partake.

4 Lord, I my vows to thee renew:
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

5 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

49

Psalm 65.

H. F. LYTE.

PRAISE, Lord, for thee in Zion waits;
Prayer shall besiege thy temple gates;
All flesh shall to thy throne repair,
And find, through Christ, salvation there.

2 How blest thy saints! how safely led!
How surely kept! how richly fed!
Saviour of all in earth and sea,
How happy they who rest in thee!

3 Thy hand sets fast the mighty hills,
Thy voice the troubled ocean stills!
Evening and morning hymn thy praise,
And earth thy bounty wide displays.

4 The year is with thy goodness crowned;
Thy clouds drop wealth the world around;
Through thee the deserts laugh and sing,
And nature smiles and owns her king.

5 Lord, on our souls thy Spirit pour;
The moral waste within restore;
Oh, let thy love our spring-tide be,
And make us all bear fruit to thee.

EL PARAN. L. M.

LOWELL MASON arr.

1. An - other six days' work is done, Another Sabbath is begun; Return, my soul, enjoy thy rest, Improve the day thy God hath blest.

50*Redeeming Love.*

G. BURDER.

SWEET the time, exceeding sweet,
When the saints together meet ;
When the Saviour is the theme,
When they join to sing of him.

2 Sing we then eternal love,
Such as did the Father move :
He beheld the world undone,
Loved the world, and gave his Son.

3 Sing the Son's amazing love :
How he left the realms above,
Took our nature and our place,
Lived and died to save our race.

4 Sing we, too, the Spirit's love :
With our wretched hearts he strove,
Took the things of Christ, and showed
How to reach his blest abode.

5 Sweet the place, exceeding sweet,
Where the saints in glory meet ;
Where the Saviour's still the theme,
Where they see, and sing of him.

51*The Mercy-Seat.*

A. STEELE.

DEAR Father, to thy mercy-seat
My soul for shelter flies :
'T is here I find a safe retreat
When storms and tempests rise.

2 My cheerful hope can never die,
If thou, my God, art near ;
Thy grace can raise my comforts high,
And banish every fear.

3 My great Protector, and my Lord !
Thy constant aid impart ;
Oh ! let thy kind, thy gracious word
Sustain my trembling heart.

4 Oh ! never let my soul remove
From this divine retreat ;
Still let me trust thy power and love,
And dwell beneath thy feet.

52*Retirement.*

W. COWPER.

FAR from the world, O Lord, I flee,
From strife and tumult far ;
From scenes where Satan wages still
His most successful war.

2 The calm retreat, the silent shade,
With prayer and praise agree ;

And seem by thy sweet bounty made
For those who follow thee.

3 There, if thy Spirit touch the soul,
And grace her mean abode,
Oh ! with what peace, and joy, and love.
She then communes with God.

4 Author and Guardian of my life !
Sweet Source of light divine,
And—all harmonious names in one—
My Saviour !—thou art mine !

5 What thanks I owe thee, and what love—
A boundless, endless store—
Shall echo through the realms above,
When time shall be no more.

53*Public Worship.*

A. L. BARBAULD.

WHEN, as returns this solemn day,
Man comes to meet his God,
What rites, what honors shall he pay ?
How spread his praise abroad ?

2 From marble domes and gilded spires
Shall clouds of incense rise ?
And gems, and gold, and garlands deck
The costly sacrifice ?

3 Vain, sinful man ! creation's Lord
Thy offerings well may spare ;
But give thy heart, and thou shalt find
Thy God will hear thy prayer.

54*Psalm 92.*

H. AUBER.

SWEET is the work, O Lord,
Thy glorious name to sing ;
To praise and pray—to hear thy word,
And grateful offerings bring.

2 Sweet—at the dawning light,
Thy boundless love to tell ;
And, when approach the shades of night,
Still on the theme to dwell.

3 Sweet—on this day of rest,
To join in heart and voice,
With those who love and serve thee best,
And in thy name rejoice.

4 To songs of praise and joy
Be every Sabbath given,
That such may be our blest employ
Eternally in heaven.

55

L. M.

Hour of Prayer.

T. RAFFLES.

Blest hour ! when mortal man retires
To hold communion with his God,
To send to heaven his warm desires,
And listen to the sacred word.

2 Blest hour ! when earthly cares resign
Their empire o'er his anxious breast,
While all around, the calm divine
Proclaims the holy day of rest.

3 Blest hour ! when God himself draws
nigh,

Well pleased his people's voice to hear,
To hush the penitential sigh,
And wipe away the mourner's tear.

4 Blest hour ! for where the Lord resorts,
Foretastes of future bliss are given ;
And mortals find his earthly courts
The house of God, the gate of Heaven !

"Gate of Heaven."

T. KELLY.

How sweet to leave the world awhile,
And seek the presence of our Lord !
Dear Saviour ! on thy people smile,
And come, according to thy word.

2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
That we may here converse with thee :
Ah, Lord ! behold us at thy feet ;
Let this the "gate of heaven" be.

3 "Chief of ten thousand !" now appear,
That we by faith may see thy face :
Oh, speak, that we thy voice may hear,
And let thy presence fill this place.

57

8s, 7s, 4s.

"We draw near."

T. KELLY.

In thy name, O Lord, assembling,
We, thy people, now draw near ;
Teach us to rejoice with trembling ;
Speak, and let thy servants hear ;
Hear with meekness —
Hear thy word with godly fear.
2 While our days on earth are lengthened,
May we give them, Lord, to thee ;
Cheered by hope, and daily strengthened,
May we run, nor weary be,
Till thy glory

Without cloud in heaven we see.

3 There, in worship purer, sweeter,
All thy people shall adore ;
Tasting of enjoyment greater
Than they could conceive before ;
Full enjoyment,
Full and pure for evermore.

Invocation.

I. WATTS.

FAR from my thoughts, vain world, begone !

Let my religious hours alone :
Fain would mine eyes my Saviour see :
I wait a visit, Lord, from thee.

2 My heart grows warm with holy fire,
And kindles with a pure desire :
Come, my dear Jesus ! from above,
And feed my soul with heavenly love.

3 Blest Saviour ! what delicious fare,
How sweet thine entertainments are !
Never did angels taste, above,
Redeeming grace and dying love.

4 Hail, great Immanuel, all-divine !
In thee thy Father's glories shine :
Thou brightest, sweetest, fairest One
That eyes have seen, or angels known !

"Two or Three."

S. STENNETT.

WHERE two or three, with sweet accord,
Obedient to their sovereign Lord,
Meet to recount his acts of grace,
And offer solemn prayer and praise ;—

2 There will the gracious Saviour be,
To bless the little company ;
There, to unvail his smiling face,
And bid his glories fill the place.

3 We meet at thy command, O Lord !
Relying on thy faithful word ;
Now send the Spirit from above,
And fill our hearts with heavenly love.

Invitation.

E. TAYLOR.

COME to the house of prayer,
O thou afflicted, come ;
The God of peace shall meet thee there —
He makes that house his home.

2 Come to the house of praise,
Ye who are happy now ;
In sweet accord your voices raise,
In kindred homage bow.

3 Ye aged, hither come,
For ye have felt his love ;
Soon shall your trembling tongues be dumb,
Your lips forget to move.

4 Ye young, before his throne,
Come, bow ; your voices raise ;
Let not your hearts his praise disown
Who gives the power to praise.

A Prayer in Need.

J. NEWTON.

COME, my soul, thy suit prepare,
 Jesus loves to answer prayer ;
 He himself has bid thee pray,
 Therefore will not say thee nay.
 2 With my burden I begin :—
 Lord ! remove this load of sin ;
 Let thy blood, for sinners spilt,
 Set my conscience free from guilt.
 3 Lord ! I come to thee for rest ;
 Take possession of my breast :

There, thy blood-bought right maintain,
 And, without a rival, reign.

4 While I am a pilgrim here,
 Let thy love my spirit cheer ;
 As my Guide, my Guard, my Friend,
 Lead me to my journey's end.

5 Show me what I have to do ,
 Every hour my strength renew ;
 Let me live a life of faith ,
 Let me die thy people's death.

GERMAN EVENING HYMN.

1. Lord ! I can-not let thee go, Till a blessing thou bestow ; Do not turn away thy face, Mine's an urgent, pressing case.

62

The Case Argued.

J. NEWTON.

LORD ! I cannot let thee go ,
 Till a blessing thou bestow ;
 Do not turn away thy face ,
 Mine's an urgent, pressing case .
 2 Once a sinner, near despair ,
 Sought thy mercy-seat by prayer ;
 Mercy heard and set him free —
 Lord ! that mercy came to me .
 3 Many days have passed since then ,
 Many changes I have seen ;

Yet have been upheld till now ;
 Who could hold me up but thou ?

4 Thou hast helped in every need —
 This emboldens me to plead ;
 After so much mercy past ,
 Canst thou let me sink at last ?

5 No — I must maintain my hold ;
 'Tis thy goodness makes me bold ;
 I can no denial take ,
 Since I plead for Jesus' sake .

1. { As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold;
As with joy they hailed its light, Leading onward, beaming bright; } So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to thee.

63*The Guiding Star.*

W. C. DIX.

AS WITH gladness men of old
Did the guiding star behold,
As with joy they hailed its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright;
So, most gracious Lord, may we
Evermore be led to thee.

2 As with joyful steps they sped,
Saviour, to thy manger bed,
There to bend the knee before
Thee whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.

3 As they offered gifts most rare
At thy cradle rude and bare,
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ, to thee our heavenly King.

4 Holy Jesus, every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.

1. They who seek the throne of grace Find that throne in ev - ery place;

64*God everywhere.*

ANON.

THEY who seek the throne of grace
Find that throne in every place;
If we live a life of prayer,
God is present everywhere.

2 In our sickness and our health,
In our want, or in our wealth,
If we look to God in prayer,
God is present everywhere.

3 When our earthly comforts fail,
When the foes of life prevail,
'Tis the time for earnest prayer;
God is present everywhere.

4 Then, my soul, in every strait,
To thy Father come, and wait;
He will answer every prayer:
God is present everywhere.

Retirement.

P. H. BROWN.

- I LOVE to steal awhile away
From every cumbersome care,
And spend the hours of setting day
In humble, grateful prayer.
2 I love in solitude to shed
The penitential tear,
And all his promises to plead,
Where none but God can hear.
3 I love to think on mercies past,
And future good implore,

And all my cares and sorrows cast
On him whom I adore.

- 4 I love by faith to take a view
Of brighter scenes in heaven;
The prospect doth my strength renew,
While here by tempests driven.
5 Thus, when life's toilsome day is o'er,
May its departing ray
Be calm as this impressive hour,
And lead to endless day.

SOUTHPORT. C. M.

1. Hail, tranquil hour of closing day! Begone, disturbing care! And look, my soul, from earth away, To him who heareth prayer.

- 66 "Tranquil hour." L. BACON.
HAIL, tranquil hour of closing day!
Begone, disturbing care!
And look, my soul, from earth away,
To him who heareth prayer.
2 How sweet the tear of penitence,
Before his throne of grace,
While, to the contrite spirit's sense,
He shows his smiling face.
3 How sweet, thro' long remembered years,
His mercies to recall;

- And, pressed with wants, and griefs, and
To trust his love for all. [fears,
4 How sweet to look, in thoughtful hope,
Beyond this fading sky,
And hear him call his children up
To his fair home on high.
5 Calmly the day forsakes our heaven
To dawn beyond the west;
So let my soul, in life's last even,
Retire to glorious rest.

1. Prayer is the soul's sincere desire, Ut-tered or un-expressed; The motion of a hidden fire That trembles in the breast.

67

What prayer is.

J. MONTGOMERY.

PRAYER is the soul's sincere desire,
Uttered or unexpressed;
The motion of a hidden fire
That trembles in the breast.

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear,
The upward glancing of an eye,
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech
That infant lips can try;
Prayer the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air:
His watchword at the gates of death—
He enters heaven with prayer.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;
While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry—"Behold he prays!"

6 O thou, by whom we come to God—
The Life, the Truth, the Way;
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord! teach us how to pray.

68

"The sacred fire."

B. BEDDOME.

PRAYER is the breath of God in man,
Returning whence it came;
Love is the sacred fire within,
And prayer the rising flame.

2 It gives the burdened spirit ease,
And soothes the troubled breast;
Yields comfort to the mourning soul,
And to the weary rest.

3 When God inclines the heart to pray,
He hath an ear to hear;
To him there's music in a sigh,
And beauty in a tear.

4 The humble suppliant cannot fail
To have his wants supplied,
Since He for sinners intercedes,
Who once for sinners died.

The mercy-seat.

H. STOWELL.

FROM every stormy wind that blows,
From every swelling tide of woes,
There is a calm, a sure retreat;
'Tis found beneath the mercy-seat.

2 There is a place where Jesus sheds
The oil of gladness on our heads,—
A place than all besides more sweet;
It is the blood-bought mercy-seat.

3 There is a scene where spirits blend,
Where friend holds fellowship with friend;

Though sundered far, by faith they meet
Around one common mercy-seat.

4 There, there, on eagle wings we soar,
And sense and sin molest no more,
And heaven comes down our souls to greet,
And glory crowns the mercy-seat.

5 Oh, let my hand forget her skill,
My tongue be silent, cold, and still,
This throbbing heart forgot to beat,
If I forget the mercy-seat.

1. Jesus, who knows full well The heart of every saint, Invites us all our grief to tell, To pray and never faint.

70*Importunity.*

J. NEWTON.

JESUS, who knows full well
The heart of every saint,
Invites us all our grief to tell,
To pray and never faint.

2 He bows his gracious ear,—
We never plead in vain;
Then let us wait till he appear,
And pray, and pray again.

3 Jesus, the Lord, will hear
His chosen when they cry;
Yes, though he may a while forbear,
He'll help them from on high.

4 Then let us earnest cry,
And never faint in prayer;
He sees, he hears, and, from on high,
Will make our cause his care.

1. Our heavenly Father calls, And Christ invites us near; With both, our friendship shall be sweet, And our communion dear.

71*"God pities."*

P. DODDRIDGE.

Our heavenly Father calls.
And Christ invites us near;
With both, our friendship shall be sweet,
And our communion dear.

2 God pities all our griefs:
He pardons every day;
Almighty to protect our souls,
And wise to guide our way.

3 How large his bounties are!
What various stores of good,
Diffused from our Redeemer's hand,
And purchased with his blood!

4 Jesus, our living Head,
We bless thy faithful care;
Our Advocate before the throne,
And our Forerunner there.

5 Here fix, my roving heart!
Here wait, my warmest love!
Till the communion be complete,
In nobler scenes above.

72*"The throne of grace."*

J. NEWTON.

BEHOLD the throne of grace !
The promise calls me near;
There Jesus shows a smiling face,
And waits to answer prayer.

2 That rich atoning blood,
Which sprinkled round I see,
Provides for those who come to God
An all-prevailing plea.

3 My soul ! ask what thou wilt;
Thou canst not be too bold:
Since his own blood for thee he spilt,
What else can he withhold ?

4 Thine image, Lord, bestow,
Thy presence and thy love;
I ask to serve thee here below,
And reign with thee above.

5 Teach me to live by faith;
Conform my will to thine:
Let me victorious be in death,
And then in glory shine.

SWEET hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
That calls me from a world of care,
And bids me, at my Father's throne,
Make all my wants and wishes known:
In seasons of distress and grief,
My soul has often found relief,
And oft escaped the tempter's snare,
By thy return, sweet hour of prayer!

2 Sweet hour of prayer! sweet hour of prayer!
Thy wings shall my petition bear
To him, whose truth and faithfulness
Engage the waiting soul to bless:
And, since he bids me seek his face,
Believe his word, and trust his grace,
I'll cast on him my every care,
And wait for thee, sweet hour of prayer!

JESUS, where'er thy people meet,
There they behold thy mercy-seat;
Where'er they seek thee thou art found,
And every place is hallowed ground.
2 For thou, within no walls confined,
Inhabitest the humble mind;
Such ever bring thee where they come,
And going, take thee to their home.

3 Great Shepherd of thy chosen few,
Thy former mercies here renew;
Here to our waiting hearts proclaim
The sweetness of thy saving name.

4 Here may we prove the power of prayer,
To strengthen faith and sweeten care,
To teach our faint desires to rise,
And bring all heaven before our eyes.

1. Where high the heavenly temple stands, The house of God not made with hands,

75

"The evil hour."

M. BRUCE.

WHERE high the heavenly temple stands,
The house of God not made with hands,
A great High Priest our nature wears,—
The Guardian of mankind appears.

2 Though now ascended up on high,
He bends on earth a brother's eye;
Partaker of the human name,
He knows the frailty of our frame.

3 Our Fellow-sufferer yet retains
A fellow-feeling of our pains;
And still remembers, in the skies,
His tears, his agonies, and cries.

4 In every pang that rends the heart,
The Man of Sorrows had a part;
He sympathizes with our grief,
And to the sufferer sends relief.

5 With boldness, therefore, at the throne,
Let us make all our sorrows known;
And ask the aid of heavenly power,
To help us in the evil hour.

76

"What thou wilt."

J. NEWTON.

AND dost thou say, "Ask what thou wilt?"
Lord, I would seize the golden hour:
I pray to be released from guilt,
And freed from sin and Satan's power.

2 More of thy presence, Lord, impart;
More of thine image let me bear:
Erect thy throne within my heart,
And reign without a rival there.

3 Give me to read my pardon sealed,
And from thy joy to draw my strength:
Oh, be thy boundless love revealed
In all its height and breadth and length.

4 Grant these requests—I ask no more,
But to thy care the rest resign:
Sick, or in health, or rich, or poor,
All shall be well, if thou art mine.

77

Prayers hindered.

W. COWPER.

WHAT various hindrances we meet
In coming to a mercy-seat!
Yet who that knows the worth of prayer
But wishes to be often there?

2 Prayer makes the darkened cloud withdraw;
Prayer climbs the ladder Jacob saw,
Gives exercise to faith and love,
Brings every blessing from above.

3 Restraining prayer, we cease to fight;
Prayer makes the Christian's armor bright;
And Satan trembles when he sees
The weakest saint upon his knees.

4 Have you no words? ah! think again;
Words flow apace when you complain,
And fill a fellow-creature's ear
With the sad tale of all your care.

5 Were half the breath thus vainly spent
To heaven in supplication sent,
Our cheerful song would oftener be,
"Hear what the Lord hath done for me!"

OLD HUNDRED. L. M.

78

Psalm 100.

I. WATTS.

- BEFORE Jehovah's awful throne,
 Ye nations! bow with sacred joy :
 Know that the Lord is God alone :
 He can create, and he destroy.
 2 His sovereign power, without our aid,
 Made us of clay, and formed us men ;
 And when, like wandering sheep, we strayed,
 He brought us to his fold again.
 3 We are his people, we his care,—
 Our souls, and all our mortal frame :
 What lasting honors shall we rear,
 Almighty Maker ! to thy name ?
 4 We'll crowd thy gates with thankful songs,
 High as the heavens our voices raise ;
 And earth, with her ten thousand tongues,
 Shall fill thy courts with sounding praise.
 5 Wide as the world is thy command,
 Vast as eternity, thy love ;
 Firm as a rock thy truth must stand,
 When rolling years shall cease to move.

79

Psalm 100.

W. KETHE.

- ALL people that on earth do dwell,
 Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice :
 Him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
 Come ye before him and rejoice.
 2 Know that the Lord is God indeed ;
 Without our aid he did us make :
 We are his flock, he doth us feed,
 And for his sheep he doth us take.

- 3 Oh, enter then his gates with praise,
 Approach with joy his courts unto :
 Praise, land, and bless his name always,
 For it is seemly so to do.
 4 For why ? the Lord our God is good,
 His mercy is for ever sure ;
 His truth at all times firmly stood,
 And shall from age to age endure.

80

Doxology.

T. KEN.

PRAISE God, from whom all blessings flow,
 Praise him, all creatures here below ;
 Praise him above, ye heavenly host ;

81

Doxology.

I. WATTS.

To God the Father, God the Son,
 And God the Spirit, Three in One,
 Be honor, praise, and glory given,
 By all on earth, and all in heaven.

82

Psalm 117.

I. WATTS.

FROM all that dwell below the skies,
 Let the Creator's praise arise :
 Let the Redeemer's name be sung,
 Through every land, by every tongue.

- 2 Eternal are thy mercies, Lord !
 Eternal truth attends thy word :
 Thy praise shall sound from shore to shore,
 Till suns shall rise and set no more.

WARE. L. M.

GEO. KINGSLEY.

83

God's grace.

I. WATTS.

- Now to the Lord a noble song!
Awake, my soul! awake, my tongue!
Hosanna to the eternal name,
And all his boundless love proclaim.
2 See where it shines in Jesus' face,—
The brightest image of his grace!
God, in the person of his Son,
Hath all his mightiest works outdone.

- 3 Grace!—tis a sweet, a charming theme:
My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name:
Ye angels! dwell upon the sound:
Ye heavens! reflect it to the ground.
4 Oh, may I reach that happy place,
Where he unveils his lovely face,
Where all his beauties you behold,
And sing his name to harps of gold.

84

Psalm 36.

I. WATTS.

- HIGH in the heavens, eternal God!
Thy goodness in full glory shines;
Thy truth shall break through every cloud
That vails and darkens thy designs.
2 For ever firm thy justice stands,
As mountains their foundations keep:
Wise are the wonders of thy hands;
Thy judgments are a mighty deep.
3 My God, how excellent thy grace!
Whence all our hope and comfort springs;
The sons of Adam, in distress,
Fly to the shadow of thy wings.

- 4 From the provisions of thy house
We shall be fed with sweet repast;
There, mercy like a river flows,
And brings salvation to our taste.
5 Life, like a fountain rich and free,
Springs from the presence of my Lord;
And in thy light our souls shall see
The glories promised in thy word.

85

"Te Deum."

T. COTTERILL, alt.

LORD God of Hosts, by all adored!
Thy name we praise with one accord;
The earth and heavens are full of thee,
Thy light, thy love, thy majesty.

2 Loud hallelujahs to thy name
Angels and seraphim proclaim;
Eternal praise to thee is given
By all the powers and thrones in heaven.

3 The apostles join the glorious throng,
The prophets aid to swell the song,
The noble and triumphant host
Of martyrs make of thee their boast.

4 The holy church in every place
Throughout the world exalts thy praise;
Both heaven and earth do worship thee,
Thou Father of eternity!

5 From day to day, O Lord, do we
Highly exalt and honor thee;
Thy name we worship and adore,
World without end for evermore.

1. Praise ye the Lord: my heart shall join In work so pleasant, so divine;
Now while the flesh is mine a - bode, And when my soul ascends to God.

86

Psalm 146.

1. WATTS.

PRAISE ye the Lord: my heart shall join
In work so pleasant, so divine;
Now while the flesh is mine abode,
And when my soul ascends to God.

2 Praise shall employ my noblest powers,
While immortality endures;
My days of praise shall ne'er be past,
While life, and thought, and being last.

3 Happy the man whose hopes rely
On Israel's God: he made the sky,
And earth, and seas, with all their train;
And none shall find his promise vain.

4 His truth for ever stands secure;
He saves the oppressed, he feeds the poor;
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless.

5 He loves his saints, he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell;
Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
Praise him in everlasting strains.

87

Psalm 147.

1. WATTS.

PRAISE ye the Lord!—tis good to raise
Our hearts and voices in his praise;
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight.

2 The Lord builds up Jerusalem,
And gathers nations to his name;
His mercy melts the stubborn soul,
And makes the broken spirit whole.

3 He formed the stars—those heavenly flames,
He counts their numbers, calls their names:
His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound,—
A deep, where all our thoughts are drowned.

4 Great is our Lord, and great his might,
And all his glories infinite:
He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
And treads the wicked to the dust.

5 But saints are lovely in his sight;
He views his children with delight;
He sees their hope, he knows their fear,
And looks, and loves his image there.

88

Psalm 29.

1. WATTS.

GIVE to the Lord, ye sons of fame,
Give to the Lord renown and power;
Ascribe due honors to his name,
And his eternal might adore.

2 The Lord proclaims his power aloud,
O'er all the ocean and the land;
His voice divides the watery cloud,
And lightnings blaze at his command.

3 The Lord sits Sovereign on the flood;
The Thunderer reigns for ever King;
But makes his church his blest abode,
Where we his awful glories sing.

4 In gentler language, there the Lord
The councils of his grace imparts:
Amid the raging storm, his word
Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

Psalm 145.

I. WATTS.

My God, my King, thy various praise
Shall fill the remnant of my days:
Thy grace employ my humble tongue
Till death and glory raise the song.

2 The wings of every hour shall bear
Some thankful tribute to thine ear;
And every setting sun shall see
New works of duty done for thee.

3 Thy works with sovereign glory shine,
And speak thy majesty divine:
Let Zion in her courts proclaim
The sound and honor of thy name.

4 But who can speak thy wondrous deeds?
Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds:
Vast and unsearchable thy ways;
Vast and immortal be thy praise.

And my salvation too;
God is my strength,—nor will I fear
What all my foes can do.
2 One privilege my heart desires,—
Oh, grant me an abode
Among the churches of thy saints,—
The temples of my God.
3 There shall I offer my requests,
And see thy beauty still;

Shall hear thy messages of love,
And there inquire thy will.

- 4 When troubles rise and storms appear,
There may his children hide;
God has a strong pavilion, where
He makes my soul abide.

Above my foes around;
And songs of joy and victory
Within thy temple sound.

There shall our vows be paid;
Thou hast an ear when sinners pray;
All flesh shall seek thine aid.
2 O Lord! our guilt and fears prevail,
But pardoning grace is thine;
And thou wilt grant us power and skill,
To conquer every sin.
3 Blest are the men, whom thou wilt choose
To bring them near thy face;

Give them a dwelling in thy house,
To feast upon thy grace.

- 4 In answering what thy church requests,
Thy truth and terror shine;

"Salvation to God."

C. WESLEY.

Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim,
And publish abroad his wonderful name;
The name all-victorious of Jesus extol;
His kingdom is glorious, he rules over all.
2 God ruleth on high, almighty to save;
And still he is nigh—his presence we have;
The great congregation his triumph shall sing,
Ascribing salvation to Jesus our King.
3 Salvation to God, who sits on the throne,
Let all cry aloud and honor the Son;
The praises of Jesus the angels proclaim,
Fall down on their faces and worship the Lamb.

4 Then let us adore and give him his right,
All glory, and power, and wisdom and might;
All honor and blessing, with angels above,
And thanks never ceasing, and infinite love.

98

"Worship the King."

R. GRANT.

Oh, worship the King, all-glorious above,
And gratefully sing his wonderful love;

Our Shield and Defender, the Ancient of days,
Pavilioned in splendor, and girded with praise.
2 Oh, tell of his might and sing of his grace,
Whose robe is the light, whose canopy
space;
His chariots of wrath the deep thunder-
clouds form,
And dark is his path on the wings of the storm.
3 Thy bountiful care what tongue can recite?
It breathes in the air, it shines in the light,
It streams from the hills, it descends to the plain,
And sweetly distils in the dew and the rain.
4 Frail children of dust, and feeble as frail,
In thee do we trust, nor find thee to fail;
Thy mercies how tender! how firm to the end!
Our Maker, Defender, Redeemer and Friend.

"Ever faithful."

J. MILTON.

LET us with a joyful mind
Praise the Lord, for he is kind,
For his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.
Let us sound his name abroad,
For of gods he is the God
Who by wisdom did create
Heaven's expanse and all its state;—

2 Did the solid earth ordain
How to rise above the main;
Who, by his commanding might,
Filled the new-made world with light:
Caused the golden-tress'd sun
All the day his course to run;
And the moon to shine by night,
'Mid her spangled sisters bright.

3 All his creatures God doth feed,
His full hand supplies their need;
Let us, therefore, warble forth
His high majesty and worth.
He his mansion bath on high,
'Bove the reach of mortal eye;
And his mercies shall endure,
Ever faithful, ever sure.

100

Psalm 107.

J. MONTGOMERY.

THANK and praise Jehovah's name;
For his mercies firm and sure,
From eternity the same,
To eternity endure.

Let the ransomed thus rejoice,
Gathered out of every land,
As the people of his choice,
Plucked from the destroyer's hand.

2 In the wilderness astray
Hither, thither, while they roam,
Hungry, fainting by the way,
Far from refuge, shelter, home,—

Then unto the Lord they cry;
He inclines a gracious ear,
Sends deliverance from on high,
Rescues them from all their fear.

3 To a pleasant land he brings,
Where the vine and olive grow,
Where from flowery hills the springs
Through luxuriant valleys flow.
Oh, that men would praise the Lord
For his goodness to their race;
For the wonders of his word,
And the riches of his grace.

1. God e - ter - nal, Lord of all! Lowly at thy feet we fall: All the world doth worship thee;

We a - midst the throng would be. All the ho - ly an - gels cry, Hail, thrice-ho - ly,

God most high! Lord of all the heavenly pow'rs, Be the same loud anthem ours.

101

"Te Deum." J. E. MILLARD, tr.

God eternal, Lord of all!
 Lowly at thy feet we fall:
 All the world doth worship thee;
 We amidst the throng would be.
 All the holy angels cry,
 Hail, thrice-holy, God most high!
 Lord of all the heavenly powers,
 Be the same loud anthem ours.

2 Glorified apostles raise,
 Night and day, continual praise;
 Hast thou not a mission too
 For thy children here to do?
 With the prophets' godly line
 We in mystic bond combine;
 For thou hast to babes revealed
 Things that to the wise were sealed.

3 Martyrs, in a noble host,
 Of thy cross are heard to boast;
 Since so bright the crown they wear,
 We with them thy cross would bear.
 All thy church, in heaven and earth,
 Jesus! hail thy spotless birth;
 Seated on the judgment-throne,
 Number us among thine own!

102

"In Excelsis."

C. WESLEY.

GLORY be to God on high,—
 God, whose glory fills the sky;
 Peace on earth to man forgiven,—
 Man, the well-beloved of heaven.
 Sovereign Father, Heavenly King!
 Thee we now presume to sing;
 Glad thine attributes confess,
 Glorious all, and numberless.

2 Hail, by all thy works adored!
 Hail, the everlasting Lord!
 Thee with thankful hearts we prove,—
 God of power, and God of love!
 Christ our Lord and God we own,—
 Christ the Father's only Son;
 Lamb of God, for sinners slain,
 Saviour of offending man.

3 Jesus! in thy name we pray,
 Take, oh, take our sins away!
 Powerful Advocate with God!
 Justify us by thy blood.
 Hear, for thou, O Christ! alone,
 Art with thy great Father one;
 One the Holy Ghost with thee;
 One supreme eternal Three.

"God on High."

G. SANDYS.

Thou who art enthroned above,
 Thou by whom we live and move !
 Oh, how sweet, with joyful tongue,
 To resound thy praise in song !
 When the morning paints the skies,
 When the sparkling stars arise,
 All thy favors to rehearse,
 And give thanks in grateful verse.

2 Sweet the day of sacred rest,
 When devotion fills the breast,
 When we dwell within thy house,
 Hear thy word, and pay our vows ;
 Notes to heaven's high mansions raise,
 Fill its courts with joyful praise ;
 With repeated hymns proclaim
 Great Jehovah's awful name.

3 From thy works our joys arise,
 O thou only good and wise !
 Who thy wonders can declare ?
 How profound thy counsels are !
 Warm our hearts with sacred fire ;
 Grateful fervors still inspire ;
 All our powers, with all their might,
 Ever in thy praise unite.

104

8s. 7s.

"Praise to Thee."

J. PAWCETT.

PRaise to thee, thou great Creator !
 Praise to thee from every tongue ;
 Join, my soul, with every creature,
 Join the universal song.

2 Father ! source of all compassion !
 Pure, unbounded grace is thine :
 Hail the God of our salvation,
 Praise him for his love divine !

3 For ten thousand blessings given,
 For the hope of future joy,
 Sound his praise thro' earth and heaven,
 Sound Jehovah's praise on high !

4 Praise to God, the great Creator,
 Father, Son, and Holy Ghost ;
 Praise him, every living creature,
 Earth and heaven's united host.

5 Joyfully on earth adore him,
 Till in heaven our song we raise ;
 Then enraptured fall before him,
 Lost in wonder, love, and praise !

105

7s. 6s.

"Alleluia."

ANON.

Oh, join ye the anthems of triumph that rise
 From the throne of the blest, from the hosts of the skies ;
 Alleluia, they sing in rapturous strains,
 Alleluia, the Lord God omnipotent reigns !

2 He gave to the light its beneficent
 wings ;
 He controlleth the councils of senates
 and kings ;
 From his throne in the clouds the light-
 nings are hurled,
 And he ruleth the factions that rage
 through the world.

3 Rejoice, yo that love him ; his power
 cannot fail ;
 His omnipotent goodness shall surely prevail ;
 The triumph of evil will shortly be passed,
 The omnipotent King shall conquer at last.

106

7s. 6s.

Psalm 150.

C. WESLEY.

PRAISE the Lord, who reigns above,
 And keeps his courts below ;
 Praise him for his boundless love,
 And all his greatness show !
 Praise him for his noble deeds ;
 Praise him for his matchless power ;
 Him, from whom all good proceeds,
 Let earth and heaven adore.

2 Publish, spread to all around,
 The great Immanuel's name ;
 Let the gospel trumpet sound,
 The Prince of Peace proclaim !
 Praise him, every tuneful string ;
 All the reach of heavenly art,
 All the power of music bring,
 The music of the heart.

3 Him, in whom they move and live,
 Let every creature sing ;
 Glory to our Saviour give,
 And homage to our King :
 Hallowed be his name beneath,
 As in heaven, on earth adored ;
 Praise the Lord in every breath,
 Let all things praise the Lord.

PS. D.

Singing to God.

J. MONTGOMERY.

Songs of praise the angels sang,
Heaven with hallelujahs rang,
When Jehovah's work begun,
When he spake, and it was done.
Songs of praise awoke the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born ;
Songs of praise arose, when he
Captive led captivity.

2 Heaven and earth must pass away—
Songs of praise shall crown that day ;
God will make new heavens and earth—
Songs of praise shall hail their birth.
And shall man alone be dumb,
Till that glorious kingdom come ?
No ; the Church delights to raise
Psalms and hymns and songs of praise.

3 Saints below, with heart and voice,
Still in songs of praise rejoice ;
Learning here, by faith and love,
Songs of praise to sing above.
Borne upon their latest breath
Songs of praise shall conquer death ;
Then, amid eternal joy,
Songs of praise their powers employ.

"Hearts to Pray."

J. NEWTON.

AGAIN our earthly cares we leave,
And to thy courts repair ;
Again with joyful feet we come,
To meet our Saviour here.

2 Great Shepherd of thy people, hear !
Thy presence now display ;
We bow within thy house of prayer ;
Oh, give us hearts to pray !

3 The clouds which vail thee from our sight,
In pity, Lord, remove ;
Dispose our minds to hear aright
The message of thy love.

4 The feeling heart, the melting eye,
The humble mind, bestow ;
And shine upon us from on high,
To make our graces grow.

5 Show us some token of thy love,
Our fainting hopes to raise ;
And pour thy blessing from above,
To aid our feeble praise.

109

L. M.

Psalm 39.

I. WATTS.

JEHOVAH reigns ; his throne is high ;
His robes are light and majesty ;
His glory shines with beams so bright,
No mortal can sustain the sight.

2 His terrors keep the world in awe ;
His justice guards his holy law ;
Yet love reveals a smiling face,
And truth and promise seal the grace.

3 Through all his works his wisdom shines,
And baffles Satan's deep designs ;
His power is sovereign to fulfill
The noblest counsels of his will.

4 And will this glorious Lord descend
To be my Father and my Friend ?
Then let my songs with angels join ;
Heaven is secure, if God be mine.

110

L. M.

"God is Here."

J. WESLEY, tr.

Lo, God is here !—let us adore !
And own how dreadful is this place !
Let all within us feel his power,
And, silent, bow before his face.

2 Lo, God is here !—him day and night
United choirs of angels sing :
To him, enthroned above all height,
Let saints their humble worship bring.

3 Lord God of hosts ! oh, may our praise
Thy courts with grateful incense fill !
Still may we stand before thy face,
Still hear and do thy sovereign will.

111

C. M.

"Light in thy Light."

C. WESLEY.

ETERNAL Sun of righteousness,
Display thy beams divine,
And cause the glory of thy face
Upon my heart to shine.

2 Light, in thy light, oh, may I see,
Thy grace and mercy prove,
Revived, and cheered, and blest by thee
The God of pardoning love.

3 Lift up thy countenance serene,
And let thy happy child
Behold, without a cloud between,
The Father reconciled.

4 On me thy promised peace bestow,
The peace by Jesus given ;—
The joys of holiness below,
And then the joys of heaven.

1. Sun of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near;
Oh, may no earth-born cloud a-rise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!

112*"Sun of my soul!"*

J. KEBLE

SUN of my soul! thou Saviour dear,
It is not night if thou be near:
Oh, may no earth-born cloud arise
To hide thee from thy servant's eyes!
2 When soft the dews of kindly sleep
My wearied eyelids gently steep,
Be my last thought—how sweet to rest
For ever on my Saviour's breast!

3 Abide with me from morn till eve,
For without thee I cannot live;
Abide with me when night is nigh,
For without thee I dare not die.

4 Be near to bless me when I wake,
Ere through the world my way I take;
Abide with me till in thy love
I lose myself in heaven above.

EVENING HYMN. L. M.

THOS. TAILLIS.

1. Glo - ry to thee, my God, this night, For all the blessings of the light:
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings! Be -neath thine own al - might - y wings.

113*Evening song.*

T. KEN.

GLORY to thee, my God, this night,
For all the blessings of the light;
Keep me, oh, keep me, King of kings!
Beneath thine own almighty wings.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ill which I this day have done;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed:
Teach me to die, that so I may
Rise glorious at the judgment-day.

4 Oh, let my soul on thee repose,
And may sweet sleep mine eyelids close!
Sleep, which shall me more vigorous make,
To serve my God when I awake.

OVERBERG. L. M.

J. C. H. BINK.

1. Great God! to thee my evening song With humble gratitude I raise; Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue, And fill my heart with lively praise.

114*Twilight.*

A. STEELE.

GREAT God! to thee my evening song
With humble gratitude I raise;
Oh, let thy mercy tune my tongue,
And fill my heart with lively praise.

- 2 My days unclouded as they pass,
And every gentle, rolling hour,
Are monuments of wondrous grace,
And witness to thy love and power.
- 3 Seal my forgiveness in the blood
Of Jesus; his dear name alone
I plead for pardon, gracious God!
And kind acceptance at thy throne.

115*Benediction.*

J. NEWTON.

THE peace which God alone reveals,
And by his word of grace imparts,
Which only the believer feels,
Direct, and keep, and cheer our hearts!

- 2 And may the holy Three in One,
The Father, Word, and Comforter,
Pour an abundant blessing down
On every soul assembled here!
- 3 Praise God, from whom all blessings flow:
Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host!
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

HEBRON. L. M.

LOWELL MASON.

1. Thus far the Lord has led me on; Thus far his power prolongs my days; And every evening shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.

116*Evening.*

I. WATTS.

THUS far the Lord has led me on;
Thus far his power prolongs my days;
And every evening shall make known
Some fresh memorial of his grace.

- 2 Much of my time has run to waste,
And I, perhaps, am near my home,
But he forgives my follies past,
And gives me strength for days to come.
- 3 I lay my body down to sleep;
Peace is the pillow for my head;
While well-appointed angels keep
Their watchful stations round my bed.

4 Thus when the night of death shall come,
My flesh shall rest beneath the ground,
And wait thy voice to break my tomb,
With sweet salvation in the sound.

117*Dismissal.*

J. HART

DISMISS US with thy blessing, Lord!
Help us to feed upon thy word;
All that has been amiss, forgive,
And let thy truth within us live.

- 2 Though we are guilty, thou art good;
Wash all our works in Jesus' blood;
Give every burdened soul release,
And bid us all depart in peace.

BRADEN. S. M.

1. The swift declining day, How fast its moments fly! While evening's broad and gloomy shade Gains on the western sky.

118

Evening.

P. DODDRIDGE.

THE swift declining day,
How fast its moments fly!
While evening's broad and gloomy shade
Gains on the western sky.

- 2 Ye mortals, mark its pace,
And use the hours of light;
And know, its Maker can command
At once eternal night.
3 Give glory to the Lord,
Who rules the whirling sphere;
Submissive at his footstool bow,
And seek salvation there.
4 Then shall new lustre break
Through death's impending gloom,
And lead you to unchanging light,
In your celestial home.

119

"Abide with us."

J. M. NEALR.

THE day, O Lord, is spent;
Abide with us, and rest;
Our hearts' desires are fully bent
On making thee our guest.
2 We have not reached that land,
That happy land, as yet,
Where holy angels round thee stand,
Whose sun can never set.
3 Our sun is sinking now,
Our day is almost o'er;
O Sun of Righteousness, do thou
Shine on us evermore!

120

"Still with thee."

J. D. BURNS.

STILL, still with thee, my God,
I would desire to be:
By day, by night, at home, abroad,
I would be still with thee.
2 With thee when dawn comes in,
And calls me back to care,
Each day returning to begin
With thee my God in prayer.

- 3 With thee when day is done,
And evening calms the mind;
The setting, as the rising, sun
With thee my heart would find.
4 With thee, in thee, by faith
A biding I would be;
By day, by night, in life, in death,
I would be still with thee.

121

Doxology.

L. WATTS.

- To God the only wise,
Who keeps us by his word,
Be glory now and evermore,
Through Jesus Christ our Lord.
2 Hosanna to the Word,
Who from the Father came;
Ascribe salvation to the Lord,
And ever bless his name.
3 The grace of Christ our Lord,
The Father's boundless love,
The Spirit's blest communion, too,
Be with us from above.

122

The final rest.

W. J. BLEW.

- THE day is past and gone,
Great God, we bow to thee;
Again, as shades of night steal on,
Unto thy side we flee.
2 Oh, when shall that day come,
Ne'er sinking in the west,
That country and that happy home,
Where none shall break our rest;—
3 Where all things shall be peace,
And pleasure without end,
And golden harps, that never cease,
With joyous hymns shall blend;—
4 Where we, preserved beneath
The shelter of thy wing,
For evermore thy praise shall breathe,
And of thy mercy sing.

EVENING. S. M.

A. CHAPIN.

1. The day is past and gone, The evening shades appear; Oh, may we all re-member well The night of death draws near.

123

Home Hymn.

J. LELAND.

- THE day is past and gone,
The evening shades appear;
Oh, may we all remember well
The night of death draws near!
- 2 We lay our garments by,
Upon our beds to rest;
So death will soon disrobe us all
Of what we here possessed.
- 3 Lord, keep us safe this night,
Secure from all our fears;
May angels guard us while we sleep,
Till morning light appears.
- 4 And when we early rise,
And view the unwearied sun,
May we set out to win the prize,
And after glory run.
- 5 And when our days are past,
And we from time remove,
Oh, may we in thy bosom rest,
The bosom of thy love!

124

"Closing hour."

E. T. FITCH.

- LORD, at this closing hour,
 Establish every heart
 Upon thy word of truth and power,
 To keep us when we part.
- 2 Peace to our brethren give;
 Fill all our hearts with love;
 In faith and patience may we live,
 And seek our rest above.
- 3 Through changes, bright or drear,
 We would thy will pursue;
 And toil to spread thy kingdom here,
 Till we its glory view.
- 4 To God, the only wise,
 In every age adored,
 Let glory from the church arise
 Through Jesus Christ our Lord!

125

Sabbath ended.

A. STEELE.

- THE day of praise is done;
The evening shadows fall;
Yet pass not from us with the sun,
True Light that lightest all!
- 2 Around thy throne on high,
Where night can never be,
The white-robed harpers of the sky
Bring ceaseless hymns to thee.
- 3 Too faint our anthems here;
Too soon of praise we tire;
But oh, the strains how full and clear
Of that eternal choir!
- 4 Yet, Lord! to thy dear will
If thou attune the heart,
We in thine angels' music still
May bear our lower part.
- 5 Shine thou within us, then,
A day that knows no end,
Till songs of angels and of men
In perfect praise shall blend.

126

At Dismission.

J. HART.

- ONCE more, before we part,
Oh, bless the Saviour's name!
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.
- 2 Lord, in thy grace we came,
That blessing still impart;
We met in Jesus' sacred name,
In Jesus' name we part.
- 3 Still on thy holy word
Help us to feed, and grow,
Still to go on to know the Lord,
And practice what we know.
- 4 Now, Lord, before we part,
Help us to bless thy name:
Let every tongue and every heart
Adore and praise the same.

H. F. LYTHE

A BIDE with me ! Fast falls the eventide,
The darkness deepens—Lord, with me abide !
When other helpers fail, and comforts flee,
Help of the helpless, oh, abide with me !

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day ; the skies;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away; Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain
Change and decay in all around I see; shadows flee !
O thou, who changest not, abide with me ! In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me !

3 I need thy presence every passing hour,
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power ?

Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be ?
Thro' cloud and sunshine, oh, abide with me !
4 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to 128*"Go in peace."*

J. ELLERTON.

Saviour, again to thy dear name we raise
With one accord our parting hymn of praise;
We rise to bless thee ere our worship cease,
And now, departing, wait thy word of peace,

2 Grant us thy peace upon our homeward way;
With thee began, with thee shall end the day; Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict
from shame, cease,
That in this house have called upon thy name. Call us, O Lord, to thine eternal peace.

3 Grant us thy peace, Lord, through the coming night;

Turn thou for us its darkness into light;
From harm and danger keep thy children free,
For dark and light are both alike to thee.

4 Grant us thy peace throughout our earthly life,

With thee began, with thee shall end the day; Our balm in sorrow, and our stay in strife;
Guard thou the lips from sin, the hearts Then, when thy voice shall bid our conflict
from shame, cease,

"Foretastes."

J. MONTGOMERY.

For the mercies of the day,
For this rest upon our way,
Thanks to thee alone be given,
Lord of earth and King of heaven !

2 Cold our services have been,
Mingled every prayer with sin:
But thou canst and wilt forgive;
By thy grace alone we live.

3 While this thorny path we tread,
May thy love our footsteps lead;
When our journey here is past,
May we rest with thee at last.

4 Let these earthly Sabbaths prove
Foretastes of our joys above;
While their steps thy children bend
To the rest which knows no end.

LAST BEAM. P. M.

T. V. WEISENTHAL.

1. Fading, still fading, the last beam is shining; Father in heaven, the day is declin - ing;
Safe-ty and innocence fly with the light, Temptation and danger walk forth with the night; From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime, Shield me from danger, save me from crime.

REFRAIN.

2d verse.

Father, have mercy, Father, have mercy, Father, have mercy thro' Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

"The Last Beam."

HUNTINGTON.

FADING, still fading, the last beam is shining,
Father in heaven, the day is declin -
ing;
Safety and innocence fly with the light,
Temptation and danger walk forth with the night:
From the fall of the shade till the morning bells chime,
Shield me from danger, save me from crime!—REF.

2 Father in heaven, oh, hear when we call!
Hear, for Christ's sake, who is Saviour of all;
Feeble and fainting, we trust in thy might;
In doubting and darkness, thy love be our light;
Let us sleep on thy breast while the night taper burns,
Wake in thine arms when morning returns.—REF.

SEGUR. 8s, 7s, 4s.

1. Guide me, O thou great Jeho-vah, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand; Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more.

134

Guidance.

W. WILLIAMS.

- GUIDE me, O thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
Hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more.
2 Open thou the crystal fountain
Whence the healing streams do flow;
Let the fiery, cloudy pillar
Lead me all my journey through;
Strong Deliverer,
Be thou still my Strength and Shield.
3 When I tread the verge of Jordan,
Bid my anxious fears subside;
Death of death! and hell's Destruction!
Land me safe on Canaan's side;
Songs of praises
I will ever give to thee.

OLIPHANT. 8s, 7s, 4s.

1. Guide me, O thou great Je-ho-vah, Pilgrim through this barren land; I am weak, but thou art mighty. Hold me with thy powerful hand: Bread of heav-en, Bread of heaven, Feed me till I want no more. Feed me till I want no more.

"Lead us!"

J. EDMESTON.

- LEAD us, heavenly Father, lead us
O'er the world's tempestuous sea;
Guard us, guide us, keep us, feed us,
For we have no help but thee;
Yet possessing Every blessing,
If our God our Father be.
2 Saviour, breathe forgiveness o'er us;
All our weakness thou dost know;
Thou didst tread this earth before us;
Thou didst feel its keenest woe;
Lone and dreary, Faint and weary,
Through the desert thou didst go.
3 Spirit of our God, descending,
Fill our hearts with heavenly joy;
Love with every passion blending,
Pleasure that can never cloy;
Thus provided, Pardoned, guided,
Nothing can our peace destroy.

LOWELL MASON, arr.

GREENVILLE. 8s, 7s, 4s.

J. J. ROUSSEAU.

1. Lord, dismiss us with thy blessing, Fill our hearts with joy and peace; { Let us each thy love pos - sess-ing, }
D. C. Oh, re - fresh us, Oh, re - fresh us, Traveling through this wilderness. { Tri-umph in re - deeming (omit) } grace;

136*Dismissal.*

W. SHIRLEY.

LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing,
Fill our hearts with joy and peace;
Let us each, thy love possessing,
Triumph in redeeming grace;
 Oh, refresh us,
 Traveling through this wilderness.
2 Thanks we give, and adoration,
 For thy gospel's joyful sound,
May the fruits of thy salvation
 In our hearts and lives abound;
 May thy presence
 With us evermore be found.
3 So, whene'er the signal's given,
 Us from earth to call away;
Borne on angels' wings to heaven,
 Glad to leave our cumbrous clay,
 May we, ready,
 Rise and reign in endless day.

137*"Keep us safe."*

T. KELLY.

God of our salvation! hear us;
 Bless, oh, bless us, ere we go;
When we join the world, be near us,
 Lest we cold and careless grow.
 Saviour! keep us;
 Keep us safe from every foe.
2 As our steps are drawing nearer
 To our everlasting home,
May our view of heaven grow clearer,
 Hope more bright of joys to come;

And, when dying,
May thy presence cheer the gloom.

138*Benediction.*

J. NEWTON.

MAY the grace of Christ our Saviour,
 And the Father's boundless love,
With the Holy Spirit's favor,
 Rest upon us from above!
2 Thus may we abide in union
 With each other and the Lord;
And possess in sweet communion,
 Joys which earth cannot afford.

139*Evening blessing.*

J. EDMESTON.

SAVIOUR, breathe an evening blessing,
 Ere repose our spirits seal;
Sin and want we come confessing;
 Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.
2 Though destruction walk around us,
 Though the arrow near us fly,
Angel guards from thee surround us,
 We are safe if thou art nigh.
3 Though the night be dark and dreary,
 Darkness cannot hide from thee;
Thou art he who, never weary,
 Watcheth where thy people be.
4 Should swift death this night o'ertake us,
 And our couch become our tomb,
May the morn in heaven awake us,
 Clad in light and deathless bloom.

STOCKWELL. 8s, 7s.

D. E. JONES.

1. Saviour, breathe an evening blessing, Ere repose our spirits seal; Sin and want we come confessing; Thou canst save, and thou canst heal.

ONE MORE DAY. P. M.

R. LOWRY.

1. One more day's work for Jesus, One less of life for me! But heaven is nearer, And Christ is dearer, Than yesterday, to me; His love and light Fill all my soul to-night. One more day's work for Jesus, One more day's work for Jesus, One more day's work for Jesus, One less of life for me.

CHORUS.

140*"One More Day."*

A. WARNER.

ONE more day's work for Jesus,
One less of life for me!
But heaven is nearer, And Christ is dearer,
Than yesterday, to me;
His love and light
Fill all my soul to-night.—CHO.
2 One more day's work for Jesus !
How sweet the work has been,
To tell the story, To show the glory,
Where Christ's flock enter in !
How it did shine
In this poor heart of mine !—CHO.

3 One more day's work for Jesus—
Oh, yes, a weary day;

But heaven shines clearer, And rest comes
At each step of the way; [nearer,
And Christ in all—
Before his face I fall.—CHO.

4 Oh, blessed work for Jesus !
Oh, rest at Jesus' feet !

There toil seems pleasure, My wants are
And pain for him is sweet. [treasure,
Lord, if I may,
I'll serve another day !—CHO.

EMMELAR. 6s, 5s.

J. BARNBY.

1. Now the day is o - ver, Night is drawing nigh, Shadows of the evening Steal across the sky. Steal across the sky.

141*Day is over.*

S. BARING-GOULD.

Now THE day is over,
Night is drawing nigh,
Shadows of the evening
Steal across the sky.
2 Jesus, give the weary
Calm and sweet repose;
With thy tenderest blessing
May our eyelids close.
3 Grant to little children
Visions bright of thee;

Guard the sailors tossing
On the deep blue sea.

4 Through the long night-watches,
May thine angels spread
Their white wings above me,
Watching round my bed.

5 When the morning wakens,
Then may I arise,
Pure and fresh and sinless
In thy holy eyes.

SWEET Saviour, bless us ere we go:
Thy word into our minds instill;
And make our lukewarm hearts to glow
With lowly love and fervent will.—REF.

2 The day is gone, its hours have run,
And thou hast taken count of all—
The scanty triumphs grace hath won,
The broken vow, the frequent fall.—REF.

3 Do more than pardon; give us joy,
Sweet fear, and sober liberty,
And simple hearts without alloy
That only long to be like thee.—REF.

4 For all we love, the poor, the sad,
The sinful, unto thee we call;
Oh, let thy mercy make us glad:

"By Galilee."

M. A. LATHBURY-

BREAK thou the bread of life,
Dear Lord, to me,
As thou didst break the loaves
Beside the sea;
Beyond the sacred page
I seek thee, Lord;
My spirit pants for thee,
O living Word !

2 Bless thou the truth, dear Lord,
To me—to me—
As thou didst bless the bread
By Galilee;
Then shall all bondage cease,
All fetters fall;
And I shall find my peace,
My All-in-All !

146 s. m. The Lord's Prayer. j. MONTGOMERY.

Our Heavenly Father, hear
The prayer we offer now :—
“ Thy name be hallowed far and near,
To thee all nations bow.
2 “ Thy kingdom come; thy will
On earth be done in love,
As saints and seraphim fulfill
Thy perfect law above.
3 “ Our daily bread supply,
While by thy word we live;
The guilt of our iniquity
Forgive, as we forgive.
4 “ From dark temptation's power
Our feeble hearts defend;
Deliver in the evil hour,
And guide us to the end.

5 “ Thine, then, for ever be
Glory and power divine;
The sceptre, throne, and majesty
Of heaven and earth are thine.”

147 7s. The Holy Spirit. c. WESLEY.

Light of life, seraphic Fire,
Love divine, thyself impart;
Every fainting soul inspire;
Enter every drooping heart;—
2 Every mournful sinner cheer;
Scatter all our guilty gloom;
Father! in thy grace appear,
To thy human temples come.
3 Come, in this accepted hour,
Bring thy heavenly kingdom in;
Fill us with thy glorious power,
Set us free from all our sin.
4 Nothing more can we require,
We will covet nothing less;
Be thou all our heart's desire,
All our joy, and all our peace.

148 8s, 7s. Dismissal. m. SMYTHE.

LORD, dismiss us with thy blessing;
Bid us now depart in peace;
Still on heavenly manna feeding,
Let our faith and love increase.
2 Fill each breast with consolation;
Up to thee our hearts we raise;
When we reach our blissful station,
Then we'll give thee nobler praise.

149 l. m. Sabbath Eve. j. EDMESTON.

SWEET is the light of Sabbath eve,
And soft the sunbeams lingering there;
For these blest hours the world I leave,
Wafted on wings of faith and prayer.
2 The time, how lovely and how still!
Peace shines and smiles on all below;
The plain, the stream, the wood, the hill,
All fair with evening's setting glow.
3 Season of rest! the tranquil soul
Feels the sweet calm, and melts to love;
And while these sacred moments roll,
Faith sees the smiling heaven above.
4 Nor will our days of toil be long;
Our pilgrimage will soon be trod;
And we shall join the ceaseless song,
The endless Sabbath of our God.

150 h. m. God's Word. p. DODDRIDGE.

THE promises I sing,
Which sovereign love hath spoke;
Nor will the Eternal King
His words of grace revoke;
They stand secure | Not Zion's hill
And steadfast still; | Abides so sure.
2 The mountains melt away
When once the Judge appears,
And sun and moon decay,
That measure mortal years;
But still the same, | The promise shines
In radiant lines | Through all the flame.
3 Their harmony shall sound
Through my attentive ears,
When thunders cleave the ground
And dissipate the spheres;
Midst all the shock | I stand serene,
Of that dread scene, | Thy word my rock.

151 c. m. "Hear and Know." i. WATTS.

BLEST are the souls that hear and know
The gospel's joyful sound;
Peace shall attend the path they go,
And light their steps surround.
2 Their joy shall bear their spirits up,
Through their Redeemer's name;
His righteousness exalts their hope,
Nor Satan dares condemn.
3 The Lord, our glory and defence,
Strength and salvation gives;
Israel! thy King for ever reigns,
Thy God for ever lives.

1527s. Hymn at Parting.

Thou, from whom we never part,
Thou, whose love is everywhere,
Thou, who seest every heart,
Listen to our evening prayer.

2 Father, fill our hearts with love,
Love unfailing, full and free ;
Love that no alarm can move,
Love that ever rests on thee.

3 Heavenly Father ! through the night
Keep us safe from every ill ;
Cheerful as the morning light,
May we wake to do thy will.

153

8s, 7s, 4s. "Hear us!" D. C. COLESWORTHY.

WHILE we lowly bow before thee,
Wilt thou, gracious Saviour, hear ?
We are poor and needy sinners,
Full of doubt and full of fear ;
Gracious Saviour,
Make us humble and sincere.

2 Fill us with thy Holy Spirit ;
Sanctify us by thy grace ;
Oh, incline us more to love thee,
And in dust our souls abase.
Hear us, Saviour,
And unvail thy glorious face.

3 None in vain did ever ask thee
For the Spirit of thy love ;
Hear us, then, dear Saviour, hear us ;
Grant an answer from above ;
Blesséd Saviour,
Hear and answer from above.

1548s, 7s, 4s. Invocation.

J. PIERPONT.

God Almighty and All-seeing !
Holy One, in whom we all
Live, and move, and have our being,
Hear us when on thee we call ;
Father, hear us,
As before thy throne we fall.

2 Of all good art thou the Giver ;
Weak and wandering ones are we ;
Then for ever, yea, for ever,
In thy presence would we be ;
Oh, be near us,
That we wander not from thee.

ANON.

1557s. Separation.

J. NEWTON.

FOR a season called to part,
Let us now ourselves commend
To the gracious eye and heart
Of our ever present Friend.

2 Jesus ! hear our humble prayer,
Tender Shepherd of thy sheep !
Let thy mercy and thy care
All our souls in safety keep.

3 Then if thou thy help afford,
Joyful songs to thee shall rise,
And our souls shall praise the Lord,
Who regards our humble cries.

156

S. M. "Bless the Lord!" J. MONTGOMERY.

STAND up, and bless the Lord,
Ye people of his choice ;
Stand up and bless the Lord your God,
With heart and soul and voice.

2 Though high above all praise,
Above all blessing high,
Who would not fear his holy name,
And laud, and magnify ?

3 Oh, for the living flame
From his own altar brought,
To touch our lips, our souls inspire,
And wing to heaven our thought !

4 God is our strength and song,
And his salvation ours :
Then be his love in Christ proclaimed,
With all our ransomed powers.

5 Stand up, and bless the Lord ;
The Lord your God adore ;
Stand up, and bless his glorious name,
Henceforth, for evermore.

157

8s, 7s, 4s. "Lord, keep us."

T. KELLY.

KEEP us, Lord, oh, keep us ever :
Vain our hope, if left by thee ;
We are thine ; oh, leave us never,
Till thy glorious face we see ;
Then to praise thee
Through a bright eternity.

2 Precious is thy word of promise,
Precious to thy people here ;
Never take thy presence from us,
Jesus, Saviour, still be near :
Living, dying,
May thy name our spirits cheer.

1. The heavens declare thy glory, Lord! In every star thy wisdom shines; But, when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fairer lines.

158

Psalm 19.

I. WATTS.

THE heavens declare thy glory, Lord!
In every star thy wisdom shines;
But, when our eyes behold thy word,
We read thy name in fairer lines.

- 2 The rolling sun, the changing light,
And nights and days thy power confess;
But the blest volume thou hast writ
Reveals thy justice and thy grace.
- 3 Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
Round the whole earth, and never stand;
So, when thy truth began its race,
It touched and glanced on every land.

4 Nor shall thy spreading gospel rest,
Till through the world thy truth has run,
Till Christ has all the nations blessed,
That see the light, or feel the sun.

5 Great Sun of righteousness! arise;
Bless the dark world with heavenly light;
Thy gospel makes the simple wise,
Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.

6 Thy noblest wonders here we view,
In souls renewed, and sins forgiven:
Lord! cleanse my sins, my soul renew,
And make thy word my guide to heaven.

159

Inspiration.

I. WATTS.

'TWAS by an order from the Lord
The ancient prophets spoke his word!
His Spirit did their tongues inspire,
And warmed their hearts with heavenly fire.

2 The works and wonders which they wrought
Confirmed the messages they brought:
The prophet's pen succeeds his breath,
To save the holy words from death.

3 Great God, mine eyes with pleasure look
On the dear volume of thy book;
There my Redeemer's face I see,
And read his name who died for me.

160

The Gospel Word.

B. BEDDOME.

Gon, in the gospel of his Son,
Makes his eternal counsels known:
Where love in all its glory shines,
And truth is drawn in fairest lines.

2 Here sinners, of an humble frame,
May taste his grace, and learn his name;
May read, in characters of blood,
The wisdom, power, and grace of God.

3 The prisoner here may break his chains;
The weary rest from all his pains;
The captive feel his bondage cease;
The mourner find the way of peace.

4 Here faith reveals to mortal eyes
A brighter world beyond the skies;
Here shines the light which guides our way
From earth to realms of endless day.

5 Oh, grant us grace, Almighty Lord,
To read and mark thy holy word;
Its truth with meekness to receive,
And by its holy precepts live.

161

Psalm 19.

R. GRANT.

THE starry firmament on high,
And all the glories of the sky,
Yet shine not to thy praise, O Lord,
So brightly as thy written word.

2 The hopes that holy word supplies,
Its truths divine and precepts wise,
In each a heavenly beam I see,
And every beam conducts to thee.

3 Almighty Lord, the sun shall fail,
The moon forget her nightly tale,
And deepest silence hush on high
The radiant chorals of the sky;--

4 But fixed for everlasting years,
Unmoved, amid the wreck of spheres,
Thy word shall shine in cloudless day,
When heaven and earth have passed away.

NOW LET my soul, eternal King,

My knee with humble homage bow,

2 All nature sings thy boundless love,
In worlds below and worlds above;
But in thy blessed word I trace
Diviner wonders of thy grace.

3 Here Jesus bids my sorrows cease,
And gives my laboring conscience peace;
Here lifts my grateful passions high,
And points to mansions in the sky.

4 For love like this, oh, let my song,
Through endless years, thy praise prolong;
Let distant climes thy name adore,
Till time and nature are no more.

163 "And be glorified." J. BOWRING.
UPON the Gospel's sacred page
The gathered beams of ages shine;
And, as it hastens, every age
But makes its brightness more divine.
2 On mightier wing, in loftier flight,
From year to year does knowledge soar;
And, as it soars, the Gospel light
Becomes effulgent more and more.

3 More glorious still, as centuries roll,
New regions blest, new powers unfurled,
Expanding with the expanding soul,
Its radiance shall o'erflow the world,—

4 Flow to restore, but not destroy;
As when the cloudless lamp of day
Pours out its floods of light and joy,
And sweeps the lingering mist away.

THOU lovely Source of true delight,
Whom I unseen adore!Unvail thy beauties to my sight,
That I may love thee more.2 Thy glory o'er creation shines;—
But in thy sacred word,
I read, in fairer, brighter lines,
My bleeding, dying Lord.3 'Tis here, whene'er my comforts droop,
And sin and sorrow rise,
Thy love, with cheering beams of hope,
My fainting heart supplies.4 But ah! too soon the pleasing scene
Is clouded o'er with pain;
My gloomy fears rise dark between,
And I again complain.5 Jesus, my Lord, my life, my light!
Oh, come with blissful ray;
Break radiant through the shades of night,
And chase my fears away.6 Then shall my soul with rapture trace
The wonders of thy love:
But the full glories of thy face
Are only known above.

Psalm 119.

J. FAWCETT

HOW PRECIOUS is the book divine,
By inspiration given!
Bright as a lamp its doctrines shine,
To guide our souls to heaven.2 O'er all the strait and narrow way
Its radiant beams are cast;
A light whose never weary ray
Grows brightest at the last.3 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts,
In this dark vale of tears;
Life, light, and joy it still imparts,
And quells our rising fears.4 This lamp, through all the tedious night
Of life, shall guide our way,
Till we behold the clearer light
Of an eternal day.

1. WATTS.

- My soul lies cleaving to the dust;
Lord, give me life divine;
From vain desires and every lust,
Turn off these eyes of mine.
- 2 I need the influence of thy grace
To speed me in thy way,
Lest I should loiter in my race
Or turn my feet astray.
- 3 Are not thy mercies sovereign still,
And thou a faithful God?
Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal
To run the heavenly road?
- 4 Does not my heart thy precepts love,
And long to see thy face?
And yet how slow my spirits move
Without enlivening grace!
- 5 Then shall I love thy gospel more,
And ne'er forget thy word,
When I have felt its quickening power
To draw me near the Lord.

167

Dull of Heart.

1. WATTS.

- LADEN with guilt, and full of fears,
I fly to thee, my Lord,
And not a glimpse of hope appears,
But in thy written word.
- 2 This is the field where hidden lies
The pearl of price unknown;
That merchant is divinely wise,
Who makes the pearl his own.
- 3 This is the judge that ends the strife,
Where wit and reason fail;
My guide to everlasting life,
Through all this gloomy vale.
- 4 Oh, may thy counsels, mighty God!
My roving feet command;
Nor I forsake the happy road,
That leads to thy right hand.

168

Psalm 119.

1. WATTS.

- OH, how I love thy holy law!
'Tis daily my delight;
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.
- 2 How doth thy word my heart engage!
How well employ my tongue!
And in my tiresome pilgrimage
Yields me a heavenly song.
- 3 Am I a stranger, or at home,
'Tis my perpetual feast:
Not honey dropping from the comb,
So much allures the taste.
- 4 No treasures so enrich the mind,
Nor shall thy word be sold
For loads of silver well-refined,
Nor heaps of choicest gold.
- 5 When nature sinks, and spirits droop,
Thy promises of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.

169

Psalm 119.

1. WATTS.

- LORD! I have made thy word my choice,
My lasting heritage;
There shall my noblest powers rejoice,
My warmest thoughts engage.
- 2 I'll read the histories of thy love,
And keep thy laws in sight,
While through the promises I rove,
With ever-fresh delight.
- 3 'Tis a broad land of wealth unknown,
Where springs of life arise;
Seeds of immortal bliss are sown,
And hidden glory lies:—

It makes our sorrows blest:—
Our fairest hope beyond the grave,
And our eternal rest.

- 3 'Tis like the sun, a heavenly light,
That guides us all the day;
And, through the dangers of the night,
A lamp to lead our way.
- 4 Thy precepts make me truly wise;
I hate the sinner's road;
I hate my own vain thoughts that rise,
But love thy law, my God !
- 5 Thy word is everlasting truth;
How pure is every page !
That holy book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

Psalm 119.

1. WATTS.

- Oh, that the Lord would guide my ways
To keep his statutes still:
Oh, that my God would grant me grace
To know and do his will.
- 2 Oh, send thy Spirit down, to write
Thy law upon my heart;
Nor let my tongue indulge deceit,
Or act the liar's part.
- 3 From vanity turn off my eyes;
Let no corrupt design,
Nor covetous desires, arise
Within this soul of mine.
- 4 Order my footsteps by thy word,
And make my heart sincere;
Let sin have no dominion, Lord !
But keep my conscience clear.
- 5 Make me to walk in thy commands—
'Tis a delightful road;
Nor let my head, or heart, or hands,
Offend against my God.

FATHER of mercies ! in thy word
What endless glory shines !
For ever be thy name adored
For these celestial lines.

2 Here, the fair tree of knowledge grows,
And yields a free repast;
Sublimer sweets than nature knows
Invite the longing taste.

3 Here, the Redeemer's welcome voice
Spreads heavenly peace around;
And life and everlasting joys
Attend the blissful sound.

4 Oh, may these heavenly pages be
My ever dear delight;

Be thou for ever near;
Teach me to love thy sacred word,

Psalm 119.

THE Spirit breathes upon the word,
And brings the truth to sight;
Precepts and promises afford
A sanctifying light.

2 A glory gilds the sacred page,
Majestic, like the sun;
It gives a light to every age;—
It gives, but borrows none.

3 The hand, that gave it, still supplies
The gracious light and heat;
Its truths upon the nations rise,—
They rise, but never set.

4 Let everlasting thanks be thine,

The steps of him I love,
Till glory breaks upon my view,
In brighter worlds above.

W. W. HOW.

- O WORD of God incarnate,
O Wisdom from on high,
O Truth unchanged, unchanging,
O Light of our dark sky!
We praise thee for the radiance
That from the hallowed page,
A lantern to our footsteps,
Shines on from age to age.
- 2 The Church from her dear Master
Received the gift divine,
And still that light she lifteth
O'er all the earth to shine.
It is the golden casket
Where gems of truth are stored,
It is the heaven-drawn picture
Of Christ the living Word.
- 3 Oh, make thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of burnished gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
Oh, teach thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, elonds and darkness ended,
They see thee face to face.

Psalm 19.

J. CONDER.

- THE heavens declare his glory,
Their Maker's skill the skies;
Each day repeats the story,
And night to night replies.
Their silent proclamation
Throughout the earth is heard;
The record of creation,
The page of nature's word.
- 2 So pure, so soul-restoring,
Is truth's diviner ray;
A brighter radiance pouring
Than all the pomp of day:
The wanderer surely guiding,
It makes the simple wise;
And, evermore abiding,
Unfailing joy supplies.
- 3 Thy word is richer treasure
Than lurks within the mine;
And daintiest fare less pleasure
Yields than this food divine.
How wise each kind monition!
Led by thy counsels, Lord,
How safe the saints' condition,
How great is their reward!

176 Everlasting.—Ps. 90. E. BICKERSTETH.

O God, the Rock of Ages,
Who evermore hast been,
What time the tempest rages,
Our dwelling-place serene:
Before thy first creations,
O Lord, the same as now,
To endless generations,
The Everlasting thou !

2 Our years are like the shadows
On sunny hills that lie,
Or grasses in the meadows
That blossom but to die:
A sleep, a dream, a story,
By strangers quickly told,
An unremaining glory
Of things that soon are old.
3 O thou who canst not slumber,
Whose light grows never pale,
Teach us aright to number
Our years before they fail !
On us thy mercy lighten,
On us thy goodness rest,
And let thy Spirit brighten
The hearts thyself hast blessed !

177 Omnipresent. DUTCH HYMN.

On moun-tains and in val-leys
Where'er we go is God;
The cottage and the palace,
Alike are his abode.

With watchful eye abiding
Upon us with delight;
Our souls, in him confiding,
He keeps both day and night.

2 Above me and beside me,
My God is ever near,
To watch, protect, and guide me,
Whatever ills appear.
Though other friends may fail me;
In sorrow's dark abode,
Though death itself assail me,
I'm ever safe with God.

178 Sovereign Love.

J. CONDER.

'T IS NOT that I did choose thee,
For, Lord ! that could not be;
This heart would still refuse thee;
But thou hast chosen me;—
Hast, from the sin that stained me,
Washed me and set me free,
And to this end ordained me,
That I should live to thee.

2 'T was sovereign mercy called me,
And taught my opening mind;
The world had else enthralled me,
To heavenly glories blind.
My heart owns none above thee;
For thy rich grace I thirst;
This knowing,—if I love thee,
Thou must have loved me first.

The eternal, uncreated Mind?
Nor men, nor angels can explore

May thine almighty love be nigh!

Long-Suffering.

E. SCOTT

God of my life, to thee belong
The grateful heart, the joyful song;
Touched by thy love, each tuneful chord
Resounds the goodness of the Lord.

2 Yet why, dear Lord, this tender care?
Why doth thy hand so kindly rear
A useless cumberer of the ground,
On which so little fruit is found?

3 Still let the barren fig-tree stand
Upheld and fostered by thy hand;
And let its fruit and verdure be
A grateful tribute, Lord, to thee.

182

Mystery.

B. BEDDOME.

WAIT, O my soul! thy Maker's will;
Tumultuous passions, all be still!
Nor let a murmuring thought arise;
His ways are just, his counsels wise.

2 He in the thickest darkness dwells,
Performs his work, the cause conceals;
But, though his methods are unknown,
Judgment and truth support his throne.

3 In heaven, and earth, and air, and seas,
He executes his firm decrees;
And by his saints it stands confessed,
That what he does is ever best.

4 Wait, then, my soul! submissive wait,
Prostrate before his awful seat;
And, 'mid the terrors of his rod,
Trust in a wise and gracious God.

THE spacious firmament on high,
With all the blue ethereal sky,
And spangled heavens, a shining frame,
Their great Original proclaim:
The unwearied sun, from day to day,
Does his Creator's power display;
And publishes to every land
The work of an almighty hand.

2 Soon as the evening shades prevail,
The moon takes up the wondrous tale;
And nightly, to the listening earth,
Repeats the story of her birth;
While all the stars that round her burn,
And all the planets in their turn,
Confirm the tidings as they roll,
And spread the truth from pole to pole.

3 What though in solemn silence, all
Move round the dark terrestrial ball,—
What though no real voice nor sound
Amid their radiant orbs be found,—
In reason's ear they all rejoice,
And utter forth a glorious voice,
For ever singing as they shine,—
“The hand that made us is divine.”

In the Seasons.

P. DODDRIDGE.

ETERNAL Source of every joy,
Well may thy praise our lips employ,
While in thy temple we appear,
To hail thee, sovereign of the year!
Wide as the wheels of nature roll,
Thy hand supports and guides the whole,
The sun is taught by thee to rise,
And darkness when to vail the skies.

2 The flowery spring at thy command,
Perfumes the air, adorns the land;
The summer rays with vigor shine,
To raise the corn, to cheer the vine.
Thy hand, in autumn, richly pours,
Through all our coasts redundant stores:
And winters, softened by thy care,
No more the face of horror wear.

3 Seasons and months, and weeks and days,
Demand successive songs of praise;
And be the grateful homage paid,
With morning light and evening shade.
Here in thy house let incense rise,
And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes,
Till to those lofty heights we soar,
Where days and years revolve no more.

Thy tender care bestowed,
Before my infant heart conceived
From whom those comforts flowed.

3 When, in the slippery paths of youth,
With heedless steps, I ran,
Thine arm, unseen, conveyed me safe,
And led me up to man.

4 Ten thousand thousand precious gifts
My daily thanks employ;
Nor is the least a cheerful heart,

LORD of all being; throned afar,

Star of our hope, thy softened light
Cheers the long watches of the night.

Our noontide is thy gracious dawn;
Our rainbow arch thy mercy's sign;
All, save the clouds of sin, are thine !

4 Lord of all life, below, above,

Before thy ever-blazing throne

Sovereignty.

RAY PALMER.

LORD, my weak thought in vain would climb
To search the starry vault profound;
In vain would wing her flight sublime,
To find creation's outmost bound.

2 But weaker yet that thought must prove
To search thy great eternal plan,—
Thy sovereign counsels, born of love
Long ages ere the world began.

3 When my dim reason would demand
Why that, or this, thou dost ordain,
By some vast deep I seem to stand,
Whose secrets I must ask in vain.

4 When doubts disturb my troubled breast,
And all is dark as night to me,
Here, as on solid rock, I rest;
That so it seemeth good to thee.

4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies;

He knows the sense I mean.
- 4 Oh, wondrous knowledge, deep and high,
Where can a creature hide?
Within thy circling arms I lie,

THERE is a book that all may read,
Which heavenly truth imparts,
And all the lore its scholars need,
Pure eyes and Christian hearts.

- 2 The works of God above, below,

Are pages in that book, to show
How God himself is found.
- 3 The glorious sky, embracing all,

Wherewith encompassed, great and small
In peace and order move.
- 4 The dew of heaven is like thy grace,
It steals in silence down;
But where it lights, the favored place
By richest fruits is known.

Give me a heart to find out thee,

Would soon betray my rest.
- 3 If, o'er my sins, I think to draw
The curtains of the night,
Those flaming eyes, that guard thy law,
Would turn the shades to light.

- 4 The apostles' glorious company,
And prophets crowned with light,
With all the martyrs' noble host,
Thy constant praise recite.
- 5 The holy church throughout the world,
O Lord, confesses thee,
That thou the eternal Father art,
Of boundless majesty.

Eternity.

I. WATTS.

- GREAT God! how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.
- 2 Thy throne eternal ages stood,
Ere seas or stars were made:
Thou art the ever-living God,
Were all the nations dead.
- 3 Eternity, with all its years,
Stands present in thy view;
To thee there's nothing old appears—
Great God! there's nothing new.
- 4 Our lives through various scenes are drawn,
And vexed with trifling cares;
While thine eternal thought moves on
Thine undisturbed affairs.
- 5 Great God! how infinite art thou!
What worthless worms are we!
Let the whole race of creatures bow,
And pay their praise to thee.

I. WATTS.

- I SING the almighty power of God,
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at his command,
And all the stars obey.
- 2 I sing the goodness of the Lord,
That filled the earth with food;
He formed the creatures with his word,
And then pronounced them good.
Lord! how thy wonders are displayed
Where'er I turn mine eye!
If I survey the ground I tread,
Or gaze upon the sky!
- 3 There's not a plant or flower below
But makes thy glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow
By order from thy throne.
Creatures that borrow life from thee
Are subject to thy care;
There's not a place where we can flee,
But God is present there.

206

Mystery.

J. PAWCRTT.

Tu way, O Lord, is in the sea;
Thy paths I cannot trace,
Nor comprehend the mystery
Of thine unbounded grace.

As, through a glass, I dimly see
The wonders of thy love;
How little do I know of thee,
Or of the joys above!

- 2 'Tis but in part I know thy will;
I bless thee for the sight:
When will thy love the rest reveal,
In glory's clearer light?
With rapture shall I then survey
Thy providence and grace;
And spend an everlasting day
In wonder, love, and praise.

207

Omniscience.—Ps. 139.

J. THOMPSON.

JEHOVAH God! thy gracious power
On every hand we see;
Oh, may the blessings of each hour
Lead all our thoughts to thee.
Thy power is in the ocean deeps,
And reaches to the skies;
Thine eye of mercy never sleeps,
Thy goodness never dies.

- 2 From morn till noon, till latest eve,
The hand of God we see;
And all the blessings we receive,
Ceasless proceed from thee.
In all the varying scenes of time,
On thee our hopes depend;
In every age, in every clime,
Our Father and our Friend.

208

Faithfulness.

I. WATTS.

BEGIN, my tongue, some heavenly theme,
And speak some boundless thing;
The mighty works or mightier name
Of our eternal King.

2 Tell of his wondrous faithfulness,
And sound his power abroad;
Sing the sweet promise of his grace,
And the performing God.

3 His very word of grace is strong,
As that which built the skies;
The voice that rolls the stars along,
Speaks all the promises.

4 Oh, might I hear thy heavenly tongue
But whisper, "Thou art mine!"
Those gentle words should raise my song
To notes almost divine.

209

Providence.

W. COWPER.

God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

2 Deep in unfathomable mines
Of never-failing skill,
He treasures up his bright designs,
And works his sovereign will.

3 Ye fearful saints, fresh courage take!
The clouds ye so much dread,
Are big with mercy, and will break
In blessings on your head.

4 Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.

5 His purposes will ripen fast,
Unfolding every hour;
The bud may have a bitter taste,
But sweet will be the flower.

6 Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.

210

Holiness.

J. NEEDHAM.

HOLY and reverend is the name
Of our eternal King,
Thrice holy Lord! the angels cry;
Thrice holy! let us sing.

2 The deepest reverence of the mind,
Pay, O my soul! to God;
Lift with thy hands a holy heart
To his sublime abode.

3 With sacred awe pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach;
A broken heart shall please him more
Than the best forms of speech.

4 Thou holy God! preserve our souls
From all pollution free;
The pure in heart are thy delight,
And they thy face shall see.

R. MANT.

LORD, thy glory fills the heaven;
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Heaven is still with anthems ringing;
Earth takes up the angels' cry,
Holy, holy, holy, singing,
Lord of hosts, thou Lord most high.

2 Ever thus in God's high praises,
Brethren, let our tongues unite,
While our thoughts his greatness raises,
And our love his gifts excite:
With his seraph train before him,
With his holy church below,
Thus unite we to adore him,
Bid we thus our anthem flow.

3 Lord, thy glory fills the heaven,
Earth is with its fullness stored;
Unto thee be glory given,
Holy, holy, holy Lord!
Thus thy glorious name confessing,
We adopt the angels' cry,
Holy, holy, holy, blessing
Thee, the Lord our God most high!

212*Grace.*

F. S. KEY

LORD, with glowing heart I'd praise thee
For the bliss thy love bestows;
For the pardoning grace that saves me,
And the peace that from it flows:
Help, O God, my weak eudeavor;
This dull soul to rapture raise;
Thou must light the flame, or never
Can my soul be warmed to praise.

2 Praise, my soul, the God that sought thee,
Wretched wanderer, far astray;
Found thee lost, and kindly brought thee
From the paths of death away;
Praise, with love's devoutest feeling,
Him who saw thy guilt-born fear,
And, the light of hope revealing,
Bade the blood-stained cross appear.

3 Lord, this bosom's ardent feeling
Vainly would my lips express:
Low before thy footstool kneeling,
Deign thy suppliant's prayer to bless;
Let thy grace, my soul's chief treasure,
Love's pure flame within me raise;
And, since words can never measure,
Let my life show forth thy praise.

Mercy.

F. W. FABER.

- THERE'S a wideness in God's mercy,
 Like the wideness of the sea:
 There's a kindness in his justice,
 Which is more than liberty.
 2 There is welcome for the sinner,
 And more graces for the good;
 There is mercy with the Saviour;
 There is healing in his blood.
 3 For the love of God is broader
 Than the measure of man's mind;
 And the heart of the Eternal
 Is most wonderfully kind.
 4 If our love were but more simple,
 We should take him at his word;
 And our lives would be all sunshine
 In the sweetness of our Lord.

1. A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never fail - ing; Our Helper he, a - mid the flood

 His craft and power are great, And armed with cruel hate, On earth is not his e - qual.

215 "A Mighty Fortress." F. H. HEDGE, tr.

A MIGHTY fortress is our God,
 A bulwark never failing:
 Our Helper he, amid the flood
 Of mortal ills prevailing.
 For still our ancient foe
 Doth seek to work his woe;
 His craft and power are great,
 And armed with cruel hate,
 On earth is not his equal.

2 Did we in our own strength confide,
 Our striving would be losing;
 Were not the right man on our side,
 The man of God's own choosing.
 Dost ask who that may be?
 Christ Jesu, it is he;
 Lord Sabaoth is his name,
 From age to age the same,
 And he must win the battle.

3 And though this world, with devils filled,
 Should threaten to undo us;
 We will not fear, for God hath willed
 His truth to triumph through us.
 The prince of darkness grim,—
 We tremble not for him;
 His rage we can endure,
 For lo! his doom is sure,
 One little word shall fell him!

4 That word above all earthly powers—
 No thanks to them—abideth;
 The Spirit and the gifts are ours
 Through him who with us sideth.
 Let goods and kindred go,
 This mortal life also:
 The body they may kill:
 God's truth abideth still,
 His kingdom is for ever.

216

"God alone."

H. W. BAKER.

REJOICE to-day with one accord,
 Sing out with exultation;
 Rejoice and praise our mighty Lord,
 Whose arm hath brought salvation;
 His works of love proclaim
 The greatness of his name;
 For he is God alone,
 Who hath his mercy shown;

Let all his saints adore him.

2 When in distress to him we cried,
 He heard our sad complaining;
 Oh, trust in him, whate'er betide,
 His love is all sustaining;
 Triumphant songs of praise
 To him our hearts shall raise;
 Now every voice shall say,
 "Oh, praise our God alway;"

Let all his saints adore him.

217*Bounteous Care.* C. WINKWORTH, tr.

NOW THANK we all our God,
 With heart, and hands, and voices,
 Who wondrous things hath done,
 In whom the world rejoices;
 Who from our mother's arms
 Hath blessed us on our way
 With countless gifts of love,
 And still is ours to-day.
 2 Oh, may this bounteous God
 Through all our life be near us,
 With ever joyful hearts
 And blessed peace to cheer us;
 To keep us in his grace,
 And guide us when perplexed,
 And free us from all ills
 In this world and the next.

218*Eternity.* C. WINKWORTH, tr.

O THOU essential Word,
 Who wast from everlasting
 With God, for thou wast God;
 On thee our burden casting,
 O Saviour of our race,
 Welcome indeed thou art,
 Redeemer, Fount of Grace,
 To this my longing heart.
 2 Come, self-existent Word,
 And speak thou in my spirit;
 The soul where thou art heard,
 Doth endless peace inherit.

Thou Light that lightenest all,
 Abide through faith in me,
 Nor let me from thee fall,
 Nor seek a guide but thee.

219*Beneficence.*

A. T. PIERSON.

TO THEE, O God, we raise
 Our voice in choral singing;
 We come with prayer and praise,
 Our hearts' oblations bringing;
 Thou art our fathers' God,
 And ever shalt be ours;
 Our lips and lives shall laud
 Thy name, with all our powers.
 2 Thy goodness, like the dew
 On Hermon's hill descending,
 Is every morning new,
 And tells love unending.
 We bless thy tender care
 That led our wayward feet,
 Past every fatal snare,
 To streams and pastures sweet.
 2 We bless thy Son, who bore
 The cross, for sinners dying;
 Thy Spirit we adore,
 The precious blood applying.
 Let work and worship send
 Their incense unto thee;
 Till song and service blend,
 Beside the crystal sea.

2 Father, let me taste thy love;
 Saviour, fill my soul with peace;
 Spirit, come my heart to move:

 Father, Son, and Spirit—thou
 One Jehovah, shed abroad
 All thy grace within me now;
 Be my Father and my God!

221*"Holy, holy, holy."*

J. MONTGOMERY.

Holy, holy, holy Lord
 God of Hosts! when heaven and earth,
 Out of darkness, at thy word
 Issued into glorious birth,
 All thy works before thee stood,
 And thine eye beheld them good,
 While they sung with sweet accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

2 Holy, holy, holy! thee,
 One Jehovah evermore,
 Father, Son, and Spirit! we,
 Dust and ashes, would adore;

Lightly by the world esteemed,
 From that world by thee redeemed,
 Sing we here with glad accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

3 Holy, holy, holy! all
 Heaven's triumphant choir shall sing,
 While the ransomed nations fall
 At the footstool of their King:
 Then shall saints and seraphim,
 Harps and voices, swell one hymn,
 Blending in sublime accord,
 Holy, holy, holy Lord!

222*Divine Presence.*

R. GRANT.

LORD of earth! thy forming hand
 Well this beauteous frame hath planned;
 Woods that wave, and hills that tower,
 Ocean rolling in his power:
 Yet, amid this scene so fair,
 Should I cease thy smile to share,
 What were all its joys to me?
 Whom have I on earth but thee?

2 Lord of heaven! beyond our sight
 Shines a world of purer light;
 There in love's unclouded reign
 Parted hands shall meet again:
 Oh, that world is passing fair!
 Yet, if thou wert absent there,
 What were all its joys to me?
 Whom have I in heaven but thee?

Wisdom and Love.

J. BOWRING.

God is love ; his mercy brightens

All the path in which we rove ;
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens ;
God is wisdom, God is love.

2 Chance and change are busy ever ;
Man decays, and ages move ;
But his mercy waneth never ;
God is wisdom, God is love.

3 Ev'n the hour that darkest seemeth,
Will his changeless goodness prove ;
From the gloom his brightness streameth ;
God is wisdom, God is love.

4 He with earthly cares entwineth
Hope and comfort from above ;
Everywhere his glory shineth ;
God is wisdom, God is love.

Omnipresence.

J. CONDER.

BEYOND, beyond the boundless sea,

Above that dome of sky,
Further than thought itself can flee,
Thy dwelling is on high :
Yet dear the awful thought to me,
That thou, my God ! art nigh :—

2 Art nigh, and yet my laboring mind
Feels after thee in vain—
Thee in these works of power to find,
Or to thy seat attain ;
Thy messenger—the stormy wind ;
Thy path—the trackless main.

3 These speak of thee with loud acclaim ;
They thunder forth thy praise—
The glorious honor of thy name,
The wonders of thy ways ;
But thou art not in tempest-flame,
Nor in the noon-day blaze.

4 We hear thy voice, when thunders roll
Through the wide fields of air :
The waves obey thy dread control ;
Yet still thou art not there :
Where shall I find him, O my soul ?
Who yet is everywhere ?

5 Oh, not in circling depth or height,
But in the conscious breast,
Present to faith, though veiled from sight,
There doth his Spirit rest :
Oh, come, thou Presence infinite !
And make thy creature blest.

Goodness.

P. DODDRIDGE

TRIUMPHANT Lord, thy goodness reigns
Through all the wide celestial plains ;
And its full streams unceasing flow
Down to the abodes of men below.

2 Through nature's work its glories shine ;
The cares of providence are thine ;
And grace erects our ruined frame
A fairer temple to thy name.

3 Oh, give to every human heart
To taste, and feel how good thou art ;
With grateful love and reverent fear,
To know how blest thy children are.

Glory.

T. BLACKLOCK.

COME, O my soul ! in sacred lays
Attempt thy great Creator's praise :
But, oh, what tongue can speak his fame ?
What mortal verse can reach the theme ?

2 Enthroned amid the radiant spheres,
He glory like a garment wears ;
To form a robe of light divine,
Ten thousand suns around him shine.

3 In all our Maker's grand designs,
Almighty power with wisdom shines ;
His works thro' all this wondrous frame,
Declare the glory of his name.

4 Raised on devotion's lofty wing,
Do thou, my soul, his glories sing ;
And let his praise employ thy tongue,
Till listening worlds shall join the song !

The Trinity

We give immortal praise
For God the Father's love,
For all our comforts here,
And better hopes above :
He sent his own eternal Son
To die for sins that we had done.

2 To God the Son belongs
Immortal glory too,
Who bought us with his blood
From everlasting woe :
And now he lives, and now he reigns,
And sees the fruit of all his pains.

3 To God the Spirit's name
Immortal worship give,
Whose new-creating power
Makes the dead sinner live :
His work completes the great design,
And fills the soul with joy divine.

4 Almighty God ! to thee
Be endless honors done,
The undivided Three,
The great and glorious One :
Where reason fails, with all her powers,
There faith prevails, and love adores.

Majesty.—Ps. 18.

T. STERNHOLD.

THE Lord descended from above,
And bowed the heavens most high :
And underneath his feet he cast
The darkness of the sky.

2 On cherub and on cherubim,
Full royally he rode ;
And on the wings of mighty winds
Came flying all abroad.

3 He sat serene upon the floods,
Their fury to restrain ;
And he, as sovereign Lord and King,
For evermore shall reign.

4 The Lord will give his people strength,
Whereby they shall increase ;
And he will bless his chosen flock
With everlasting peace.

5 Give glory to his awful name,
And honor him alone ;
Give worship to his majesty,
Upon his holy throne.

Love.

J. YOUNG.

Oh, for a shout of joy,
Worthy the theme we sing ;
To this divine employ
Our hearts and voices bring ;
Sound, sound, thro' all the earth abroad,
The love, the eternal love of God.

2 Unnumbered myriads stand,
Of seraphs bright and fair,
Or bow at thy right hand,
And pay their homage there ;
But strive in vain with loudest chord,
To sound thy wondrous love, O Lord.

3 Yet sinners saved by grace,
In songs of lower key,
In every age and place,
Have sung the mystery,—
Have told in strains of sweet accord,
Thy love, thy sovereign love, O Lord.

4 Though earth and hell assail,
And doubts and fears arise,
The weakest shall prevail,
And grasp the heavenly prize,
And through an endless age record
Thy love, thy changeless love, O Lord.

Grace.—Ps. 138.

I. WATTS.

WITH all my powers of heart and tongue
I'll praise my Maker in my song :
Angels shall hear the notes I raise,
Approve the song, and join the praise.

2 I'll sing thy truth and mercy, Lord ;
I'll sing the wonders of thy word ;
Not all the works and names below,
So much thy power and glory show.

3 To God I cried when troubles rose ;
He heard me, and subdued my foes ;
He did my rising fears control,
And strength diffused thro' all my soul.

4 Amidst a thousand snares I stand,
Upheld and guarded by thy hand ;
Thy words my fainting soul revive,
And keep my dying faith alive.

5 Grace will complete what grace begins,
To save from sorrows and from sins ;
The work that wisdom undertakes,
Eternal mercy ne'er forsakes.

“Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you Till morning's joy shall end the night of come:”
And, through the dark its echoes sweetly And life's long shadows break in cloud-ring,

The music of the gospel leads us home.—

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,

Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to

Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above,
Till morning's joy shall end the night of

One fix the sinner's wondering eye.
Hark! hark! to God the chorus breaks
From every bough, from every grove;
But one alone the Saviour speaks.—
It is the Star of Bethlehem.

1 Once on the raging seas I rode,
The storm was loud, the night was dark.
The tempest roared, and wildly blawed
The wind that passed my founders bark.
Deep loom'd then my vital bane;
Death-struck, I ceased the tide to stem;
When suddenly a star arose,
It was the star of Bethlehem!

1 It was my guide, my light, my all;
It bade my dark forebodings cease,
And through the storm and danger's thral
It led me to the port of peace.
Now safely moored, my peril's o'er,
I'll sing free in sinner's diales,
For ever and for eversore.
The star, the Star of Bethlehem!

ALL praise to thee, eternal Lord,
Clothed in a garb of flesh and blood;
Choosing a manger for thy throne,
While worlds on worlds are thine alone !

2 Once did the skies before thee bow;
A virgin's arms contain thee now;
Angels, who did in thee rejoice,
Now listen for thine infant voice.

3 A little child, thou art our guest,
That weary ones in thee may rest;
Forlorn and lowly is thy birth,
That we may rise to heaven from earth.

4 Thou comest in the darksome night
To make us children of the light;
To make us, in the realms divine,
Like thine own angels round thee shine.

5 All this for us thy love hath done;
By this to thee our love is won;
For this we tune our cheerful lays,
And shout our thanks in ceaseless praise.

BEFORE the heavens were spread abroad,
From everlasting was the Word;
With God he was, the Word was God !
And must divinely be adored.

2 Ere sin was born, or Satan fell,
He led the host of morning stars:
His generation who can tell,
Or count the number of his years ?

3 But lo, he leaves those heavenly forms:
The Word descends and dwells in clay,
That he may converse hold with worms,
Dressed in such feeble flesh as they.

4 Mortals with joy behold his face,
The eternal Father's only Son:
How full of truth, how full of grace,
When in his eyes the Godhead shone !

To learn new mysteries here, and tell

Hail the Sun of Righteousness!

C. M. D. "The Age of Gold."

E. H. SEARS.

It came upon the midnight clear,
That glorious song of old,
From angels bending near the earth
To touch their harps of gold ;
" Peace to the earth, good-will to man,
From heaven's all-gracious King :"
The earth in solemn stillness lay,
To hear the angels sing.

2 Still through the cloven skies they
With peaceful wings unfurled ; [come,
And still celestial music floats
O'er all the weary world ;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on heavenly wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds,
The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye, beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way,
With painful steps and slow ;—
Look up ! for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing ;
Oh, rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing !

4 For lo ! the days are hastening on,
By prophet-bards foretold,
When with the ever-circling years
Comes round the age of gold !
When peace shall over all the earth
Its final splendors fling,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing !

HAIL the night, all hail the morn,
When the Prince of Peace was born !
When, amid the wakeful fold,
Tidings good the angels told.
Now our solemn chant we raise
Duly to the Saviour's praise ;
Now with carol hymns we bless
Christ the Lord, our righteousness.

2 While resounds the joyful cry,
" Glory be to God on high,
Peace on earth, good-will to men !"
Gladly we respond, " Amen !"
Thus we greet this holy day,
Pouring forth our festive lay ;
Thus we tell, with saintly mirth,
Of Immanuel's wondrous birth.

BRIGHTEST and best of the sons of the
morning !

Dawn on our darkness and lend us
thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is laid.

2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining ;

Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall :

Angels adore him, in slumber reclining,
Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all !

3 Say shall we yield him, in costly devotion,

Odors of Edom, and offerings divine ?
Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,

Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine ?

4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation,
Vainly with gold would his favor secure :
Richer, by far, is the heart's adoration ;
Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor.

5 Brightest and best of the sons of the
morning !

Dawn on our darkness and lend us
thine aid ;
Star of the East, the horizon adorning,
Guide where our infant Redeemer is

God with us ! oh, glorious name !
Let it shine in endless fame ;
God and man in Christ unite ;
Oh, mysterious depth and height !

2 God with us ! the eternal Son
Took our soul, our flesh, and bone ;
Now, ye saints, his grace admire,
Swell the song with holy fire.

3 God with us ! but tainted not
With the first transgressor's blot ;
Yet did he our sins sustain,
Bear the guilt, the curse, the pain.

4 God with us ! oh, wondrous grace !
Let us see him face to face ;
That we may Immanuel sing,
As we ought, our God and King !

252c. m. Incarnation.

A. STEELE.

AWAKE, awake the sacred song
To our incarnate Lord !
Let every heart and every tongue
Adore the eternal Word.
2 That awful Word, that sovereign
Power,
By whom the worlds were made—
Oh, happy morn ! illustrious hour !—
Was once in flesh arrayed !
3 Then shone almighty power and love,
In all their glorious forms,
When Jesus left his throne above,
To dwell with sinful worms.
4 Adoring angels tuned their songs
To hail the joyful day ;
With rapture then let mortal tongues
Their grateful worship pay.

253c. m. The Promised Lord.

P. DODDRIDGE.

HARK, the glad sound ! the Saviour
The Saviour promised long ; [comes,
Let every heart prepare a throne,
And every voice a song.
2 He comes, the prisoner to release,
In Satan's bondage held ;
The gates of brass before him burst,
The iron fetters yield.
3 He comes, from thickest films of vice
To clear the mental ray,
And, on the eyes long closed in night,
To pour celestial day.
4 He comes, the broken heart to bind,
The bleeding soul to cure,
And, with the treasures of his grace,
Enrich the humble poor.
5 Our glad hosannas, Prince of Peace,
Thy welcome shall proclaim,
And heaven's eternal arches ring
With thy belovéd name.

254c. m. The Gospel Song.

S. MEDLEY.

MORTALS, awake, with angels join
And chant the solemn lay ;
Joy, love, and gratitude combine
To hail the auspicious day.
2 In heaven the rapturous song began,
And sweet seraphic fire
Through all the shining legions ran,
And strung and tuned the lyre.

3 Swift through the vast expanse it flew,
And loud the echo rolled ;
The theme, the song, the joy, was new,
'T was more than heaven could hold.
4 Down through the portals of the sky
The impetuous torrent ran ;
And angels flew, with eager joy,
To bear the news to man.
5 Hark ! the cherubic armies shout,
And glory leads the song ;
"Good-will and peace" are heard thro'-
Th' harmonious angel-throng. [out
6 With joy the chorus we'll repeat,—
"Glory to God on high !
Good-will and peace are now complete ;
Jesus was born to die !"

255L. M. Jesus' Birth.

ANON.

WAKE, O my soul, and hail the morn,
For unto us a Saviour's born ;
See ! how the angels wing their way,
To usher in the glorious day !
2 Hark ! what sweet music, what a song,
Sounds from the bright, celestial throng !
Sweet song, whose melting sounds impart
Joy to each raptured, listening heart.
3 Come, join the angels in the sky,
Glory to God, who reigns on high ;
Let peace and love on earth abound,
While time revolves and years roll round.

256

H. M. "The notes of joy."

A. REED.

HARK ! hark !—the notes of joy
Roll o'er the heavenly plains,
And seraphs find employ
For their sublimest strains ;
Some new delight in heaven is known ;
Loud sound the harps around the throne.
2 Hark ! hark !—the sounds draw nigh,
The joyful hosts descend ;
Jesus forsakes the sky,
To earth his footsteps bend ;
He comes to bless our fallen race ;
He comes with messages of grace.
3 Bear—bear the tidings round ;
Let every mortal know
What love in God is found,
What pity he can show ;
Ye winds that blow ! ye waves that roll !
Bear the glad news from pole to pole.

How SWEETLY flowed the gospel sound

From lips of gentleness and grace,

So pure, so made to live in light?

Oh, who like thee did ever go

So patient through a world of woe ?

3 Oh, who like thee so humbly bore
The scorn, the scoffs of men, before?
So meek, forgiving, godlike, high,
So glorious in humility ?4 Even death, which sets the prisoner free,
Was pang, and scoff, and scorn to thee;
Yet love through all thy torture glowed,
And mercy with thy life-blood flowed.5 Oh, in thy light be mine to go,
Illuming all my way of woe !
And give me ever on the road
To trace thy footsteps, Son of God.259"He healed them."*

J. MONTGOMERY.

WHEN, like a stranger on our sphere,
The lowly Jesus wandered here,
Where'er he went, affliction fled,
And sickness reared her fainting head.2 The eye that rolled in irksome night,
Beheld his face—for God is light;
The opening ear, the loosened tongue,
His precepts heard, his praises sung.3 With bounding steps the halt and lame,
To hail their great Deliverer came;
O'er the cold grave he bowed his head,
He spake the word, and raised the dead.4 Despairing madness, dark and wild,
In his inspiring presence smiled;
The storm of horror ceased to roll,
And reason lightened through the soul.5 Through paths of loving-kindness led,
Where Jesus triumphed we would tread;
To all, with willing hands dispense
The gifts of our benevolence.

Around thy steps below;
What patient love was seen in all
Thy life and death of woe.

2 For, ever on thy burdened heart
A weight of sorrow hung;
Yet no ungentle, murmuring word
Escaped thy silent tongue.

3 Thy foes might hate, despise, revile,
Thy friends unfaithful prove;
Unwearied in forgiveness still,
Thy heart could only love.

4 Oh, give us hearts to love like thee!
Like thee, O Lord, to grieve
Far more for others' sins, than all

His lips with grace o'erflow.

2 No mortal can with him compare,
Among the sons of men;
Fairer is he than all the fair
That fill the heavenly train.

3 He saw me plunged in deep distress,
He flew to my relief;
For me he bore the shameful cross,
And carried all my grief.

4 To him I owe my life and breath,
And all the joys I have;
He makes me triumph over death,
He saves me from the grave.

5 To heaven, the place of his abode,
He brings my weary feet;
Shows me the glories of my God,
And makes my joy complete.

6 Since from his bounty I receive
Such proofs of love divine,
Had I a thousand hearts to give,
Lord! they should all be thine.

"His free ways."

F. W. FABER.

Oh, see how Jesus trusts himself
Unto our childish love!
As though by his free ways with us
Our earnestness to prove.

2 His sacred name a common word
On earth he loves to hear;
There is no majesty in him
Which love may not come near.

3 The light of love is round his feet,
His paths are never dim;
And he comes nigh to us when we
Dare not come nigh to him.

4 Let us be simple with him then,
Not backward, stiff, nor cold,
As though our Bethlehem could be
What Sinai was of old.

270

The name "Jesus."

A. STEELE.

THE Saviour! oh, what endless charms
Dwell in the blissful sound!
Its influence every fear disarms,
And spreads sweet comfort round.

2 The almighty Former of the skies
Stooped to our vile abode;
While angels viewed with wondering eyes
And hailed the incarnate God.

3 Oh, the rich depths of love divine!
Of bliss a boundless store!
Dear Saviour, let me call thee mine;
I cannot wish for more.

4 On thee alone my hope relies,
Beneath thy cross I fall;
My Lord, my Life, my Sacrifice,
My Saviour, and my All!

INVITATION. C. M.

1. We may not climb the heavenly steeps To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the low - est deeps, For him no depths can drown.

271*The true Test.* J. G. WHITTIER.

- We may not climb the heavenly steeps
To bring the Lord Christ down;
In vain we search the lowest deeps,
For him no depths can drown.
2 But warm, sweet, tender, even yet
A present help is he;
And faith has yet its Olivet,
And love its Galilee.
3 The healing of the seamless dress
Is by our beds of pain;

We touch him in life's throng and press,
And we are whole again.

- 4 Through him the first fond prayers are said
Our lips of childhood frame;
The last low whispers of our dead
Are burdened with his name.
5 O Lord and Master of us all,
Whate'er our name or sign,
We own thy sway, we hear thy call,
We test our lives by thine!

272 "Jesus wept." E. DENNY.

JESUS wept! those tears are over,
But his heart is still the same;
Kinsman, Friend, and elder Brother,
Is his everlasting name.
Saviour, who can love like thee,
Gracious One of Bethany?

2 When the pangs of trial seize us,
When the waves of sorrow roll,
I will lay my head on Jesus,
Pillow of the troubled soul.
Surely, none can feel like thee,
Weeping One of Bethany!

3 Jesus wept! and still in glory,
He can mark each mourner's tear;
Living to retrace the story
Of the hearts he solaced here.
Lord, when I am called to die,
Let me think of Bethany.

4 Jesus wept! that tear of sorrow
Is a legacy of love;
Yesterday, to-day, to-morrow,
He the same doth ever prove.
Thou art all in all to me,
Living One of Bethany!

W. B. TAPPAN.

'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow
The star is dimmed that lately shone:
'Tis midnight; in the garden, now
The suffering Saviour prays alone.

- 2 'Tis midnight; and from all removed,
The Saviour wrestles lone with fears;
Ev'n that disciple whom he loved
Heeds not his Master's grief and tears.
- 3 'Tis midnight; and for others' guilt
The Man of Sorrows weeps in blood;
Yet he that hath in anguish knelt
Is not forsaken by his God.
- 4 'Tis midnight; and from ether-plains
Is borne the song that angels know;
Unheard by mortals are the strains
That sweetly soothe the Saviour's woe.

274*"Tis finished!"*

S. STENNELL.

"'Tis finished!"—so the Saviour cried,
And meekly bowed his head and died:
"'Tis finished!"—yes, the race is run,
The battle fought, the victory won.

- 2 "'Tis finished!—all that heaven foretold
By prophets in the days of old;
And truths are opened to our view
That kings and prophets never knew.
- 3 "'Tis finished!—Son of God, thy power
Hath triumphed in this awful hour;
And yet our eyes with sorrow see
That life to us was death to thee.
- 4 "'Tis finished!—let the joyful sound
Be heard through all the nations round:
'Tis finished!—let the triumph rise,
And swell the chorus of the skies.

A musical score for a four-part setting. The top two staves are in soprano range, and the bottom two are in bass range. The music consists of a series of eighth-note chords. The bass part has a sustained note on the first measure. The key signature is F major (one sharp). The time signature is common time (indicated by '4'). The vocal parts enter sequentially, starting with the soprano I, followed by soprano II, alto, and bass.

"The wondrous Cross."

L. WATTS.

WHEN I survey the wondrous cross,
 On which the Prince of glory died,
My richest gain I count but loss,
 And pour contempt on all my pride.

2 Forbid it, Lord ! that I should boast,
Save in the death of Christ, my God;
All the vain things that charm me most
I sacrifice them to his blood.

3 See, from his head, his hands, his feet,
Sorrow and love flow mingled down;
Did e'er such love and sorrow meet,
Or thorns compose so rich a crown?

4 His dying crimson, like a robe,
Spreads o'er his body on the tree;
Then I am dead to all the globe,
And all the globe is dead to me.

5 Were the whole realm of nature mine,
That were a present far too small;
Love so amazing, so divine,
Demands my soul, my life, my all.

276

"For me?"

H. BONAR.

JESUS, whom angel hosts adore,
 Became a man of griefs for me;
In love, though rich, becoming poor,
 That I through him enriched might be.

2 Though Lord of all, above, below,
He went to Olivet for me:
There drank my cup of wrath and woe,
When bleeding in Gethsemane.

3 The ever-blessed Son of God
Went up to Calvary for me;
There paid my debt, there bore my load,
In his own body on the tree.

4 Jesus, whose dwelling is the skies,
Went down into the grave for me;
There overcame my enemies,
There won the glorious victory.

5 'T is finished all: the veil is rent,
The welcome sure, the access free:—
Now then, we leave our banishment,
O Father, to return to thee!

277*"Grace unknown."*

I. WATTS.

ALAS! and did my Saviour bleed,
And did my Sovereign die?
Would he devote that sacred head
For such a worm as I?

2 Was it for crimes that I had done
He groaned upon the tree?

Amazing pity! grace unknown!
And love beyond degree!

3 Well might the sun in darkness hide,
And shut his glories in,
When Christ, the great Creator, died
For man, the creature's sin.

4 Thus might I hide my blushing face
While his dear cross appears;
Dissolve my heart in thankfulness,
And melt my eyes to tears.

5 But drops of grief can ne'er repay
The debt of love I owe;
Here, Lord, I give myself away,
'Tis all that I can do.

278*Suffered for sin.*

I. WATTS.

Oh, if my soul were formed for woe,
How would I vent my sighs!
Repentance should like rivers flow
From both my streaming eyes.

2 'Twas for my sins my dearest Lord
Hung on the curséd tree,
And groaned away a dying life
For thee, my soul! for thee.

3 Oh, how I hate these lusts of mine
That crucified my Lord;
Those sins that pierced and nailed his flesh
Fast to the fatal wood!

4 Yes, my Redeemer—they shall die;
My heart has so decreed;
Nor will I spare the guilty things
That made my Saviour bleed.

5 While with a melting, broken heart,
My murdered Lord I view,
I'll raise revenge against my sins,
And slay the murderers too.

The two Looks.

J. NEWTON.

I SAW One hanging on a tree,
 In agony and blood;
 Who fixed his languid eyes on me,
 As near the cross I stood.
 2 Sure, never, till my latest breath,
 Can I forget that look:
 It seemed to charge me with his death,
 Though not a word he spoke.

3 Alas! I knew not what I did,—
 But now my tears are vain;
 Where shall my trembling soul be hid,
 For I the Lord have slain!
 4 A second look he gave, that said,
 “I freely all forgive:
 This blood is for thy ransom paid;
 I die that thou mayst live.”
 5 Thus while his death my sin displays
 In all its blackest hue,
 Such is the mystery of grace,
 It seals my pardon too!

280

“He remembers Calvary.”

I. WATTS.

How CONDESCENDING and how kind
 Was God's eternal Son!
 Our misery reached his heavenly mind,
 And pity brought him down.
 2 He sunk beneath our heavy woes,
 To raise us to his throne;
 There's ne'er a gift his hand bestows,
 But cost his heart a groan.

- 3 This was compassion, like a God,
 That when the Saviour knew
 The price of pardon was his blood,
 His pity ne'er withdrew.
 4 Now, though he reigns exalted high,
 His love is still as great;
 Well he remembers Calvary,
 Nor let his saints forget.

281

“O Christ of God!”

RAY PALMER.

O JESUS, sweet the tears I shed,
 While at thy cross I kneel,
 Gaze on thy wounded, fainting head,
 And all thy sorrows feel.

2 My heart dissolves to see thee bleed,
 This heart so hard before;
 I hear thee for the guilty plead,
 And grief o'erflows the more.

3 I know this cleansing blood of thine
 Was shed, dear Lord, for me:
 For me, for all,—oh, grace divine!—
 Who look by faith on thee.

4 O Christ of God, O spotless Lamb,
 By love my soul is drawn;
 Henceforth, for ever, thine I am;
 Here life and peace are born.

5 In patient hope, the cross I'll bear,
 Thine arm shall be my stay;
 And thou, enthroned, my soul shalt spare,
 On thy great judgment-day.

J. BAKEWELL.

HAIL, thou once despised Jesus!
Crowned in mockery a king!
Thou didst suffer to release us;
Thou didst free salvation bring.
Hail, thou agonizing Saviour,
Bearer of our sin and shame!
By thy merits we find favor;
Life is given through thy name.

2 Paschal Lamb, by God appointed,
All our sins on thee were laid;
By Almighty Love anointed,
Thou hast full atonement made:
All thy people are forgiven
Through the virtue of thy blood;
Opened is the gate of heaven,
Peace is made 'twixt man and God.

283

On the cross.

R. LEE.

WHEN I view my Saviour bleeding,
For my sins, upon the tree;
Oh, how wondrous!—how exceeding
Great his love appears to me!
Floods of deep distress and anguish,
To impede his labors, came;
Yet they all could not extinguish
Love's eternal, burning flame.

2 Now redemption is completed,
Full salvation is procured;
Death and Satan are defeated,
By the sufferings he endured.

Now the gracious Mediator
Risen to the courts of bliss,
Claims from me, a sinful creature,
Pardon, righteousness, and peace!

3 Sure such infinite affection
Lays the highest claims to mine;
All my powers, without exception,
Should in fervent praises join.
Jesus, fit me for thy service;
Form me for thyself alone;
I am thy most costly purchase,—
Take possession of thine own.

284

Reproached.

MORAVIAN.

CROSS, reproach, and tribulation!
Ye to me are welcome guests,
When I have this consolation,
That my soul in Jesus rests.
The reproach of Christ is glorious!
Those who here his burden bear,
In the end shall prove victorious,
And eternal gladness share.

2 Bonds and stripes, and evil story,
Are our honorable crowns;
Pain is peace, and shame is glory,
Gloomy dungeons are as thrones.
Bear, then, the reproach of Jesus,
Ye who live a life of faith!
Lift triumphant songs and praises
Ev'n in martyrdom and death.

285 "Near the Cross." J. W. ALEXANDER, tr.

NEAR the cross was Mary weeping,
There her mournful station keeping,
Gazing on her dying Son:
There in speechless anguish groaning,
Yearning, trembling, sighing, moaning,
Through her soul the sword had gone!

2 But we have no need to borrow
Motives from the mother's sorrow,
At our Saviour's cross to mourn:
'Twas our sins brought him from heaven,
These the cruel nails had driven:
All his griefs for us were borne.

3 When no eye its pity gave us,
When there was no arm to save us,
He his love and power displayed:
By his stripes he wrought our healing,
By his death, our life revealing,
He for us the ransom paid.

4 Jesus, may thy love constrain us,
That from sin we may refrain us,
In thy griefs may deeply grieve:
Thee our best affections giving,
To thy glory ever living,
May we in thy glory live.

286 "It is finished." H. BONAR.

FROM the cross the blood is falling,
And to us a voice is calling

Like a trumpet silver-clear:
'Tis the voice announcing pardon—
It is finished, is its burden,
Pardon to the far and near.

2 Peace that glorious blood is sealing,
All our wounds for ever healing,
And removing every load;
Words of peace that voice has spoken,
Peace that shall no more be broken,
Peace between the soul and God.

287 "Day of darkness." F. H. HEDGE, tr.

'TWAS the day when God's Anointed
Died for us the death appointed,
Bleeding on the dreadful cross;
Day of darkness, day of terror,
Deadly fruit of ancient error,
Nature's fall, and Eden's loss !

2 Haste, prepare the bitter chalice !
Gentile hate and Jewish malice
Lift the royal Victim high;
Like the serpent, wonder-gifted,
Which the prophet once uplifted,
For a sinful world to die.

3 Conscious of the deed unholy,
Nature's pulses beat more slowly,
And the sun his light denied;
Darkness wrapped the sacred city,
And the earth with fear and pity
Trembled, when the Just One died

4 Not in vain for us uplifted,
Man of sorrows, wonder-gifted,
May that sacred symbol be;
Eminent amid the ages,
Guide of heroes and of sages,
May it guide us still to thee.

"Upon the cross."

J. WESLEY.

O JESUS, we adore thee,
Upon the cross, our King:
We bow our hearts before thee;
Thy gracious Name we sing:
That Name hath brought salvation,
That Name, in life our stay;
Our peace, our consolation
When life shall fade away.

2 Yet doth the world disdain thee,
Still pressing by thy cross:
Lord, may our hearts retain thee;
All else we count but loss.
The grief thy soul enduréd,
Who can that grief declare?
Thy pains have thus assuréd
That thou thy foes wilt spare.

3 Ah, Lord, our sins arraigned thee,
And nailed thee to the tree:
Our pride, O Lord, disdained thee;—
Yet deign our hope to be.
O glorious King, we bless thee,
No longer pass thee by;
O Jesus, we confess thee
Our Lord enthroned on high.

O LAMB of God! still keep me
Near to thy wounded side;
'Tis only there in safety
And peace I can abide!
What foes and snares surround me,
What doubts and fears within!
The grace that sought and found me,
Alone can keep me clean.

2 'Tis only in thee hiding
I know my life secure—
Only in thee abiding,
The conflict can endure:
Thine arm the victory gaineth
O'er every hateful foe;
Thy love my heart sustaineth
In all its care and woe.

3 Soon shall my eyes behold thee,
With rapture, face to face;
One half hath not been told me
Of all thy power and grace:
Thy beauty, Lord, and glory,
The wonders of thy love,
Shall be the endless story
Of all the saints above

Gethsemane.

F. D. HEMANS.

He knelt, the Saviour knelt and prayed,
When but his Father's eye
Looked through the lonely garden's shade,
On that dread agony ;
The Lord of all above, beneath,
Was bowed with sorrow unto death.
2 The sun set in a fearful hour,
The skies might well grow dim,
When this mortality had power
So to o'ershadow him !

That he who gave man's breath, might
The very depths of human woe. [know

3 He knew them all ; the doubt, the
The faint, perplexing dread ; [strife,
The mists that hang o'er parting life,
All darkened round his head ;
And the Deliverer knelt to pray ;
Yet passed it not, that cup, away.

4 It passed not, though the stormy wave
Had sunk beneath his tread ;
It passed not, though to him the grave
Had yielded up its dead.

But there was sent him from on high,
A gift of strength for man to die.

5 And was his mortal hour beset
With anguish and dismay ?
How may we meet our conflict yet,
In the dark, narrow way ?
How but through him, that path who
Save or we perish, Son of God ! [trod ?

Christ in the Desert.

J. F. THRUPP.

AWHILE in spirit, Lord, to thee
Into the desert would we flee ;
Awhile upon the barren steep
Thy fast with thee in spirit keep ;—

2 Awhile from thy temptation learn
The daily snares of sin to spurn,
And in our hearts to feel and own
Man liveth not by bread alone.

3 And while at thy command we pray,
Give us our bread from day to day,
May we with thee, O Christ, be fed,
Thou Word of God, thou Living Bread.

4 Incarnate Lord, we come to thee,
Thou knowest our infirmity ;
Be thou our Helper in the strife,
Be thou our true, our inward Life.

Thou who dost for sinners plead,
Help me in my time of need,
Jesus, Saviour, hear my cry !

With my heart of unbelief,
I, who am of sinners chief,
Jesus, lift to thee mine eye !

3 Foes without and fears within,
With no plea thy grace to win,
But that thou canst save from sin,
Jesus, to thy cross I fly !

4 There on thee I cast my care,
There to thee I raise my prayer,
Jesus, save me from despair,
Save me, save me, or I die !

When I feel temptation's power,
In the last and darkest hour,
Jesus, Saviour, be thou nigh !

RAY PALMER.

JESUS, Lamb of God, for me
Thou, the Lord of life, didst die ;
Whither—whither, but to thee,
Can a trembling sinner fly !
Death's dark waters o'er me roll,
Save, oh, save my sinking soul !

2 Never bowed a martyr's head
Weighed with equal sorrow down ;
Never blood so rich was shed,
Never king wore such a crown ;
To thy cross and sacrifice
Faith now lifts her tearful eyes.

3 All my soul, by love subdued,
Melts in deep contrition there ;
By thy mighty grace renewed,
New-born hope forbids despair :
Lord ! thou canst my guilt forgive,
Thou hast bid me look and live.

4 While with broken heart I kneel,
Sinks the inward storm to rest ;
Life—immortal life—I feel
Kindled in my throbbing breast ;
Thine—for ever thine—I am !
Glory to thee, bleeding Lamb !

L. M. "He lives again."

I. WATTS.

HE dies!—the friend of sinners dies;
 Lo! Salem's daughters weep around;
 A solemn darkness vails the skies;
 A sudden trembling shakes the ground.

2 Here's love and grief beyond degree:

The Lord of glory dies for men;
 But lo! what sudden joys we see,
 Jesus, the dead, revives again.

3 The rising God forsakes the tomb;

Up to his Father's court he flies;
 Cherubic legions guard him home,
 And shout him welcome to the skies.

4 Break off your tears, ye saints, and tell
 How high our great Deliverer reigns;
 Sing how he spoiled the hosts of hell,
 And led the tyrant Death in chains.

5 Say—live for ever, glorious King,
 Born to redeem, and strong to save!

Where now, O Death, where is thy sting?
 And where thy victory, boasting Grave?

 Oh, may his love—immortal flame—

 What mortal tongue display? [reach?
 Imagination's utmost stretch,
 In wonder, dies away.

3 Dear Lord! while we adoring pay
 Our humble thanks to thee,
 May every heart with rapture say,—
 "The Saviour died for me!"

4 Oh, may the sweet, the blissful theme,
 Fill every heart and tongue,
 Till strangers love thy charming name,
 And join the sacred song.

 Death! yield up thy mighty prey;
 See! the Saviour leaves the tomb,

 Louder notes of joyful praise;
 Let the earth's remotest bound
 Echo with the blissful sound.

3 Saints on earth, lift up your eyes,—
 Now to glory see him rise
 In long triumph through the sky,
 Up to waiting worlds on high.

4 Heaven unfolds its portals wide!
 Mighty Conqueror! through them ride;
 King of glory! mount thy throne,
 Boundless empire is thine own.

J. ALLEN.

GLORY to God on high!
 Let heaven and earth reply,
 "Praise ye his name!"
 His love and grace adore,
 Who all our sorrows bore;
 Sing loud for evermore,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

2 While they around the throne
 Cheerfully join in one,
 Praising his name,—
 Ye who have felt his blood
 Sealing your peace with God,
 Sound his dear name abroad,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

3 Join, all ye ransomed race,
 Our Lord and God to bless;
 Praise ye his name!
 In him we will rejoice,
 And make a joyful noise,
 Shouting with heart and voice,
 "Worthy the Lamb!"

299

H. M. "Rejoice!"

C. WESLEY.

REJOICE! the Lord is King;
 Your Lord and King adore:
 Mortals, give thanks and sing,
 And triumph evermore!

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
 Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

2 Jesus, the Saviour, reigns,
 The God of truth and love;
 When he had purged our stains,
 He took his seat above:

Lift up your heart, lift up your voice;
 Rejoice!—again I say, rejoice!

3 Rejoice in glorious hope:
 Jesus, the Judge, shall come,
 And take his servants up
 To their eternal home:

We soon shall hear the archangel's voice;
 The trump of God shall sound, Rejoice!

2 Thou art gone where now is given
What no mortal might could gain,
On the eternal throne of heaven,
In thy Father's power to reign.

Never shall the cross forsake me:
Lo! it glows with peace and joy.

- 3 When the sun of bliss is beaming
Light and love upon my way,
From the cross the radiance, streaming,
Adds more lustre to the day.
4 Bane and blessing, pain and pleasure,
By the cross are sanctified;
Peace is there, that knows no measure,
Joys that through all time abide.
5 In the cross of Christ I glory,
Towering o'er the wrecks of time;
All the light of sacred story
Gathers round its head sublime.

- 3 We, O Lord! with hearts adoring,
Follow thee above the sky:
Hear our prayers thy grace imploring,
Lift our souls to thee on high.
4 So when thou again in glory
On the clouds of heaven shall shine,
We thy flock shall stand before thee,
Owned for evermore as thine.

302 "Enthroned in glory." J. BAKEWELL.

JESUS, hail, enthroned in glory,
There for ever to abide;
All the heavenly hosts adore thee,
Seated at thy Father's side.
There for sinners thou art pleading;
There thou dost our place prepare ;
Ever for us interceding
Till in glory we appear.

2 Worship, honor, power and blessing,
Thou art worthy to receive;
Loudest praises, without ceasing,
Meet it is for us to give.
Help, ye bright angelic spirits,
Bring your sweetest, noblest lays;
Help to sing our Saviour's merits,
Help to chant Immanuel's praise.

303 "The blood that speaketh." C. WESLEY.

FATHER, hear the blood of Jesus,
Speaking in thine ears above:
From impending wrath release us;
Manifest thy pardoning love.
Oh, receive us to thy favor,—
For his only sake receive;
Give us to the bleeding Saviour,
Let us by his dying live.

2 "To thy pardoning grace receive them,"
Once he prayed upon the tree;
Still his blood cries out "Forgive them;
All their sins were laid on me."
Still our Advocate in heaven
Prays the prayer on earth begun,—
"Father, show their sins forgiven;
Father, glorify thy Son!"

304 "Shall see his face."

ANON.

"WE shall see Him," in our nature,
Seated on his lofty throne,
Loved, adored, by every creature,
Owned as God, and God alone !
There the hosts of shining spirits
Strike their harps, and loudly sing
To the praise of Jesus' merits,
To the glory of their King.

2 When we pass o'er death's dark river,
"We shall see him as he is,"
Resting in his love and favor,
Owning all the glory his.
There to cast our crowns before him,
Oh, what bliss the thought affords !
There for ever to adore him,
King of kings, and Lord of lords !

EASTER HYMN. 78.

J. WORGAN.

1. Christ, the Lord, is ris'n to - day, Al - le - lu - ia. Sons of men, and an-gels, say; Al - le - lu - ia. Raise your joys and triumphs high! Al - le - lu - ia.
ia. Sing, ye heavens! and earth, re - ply! Al - le - lu - ia.

305*He lives again.*

C. WESLEY.

CHRIST, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Sons of men, and angels, say;
Raise your joys and triumphs high!
Sing, ye heavens! and earth, reply!

2 Love's redeeming work is done,
Fought the fight, the battle won;
Lo, our Sun's eclipse is o'er;
Lo, he sets in blood no more.

3 Vain the stone, the watch, the seal;
Christ hath burst the gates of hell;
Death in vain forbids his rise;
Christ hath opened Paradise.

4 Lives again our glorious King;
"Where, O Death, is now thy sting?"
Once he died our souls to save;
"Where's thy victory, boasting Grave?"

5 Soar we now where Christ has led,
Following our exalted Head;
Made like him, like him we rise;
Ours the cross, the grave, the skies!

306*Joy in the Lord.*

T. KELLY.

JOYFUL be the hours to-day;
Joyful let the seasons be;
Let us sing, for well we may:
Jesus! we will sing of thee.

2 Should thy people silent be,
Then the very stones would sing:
What a debt we owe to thee,
Thee our Saviour, thee our King!

3 Joyful are we now to own,
Rapture thrills us as we trace
All the deeds thy love hath done,
All the riches of thy grace.

4 'Tis thy grace alone can save;
Every blessing comes from thee—
All we have, and hope to have,
All we are, and hope to be.

5 Thine the Name to sinners dear!
Thine the Name all names before!
Blesséd here and everywhere;
Blesséd now and evermore!

307

The Lord's Day.

C. WESLEY.

HAIL the day that sees him rise,
Glorious, to his native skies!
Christ, awhile to mortals given,
Enters now the gates of heaven.
2 There the glorious triumph waits;
Lift your heads, eternal gates!
Christ hath vanquished death and sin;
Take the King of glory in.
3 See, the heaven its Lord receives!
Yet he loves the earth he leaves:

Though returning to his throne,
Still he calls mankind his own.

4 Still for us he intercedes,
His prevailing death he pleads;
Near himself prepares a place,
Great Forerunner of our race.

5 What, though parted from our sight,
Far above yon starry height;
Thither our affections rise,
Following him beyond the skies.

"Hallelujah."

C. WINKWORTH, tr.

CHRIST the Lord is risen again,
Christ hath broken every chain;
Hark! angelic voices cry,
Singing evermore on high,
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!
2 He who bore all pain and loss,
Comfortless, upon the cross,
Lives in glory now on high,
Pleads for us, and hears our cry:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

3 He who slumbered in the grave
Is exalted now to save;
Now through Christendom it rings
That the Lamb is King of kings:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

4 Now he bids us tell abroad
How the lost may be restored,
How the penitent forgiven,
How we, too, may enter heaven:
Hallelujah! Praise the Lord!

The Return to Heaven.

T. KELLY.

JESUS comes, his conflict over,—
Comes to claim his great reward;
Angels round the Victor hover,
Crowding to behold their Lord;
Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
Crown him, everlasting King.

2 Yonder throne for him erected,
Now becomes the Victor's seat;
Lo, the Man on earth rejected!
Angels worship at his feet:
Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
Crown him, everlasting King.

3 Day and night they cry before him,—
“Holy, holy, holy Lord!”
All the powers of heaven adore him,
All obey his sovereign word;
Haste, ye saints! your tribute bring,
Crown him, everlasting King.

310

Isaiah 63: 1.

T. KELLY

Who is this that comes from Edom,
All his raiment stained with blood;
To the slave proclaiming freedom;
Bringing and bestowing good:
Glorious in the garb he wears,
Glorious in the spoils he bears?

2 'T is the Saviour, now victorious,
Travelling onward in his might;
'T is the Saviour, oh, how glorious
To his people is the sight!
Jesus now is strong to save;
Mighty to redeem the slave.

3 Why that blood his raiment staining?
'Tis the blood of many slain;
Of his foes there's none remaining,
None the contest to maintain:
Fallen they, no more to rise,
All their glory prostrate lies.

4 Mighty Victor, reign for ever;
Wear the crown so dearly won;
Never shall thy people, never
Cease to sing what thou hast done;
Thou hast fought thy people's foes;
Thou hast healed thy people's woes.

311

All glory to Christ.

T. KELLY.

GLORY, glory to our King!
Crowns unfading wreathes his head;
Jesus is the name we sing,—
Jesus, risen from the dead;
Jesus, Conqueror o'er the grave;
Jesus, mighty now to save.

2 Jesus is gone up on high:
Angels come to meet their King;
Shouts triumphant rend the sky,
While the Victor's praise they sing:
“Open now, ye heavenly gates!
'Tis the King of glory waits.”

3 Now behold him high enthroned,
Glory beaming from his face,
By adoring angels owned,
God of holiness and grace!
Oh, for hearts and tongues to sing—
“Glory, glory to our King!”

T. KELLY.

- HARK ! ten thousand harps and voices
Sound the note of praise above ;
Jesus reigns, and heaven rejoices ;
Jesus reigns, the God of love :
See, he sits on yonder throne ;
Jesus rules the world alone.
- 2 King of glory ! reign for ever—
Thine an everlasting crown ;
Nothing, from thy love, shall sever
Those whom thou hast made thine own ;—
Happy objects of thy grace,
Destined to behold thy face.

- 3 Saviour ! hasten thine appearing ;
Bring, oh, bring the glorious day,
When, the awful summons hearing,
Heaven and earth shall pass away ;—
Then, with golden harps, we'll sing,—
"Glory, glory to our King !"

313

We live in Him.

C. WORDSWORTH.

- SEE, the Conqueror mounts in triumph !
See the King in royal state,
Riding on the clouds, his chariot,
To his heavenly palace gate !
Hark ! the choirs of angel voices
Joyful hallelujahs sing,
And the portals high are lifted
To receive their heavenly King.
- 2 Who is this that comes in glory,
With the trump of jubilee ?

Lord of battles, God of armies,
He has gained the victory ;
He, who on the cross did suffer,
He, who from the grave arose,
He has vanquished sin and Satan,
He by death has spoiled his foes.

3 Thou hast raised our human nature,
On the clouds to God's right hand ;
There we sit in heavenly places,
There with thee in glory stand ;
Jesus reigns, adored by angels ;
Man with God is on the throne ;
Mighty Lord ! in thine ascension,
We by faith behold our own.

4 Lift us up from earth to heaven,
Give us wings of faith and love,
Gales of holy aspirations,
Wafting us to realms above ;
That, with hearts and minds uplifted,
We with Christ our Lord may dwell,
Where he sits enthroned in glory,
In the heavenly citadel.

5 So at last, when he appeareth,
We from out our graves may spring,
With our youth renewed like eagles',
Flocking round our heavenly King,
Caught up on the clouds of heaven,
And may meet him in the air—
Rise to realms where he is reigning,
And may reign for ever there.

Rich the trophies Jesus brings;
In the seat of power enthrone him,
 While the vault of heaven rings:
 Crown him! crown him!
Crown the Saviour King of kings!

3 Hark, those bursts of acclamation!
Hark, those loud, triumphant chords!

Jesus takes the highest station;
Oh, what joy the sight affords!
 Crown him! crown him!
King of kings and Lord of lords!

"It is finished?"

J. EVANS.

- HARK! the voice of love and mercy
Sounds aloud from Calvary;
See! it rends the rocks asunder,
Shakes the earth, and vails the sky:
 "It is finished!"
Hear the dying Saviour cry.

2 "It is finished!" oh, what pleasure
Do these charming words afford!
Heavenly blessings, without measure,
Flow to us from Christ, the Lord:
 "It is finished!"
Saints, the dying words record.

3 Tune your harps anew, ye seraphs;
Join to sing the pleasing theme:
All on earth and all in heaven,
Join to praise Immanuel's name:
 Hallelujah!
Glory to the bleeding Lamb!

Christ is God.

R. ROBINSON.

MIGHTY God! while angels bless thee,
May a mortal lisp thy name?
Lord of men, as well as angels!
Thou art every creature's theme:
Lord of every land and nation!
Ancient of eternal days!
Soundeth through the wide creation—
Be thy just and awful praise.

2 For the grandeur of thy nature,—
Grand, beyond a seraph's thought;
For the wonders of creation,
Works with skill and kindness wrought;
For thy providence, that governs
Through thine empire's wide domain,
Wings an angel, guides a sparrow;—
Blesséd be thy gentle reign.

3 For thy rich, thy free redemption,
Bright, though veiled in darkness long,
Thought is poor, and poor expression;
Who can sing that wondrous song?
Brightness of the Father's glory!
Shall thy praise unuttered lie?

Break, my tongue! such guilty silence,
Sing the Lord who came to die:—

4 From the highest throne of glory,
To the cross of deepest woe,
Came to ransom guilty captives!—
Flow, my praise! for ever flow:

Re-ascend, immortal Saviour!
Leave thy footstool, take thy throne;
Thence return and reign for ever;—
Be the kingdom all thine own!

317

"Lo, Jehovah!"

W. GOODE.

Crown his head with endless blessing,
Who, in God the Father's name,
With compassions never ceasing,
Comes salvation to proclaim.
Hail, ye saints, who know his favor,
Who within his gates are found;
Hail, ye saints, the exalted Saviour,
Let his courts with praise resound.

2 Lo, Jehovah, we adore thee;
Thee our Saviour! thee our God!
From his throne his beams of glory
Shine through all the world abroad.
In his word his light arises,
Brightest beams of truth and grace;
Bind, oh, bind your sacrifices,
In his courts your offerings place.

3 Jesus, thee our Saviour hailing,
Thee our God in praise we own;
Highest honors, never failing,
Rise eternal round thy throne;
Now, ye saints, his power confessing,
In your grateful strains adore;
For his mercy, never ceasing,
Flows, and flows for evermore.

BENJAMIN. S. M. D.

FROM F. J. HAYDN.

1. "The Lord is ris'n in - deed!" And are the ti - dings true? Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed, And saw him living too. "The Lord is ris'n indeed!" Then justice asks no more;
Who stood, Who stood op - posed be - fore.
Mer - cy and truth are now agreed, Who stood opposed be - fore, Who stood opposed before.

318

"Risen indeed."

T. KELLY.

"The Lord is risen indeed!"
And are the tidings true?
Yes, they beheld the Saviour bleed,
And saw him living too.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then justice asks no more;
Mercy and truth are now agreed,
Who stood opposed before.

2 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Then is his work performed;
The mighty Captive now is freed,
And death, our foe, disarmed.
"The Lord is risen indeed!"
He lives to die no more;
He lives, the sinner's cause to plead,
Whose curse and shame he bore.
3 "The Lord is risen indeed!"
Attending angels! hear;
Up to the courts of heaven, with speed
The joyful tidings bear.
Then wake your golden lyres,
And strike each cheerful chord;
Join, all ye bright, celestial choirs!
To sing our risen Lord

319

"Lead us to thee!"

E. TOKE.

THOU art gone up on high
To mansions in the skies,
And round thy throne unceasingly
The songs of praise arise.
But we are lingering here
With sin and care oppressed:
Lord! send thy promised Comforter,
And lead us to thy rest!
2 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou didst first come down,
Through earth's most bitter misery
To pass unto thy crown.
And girt with griefs and fears
Our onward course must be;
But only let that path of tears
Lead us at last to thee!
3 Thou art gone up on high:
But thou shalt come again
With all the bright ones of the sky
Attendant in thy train.
Oh, by thy saving power
So make us live and die,
That we may stand in that dread hour
At thy right hand on high!

M. BRIDGES.

- CROWN him with many crowns,
The Lamb upon his throne;
Hark! how the heavenly anthem drowns
All music but its own!
Awake, my soul, and sing
Of him who died for thee;
And hail him as thy matchless King
Through all eternity.
- 2 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,—
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.
- 3 Crown him the Lord of heaven!
One with the Father known,—
And the blest Spirit through him given
From yonder Triune throne!
All hail, Redeemer, hail!
For thou hast died for me:
Thy praise and glory shall not fail
Throughout eternity.

"The work is done."

J. FANCH, alt.

- BEYOND the starry skies,
Far as the eternal hills,
There in the boundless world of light
Our great Redeemer dwells.
Around him angels fair
In countless armies shine;
And ever, in exalted lays,
They offer songs divine.
- 2 "Hail, Prince of life!" they cry,
"Whose unexampled love,
Moved thee to quit these glorious realms
And royalties above."
And when he stooped to earth,
And suffered rude disdain,
They cast their honors at his feet,
And waited in his train.
- 3 They saw him on the cross,
While darkness veiled the skies,
And when he burst the gates of death,
They saw the conqueror rise.
They thronged his chariot wheels,
And bore him to his throne;
Then swept their golden harps and sung.—
"The glorious work is done."

Thou Lamb once slain!
3 Enter, incarnate God!—
No feet but thine, have trod
The serpent down;

Blow the full trumpets, blow!
Wider yon portals throw!
Saviour triumphant—go,
And take thy crown!
4 Lion of Judah—Hail!
And let thy name prevail
From age to age;
Lord of the rolling years!
Claim for thine own the spheres,
For thou has bought with tears
Thy heritage.

325*"Worthy the Lamb!"*

I. WATTS.

COME, let us join our cheerful songs
With angels round the throne;
Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
But all their joys are one.

2 "Worthy the Lamb that died," they cry,
"To be exalted thus!"

"Worthy the Lamb!" our lips reply,
"For he was slain for us."

3 Jesus is worthy to receive
Honor and power divine;
And blessings, more than we can give,
Be, Lord, for ever thine!

4 Let all that dwell above the sky,

Conspire to lift thy glories high,
And speak thine endless praise.

5 The whole creation join in one,
To bless the sacred name
Of him who sits upon the throne,
And to adore the Lamb!

326*Reconciliation.*

I. WATTS.

COME, let us lift our joyful eyes,
Up to the courts above,
And smile to see our Father there,
Upon a throne of love.

2 Now we may bow before his feet,
And venture near the Lord:
No fiery cherub guards his seat,
Nor double flaming sword.

3 The peaceful gates of heavenly bliss
Are opened by the Son;
High let us raise our notes of praise,
And reach the almighty throne.

4 To thee ten thousand thanks we bring,
Great Advocate on high,
And glory to the eternal King,
Who lays his anger by.

327*Christ, our Priest.*

A. PIRKIE.

COME, let us join our songs of praise
To our ascended Priest;
He entered heaven with all our names
Engraven on his breast.

2 Below he washed our guilt away,
By his atoning blood;
Now he appears before the throne,
And pleads our cause with God.

3 Clothed with our nature still, he knows
The weakness of our frame,
And how to shield us from the foes
Which he himself o'ercame.

4 Nor time, nor distance, e'er shall quench
The fervor of his love;
For us he died in kindness here,
For us he lives above.

5 Oh! may we ne'er forget his grace,
Nor blush to bear his name;
Still may our hearts hold fast his faith—
Our lips his praise proclaim.

330

"Lord of heaven." RAY PALMER, tr.

O CHRIST, the Lord of heaven ! to thee,
Clothed with all majesty divine,
Eternal power and glory be !
Eternal praise, of right, is thine.

2 Reign, Prince of life ! that once thy brow
Didst yield to wear the wounding thorn;
Reign, throned beside the Father now,
Adored the Son of God first-born.

3 From angel hosts that round thee stand,
With forms more pure than spotless snow,
From the bright burning seraph band,
Let praise in loftiest numbers flow.

4 To thee, the Lamb, our mortal songs,
Born of deep fervent love, shall rise;
All honor to thy name belongs,
Our lips would sound it to the skies.

5 "Jesus!"—all earth shall speak the word;
"Jesus!"—all heaven resound it still;
Immanuel, Saviour, Conqueror, Lord!
Thy praise the universe shall fill.

331

Psalm 45.

L. WATTS.

Now be my heart inspired to sing
The glories of my Saviour King,—
Jesus the Lord : how heavenly fair
His form ! how bright his beauties are !

2 O'er all the sons of human race,
He shines with a superior grace:
Love from his lips divinely flows,
And blessings all his state compose.

3 Thy throne, O God, for ever stands;
Grace is the sceptre in thy hands;
Thy laws and works are just and right;
Justice and grace are thy delight.

4 God, thine own God, has richly shed
His oil of gladness on thy head;
And with his Sacred Spirit blessed
His first-born Son above the rest.

332

"King, Creator, Lord." RAY PALMER, tr.

O CHRIST ! our King, Creator, Lord !
Saviour of all who trust thy word !
To them who seek thee ever near,
Now to our praises bend thine ear.

2 In thy dear cross a grace is found,—
It flows from every streaming wound,—
Whose power our inbred sin controls,
Breaks the firm bond, and frees our souls

3 Thou didst create the stars of night;
Yet thou hast veiled in flesh thy light,
Hast deigned a mortal form to wear
A mortal's painful lot to bear.

4 When thou didst hang upon the tree,
The quaking earth acknowledged thee;
When thou didst there yield up thy breath,
The world grew dark as shades of death.

5 Now in the Father's glory high,
Great Conqueror ! never more to die,
Us by thy mighty power defend,
And reign through ages without end.

333

Christ, our Advocate. A. STEELE.

HE lives! the great Redeemer lives!
What joy the blest assurance gives!
And now, before his Father, God,
Pleads the full merits of his blood.

2 Repeated crimes awake our fears,
And justice armed with frowns appears;
But in the Saviour's lovely face
Sweet mercy smiles, and all is peace.

3 In every dark, distressful hour,
When sin and Satan join their power,
Let this dear hope repel the dart,
That Jesus bears us on his heart.

4 Great Advocate, almighty Friend!
On him our humble hopes depend;
Our cause can never, never fail,
For Jesus pleads, and must prevail.

334

"Behold the Way!" J. CENNICK.

Jests, my All, to heaven is gone,
He whom I fix my hopes upon;
His track I see, and I'll pursue
The narrow way till him I view.

2 The way the holy prophets went,
The road that leads from banishment,
The King's highway of holiness,
I'll go for all his paths are peace.

3 This is the way I long had sought,
And mourned because I found it not;
My grief, my burden, long had been
Because I could not cease from sin.

4 The more I strove against its power,
I sinned and stumbled but the more;
Till late I heard my Saviour say,
"Come hither, soul, I am the Way!"

5 Lo! glad I come; and thou, dear Lamb,
Shalt take me to thee as I am,
Nothing but sin I thee can give;
Nothing but love shall I receive.

6 Then will I tell, to sinners round,
What a dear Saviour I have found;
I'll point to thy redeeming blood,
And say, "Behold the way to God!"

335

Atonement made.

I. WATTS.

Now to the power of God supreme
Be everlasting honors given;
He saves from hell,—we bless his name,—
He guides our wandering feet to heaven.

2 'Twas his own purpose that began
To rescue rebels doomed to die:
He gave us grace in Christ, his Son,
Before he spread the starry sky.

3 Jesus, the Lord, appears at last,
And makes his Father's counsels known;
Declares the great transactions past,
And brings immortal blessings down.

4 He dies; and in that dreadful night
Doth all the powers of hell destroy;
Rising, he brings our heaven to light,
And takes possession of the joy.

1. Come, let us sing the song of songs, The saints in heaven began the strain, The homage which to God belongs:

2 Slain to redeem us by his blood,
To cleanse from every sinful stain,
And make us kings and priests to God—
“Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!”

336 “The Song of Songs.” J. MONTGOMERY.

COME, let us sing the song of songs,—

The saints in heaven began the strain—

The homage which to Christ belongs:

“Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!”

- 3 To him, enthroned by filial right,
All power in heaven and earth proclaim,
Honor, and majesty, and might:
“Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!”
- 4 Long as we live, and when we die,
And while in heaven with him we reign:
This song, our song of songs shall be:
“Worthy the Lamb, for he was slain!”

ALL SAINTS. L. M.

1. Now to the Lord, who makes us know The won-ders of his dy-ing love,

Be hum-ble hon-ors paid be-low, And strains of no-bler praise a-bove.

337*The atoning Priest.*

I. WATTS.

Now to the Lord, who makes us know
The wonders of his dying love,
Be humble honors paid below,
And strains of nobler praise above.
‘Twas he who cleansed our foulest sins,
And washed us in his precious blood;
‘Tis he who makes us priests and kings,
And brings us rebels near to God.

3 To Jesus, our atoning Priest,
To Jesus, our eternal King,

- Be everlasting power confessed!
Let every tongue his glory sing.
- 4 Behold! on flying clouds he comes,
And every eye shall see him move;
Though with our sins we pierced him once,
He now displays his pardoning love.
- 5 The unbelieving world shall wail,
While we rejoice to see the day;
Come, Lord! nor let thy promise fail,
Nor let thy chariot long delay.

338

Christ is God.

I. WATTS.

- WHAT equal honors shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing,
Are far inferior to thy name?
2 Worthy is he that once was slain,
The Prince of Peace that groaned and died,
Worthy to rise, and live, and reign
At his almighty Father's side.
3 All riches are his native right,
Yet he sustained amazing loss;

To him ascribe eternal might,
Who left his weakness on the cross.

- 4 Honor immortal must be paid,
Instead of scandal and of scorn;
While glory shines around his head,
And a bright crown without a thorn.
5 Blessings for ever on the Lamb,
Who bore the curse for wretched men;
Let angels sound his sacred name,
And every creature say, Amen.

1. Our Lord is ris - en from the dead, Our Jesus is gone up on high; The powers of hell are captive led, Dragged to the por - tals of the sky. There his triumphal cha-ri-ot waits, And angels

339

Psalm 24.

C. WESLEY.

- OUR Lord is risen from the dead,
Our Jesus is gone up on high;
The powers of hell are captive led,
Dragged to the portals of the sky.
There his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:
“Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
Ye everlasting doors! give way.”
2 Loose all your bars of massy light,
And wide unfold the ethereal scene:
He claims these mansions as his right;
Receive the King of glory in.

Who is this King of glory—who?
The Lord who all our foes o'ercame;
Who sin, and death, and hell o'erthrew;
And Jesus is the conqueror's name.

- 3 Lo! his triumphal chariot waits,
And angels chant the solemn lay:—
“Lift up your heads, ye heavenly gates!
Ye everlasting doors! give way.”
Who is this King of glory—who?
The Lord of boundless power possessed;
The King of saints and angels, too,
God over all, for ever blessed.

340 7th, 6th, D. The Lord's Day. J. M. SEALY, tr.

The day of resurrection,
Earth, tell it out abroad :
The Passover of gladness,
The Passover of God.
From death to life eternal,
From earth unto the sky,
Our Christ hath brought us over,
With hymns of victory.

2 Our hearts be pure from evil,
That we may see aright
The Lord in rays eternal
Of resurrection-light ;
And, listening to his accents,
May hear, so calm and plain,
His own " All hail ! " and, hearing,
May raise the victor-strain.

341 C. M. Psalm 45. I. WATTS.

I'll speak the honors of my King,—
His form divinely fair ;
None of the sons of mortal race
May with the Lord compare.

2 Sweet is thy speech, and heavenly
Upon thy lips is shed ; [grace
Thy God, with blessings infinite,
Hath crowned thy sacred head.

3 Gird on thy sword, victorious Prince !
Ride with majestic sway ;
Thy terrors shall strike through thy foes,
And make the world obey.

4 Thy throne, O God ! for ever stands ;
Thy word of grace shall prove
A peaceful sceptre in thy hands,
To rule the saints by love.

5 Justice and truth attend thee still,
But mercy is thy choice ;
And God, thy God, thy soul shall fill
With most peculiar joys.

342 L. M. "Full Equality." I. WATTS.

Bright King of glory, dreadful God !
Our spirits bow before thy feet :
To thee we lift an humble thought,
And worship at thine awful seat.

2 A thousand seraphs strong and bright
Stand round the glorious Deity ;
But who, among those sons of light,
Pretends comparison with thee ?

3 Yet there is One of human frame,
Jesus, arrayed in flesh and blood,
Thinks it no robbery to claim
A full equality with God.

4 Then let the name of Christ our King
With equal honors be adored ;
His praise let every angel sing,
And all the nations own their Lord.

343 7th. The Risen Redeemer. ANON.

Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Our triumphant holy-day :
He endured the cross and grave,
Sinners to redeem and save.

2 Lo ! he rises, mighty King !
Where, O Death ! is now thy sting ?
Lo ! he claims his native sky !
Grave ! where is thy victory ?

3 Sinners, see your ransom paid,
Peace with God for ever made :
With your risen Saviour-rise ;
Claim with him the purchased skies.

4 Christ, the Lord, is risen to-day,
Our triumphant holy-day ;
Loud the song of victory raise ;
Shout the great Redeemer's praise.

344 H. M. "The Debt of Love." S. STENNELL.

Come, every pious heart,
That loves the Saviour's name,
Your noblest powers exert
To celebrate his fame ;
Tell all above, and all below,
The debt of love to him you owe.

2 He left his starry crown,
And laid his robes aside,
On wings of love came down,
And wept, and bled, and died ;
What he endured, oh, who can tell,
To save our souls from death and hell ?

3 From the dark grave he rose,
The mansion of the dead,
And thence his mighty foes
In glorious triumph led ;
Up through the sky the Conqueror rode,
And reigns on high, the Saviour God.

345c. m. Psalm 45.

I. WATTS.

THE King of saints,—how fair his face !
Adorned with majesty and grace,
He comes, with blessings from above,
And wins the nations to his love.

2 At his right hand, our eyes behold
The queen, arrayed in purest gold ;
The world admires her heavenly dress,
Her robe of joy and righteousness.

3 Oh, happy hour, when thou shalt rise
To his fair palace in the skies ;
And all thy sons, a numerous train,
Each, like a prince, in glory reign.

4 Let endless honors crown his head ;
Let every age his praises spread ;
While we, with cheerful songs, approve
The condescension of his love.

346

c. m. d. "The Fairest Face."

F. STRYKER.

I HEARD a voice, the sweetest voice
That mortal ever heard ;
Oh ! how it made my heart rejoice,
And every feeling stirred !
"T was Jesus spoke to me so mild ;
He called me to his side,
And said, although with heart defiled,
I might in him confide.

2 I saw his face, the fairest face
That mortal ever saw ;
I longed the Saviour to embrace,
From him new life to draw.
"Come unto me," he kindly said,
"And I will give thee rest ;
The ransom-price I fully paid—
Repent ! believe ! be blest !"

3 I felt his love, the strongest love
That mortal ever felt ;
Oh ! how it drew my soul above,
And made my hard heart melt !
My burden at his feet I laid,
And knew the joy of heaven,
As in my willing ear he said
The blessed word, "Forgiven !"

347c. m. Psalm 47.

I. WATTS.

Oh, for a shout of sacred joy
To God, the sovereign King ;
Let every land their tongues employ,
And hymns of triumph sing.
2 Jesus, our God, ascends on high,
His heavenly guards around

Attend him rising through the sky,
With trumpets' joyful sound.

- 3 While angels shout and praise their
Let mortals learn their strains ; [King,
Let all the earth his honor sing ;—
O'er all the earth he reigns.
- 4 Rehearse his praise with awe pro-
Let knowledge lead the song ; [found ;
Nor mock him with a solemn sound
Upon a thoughtless tongue.
- 5 In Israel stood his ancient throne :—
He loved that chosen race ;
But now he calls the world his own ;
The heathen taste his grace.

348c. m. Psalm 71.

I. WATTS.

MY Saviour ! my almighty Friend :
When I begin thy praise,
Where will the growing numbers end,—
The numbers of thy grace ?

- 2 Thou art my everlasting trust ;
Thy goodness I adore ;
And, since I knew thy graces first,
I speak thy glories more.
- 3 My feet shall travel all the length
Of the celestial road ;
And march, with courage, in thy strength,
To see my Father God.
- 4 How will my lips rejoice to tell
The victories of my King !
My soul, redeemed from sin and hell,
Shall thy salvation sing.

349c. m. Our High-Priest.

P. DODDRIDGE.

Now let our cheerful eyes survey
Our great High-Priest above,
And celebrate his constant care,
And sympathetic love.

- 2 Though raised to a superior throne,
Where angels bow around,
And high o'er all the shining train,
With matchless honors crowned ;—
- 3 The names of all his saints he bears
Engraven on his heart ;
Nor shall a name once treasured there
E'er from his care depart.
- 4 So, gracious Saviour ! on my breast
May thy dear name be worn,
A sacred ornament and guard,
To endless ages borne.

350*"Inward Teachings."*

I. WATTS.

ETERNAL Spirit, we confess
 And sing the wonders of thy grace:
 Thy power conveys our blessings down
 From God the Father and the Son.

2 Enlightened by thy heavenly ray,
 Our shades and darkness turn to day;
 Thine inward teachings make us know
 Our danger and our refuge too.

3 Thy power and glory work within,
 And break the chains of reigning sin;
 All our impious lusts subdue,
 And form our wretched hearts anew.

351*"Veni, Creator!"*

E. CASWALL, tr.

COME, O Creator Spirit blest!
 And in our souls take up thy rest;
 Come, with thy grace, and heavenly aid,
 To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

2 Great Comforter! to thee we cry;
 O highest gift of God most high!
 O fount of life! O fire of love!
 Send sweet anointing from above!

3 Kindle our senses from above,
 And make our hearts o'erflow with love;
 With patience firm, and virtue high,
 The weakness of our flesh supply.

4 Far from us drive the foe we dread,
 And grant us thy true peace instead;
 So shall we not, with thee for guide,
 Turn from the path of life aside.

352*"The book unfold."*

B. BEDDOME.

COME, blessed Spirit! source of light!
 Whose power and grace are unconfined,
 Dispel the gloomy shades of night—
 The thicker darkness of the mind.

2 To mine illumined eyes, display
 The glorious truths thy word reveals;
 Cause me to run the heavenly way,
 Thy book unfold, and loose the seals.

3 Thine inward teachings make me know
 The mysteries of redeeming love,
 The vanity of things below,
 And excellence of things above.

4 While through this dubious maze I stray,
 Spread, like the sun, thy beams abroad,
 To show the dangers of the way,
 And guide my feeble steps to God.

353*Spirit of grace.*

P. DODDRIDGE.

COME, sacred Spirit, from above,
 And fill the coldest heart with love:
 Oh, turn to flesh the flinty stone,
 And let thy sovereign power be known.

2 Speak thou, and from the haughtiest eyes
 Shall floods of contrite sorrow rise;
 While all their glowing sons are borne
 To seek that grace which now they scorn.

3 Oh, let a holy flock await
 In crowds around thy temple-gate!
 Each pressing on with zeal to be
 A living sacrifice to thee.

With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love

Fond of these trifling toys !Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise;Hosannas languish on our tongues,

At this poor dying rate—
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,

Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,

Cast down every idol-throne,
Reign supreme—and reign alone.

J. STOCKER.

GRACIOUS Spirit, Love divine!
Let thy light within me shine;
All my guilty fears remove,
Fill me with thy heavenly love.

2 Speak thy pardoning grace to me,
Set the burdened sinner free;
Lead me to the Lamb of God;
Wash me in his precious blood.

3 Life and peace to me impart,
Seal salvation on my heart;
Breathe thyself into my breast,—
Earnest of immortal rest.

4 Let me never from thee stray,
Keep me in the narrow way;
Fill my soul with joy divine,
Keep me, Lord! for ever thine.

"Oh, come to-day."

RAY PALMER, tr.

COME, Holy Ghost ! in love,
Shed on us, from above,
Thine own bright ray:

Divinely good thou art;
Thy sacred gifts impart,
To gladden each sad heart;

Oh, come to-day !

2 Come, tenderest Friend, and best,
Our most delightful Guest !

With sooth-ing power;
Rest, which the weary know;
Shade, 'mid the noontide glow ;
Peace, when deep griefs o'erflow ;
Cheer us, this hour !

3 Come, Light serene ! and still
Our inmost bosoms fill;

Dwell in each breast:
We know no dawn but thine;
Send forth thy beams divine,
On our dark souls to shine,
And make us blest.

4 Exalt our low desires;
Extinguish passion's fires;
Heal every wound;
Our stubborn spirits bend;
Our icy coldness end;
Our devious steps attend,
While heavenward bound.

5 Come, all the faithful bless,
Let all, who Christ confess,
His praise employ:
Give virtue's rich reward;

Victorious death accord,
And, with our glorious Lord,
Eternal joy !

369

"Let there be light."

J. MARRIOTT.

THOU ! whose almighty word
Chaos and darkness heard,
And took their flight,
Hear us, we humbly pray,
And, where the gospel's day
Sheds not its glorious ray,
"Let there be light !"

2 Thou ! who didst come to bring,
On thy redeeming wing,
Healing and sight,
Health to the sick in mind,
Sight to the inly blind,—
Oh, now to all mankind,
"Let there be light !"

3 Spirit of truth and love,
Life-giving holy Dove !

Speed forth thy flight:
Move o'er the waters' face,
Bearing the lamp of grace,
And in earth's darkest place,
"Let there be light !"

4 Blessed and holy Three,
All-glorious Trinity,—

Wisdom, Love, Might !
Boundless as ocean's tide
Rolling in fullest pride,
Through the world, far and wide,—
"Let there be light !"

WHEN God, of old, came down from heaven,

- In power and wrath he came;
Before his feet the clouds were riven,
Half darkness and half flame.
- 2 But when he came the second time,
He came in power and love;
Softer than gales at morning prime,
Hovered his holy Dove.
- 3 The fires that rushed on Sinai down
In sudden torrents dread,
Now gently light a glorious crown
On every sainted head.
- 4 Like arrows went those lightnings
forth,
Winged with the sinner's doom;
But these, like tongues, o'er all the earth
Proclaiming life to come.

7s. "The things of Christ." W. HAMMOND.

HOLY Spirit! gently come,
Raise us from our fallen state;

Fix thy everlasting home
In the hearts thou didst create.

- 2 Now thy quickening influence bring,
On our spirits sweetly move;
Open every mouth to sing
Jesus' everlasting love.
- 3 Take the things of Christ, and show
What our Lord for us hath done;
May we God the Father know
Through his well-belov'd Son.

BLESSED Comforter, come down,
And live and move in me;
Make my every deed thy own,
In all things led by thee;
Bid my every lust depart,
And now with me, vouchsafe to dwell;
Faithful Witness, in my heart
Thy perfect love reveal.

2 Let me in thy love rejoice,
Thy shrine, thy pure abode;
Tell me, by thine inward voice,
I am a child of God:
Lord, I choose the better part;
Jesus, I wait thy peace to feel;
Send the witness, in my heart
The Holy Ghost reveal.

373C. M. The Promise.

H. AUBER.

OUR blest Redeemer, ere he breathed
His tender, last farewell,
A Guide, a Comforter bequeathed,
With us on earth to dwell.

- 2 He came in tongues of living flame,
To teach, convince, subdue;
All powerful as the wind he came,
And all as viewless, too.
- 3 He came, sweet influence to impart,
A gracious, willing Guest,
While he can find one humble heart
Wherein to fix his rest.
- 4 And every virtue we possess,
And every victory won,
And every thought of holiness,
Is his and his alone.
- 5 Spirit of purity and grace!
Our weakness pitying see;
Oh, make our hearts thy dwelling-place,
Purer and worthier thee!

7s, 5s. "Comforter Divine!"

G. RAWSON.

HOLY Ghost, the Infinite!
Shine upon our nature's night
With thy blessed inward light,
Comforter Divine!

- 2 We are sinful: cleanse us, Lord;
We are faint: thy strength afford;
Lost,—until by thee restored,
Comforter Divine!

3 Like the dew, thy peace distill;
Guide, subdue our wayward will,
Things of Christ unfolding still,
Comforter Divine!

- 4 In us, for us, intercede,
And, with voiceless groanings, plead
Our unutterable need,
Comforter Divine!

5 In us "Abba, Father," cry,—
Earnest of our bliss on high,
Seal of immortality,—
Comforter Divine!

- 6 Search for us the depths of God,
Bear us up the starry road,
To the height of thine abode,
Comforter Divine!

The Light.

W. H. BATHURST.

- LORD, bid thy light arise
On all thy people here,
And when we raise our longing eyes,
Oh, may we find thee near !
- 2 Thy Holy Spirit send,
To quicken every soul ;
And hearts, the most rebellious, bend
To thy divine control.
- 3 Let all that own thy name
Thy sacred image bear ;
And light in every heart the flame
Of watchfulness and prayer.
- 4 Since in thy love we see
Our only sure relief,
Oh, raise our earthly minds to thee,
And help our unbelief.

Descend and cheer the fainting flowers,
So, in the secrecy of love,
Falls the sweet influence from above.
- 2 That heavenly influence let me find
In holy silence of the mind,
While every grace maintains its bloom,
Diffusing wide its rich perfume.

To me, but poured on all mankind,
Till earth's wild wastes in verdure rise,
And a young Eden bless our eyes.

The world's foundations first were laid,
Come, visit every waiting mind ;
Come, pour thy joys on human-kind.

Our hearts with heavenly love inspire ;
Come, and thy sacred unction bring
To sanctify us, while we sing.

- 3 O Source of uncreated light,
The Father's promised Paraclete,—
From sin and sorrow set us free,
And make us temples worthy thee !

- 4 Make us eternal truths receive,
And practise all that we believe ;
Give us thyself, that we may see
The Father and the Son, by thee.

Invocation.

C. WESLEY.

- COME, Holy Ghost ! our hearts inspire,
Let us thine influence prove ;
Source of the old prophetic fire !
Fountain of life and love !
- 2 Water with heavenly dew thy word,
In this appointed hour ;
Attend it with thy presence, Lord,
And bid it come with power.
- 3 Open the hearts of them that hear,
To make the Saviour room ;
Now let us find redemption near ;
Let faith by hearing come.

- O thou that hearest prayer !
Attend our humble cry ;
And let thy servants share
Thy blessing from on high :
We plead the promise of thy word,
Grant us thy Holy Spirit, Lord !

2 If earthly parents hear
Their children when they cry ;
If they, with love sincere,
Their children's wants supply ;
Much more wilt thou thy love display,
And answer when thy children pray.

3 Our heavenly Father, thou,—
We—children of thy grace,—
Oh, let thy Spirit now
Descend and fill the place ;
That all may feel the heavenly flame
And all unite to praise thy name.

In all thy plenitude of grace,
Where'er the foot of man hath trod,
Descend on our apostate race.

To preach the reconciling word ;
Give power and unction from above,

Deut. 30: 19.

J. MONTGOMERY.

- Oh, where shall rest be found—
 Rest for the weary soul?
 'T were vain the ocean depths to sound,
 Or pierce to either pole.
 2 The world can never give
 The bliss for which we sigh:
 'T is not the whole of life to live,
 Nor all of death to die.
 3 Beyond this vale of tears
 There is a life above,

Unmeasured by the flight of years;
 And all that life is love.

- 4 There is a death whose pang
 Outlasts the fleeting breath:
 Oh, what eternal horrors hang
 Around the second death!
 5 Lord God of truth and grace!
 Teach us that death to shun;
 Lest we be banished from thy face,
 And evermore undone.

1. WATTS.

- Not all the blood of beasts
 On Jewish altars slain,
 Could give the guilty conscience peace,
 Or wash away the stain.
 : But Christ the heavenly Lamb
 Takes all our sins away,
 A sacrifice of nobler name
 And richer blood than they.
 3 My faith would lay her hand
 On that dear head of thine,

While like a penitent I stand,
 And there confess my sin.

- 4 My soul looks back to see
 The burdens thou didst bear,
 When hanging on the cursed tree,
 And hopes her guilt was there.
 5 Believing, we rejoice
 To see the curse remove;
 We bless the Lamb with cheerful voice,
 And sing his dying love.

S. OCCOM.

AWAKED by Sinai's awful sound,
 My soul in bonds of guilt I found,
 And knew not where to go;
 One solemn truth increased my pain,
 "The sinner must be born again,"
 Or sink to endless woe.

2 I heard the law its thunders roll,
 While guilt lay heavy on my soul—
 A vast oppressive load;
 All creature-aid I saw was vain;
 "The sinner must be born again,"
 Or drink the wrath of God.
 3 But while I thus in anguish lay,
 The bleeding Saviour passed that way,
 My bondage to remove.
 The sinner, once by justice slain,
 Now by his grace is born again,
 And sings redeeming love.

Lo ! on a narrow neck of land,

 Secure ! insensible !
 A point of time, a moment's space,

 Or shuts me up in hell.

 And deeply on my thoughtful heart
 Eternal things impress:
 Give me to feel their solemn weight,
 And save me ere it be too late;
 Wake me to righteousness.
 3 Before me place, in dread array,
 The pomp of that tremendous day,
 When thou with clouds shalt come
 To judge the nations at thy bar;

A. STEELE.

- How HELPLESS guilty nature lies,
 Unconscious of its load !
 The heart, unchanged, can never rise
 To happiness and God.
 2 Can aught, beneath a power divine,
 The stubborn will subdue ?
 'Tis thine, almighty Spirit ! thine,
 To form the heart anew.
 3 'Tis thine, the passions to recall,
 And upward bid them rise ;
 To make the scales of error fall
 From reason's darkened eyes ;—
 4 To chase the shades of death away,
 And bid the sinner live ;
 A beam of heaven, a vital ray,
 'Tis thine alone to give.
 5 Oh change these wretched hearts of ours,
 And give them life divine ;
 Then shall our passions and our powers,

No escape.

I. WATTS.

- In vain we seek for peace with God
 By methods of our own :
 Nothing, O Saviour ! but thy blood
 Can bring us near the throne.
 2 The threatenings of the broken law
 Impress the soul with dread :
 If God his sword of vengeance draw,
 It strikes the spirit dead.

- 3 But thine illustrious sacrifice
 Hath answered these demands ;
 And peace and pardon from the skies
 Are offered by thy hands.
 4 'Tis by thy death we live, O Lord !
 'Tis on thy cross we rest :
 For ever be thy love adored,
 Thy name for ever blessed.

"Sin revived; I died."

W. WATTS.

LORD, how secure my conscience was,
 And felt no inward dread !
 I was alive without the law,
 And thought my sins were dead.

- 2 My hopes of heaven were firm and bright ;
 But since the precept came
 With a convincing power and light,
 I find how vile I am.
 3 My guilt appeared but small before,
 Till terribly I saw
 How perfect, holy, just, and pure,
 Was thine eternal law.
 4 Then felt my soul the heavy load ;
 My sins revived again ;
 I had provoked a dreadful God,
 And all my hopes were slain.
 5 My God, I cry with every breath
 For some kind power to save,
 To break the yoke of sin and death,
 And thus redeem the slave.

Without a murmuring word;

I. WATTS.

How sad our state by nature is!
Our sin—how deep it stains!
And Satan holds our captive minds
Fast in his slavish chains.

- 2 But there's a voice of sovereign grace,
Sounds from the sacred word;
"Ho! ye despairing sinners, come,
And trust a pardoning Lord."
- 3 My soul obeys the almighty call,
And runs to this relief;
I would believe thy promise, Lord:
Oh, help my unbelief!

On thy kind arms I fall;
Be thou my Strength and Righteousness,
My Saviour and my All.

389

The Strait Way.

I. WATTS.

STRAIT is the way, the door is strait,
That leads to joys on high;
'Tis but a few that find the gate
While crowds mistake and die.

- 2 Belovéd self must be denied,
The mind and will renewed,
Passion suppressed, and patience tried,
And vain desires subdued.
- 3 Lord! can a feeble, helpless worm
Fulfill a task so hard!
Thy grace must all my work perform,
And give the free reward.

391

Utter helplessness.

I. WATTS.

Not all the outward forms on earth,
Nor rites that God has given,
Nor will of man, nor blood, nor birth,
Can raise a soul to heaven.

- 2 The sovereign will of God alone
Creates us heirs of grace;
Born in the image of his Son,
A new, peculiar race.
- 3 The Spirit, like some heavenly wind,
Breathes on the sons of flesh,
New-models all the carnal mind,
And forms the man afresh.

From the long sleep of death;
On heavenly things we fix our eyes,
And praise employs our breath.

Away on the mountains wild and bare,
Away from the tender Shepherd's care.

2 "Lord, thou hast here thy ninety and nine:
Are they not enough for thee?"
But the Shepherd made answer: "This of
Has wandered away from me: [mine
And although the road be rough and steep
I go to the desert to find my sheep."

3 But none of the ransomed ever knew
How deep were the waters crossed;
Nor how dark was the night that the Lord passed through
Ere he found his sheep that was lost;
Out in the desert he heard its cry—
'Twas helpless and sick, and ready to die.

4 But all through the mountains, thunder-
And up from the rocky steep, [riven,
There rose a cry to the gate of heaven,
"Rejoice! I have found my sheep!"
And the angels echoed around the throne,
"Rejoice, for the Lord brings back his own!"

404*L. M. Loving-kindness.*

S. MEDLEY.

AWAKE, my soul, to joyful lays,
And sing thy great Redeemer's praise;
He justly claims a song from me:
His loving-kindness, oh, how free!
2 He saw me ruined in the fall,
Yet loved me, notwithstanding all;
He saved me from my lost estate:
His loving-kindness, oh, how great!

3 Though numerous hosts of mighty foes,
Though earth and hell my way oppose,
He safely leads my soul along:
His loving-kindness, oh, how strong!

4 When trouble, like a gloomy cloud,
Has gathered thick and thundered loud,
He near my soul has always stood:
His loving-kindness, oh, how good!

C. WESLEY.

ARISE, my soul, arise!
Shake off thy guilty fears;
The bleeding Sacrifice
In my behalf appears;
Before the throne my Surety stands:
My name is written on his hands.

2 He ever lives above,
For me to intercede,
His all-redeeming love,
His precious blood to plead;
His blood atoned for all our race,
And sprinkles now the throne of grace.

3 My God is reconciled;
His pardoning voice I hear;
He owns me for his child;
I can no longer fear;
With confidence I now draw nigh,
And Father, Abba, Father, cry.

406*Year of Jubilee.*

C. WESLEY.

BLOW ye the trumpet, blow;—
The gladly solemn sound;—
Let all the nations know,
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of jubilee is come:
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

2 Jesus, our great High-Priest,
Hath full atonement made;
Ye weary spirits, rest;
Ye mournful souls, be glad:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

3 Extol the Lamb of God,
The all-atonning Lamb;
Redemption in his blood
Throughout the world proclaim:
The year of jubilee is come;
Return, ye ransomed sinners, home.

I. WATTS.

AWAKE, my heart, arise, my tongue,

Prepare a tuneful voice;

In God, the life of all my joys,

Aloud will I rejoice.

'Tis he adorned my naked soul,

And made salvation mine;

Upon a poor, polluted worm,

He makes his graces shine.

2 And lest the shadow of a spot

Should on my soul be found,

He took the robe the Saviour wrought,

And cast it all around.

How far the heavenly robe exceeds
What earthly princes wear!

These ornaments, how bright they shine !

How white the garments are !

3 The Spirit wrought my faith and love,
And hope and every grace;
But Jesus spent his life to work
The robe of righteousness.Strangely, my soul, art thou arrayed,
By the great sacred Three;
In sweetest harmony of praise,
Let all thy powers agree.408"Jesus died for me"*

GREAT God, when I approach thy throne,

This is my stay, and this alone,

Escape the just decree?Helpless, and full of sin am I,
But Jesus died for me.3 Burdened with sin's oppressive chain,
Oh, how can I get free?No peace can all my efforts gain,
But Jesus died for me.4 And Lord, when I behold thy face,
This must be all my plea;
Save me by thy almighty grace,
For Jesus died for me.409Divine compassion.*

Compassion so divine !3 Is there a heart that will not bend
To thy divine control ?Descend, O sovereign love, descend,
And melt that stubborn soul.4 Oh ! may our willing hearts confess
Thy sweet, thy gentle sway;
Glad captives of thy matchless grace,
Thy righteous rule obey.

For I am weak and weary,

- 2 Tell me the story slowly,

God's remedy for sin !
Tell me the story often,
For I forget so soon !
The "early dew" of morning
Has passed away at noon !—Cho.

From God's own holy word.—CHO.

3 I love to tell the story;
For those who know it best
Seem hungering and thirsting
To hear it like the rest.

Jesus' Cross.

ANON.

I SAW the cross of Jesus,
When burdened with my sin;
I sought the cross of Jesus,
To give me peace within;
I brought my soul to Jesus,
He cleansed it in his blood;
And in the cross of Jesus
I found my peace with God.
CHO.—No righteousness, no merit,
No beauty can I plead;
Yet in the cross I glory,
My title there I read.

2 Sweet is the cross of Jesus!
There let my weary heart
Still rest in peace unshaken,
Till with him, ne'er to part;
And then in strains of glory
I'll sing his wondrous power,
Where sin can never enter,
And death is known no more.

CHO.—I love the cross of Jesus,
It tells me what I am;
A vile and guilty creature,
Saved only through the Lamb.

Long hast roamed the barren waste,
Weary pilgrim, hither baste.

EXPOSTULATION. 11s.

J. HOPKINS.

1. Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die, When God in great mercy is coming so nigh?

Now Je-sus in-vites you, the Spir-it says, Come, And an-gels are wait-ing to welcome you home.

427*"Why will ye die?"*

J. HOPKINS.

Oh, turn ye, oh, turn ye, for why will ye die,
When God in great mercy is coming so nigh?
Now Jesus invites you, the Spirit says, Come,
And angels are waiting to welcome you home.

2 In riches, in pleasures, what can you obtain,
To soothe your affliction, or banish your pain?
To bear up your spirit when summoned to die,
Or waft you to mansions of glory on high?

3 And now Christ is ready your souls to receive,
Oh, how can you question, if you will believe?
If sin is your burden, why will you not come?
'Tis you he bids welcome; he bids you come home.

428*"I made haste."*

T. HASTINGS.

DELAY not, delay not, O sinner, draw near,
The waters of life are now flowing for thee;

No price is demanded, the Saviour is here;
Redemption is purchased, salvation is free.

2 Delay not, delay not, O sinner, to come,
For Mercy still lingers and calls thee to-day:

Her voice is not heard in the vale of the tomb;
Her message unheeded will soon pass away.

3 Delay not, delay not, the Spirit of grace,
Long grieved and resisted, may take his sad flight,
And leave thee in darkness to finish thy race,

To sink in the gloom of eternity's night.

4 Delay not, delay not, the hour is at hand,
The earth shall dissolve and the heavens shall fade,

The dead, small and great, in the judgment shall stand;
What power then, O sinner, will lend thee its aid!

429*"Acquaint thyself."*

KNOX.

ACQUAINT thyself quickly, O sinner, with God,
And joy, like the sunshine, shall beam on thy road,

SINNERS, will you scorn the message,
Coming from the courts above?
Mercy beams in every passage;

 Repeat his mercies in your song.
- 3 Through this vain world he guides our feet,
 And leads us to his heavenly seat ;
 His mercies ever shall endure,
 When this vain world shall be no more.
- 436 C. M. "Ho! Every One." I. WATTS.
 LET every mortal ear attend,
 And every heart rejoice ;
 The trumpet of the gospel sounds,
 With an inviting voice.
- 2 Ho ! all ye hungry, starving souls,
 That feed upon the wind,
 And vainly strive with earthly toys
 To fill the immortal mind,—
- 3 Eternal wisdom has prepared
 A soul-reviving feast,
 And bids your longing appetites
 The rich provision taste.
- 437 C. M. "Not to Condemn, but Save." I. WATTS.
 COME, happy souls, approach your God
 With new, melodious songs ;
 Come, render to almighty grace
 The tribute of your tongues.
- 2 So strange, so boundless was the love
 That pitied dying men,
 The Father sent his equal Son
 To give them life again.
- 3 Thy hands, dear Jesus, were not armed
 With an avenging rod,
 No hard commission to perform
 The vengeance of a God.
- 4 But all was merciful and mild,
 And wrath forsook the throne,
 When Christ on the kind errand came,
 And brought salvation down.
- 5 See, dearest Lord, our willing souls
 Accept thine offered grace ;
 We bless the great Redeemer's love,
 And give the Father praise.
- 438 L. M. "To Save Sinners." I. WATTS.
 Not to condemn the sons of men,
 Did Christ, the Son of God, appear ;
 No weapons in his hands are seen,
 No flaming sword nor thunder there.
- 2 Such was the pity of our God,
 He loved the race of man so well,
 He sent his Son to bear our load
 Of sins, and save our souls from hell.
- 3 Sinners, believe the Saviour's word ;
 Trust in his mighty name, and live :
 A thousand joys his lips afford,
 His hands a thousand blessings give.
- 439 S. M. The Bride says, Come. J. MONTGOMERY.
 COME to the land of peace ;
 From shadows come away ;
 Where all the sounds of weeping cease,
 And storms no more have sway.
- 2 Fear hath no dwelling here ;
 But pure repose and love
 Breathe through the bright, celestial air
 The spirit of the dove.
- 3 Come to the bright and blest,
 Gathered from every land ;
 For here thy soul shall find its rest,
 Amid the shining band.

440 P. M.*Jesus calls.*T. HASTINGS.

- DROOPING souls, no longer mourn,
Jesus still is precious ;
If to him you now return,
Heaven will be propitious ;
Jesus now is passing by,
Calling wanderers near him ;
Drooping souls, you need not die,
Go to him and hear him !
- 2 He has pardons, full and free,
Drooping souls to gladden ;
Still he cries—“ Come unto me,
Weary, heavy-laden ! ”
Though your sins, like mountains high,
Rise, and reach to heaven,
Soon as you on him rely,
All shall be forgiven.
- 3 Precious is the Saviour’s name,
Dear to all that love him ;
He to save the dying came ;—
Go to him and prove him !
Wandering sinners, now return ;
Contrite souls, believe him !
Jesus calls you, cease to mourn :
Worship him ; receive him.

441S. M. Spirit and Bride. H. U. ONDERDONK.

THE Spirit, in our hearts,
Is whispering, “ Sinner, come ; ”
The bride, the Church of Christ, pro-
To all his children, “ Come ! ” [claims,

- 2 Let him that heareth, say
To all about him, “ Come ! ”
Let him that thirsts for righteousness,
To Christ, the fountain, come !
- 3 Yes, whosoever will,
Oh, let him freely come,
And freely drink the stream of life ;
”T is Jesus bids him come.

- 4 Lo ! Jesus, who invites,
Declares, “ I quickly come ; ”
Lord, even so ; we wait thine hour ;
O blest Redeemer, come !

442 L. M.*Flee for Life.*W. B. COLLYER.

HASTE, traveler, haste ! the night comes
And many a shining hour is gone ; [on,
The storm is gathering in the west,
And thou far off from home and rest.

2 The rising tempest sweeps the sky ;
The rains descend, the winds are high ;
The waters swell, and death and fear
Beset thy path, nor refuge near.

3 Oh, yet a shelter you may gain,
A covert from the wind and rain ;
A hiding-place, a rest, a home,
A refuge from the wrath to come !

4 Then linger not in all the plain ;
Flee for thy life ; the mountain gain ;
Look not behind ; make no delay ;
Oh, speed thee, speed thee on thy way !

4437s.*Winning Souls.*W. HAMMOND

Would you win a soul to God ?
Tell him of a Saviour’s blood,
Once for dying sinners spilt,
To atone for all their guilt.

2 Tell him—it was sovereign grace
Led thee first to seek his face ;
Made thee choose the better part,
Wrought salvation in thy heart.

3 Tell him of that liberty,
Wherewith Jesus makes thee free !
Sweetly speak of sins forgiven,
Earnest of the joys of heaven.

444L. M.*“ Only Knock.”*J. B. WATERBURY.

INFINITE Love ! what precious stores
Thy mercy has prepared for us !
The costliest gems, the richest ores
Could never have endowed us thus.

2 But thy soft hand, O gracious Lord !
Can draw from suffering souls the sting :
And thy rich bounty to our board
Can bread for hungering sinners bring.

3 How rich the grace ! the gift how free !
”T is only ask—it shall be given ;
”T is only knock, and thou shalt see
The opening door that leads to heaven.

4 Oh ! then arise and take the good,
So full and freely proffered thee,
Remembering that it cost the blood
Of him who died on Calvary.

445 A fountain opened. J. MONTGOMERY.

COME to Calvary's holy mountain,

Sinners, ruined by the fall!

Here a pure and healing fountain

Flows to you, to me, to all,—

In a full, perpetual tide,

Opened when our Saviour died.

2 Come, in sorrow and contrition,

Wounded, impotent, and blind!

Here the guilty, free remission,

Here the troubled, peace may find;
Health this fountain will restore,
He that drinks shall thirst no more—3 He that drinks shall live for ever;
'Tis a soul-renewing flood:
God is faithful; God will never
Break his covenant in blood,
Signed when our Redeemer died,
Sealed when he was glorified.

AN OPEN DOOR. P. M.

ROBERT LOWRY

1. The mistakes of my life are many, The sins of my heart are more, And I scarce can see for weeping; But I knock at the open door. I know I am weak and sin-foul, It comes to me more and more; But when the dear Saviour shall bid me come in, I'll enter that open door.

My sins he will wash away,
And the feet that shrink and falter,
Shall walk through the gate of day.—CHO.

JESUS, Sun of Righteousness,
 Brightest beam of love divine,
 With the early morning rays
 Do thou on our darkness shine,

And dispel with purest light
 All our night,—all our night.

"Jesus, my all." F. C. VAN ALSTYNE.

LORD, at thy mercy-seat,
 Humbly I fall ;
 Pleading thy promise sweet,
 Lord, hear my call ;
 Now let thy work begin,
 Oh, make me pure within,
 Cleanse me from every sin,
 Jesus, my all.

2 Hark ! how the words of love
 Tenderly fall,
 Ere to the realms above,

Heard is my call ;
 Now every doubt has flown,
 Broken my heart of stone,
 Lord, I am thine alone,
 Jesus, my all.

3 Still at thy mercy-seat
 Humbly I fall ;
 Pleading thy promise sweet,
 Heard is my call.
 Faith wings my soul to thee ;
 This all my hope shall be,
 Jesus has died for me,
 Jesus, my all.

REDHEAD. 7s. 6l.

1. O thou God who hear-est prayer Ev-ery hour and every where! For his sake, whose blood I plead,

451*"Hearer of prayer."*

J. CONDER.

O THOU God who hearest prayer
Every hour and everywhere!
For his sake, whose blood I plead,
Hear me in my hour of need:
Only hide not now thy face,
God of all-sufficient grace !

2 Leave me not, my strength, my trust;
Oh, remember I am dust:
Leave me not again to stray;
Leave me not the tempter's prey:
Fix my heart on things above;
Make me happy in thy love.

3 Hear and save me, gracious Lord !
For my trust is in thy word;
Wash me from the stain of sin,
That thy peace may rule within:
May I know myself thy child,
Ransomed, pardoned, reconciled.

452*Look and live.*

A. M. TOPLADY.

SURELY Christ thy griefs hath borne,
Weeping soul, no longer mourn;
View him bleeding on the tree,
Pouring out his life for thee:
There thy every sin he bore;
Weeping soul, lament no more.

2 Weary sinner, keep thine eyes
On the atoning sacrifice:

There the incarnate Deity
Numbered with transgressors see;
There his Father's absence mourns,
Nailed, and bruised, and crowned with thorns.

3 Cast thy guilty soul on him,
Find him mighty to redeem;
At his feet thy burden lay,
Look thy doubts and cares away;
Now by faith the Son embrace,
Plead his promise, trust his grace.

453*"Chief of sinners."*

MC COMB.

CHIEF of sinners though I be,
Jesus shed his blood for me;
Died that I might live on high,
Died that I might never die;
As the branch is to the vine,
I am his and he is mine.

2 Oh, the height of Jesus' love !
Higher than the heavens above,
Deeper than the depths of sea,
Lasting as eternity;
Love that found me,—wondrous thought !—
Found me when I sought him not !

3 Chief of sinners though I be,
Christ is all in all to me;
All my wants to him are known,
All my sorrows are his own;
Safe with him from earthly strife,
He sustains my hidden life.

To keep him standing there.

2 O Jesus, thou art knocking:
And lo! that hand is scarred,
And thorns thy brow encircle,
And tears thy face have marred:
Oh, love that passeth knowledge,
So patiently to wait!
Oh, sin that hath no equal,
So fast to bar the gate!

3 O Jesus, thou art pleading
In accents meek and low,—
“I died for you, my children,

Our Father, set us free!

2 Oh, shouldst thou from us fallen
Withhold thy grace to guide,
For ever we should wander,
From thee, and peace, aside;
But thou to spirits contrite
Dost light and life impart,
That man may learn to serve thee
With thankful, joyous heart.

3 Our souls—on thee we cast them,

THOU only Sovereign of my heart,
My Refuge, my almighty Friend—
And can my soul from thee depart,
On whom alone my hopes depend !
2 Whither, ah ! whither shall I go,
A wretched wanderer from my Lord ?
Can this dark world of sin and woe
One glimpse of happiness afford ?

3 Eternal life thy words impart;
On these my fainting spirit lives;
Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart,
Than all the round of nature gives.
4 Thy name my inmost powers adore;
Thou art my life, my joy, my care;
Depart from thee—'tis death, 'tis more;
'Tis endless ruin, deep despair !

Here safety dwells, and peace divine;
Still let me live beneath thine eye,

'Tis thou alone canst make me whole;
Dark, till in me thine image shine,
And lost I am, till thou art mine.

3 At last I own it cannot be
That I should fit myself for thee:
Here, then, to thee I all resign;
Thine is the work, and only thine.

4 What can I say thy grace to move ?

I give up every plea beside,
Lord, I am lost,—but thou hast died !

Psalm 51.

I. WATTS.

Show pity, Lord ! O Lord ! forgive ;
Let a repenting rebel live ;
Are not thy mercies large and free ?
May not a sinner trust in thee ?

2 Oh, wash my soul from every sin,
And make my guilty conscience clean ;
Here on my heart the burden lies,
And past offences pain mine eyes.

3 My lips with shame my sins confess,
Against thy law, against thy grace :
Lord ! should thy judgments grow severe,
I am condemned, but thou art clear.

4 Should sudden vengeance seize my breath,
I must pronounce thee just in death ;
And, if my soul were sent to hell,
Thy righteous law approves it well.

5 Yet save a trembling sinner, Lord !
Whose hope, still hovering round thy word,
Would light on some sweet promise there,
Some sure support against despair.

- See a poor sinner, dearest Lord,
Whose soul, encouraged by thy word,
At mercy's footstool would remain,
And then would look,—and look again.
2 Ah ! bring a wretched wanderer home,
Now to thy footstool let me come,
And tell thee all my grief and pain,
And wait and look,—and look again !
3 Take courage, then, my trembling soul;
One look from Christ will make thee whole:
Trust thou in him, 'tis not in vain,
But wait and look,—and look again !
4 Ere long that happy day will come,
When I shall reach my blissful home;
And when to glory I attain,
Oh, then I'll look and look again !

S. STENNELL.

PROSTRATE, dear Jesus ! at thy feet,
A guilty rebel lies,
And upwards, to thy mercy-seat,
Presumes to lift his eyes.

- 2 Let not thy justice frown me hence ;
Oh, stay the vengeful storm ;
Forbid it, that Omnipotence
Should crush a feeble worm.
- 3 If tears of sorrow could suffice
To pay the debt I owe,
Tears should, from both my weeping eyes,
In ceaseless currents flow.
- 4 But no such sacrifice I plead
To expiate my guilt ; [shed,—
No tears, but those which thou hast
No blood, but thou hast spilt.
- 5 Think of thy sorrows, dearest Lord !
And all my sins forgive ;
Then justice will approve the word,
That bids the sinner live.

T. HASTINGS.

FORGIVE us, Lord ! to thee we cry,
Forgive us thro' thy matchless grace ;
On thee alone our souls rely,
Be thou our strength and righteousness.

- 2 Forgive thou us, as we forgive
The ills we suffer from our foes ;
Restore us, Lord ! and bid us live ;
Oh ! let us in thine arms repose.
- 3 Forgive us, for our guilt is great !
Our wretched souls no merit claim ;
For sovereign mercy still we wait,
And ask but in the Saviour's name.
- 4 Forgive us,—O thou bleeding Lamb !
Thou risen, thou exalted Lord !
Thou great High-Priest, our souls redeem,
And speak the pardon-sealing word.

473C. M. Psalm 42.

H. F. LYTE.

As pants the hart for cooling streams,
When heated in the chase,
So longs my soul, O God, for thee,
And thy refreshing grace.

- 2 For thee, my God—the living God,
My thirsty soul doth pine ;
Oh, when shall I behold thy face,
Thou Majesty divine !

- 3 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?
Trust God ; who will employ
His aid for thee, and change these sighs
To thankful hymns of joy.
- 4 I sigh to think of happier days,
When thou, O Lord ! wast nigh ;
When every heart was tuned to praise,
And none more blest than I.
- 5 Why restless, why cast down, my soul ?
Hope still ; and thou shalt sing
The praise of him who is thy God,
Thy health's eternal spring.

474L. M. Psalm 51.

I. WATTS.

A BROKEN heart, my God, my King,
Is all the sacrifice I bring :
The God of grace will ne'er despise
A broken heart for sacrifice.

- 2 My soul lies humbled in the dust,
And owns thy dreadful sentence just ;
Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
And save the soul condemned to die.
- 3 Then will I teach the world thy ways ;
Sinners shall learn thy sovereign grace ;
I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood,
And they shall praise a pardoning God.
- 4 Oh, may thy love inspire my tongue !
Salvation shall be all my song ;
And all my powers shall join to bless
The Lord, my Strength and Righteousness.

475C. M. Submission.

ANON.

BE merciful to me, O God !
Be merciful to me ;
For though I sink beneath thy rod,
Yet do I trust in thee.

- 2 Thou art my refuge, and I know
My burden thou dost bear,
And I would seek, where'er I go,
To cast on thee my care.

- 3 Thou knowest, Lord, my flesh how strong though my spirit be ; [frail,
Oh, then assist, when foes assail,
The soul that clings to thee.
- 4 And, gracious Lord, whate'er befall,
A thankful heart be mine,—
A heart that answers to thy call,
One that is wholly thine.

FULL of trembling expectation,
Feeling much, and fearing more,
Mighty God of my salvation !
I thy timely aid implore ;
Suffering Son of Man ! be near me,
All my sufferings to sustain,
By thy sorrows grieves to cheer me,
By thy more than mortal pain.
2 Call to mind that unknown anguish,
In thy days of flesh below ;
When thy troubled soul did languish
Under a whole world of woe ;
When thou didst our curse inherit,
Groan beneath our guilty load,
Burdened with a wounded spirit,
Bruised by the wrath of God.
3 By thy most severe temptation,
In that dark, satanic hour ;
By thy last mysterious passion,
Screen me from the adverse power !
By thy fainting in the garden,
By thy bloody sweat, I pray,
Write upon my heart the pardon,
Take my sins and fears away.

A. L. HILLHOUSE.

TREMBLING before thine awful throne,
O Lord ! in dust my sins I own :
Justice and mercy for my life
Contend ! oh, smile and heal the strife !
2 The Saviour smiles ! upon my soul .
New tides of hope tumultuous roll —
His voice proclaims my paroön found —
Seraphic transport wings the sound.
3 Earth has a joy unknown in heaven,
The new-born peace of sin forgiven !
Tears of such pure and deep delight,
Ye angels ! never dimmed your sight.
4 Ye saw of old, on chaos rise
The beauteous pillars of the skies :
Ye know where morn exulting springs,
And evening folds her drooping wings.
5 Bright heralds of the eternal Will,
Abroad his errands ye fulfill ;
Or, throned in floods of beamy day,
Symphonious, in his presence play.
6 But I amid your choirs shall shine,
And all your knowledge will be mine :
Ye on your harps must lean to hear
A secret chord that mine will bear.

LABORING and heavy-laden

With my sins, O Lord, I roam,
While I know thou hast invited
All such wanderers to their home.
2 Make my stubborn spirit willing
To obey thy gracious voice,
At the cross to leave its burden,
And departing to rejoice.

3 Thy sweet yoke I'd take upon me,
And would learn, O Lord, of thee,
Thou art meek in heart, and lowly,
Teach me like thyself to be.

4 Laboring and heavy-laden,
Lord, no longer will I roam :
Here I fix my habitation,
In thy sheltering love at home.

C. WESLEY.

VAIN, delusive world, adieu,
With all of creature good !
Only Jesus I pursue,
Who bought me with his blood :
All thy pleasures I forego ;
I trample on thy wealth and pride ;
Only Jesus will I know,
And Jesus crucified.

2 Other knowledge I disdain ;

'T is all but vanity :
Christ, the Lamb of God, was slain,—
He tasted death for me.
Me to save from endless woe,
The sin-atoning Victim died :
Only Jesus will I know,
And Jesus crucified.

And let it be thy rest !

Here we wait thy holy will;
Bound to earth, and rooted here,

Firmly fixed no more to move;

Little thought of Satan's power;
Now I feel my sins anew;

Sin has put my joys to flight;

Sin has turned my day to night.

Let me live alone to thee.

Bright with thy praise,
Out of my stony griefs
Bethel I'll raise;
So by my woes to be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee!

2 Once earthly joy I craved,
Sought peace and rest;
Now thee alone I seek,
Give what is best:
This all my prayer shall be,—
More love, O Christ, to thee,
More love to thee!

3 Then shall my latest breath
Whisper thy praise;
This be the parting cry
My heart shall raise,—
This still its prayer shall be,—
More love, O Christ, to thee,

DEPTH of mercy!—can there be
Mercy still reserved for me?

499*"Lovest thou Me."*

J. NEWTON.

'Tis a point I long to know,
Oft it causes anxious thought;
Do I love the Lord, or no?

Am I his, or am I not?

2 Could my heart so hard remain,
Prayer a task and burden prove,
Every trifle give me pain,
If I knew a Saviour's love?

3 Yet I mourn my stubborn will,
Find my sin a grief and thrall;
Should I grieve for what I feel,
If I did not love at all?

4 Could I joy with saints to meet,
Choose the ways I once abhorred,
Find at times the promise sweet,
If I did not love the Lord?

5 Lord, decide the doubtful case,
Thou who art thy people's Sun;
Shine upon thy work of grace,
If it be indeed begun.

3 Kindled his relentings are;
Me he now delights to spare;
Cries, How shall I give thee up?—
Lets the lifted thunder drop.

4 There for me the Saviour stands;
Shows his wounds and spreads his hands!
God is love! I know, I feel:
Jesus weeps, and loves me still.

Oh, these ever-roaming eyes,
Upward that refuse to rise !
Oh, these wayward feet of mine,
Found in every path but thine !

2 Oh, this stubborn, prayerless knee,
Hands so seldom clasped to thee,
Longings of the soul, that go
Like the wild wind, to and fro !
To and fro, without an aim,
Turning idly whence they came,
Bringing in no joy, no bliss,
Only adding weariness !

3 Giver of the heavenly peace !
Bid, oh, bid these tumults cease;
Minister thy holy balm;
Fill me with thy Spirit's calm:
Thou, the Life, the Truth, the Way,
Leave me not in sin to stay;
Bearer of the sinner's guilt,
Lead me, lead me, as thou wilt.

T. HASTINGS.

JESUS, merciful and mild,
 Lead me as a helpless child:
 On no other arm but thine
 Would my weary soul recline;
 Thou art ready to forgive,
 Thou canst bid the sinner live—
 Guide the wanderer day by day,
 In the strait and narrow way.

2 Thou canst fit me by thy grace
 For the heavenly dwelling-place;
 All thy promises are sure,
 Ever shall thy love endure;
 Then what more could I desire,
 How to greater bliss aspire?
 All I need, in thee I see,
 Thou art all in all to me.

JESUS, Jesus! visit me;
 How my soul longs after thee!
 When, my best, my dearest Friend!
 Shall our separation end?

2 Lord! my longings never cease;
 Without thee I find no peace;
 'Tis my constant cry to thee,—
 Jesus, Jesus! visit me.

3 Mean the joys of earth appear,
 All below is dark and drear;
 Naught but thy beloved voice
 Can my wretched heart rejoice.

 Art my shield and great reward;
 All my hope, my Saviour thou,—
 To thy sovereign will I bow.

And life's vain shadows chase no more ;
Seek out some solitude to mourn,
And thy forsaken God implore.

Distinctly marks each deep retreat,
In these sequestered hours draw nigh,

C. ELLIOTT.

With tearful eyes I look around ;
Life seems a dark and stormy sea ;
Yet, 'mid the gloom, I hear a sound,
A heavenly whisper, "Come to me."

2 It tells me of a place of rest;
It tells me where my soul may flee :
Oh, to the weary, faint, oppressed,
How sweet the bidding, "Come to me!"

3 "Come, for all else must fail and die !
Earth is no resting-place for thee ;
To heaven direct thy weeping eye,
I am thy portion ; come to me."

4 O voice of mercy ! voice of love !
In conflict, grief, and agony,
Support me, cheer me from above !
And gently whisper, "Come to me."

509L. M. Our Companion.

I. WATTS.

My God ! permit me not to be
A stranger to myself and thee ;
Amidst a thousand thoughts I rove,
Forgetful of my highest love.

2 Why should my passions mix with earth,
And thus debase my heavenly birth ?
Why should I cleave to things below,
And let my God, my Saviour, go ?

3 Call me away from flesh and sense ;
One sovereign word can draw me thence ;
I would obey the voice divine,
And all inferior joys resign.

4 Be earth, with all her scenes, with-
Let noise and vanity be gone ; [drawn,
In secret silence of the mind,
My heaven, and there my God, I find.

"Give me thine heart."

A. STEELE.

JESUS demands this heart of mine,
Demands my love, my joy, my care ;
But ah ! how dead to things divine,
How cold my best affections are !

2 'Tis sin, alas ! with dreadful power,
Divides my Saviour from my sight ;
Oh, for one happy, cloudless hour
Of sacred freedom, sweet delight !

3 Come, gracious Lord ! thy love can raise
My captive powers from sin and death,
And fill my heart and life with praise,
And tune my last expiring breath.

511C. M. "His great love."

S. BROWNE.

LORD ! at thy feet we sinners lie,
And knock at mercy's door :
With heavy heart and downcast eye,
Thy favor we implore.

2 On us the vast extent display
Of thy forgiving love ;
Take all our heinous guilt away ;
This heavy load remove.

3 'T is mercy—mercy we implore ;
We would thy pity move :
Thy grace is an exhaustless store,
And thou thyself art love.

4 Oh, for thine own, for Jesus' sake,
Our numerous sins forgive !
Thy grace our rocky hearts can break :
Heal us, and bid us live.

512 L. M., 61. 1 John 4: 18.

ANON.

"PERFECT in love!" Lord, can it be,
Amid this state of doubt and sin?
While foes so thick without, I see,
With weakness, pain, disease within;
Can perfect love inhabit here,
And, strong in faith, extinguish fear?
2 O Lord! amid this mental night,
Amid the clouds of dark dismay,
Arise! arise! shed forth thy light,
And kindle love's meridian day:
My Saviour God, to me appear,
So love shall triumph over fear.

513 L. M.Psalm 130.

I. WATTS.

FROM deep distress and troubled thoughts,
To thee, my God, I raise my cries;
If thou severely mark our faults,
No flesh can stand before thine eyes.
2 But thou hast built thy throne of grace,
Free to dispense thy pardons there;
That sinners may approach thy face,
And hope and love, as well as fear.
3 As the benighted pilgrims wait,
And long, and wish for breaking day,
So waits my soul before thy gate:
When will my God his face display?
4 My trust is fixed upon thy word,
Nor shall I trust thy word in vain;
Let mourning souls address the Lord,
And find relief from all their pain.
5 Great is his love, and large his grace,
Through the redemption of his Son;
He turns our feet from sinful ways,
And pardons what our hands have done.

514 7s.Psalm 13.

W. GOODE.

LORD of mercy, just and kind!
Wilt thou ne'er my guilt forgive?
Never shall my troubled mind,
In thy kind remembrance, live?
2 Lord! how long shall Satan's art
Tempt my harassed soul to sin,
Triumph o'er my humbled heart,—
Fears without and guilt within?
3 Lord, my God! thine ear incline,
Bending to the prayer of faith;
Cheer my eyes with light divine,
Lest I sleep the sleep of death.

515 C. M. "Weary, Heavy-laden." J. NEWTON.

APPROACH, my soul! the mercy-seat,
Where Jesus answers prayer;
There humbly fall before his feet,
For none can perish there.

- 2 Thy promise is my only plea,
With this I venture nigh:
Thou callest burdened souls to thee,
And such, O Lord! am I.
- 3 Bowed down beneath a load of sin,
By Satan sorely pressed;
By war without, and fears within,
I come to thee for rest.
- 4 Be thou my shield and hiding-place,
That, sheltered near thy side,
I may my fierce accuser face,
And tell him—thou hast died.
- 5 Oh, wondrous Love—to bleed and die,
To bear the cross and shame
That guilty sinners, such as I,
Might plead thy gracious name!

516 7s, 6s, 8s. "Without Care."

C. WESLEY.

THOU, O Lord, in tender love,
Dost all my burdens bear;
Lift my heart to things above,
And fix it ever there!
Calm in tumult's whirl I sit,
'Midst busy multitudes alone;
Sweetly waiting at thy feet,
Till all thy will be done.

- 2 Careful without care I am,
Nor feel my happy toil!
Kept in peace by Jesus' name,
Supported by his smile.
Joyful thus my faith to show,
I find his service my reward;
Every work I do below,
I do it to the Lord.

- 3 To the desert or the cell,
Let others blindly fly,
In this evil world I dwell,
Unhurt, unspotted, I.
Here I find a house of prayer,
To which I inwardly retire;
Walking unconcerned in care,
And unconsumed in fire.

By ancient worthies trod;
Aspiring, view those holy men
Who lived and walked with God.

- 2 Though dead, they speak in reason's ear,
And in example live;
Their faith, and hope, and mighty deeds
Still fresh instruction give.
- 3 'Twas thro' the Lamb's most precious blood
They conquered every foe;
And to his power and matchless grace
Their crowns of life they owe.
- 4 Lord, may I ever keep in view
The patterns thou hast given,
And ne'er forsake the blessed road
That led them safe to heaven.

THOS. HASTINGS.

1. In time of fear, when trouble's near, I look to thine a - bode; Though helpers fail, and foes prevail, I'll put my trust in God, I'll put my trust.... in God.

536 "What time I am afraid." T. HASTINGS.
 In time of fear, when trouble's near,
 I look to thine abode;
 Though helpers fail, and foes prevail,
 I'll put my trust in God.

2 And what is life, 'mid toil and strife?
 What terror has the grave?
 Thine arm of power, in peril's hour,
 The trembling soul will save.

3 In darkest skies, though storms arise,
 I will not be dismayed:
 O God of light, and boundless might,
 My soul on thee is stayed!

537 "I shall be with Him." R. BAXTER.

LORD, it belongs not to my care
 Whether I die or live;
 To love and serve thee is my share,
 And this thy grace must give.

2 If life be long, I will be glad
 That I may long obey;
 If short, yet why should I be sad
 To soar to endless day?

3 Christ leads me through no darker rooms
 Than he went through before;
 No one into his kingdom comes,
 But through his opened door.

4 Come, Lord, when grace has made me
 Thy blessed face to see; [meet,
 For if thy work on earth be sweet,
 What will thy glory be?

5 Then shall I end my sad complaints,
 And weary, sinful days,
 And join with all triumphant saints
 Who sing Jehovah's praise.

6 My knowledge of that life is small;
 The eye of faith is dim;
 But 'tis enough that Christ knows all,
 And I shall be with him.

538 "If God be for us." F. W. FABER.
 God's glory is a wondrous thing,
 Most strange in all its ways,
 And of all things on earth, least like
 What men agree to praise.

2 Oh, blest is he to whom is given
 The instinct that can tell
 That God is on the field, when he
 Is most invisible!

3 And blest is he who can divine
 Where real right doth lie,
 And dares to take the side that seems
 Wrong to man's blindfold eye!

4 Oh, learn to scorn the praise of men!
 Oh, learn to lose with God!
 For Jesus won the world through shame,
 And beckons thee his road.

5 And right is right, since God is God;
 And right the day must win;
 To doubt would be disloyalty,
 To falter would be sin!

539

The Race.

P. DODDRIDGE.

A WAKE, my soul, stretch every nerve,
And press with vigor on;
A heavenly race demands thy zeal,
And an immortal crown.

- 2 A cloud of witnesses around
Hold thee in full survey;
Forget the steps already trod,
And onward urge thy way.
- 3 'Tis God's all-animating voice,
That calls thee from on high,
'Tis his own hand presents the prize
To thine aspiring eye.
- 4 Blest Saviour, introduced by thee
Have I my race begun;
And, crowned with victory, at thy feet
I'll lay my honors down.

540

The Warfare.

I. WATTS.

- AM I a soldier of the cross,
A follower of the Lamb?
And shall I fear to own his cause,
Or blush to speak his name?
- 2 Must I be carried to the skies
On flowery beds of ease?
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
 - 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?

4 Sure I must fight, if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord!
I'll bear the toil, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.

5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

6 When that illustrious day shall rise,
And all thine armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

541

"I'm not ashamed."

I. WATTS.

I'M NOT ashamed to own my Lord,
Or to defend his cause;
Maintain the honor of his word,
The glory of his cross.

- 2 Jesus, my God!—I know his name—
His name is all my trust;
Nor will he put my soul to shame,
Nor let my hope be lost.
- 3 Firm as his throne his promise stands,
And he can well secure
What I've committed to his hands,
Till the decisive hour.
- 4 Then will he own my worthless name
Before his Father's face,
And in the new Jerusalem
Appoint my soul a place.

1. Sing, all ye ransomed of the Lord, Your great Deliverer sing;
 Ye pilgrims, now for Zion bound, Be joyful in your King.
 Be joyful in ... your King.

542

Isaiah 35: 8-10.

P. DODDRIDGE.

SING, all ye ransomed of the Lord,
 Your great Deliverer sing;
 Ye pilgrims, now for Zion bound,
 Be joyful in your King.
 2 His hand divine shall lead you on,
 Through all the blissful road;
 Till to the sacred mount you rise,
 And see your gracious God.

- 3 Bright garlands of immortal joy
 Shall bloom on every head;
 While sorrow, sighing, and distress,
 Like shadows, all are fled.
 4 March on in your Redeemer's strength;
 Pursue his footsteps still;
 And let the prospect cheer your eye
 While laboring up the hill.

1. Must Jesus bear the cross alone, And all the world go free? No, there's a cross for ev'ry one, And there's a cross for me.

- 543 No cross, no crown. T. SHEPHERD, alt.
 Must Jesus bear the cross alone,
 And all the world go free?
 No, there's a cross for every one,
 And there's a cross for me.
 2 How happy are the saints above,
 Who once went sorrowing here!
 But now they taste unmixed love,
 And joy without a tear.
 3 The consecrated cross I'll bear,
 Till death shall set me free;
 And then go home my crown to wear,
 For there's a crown for me.

- 4 Upon the crystal pavement, down
 At Jesus' pierced feet,
 Joyful, I'll cast my golden crown,
 And his dear name repeat.
 5 And palms shall wave, and harps shall ring,
 Beneath heaven's arches high;
 The Lord that lives, the ransomed sing,
 That lives no more to die.
 6 Oh, precious cross! oh, glorious crown!
 Oh, resurrection day!
 Ye angels, from the stars come down,
 And bear my soul away.

THE people of the Lord
Are on their way to heaven;
There they obtain their great reward;
The prize will there be given.

2 'Tis conflict here below;
'Tis triumph there, and peace:
On earth we wrestle with the foe;
In heaven our conflicts cease.

3 'Tis gloom and darkness here;
'Tis light and joy above;
There all is pure, and all is clear;
There all is peace and love.

4 There rest shall follow toil,
And ease succeed to care:
The victors there divide the spoil;
They sing and triumph there.

5 Then let us joyful sing:
The conflict is not long:
We hope in heaven to praise our King
In one eternal song.

Musical score for 'Mine eyes and my desire' in 3/4 time, B-flat major. The score consists of two staves: treble and bass. The lyrics are integrated into the music. The first line of the lyrics is: '1. Mine eyes and my de - sire Are ev - er to the Lord;'

550*Psalm 25.*

I. WATTS.

MINE eyes and my desire
Are ever to the Lord;
I love to plead his promises,
And rest upon his word.

2 Lord, turn to thee my soul;
Bring thy salvation near:
When will thy hand release my feet
From sin's destructive snare?

3 When shall the sovereign grace
Of my forgiving God
Restore me from those dangerous ways
My wandering feet have trod?

4 Oh, keep my soul from death,
Nor put my hope to shame!
For I have placed my only trust
In my Redeemer's name.

5 With humble faith I wait
To see thy face again;
Of Israel it shall ne'er be said,
He sought the Lord in vain.

551*Psalm 60.*

T. KELLY.

ARISE, ye saints, arise!
The Lord our Leader is;
The foe before his banner flies,
And victory is his.

2 We follow thee, our Guide,
Our Saviour, and our King!
We follow thee, through grace supplied
From heaven's eternal spring.

- 3 We soon shall see the day
When all our toils shall cease;
When we shall cast our arms away,
And dwell in endless peace.
- 4 This hope supports us here;
It makes our burdens light;
'T will serve our drooping hearts to cheer,
Till faith shall end in sight.

We hear of war no more;
And ever with our Leader rest,

553 Our Salvation near. A. M. TOPLADY.

YOUR harps, ye trembling saints,
Down from the willows take;
Loud to the praise of love divine
Bid every string awake.

2 Though in a foreign land,
We are not far from home;
And nearer to our house above
We every moment come.

3 His grace will to the end
Stronger and brighter shine;
Nor present things, nor things to come,
Shall quench the spark divine.

4 When we in darkness walk,
Nor feel the heavenly flame,
Then is the time to trust our God,
And rest upon his name.

5 Soon shall our doubts and fears
Subside at his control;
His loving-kindness shall break through
The midnight of the soul.

6 Bless is the man, O God,
Who stays himself on thee;
Who waits for thy salvation, Lord,
Shall thy salvation see.

554 "Be of good courage." J. WESLEY, tr.
GIVE to the winds thy fears;
Hope, and be undismayed;
God hears thy sighs and counts thy tears;
God shall lift up thy head.

2 Through waves, and clouds, and storms,
He gently clears thy way;
Wait thou his time; so shall this night
Soon end in joyous day.

3 What though thou rulest not!
Yet heaven, and earth, and hell
Proclaim, God sitteth on the throne,
And ruleth all things well.

4 Far, far above thy thought
His counsel shall appear,
When fully he the work has wrought,
That caused thy needless fear.

555*Matthew 6: 25-34.*

W. COWPER.

SOMETIMES a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings:
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new:
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing,
But he will bring us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too:
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens,
Will give his children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks, nor herds be there;

Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For while in him confiding,
I cannot but rejoice.

556*Perfect peace.*

A. E. WARING.

In heavenly love abiding,
No change my heart shall fear,
And safe is such confiding,
For nothing changes here:
The storm may roar without me,
My heart may low be laid,
But God is round about me,
And can I be dismayed?

2 Wherever he may guide me,
No want shall turn me back;
My Shepherd is beside me,
And nothing can I lack:
His wisdom ever waketh,
His sight is never dim:
He knows the way he taketh,
And I will walk with him.

3 Green pastures are before me,
Which yet I have not seen;
Bright skies will soon be o'er me,
Where darkest clouds have been:
My hope I cannot measure;
My path to life is free;
My Saviour has my treasure,
And he will walk with me.

Ever disturbed by anxious strife,
By sudden, wild alarms!
Oh, could we but relinquish all
Our earthly props, and simply fall
On thine almighty arms!

When temptations come, alluring,
Make us patient and enduring;
Show us that bright shore

A musical score for a three-part setting of "The Lord is my Shepherd". The top part is for soprano, the middle for alto, and the bottom for bass. The music is in common time, with a key signature of one flat. The vocal parts sing in unison, accompanied by a piano or organ playing a harmonic basso continuo line. The score includes lyrics in parentheses above the notes and dynamic markings such as forte (f) and piano (p). The piece concludes with a final cadence and the word "FINE.".

Speedily return, and never,
Never more thy temples leave!

Perfectly secured by thee!

Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

Art thou sore distressed?
"Come to me," saith One, "and coming,

- 2 Hath he marks to lead me to him,
If he be my Guide?—
"In his feet and hands are wound-prints,

That his brow adorns?—
"Yea, a crown, in very surety;
But of thorns."
- 4 If I find him, if I follow,
What his guerdon here?—

Many a tear."

5 If I still hold closely to him,
What hath he at last?—
"Sorrow vanquished, labor ended,

6 If I ask him to receive me,
Will he say me nay?—

Psalm 77.

J. MONTGOMERY.

In time of tribulation,

Hear, Lord ! my feeble cries ;

With humble supplication

To thee my spirit flies :

My heart with grief is breaking ;

Scarce can my voice complain :

Mine eyes, with tears kept waking,
Still watch and weep in vain.

2 Thee, with the tribes assembled,
O God, the billows saw ;

They saw thee and they trembled,
Turned, and stood still with awe.

The clouds shot hail,—they lightened,—
The earth reeled to and fro ;

The fiery pillar brightened
The gulf of gloom below.

3 Thy way is in great waters :

Thy footsteps are not known :

Let Adam's sons and daughters
Confide in thee alone :

Through the wild sea thou leddest
Thy chosen flock of yore :

Still on the waves thou treadest,
And thy redeemed pass o'er.

Why fails the feeble hand ?

Words of cheer and words of love;
Thus the risen Saviour whispers,

Sowing much and reaping none;
Telling us that in the future
Golden harvests shall be won.
 - 3 With us when the storm is sweeping
O'er our pathway dark and drear;
Waking hope within our bosoms,
Stilling every anxious fear.

When we cross the chilling stream—
Lighting up the steps to glory
With salvation's radiant beam.

Thou Lamb of Calvary,
Saviour divine!
Now hear me while I pray,
Take all my guilt away,
Oh, let me from this day
Be wholly thine!
2 May thy rich grace impart
Strength to my fainting heart,
My zeal inspire;
As thou hast died for me,
Oh, may my love to thee
Pure, warm, and changeless be,
A living fire!

1. Je-sus, thy name I love, All oth-er names above, Je-sus, my Lord! { Oh, thou art all to me! Nothing to please I see, }

601*"Jesus my Lord!"*

J. G. DECK.

JESUS, thy name I love,
All other names above,
Jesus, my Lord!
Oh, thou art all to me!
Nothing to please I see,
Nothing apart from thee,
Jesus, my Lord!
2 Thou, blessed Son of God,
Hast bought me with thy blood,
Jesus, my Lord!

3 While life's dark maze I tread,
And griefs around me spread,
Be thou my guide;
Bid darkness turn to day,
Wipe sorrow's tears away,
Nor let me ever stray
From thee aside.

4 When ends life's transient dream,
When death's cold, sullen stream
Shall o'er me roll,
Blest Saviour! then, in love,
Fear and distrust remove;
Oh, bear me safe above,
A ransomed soul!

Oh, how great is thy love,
All other loves above,
Love that I daily prove,
Jesus, my Lord!

3 When unto thee I flee,
Thou wilt my refuge be,
Jesus, my Lord!
What need I now to fear?
What earthly grief or care,
Since thou art ever near?
Jesus, my Lord!

4 Soon thou wilt come again!
I shall be happy then,
Jesus, my Lord!
Then thine own face I'll see,
Then I shall like thee be,
Then evermore with thee,
Jesus, my Lord!

SCOTCH VERS.

THE Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want:
He makes me down to lie
In pastures green; he leadeth me
The quiet waters by.

2 My soul he doth restore again;
And me to walk doth make
Within the paths of righteousness,
Ev'n for his own name's sake.

3 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale,
Yet will I fear no ill;
For thou art with me, and thy rod
And staff me comfort still.

4 My table thou hast furnishéd
In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
And my cup overflows.

5 Goodness and mercy, all my life,
Shall surely follow me;
And in God's house for evermore
My dwelling-place shall be.

P. DODDRIDGE.

Do not I love thee, O my Lord?
Behold my heart, and see;
And turn the dearest idol out
That dares to rival thee.

2 Is not thy name melodious still
To mine attentive ear?
Doth not each pulse with pleasure bound,
My Saviour's voice to hear?

3 Hast thou a lamb in all thy flock
I would disdain to feed ?
Hast thou a foe, before whose face
I fear thy cause to plead ?

4 Would not my heart pour forth its blood
In honor of thy name?
And challenge the cold hand of death
To damp the immortal flame?

5 Thou knowest that I love thee, Lord;
But, oh, I long to soar
Far from the sphere of mortal joys,
And learn to love thee more.

604 "Whom unseen, we love." RAY PALMER.

JESUS, these eyes have never seen
That radiant form of thine!
The veil of sense hangs dark between
Thy blessed face and mine!

2 I see thee not, I hear thee not,
Yet art thou oft with me;
And earth hath ne'er so dear a spot,
As where I meet with thee.

3 Like some bright dream that comes un-
When slumbers o'er me roll, [sought,
Thine image ever fills my thought,
And charms my ravished soul.

4 Yet though I have not seen, and still Must rest in faith alone;
I love thee, dearest Lord!—and will,
Unseen, but not unknown.

5 When death these mortal eyes shall seal,
And still this throbbing heart,
The rending veil shall thee reveal,
All glorious as thou art!

605 Strength, Fortress, Refuge. A. STEELE.

DEAR Refuge of my weary soul,
On thee, when sorrows rise,
On thee, when waves of trouble roll,
My fainting hope relies.

2 To thee I tell each rising grief,
For thou alone canst heal;
Thy word can bring a sweet relief
For every pain I feel.

3 But oh, when gloomy doubts prevail,
I fear to call thee mine;
The springs of comfort seem to fail,
And all my hopes decline.

4 Yet, gracious God, where shall I flee?
Thou art my only trust;
And still my soul would cleave to thee,
Though prostrate in the dust.

Here let my soul retreat,
With humble hope attend thy will,
And wait beneath thy feet.

RAY PALMER.

Oh, sweetly breathe the lyres above,
When angels touch the quivering string,
And wake, to chant Immanuel's love,
Such strains as angel-lips can sing !

From mortal tongues, of gladsome lays;
When pardoned souls their raptures tell,
And, grateful, hymn Immanuel's praise.

3 Jesus, thy name our souls adore;
We own the bond that makes us thine;
And carnal joys that charmed before,
For thy dear sake we now resign.

4 Our hearts, by dying love subdued,
Accept thine offered grace to-day;
Beneath the cross, with blood bedewed,
We bow, and give ourselves away.

My beauty are, my glorious dress;

To claim my mansion in the skies—
Ev'n then, this shall be all my plea:

2 Oh, tell me the place where thy flock are
at rest,
Where the noontide will find them re-

The tempest now rages, my soul is dis-

And the pathway of peace I am losing. 5 A voice from the Shepherd now bids me return
By the way where the footprints are

No longer to wander, no longer to mourn:
And homeward my spirit is flying.

BLESSED Saviour! thee I love,
 All my other joys above;
 All my hopes in thee abide,
 Thou my hope, and naught beside:
 Ever let my glory be,
 Only, only, only thee.
 2 Once again beside the cross,
 All my gain I count but loss;
 Earthly pleasures fade away,—
 Clouds they are that hide my day:
 Hence, vain shadows! let me see
 Jesus, crucified for me.

3 Blessed Saviour, thine am I,
 Thine to live, and thine to die;
 Height, or depth, or earthly power,
 Ne'er shall hide my Saviour more:
 Ever shall my glory be
 Only, only, only thee!

3 I'd sing the characters he bears,
 And all the forms of love he wears,
 Exalted on his throne:
 In loftiest songs of sweetest praise,
 I would to everlasting days
 Make all his glories known.

4 Well—the delightful day will come,
 When my dear Lord will bring me home,
 And I shall see his face:
 Then with my Saviour, Brother, Friend,
 A blest eternity I'll spend,
 Triumphant in his grace.

2 Other lords have long-held sway;
 Now thy name alone to bear,
 Thy dear voice alone obey,
 Is my daily, hourly prayer.

Whom have I in heaven but thee?
 Nothing else my joy can be.

3 Jesus, Master, I am thine;
 Keep me faithful, keep me near;
 Let thy presence in me shine

I ONCE WAS a stranger to grace and to God;
I knew not my danger, and felt not my load;
Though friends spoke in rapture of Christ
on the tree,
Jehovah, my Saviour, seemed nothing to me.

2 When free grace awoke me by light from on high,
Then legal fears shook me: I trembled to die:
No refuge, no safety, in self could I see:
Jehovah, thou only my Saviour must be!

3 My terrors all vanished before his sweet
name;
My guilty fears banished, with boldness I came
To drink at the fountain, so copious and free:
Jehovah, my Saviour, is all things to me.

4 Jehovah, the Lord, is my treasure and boast;
Jehovah, my Saviour, I ne'er can be lost;
In thee I shall conquer, by flood and by field,
Jehovah my anchor, Jehovah my shield!

2 While looking to Jesus, my heart cannot fear;
I tremble no more when I see Jesus near;
I know that his presence my safeguard will be,
For, "Why are you troubled?" he saith

3 Still looking to Jesus, oh, may I be found,
When Jordan's dark waters encompass me round:
They bear me away in his presence to be:
I see him still nearer whom always I see.

4 Then, then shall I know the full beauty

Shall know how his love went before me

The musical score consists of two staves of music. The top staff is in treble clef, common time, and the bottom staff is in bass clef, common time. The lyrics are integrated into the music, appearing below the notes. The first section of lyrics is:

1. Ye angels! who stand round the throne, And view my Immanuel's face,— In rapturous songs make him known, Oh, tune your soft harps to his praise: He formed you the spirits you are, So happy, so noble, so good; When others sank down in despair, Confirmed by his pow'er, ye stood.

625*Philippians 1:23.*

M. DE FLEURY.

YE angels! who stand round the throne,
And view my Immanuel's face,—
In rapturous songs make him known,
Oh, tune your soft harps to his praise:
He formed you the spirits you are,
So happy, so noble, so good;
When others sank down in despair,
Confirmed by his power, ye stood.

2 Ye saints! who stand nearer than they,
And cast your bright crowns at his feet,
His grace and his glory display,
And all his rich mercy repeat;
He snatched you from hell and the grave,
He ransomed from death and despair:
For you he was mighty to save,
Almighty to bring you safe there.

3 Oh, when will the period appear
When I shall unite in your song?
I'm weary of lingering here,
And I to your Saviour belong!
I want—oh, I want to be there,
To sorrow and sin bid adieu—
Your joy and your friendship to share—
To wonder, and worship with you!

626*"Not seen, ye love."*

W. COWPER.

My Saviour, whom absent I love,
Whom, not having seen, I adore,
Whose name is exalted above
All glory, dominion, and power,—
Dissolve thou these bands that detain
My soul from her portion in thee;
Ah, strike off this adamant chain,
And make me eternally free!

2 When that happy era begins,
When arrayed in thy glories I shine,
Nor grieve any more, by my sins,
The bosom on which I recline,
Oh, then shall the veil be removed,
And round me thy brightness be poured!
I shall meet him, whom absent I loved,
I shall see, whom unseen I adored.

3 And then, nevermore shall the fears,
The trials, temptations, and woes,
Which darken this valley of tears,
Intrude on my blissful repose:
To Jesus, the crown of my hope,
My soul is in haste to be gone;
Oh, bear me, ye cherubim, up,
And waft me away to his throne!

"To live is Christ."

R. WARDLAW.

CHRIST, of all my hopes the Ground,
Christ, the Spring of all my joy,
Still in thee let me be found,
Still for thee my powers employ.

2 Fountain of o'erflowing grace!
Freely from thy fullness give;
Till I close my earthly race,
Be it "Christ for me to live!"

3 Firmly trusting in thy blood,
Nothing shall my heart confound;
Safely I shall pass the flood,
Safely reach Immanuel's ground.

4 When I touch the blessed shore,
Back the closing waves shall roll!
Death's dark stream shall nevermore
Part from thee my ravished soul.

5 Thus—oh, thus an entrance give
To the land of cloudless sky;
Having known it "Christ to live,"
Let me know it "gain to die."

1. Blessed fountain, full of grace! Grace for sinners, grace for me, To this source alone I trace What I am and hope to be,

630*"I am what I am."*

T. KELLY.

BLESSED fountain, full of grace!
Grace for sinners, grace for me,
To this source alone I trace
What I am, and hope to be.
2 What I am, as one redeemed,
Saved and rescued by the Lord;
Hating what I once esteemed,
Loving what I once abhorred.
3 What I hope to be ere long,
When I take my place above;

When I join the heavenly throng;
When I see the God of love.

- 4 Then I hope like him to be,
Who redeemed his saints from sin,
Whom I now obscurely see,
Through a vail that stands between.
5 Blessed fountain, full of grace!
Grace for sinners, grace for me;
To this source alone I trace
What I am, and hope to be.

631*"Who first loved us."*

J. E. LEESON.

SAVIOUR! teach me, day by day,
Love's sweet lesson to obey;
Sweeter lesson cannot be,
Loving him who first loved me.

- 2 With a childlike heart of love,
At thy bidding may I move;
Prompt to serve and follow thee,
Loving him who first loved me.
3 Teach me all thy steps to trace,
Strong to follow in thy grace;

Learning how to love from thee,
Loving him who first loved me.

- 4 Love in loving finds employ—
In obedience all her joy;
Ever new that joy will be,
Loving him who first loved me.
5 Thus may I rejoice to show
That I feel the love I owe;
Singing, till thy face I see,
Of his love who first loved me.

C. M. "He is precious." O. HEGINBOTHAM.

BLEST Jesus ! when my soaring thoughts
O'er all thy graces rove,
How is my soul in transport lost,—
In wonder, joy, and love !

2 Not softest strains can charm my ears,
Like thy beloved name ;
Nor aught beneath the skies inspire
My heart with equal flame.

3 Where'er I look, my wondering eyes
Unnumbered blessings see ;
But what is life, with all its bliss,
If once compared with thee ?

4 Hast thou a rival in my breast ?
Search, Lord, for thou canst tell
If aught can raise my passions thus,
Or please my soul so well.

5 No ; thou art precious to my heart,
My portion and my joy :
For ever let thy boundless grace
My sweetest thoughts employ.

633C. M. D. Jesus' Words.

H. BONAR.

I HEARD the voice of Jesus say,—
“ Come unto me and rest :
Lay down, thou weary one, lay down
Thy head upon my breast ! ”
I came to Jesus as I was,
Weary, and worn, and sad,
I found in him a resting-place,
And he hath made me glad.

2 I heard the voice of Jesus say,—
“ Behold I freely give
The living water ; thirsty one,
Stoop down, and drink, and live ! ”
I came to Jesus, and I drank
Of that life-giving stream ;
My thirst was quenched, my soul re-
And now I live in him. [vived,

3 I heard the voice of Jesus say,—
“ I am this dark world's light ;
Look unto me, thy morn shall rise
And all thy day be bright ! ”
I looked to Jesus, and I found
In him my Star, my Sun ;
And in that light of life I'll walk,
Till all my journey's done.

7S, 61. Psalm 23.

ANON.

SHEPHERD ! with thy tenderest love,
Guide me to thy fold above ;
Let me hear thy gentle voice ;
More and more in thee rejoice ;
From thy fullness grace receive,
Ever in thy Spirit live.

2 Filled by thee my cup o'erflows,
For thy love no limit knows :
Guardian angels, ever nigh,
Lead and draw my soul on high ;
Constant to my latest end,
Thou my footsteps wilt attend.

3 Jesus, with thy presence blest,
Death is life, and labor rest ;
Guide me while I draw my breath,
Guard me through the gate of death ;
And at last, oh, let me stand,
With the sheep at thy right hand.

635

L. M. D. "I love thee, Lord!"

R. HEBER.

THOUGH sorrows rise and dangers roll,
In waves of darkness o'er my soul ;
Though friends are false, and love de-
And few and evil are my days ; [cays,
Though conscience, fiercest of my foes,
Swells with remembered guilt my woes ;
Yet ev'n in nature's utmost ill,
I love thee, Lord ! I love thee still !

2 Though Sinai's curse, in thunder dread,
Peals o'er mine unprotected head,
And memory points, with busy pain,
To grace and mercy given in vain ;
Till nature, shrinking in the strife,
Would fly to hell to 'scape from life ;
Though every thought has power to kill,
I love thee, Lord ! I love thee still !

3 Oh, by the pangs thyself hast borne,
The ruffian's blow, the tyrant's scorn,
By Sinai's curse, whose dreadful doom
Was buried in thy guiltless tomb ;
By these my pangs, whose healing smart,
Thy grace hath planted in my heart—
I know, I feel thy bounteous will,
Thou lov'st me, Lord ! thou lov'st me still !

Psalm 23.

I. WATTS.

My Shepherd will supply my need,
Jehovah is his name;
In pastures fresh he makes me feed,
Beside the living stream.
He brings my wandering spirit back,
When I forsake his ways;
And leads me, for his mercy's sake,
In paths of truth and grace.

2 When I walk through the shades of
Thy presence is my stay; [death,
A word of thy supporting breath
Drives all my fears away.
Thy hand, in sight of all my foes,
Doth still my table spread;
My cup with blessings overflows,
Thine oil anoints my head.

3 The sure provisions of my God
Attend me all my days;
Oh, may thy house be mine abode,
And all my works be praise:
There would I find a settled rest,
While others go and come,—
No more a stranger, or a guest,
But like a child at home.

Christ, our Model.

F. CASWALL, tr.

O JESUS! King most wonderful,
Thou Conqueror renowned;
Thou sweetness most ineffable,
In whom all joys are found!

2 When once thou visitest the heart,
Then truth begins to shine,
Then earthly vanities depart,
Then kindles love divine.

3 O Jesus, Light of all below!
Thou Fount of life and fire!
Surpassing all the joys we know,
All that we can desire,—

4 May every heart confess thy name,
And ever thee adore;
And, seeking thee, itself inflame
To seek thee more and more.

5 Thee may our tongues for ever bless:
Thee may we love alone;
And ever in our life express
The image of thine own.

Christ above all.

J. NEWTON.

LET worldly minds the world pursue—
It has no charms for me;
Once I admired its trifles too,
But grace hath set me free.

2 Its joys can now no longer please,
Nor ev'n content afford:
Far from my heart be joys like these,
For I have seen the Lord.

3 As by the light of opening day
The stars are all concealed,
So earthly pleasures fade away
When Jesus is revealed.

4 Creatures no more divide my choice—
I bid them all depart;
His name, his love, his gracious voice,
Have fixed my roving heart.

5 And may I hope that thou wilt own
A worthless worm like me?
Dear Lord! I would be thine alone,
And wholly live to thee.

7s, 6s, D. "God, our Saviour."

T. HAWKINS.

To thee, my God and Saviour!
My heart exulting sings,
Rejoicing in thy favor,
Almighty King of kings!
I'll celebrate thy glory,
With all thy saints above,
And tell the joyful story
Of thy redeeming love.

2 Soon as the morn with roses
Bedecks the dewy east,
And when the sun reposes
Upon the ocean's breast,
My voice, in supplication,
Well-pleased the Lord shall hear:
Oh, grant me thy salvation,
And to my soul draw near.

3 By thee, through life supported,
I'll pass the dangerous road,
With heavenly hosts escorted,
Up to thy bright abode;
Then cast my crown before thee,
And, all my conflicts o'er,
Unceasingly adore thee:—
What could an angel more?

BLESSED are the sons of God,

2 They are justified by grace,
 They enjoy the Saviour's peace;

 With them numbered may we be,

3 They are lights upon the earth,

Charity. C. WINKWORTH, tr.

THOUGH I speak with angel tongues
 Bravest words of strength and fire,
 They are but as idle songs,
 If no love my heart inspire;
 All the eloquence shall pass
 As the noise of sounding brass.
 2 Though I lavish all I have
 On the poor in charity,
 Though I shrink not from the grave,
 Or unmoved the stake can see,—
 Till by love the work be crowned,
 All shall profitless be found.

3 Come, thou Spirit of pure love,
 Who didst forth from God proceed,
 Never from my heart remove;
 Let me all thy impulse heed;
 Let my heart henceforward be
 Moved, controlled, inspired by thee.

QUIET, Lord, my foward heart,
 Make me teachable and mild,
Upright, simple, free from art,
 Make me as a weanéd child:
From distrust and envy free,
Pleased with all that pleases thee.

2 What thou shalt to-day provide
 Let me as a child receive;
What to-morrow may betide,
 Calmly to thy wisdom leave:
'Tis enough that thou wilt care;
Why should I the burden bear?

3 As a little child relies
 On a care beyond his own,
Knows he's neither strong nor wise,
 Fears to stir a step alone;—
Let me thus with thee abide,
As my Father, Guard, and Guide.

Trust.

E. H. NEVIN.

SAVIOUR, happy would I be,
If I could but trust in thee;
Trust thy wisdom me to guide;
Trust thy goodness to provide;
Trust thy saving love and power;
Trust thee every day and hour:—

2 Trust thee as the only light
In the darkest hour of night;
Trust in sickness, trust in health;
Trust in poverty and wealth;
Trust in joy and trust in grief;
Trust thy promise for relief:—

3 Trust thy blood to cleanse my soul;
Trust thy grace to make me whole;
Trust thee living, dying too;
Trust thee all my journey through;
Trust thee till my feet shall be
Planted on the crystal sea.

Sometimes bedim my sight;

- 3 Lord, I believe; but oft, I know,
My faith is cold and weak:
My weakness strengthen, and bestow

How boundless is thy store;

For thee, my Helper, more.

How keep the shining way,

And not more humbly pray!

4 The more I triumph in thy gifts,
The more I wait on thee;

Calm in the closet's solitude,
Calm in the bustling street,—

3 Calm in the hour of buoyant health,
Calm in my hour of pain,
Calm in my poverty or wealth,
Calm in my loss or gain,—

4 Calm in the sufferance of wrong,
Like him who bore my shame,
Calm 'mid the threatening, taunting throng

Soothe me with holy hymn and psalm,

The healing balm to give;
That balm the saddest heart can cheer;
And make the dying live.3 Wide it unmails celestial worlds,
Where deathless pleasures reign;
And bids me seek my portion there,
Nor bids me seek in vain.4 It shows the precious promise sealed
With the Redeemer's blood;
And helps my feeble hope to rest

Till this frail body dies;
And then, on faith's triumphant wings,
To endless glory rise.

- 4 With him sweet converse I maintain;
Great as he is, I dare be free;
I tell him all my grief and pain,
And he reveals his love to me.

659*Contentment.*

W. COWPER, tr.

O LORD, how full of sweet content
Our years of pilgrimage are spent!
Where'er we dwell, we dwell with thee,
In heaven, in earth, or on the sea.

2 To us remains nor place nor time:
Our country is in every clime:
We can be calm and free from care
On any shore, since God is there.

3 While place we seek, or place we shun,
The soul finds happiness in none;
But with our God to guide our way,
'Tis equal joy to go or stay.

4 Could we be cast where thou art not,
That were indeed a dreadful lot;
But regions none remote we call,
Secure of finding God in all.

660*Voiceless Prayer.*

GREEK HYMN.

O BLESSED God, to thee I raise
My voice in thankful hymns of praise;
And when my voice shall silent be,
My silence shall be praise to thee.

2 For voice and silence doth impart
The filial homage of my heart;
And both alike are understood
By thee, thou Parent of all good—

3 Whose grace is all unsearchable,
Whose care for me no tongue can tell,
Who loves my loudest praise to hear,
And loves to bless my voiceless prayer.

DUKE STREET. L. M.

J. HATTON.

1. 'Tis by the faith of joys to come, We walk through deserts dark as night;
 Till we ar - rive at heaven, our home, Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

661

Faith.

I. WATTS.

'Tis by the faith of joys to come,
 We walk through deserts dark as night;
 Till we arrive at heaven, our home,
 Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

- 2 The want of sight she well supplies;
 She makes the pearly gates appear;
 Far into distant worlds she pries,
 And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
 While faith inspires a heavenly ray;
 Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
 And rocks and dangers fill the way.

662

Self-denial.

J. KEBLE.

If on our daily course our mind
 Be set, to hallow all we find,
 New treasures still, of countless price,
 God will provide for sacrifice.

- 2 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
 As more of heaven in each we see;
 Some softening gleam of love and prayer
 Shall dawn on every cross and care.

3 The trivial round, the common task,
 Will furnish all we ought to ask;—
 Room to deny ourselves, a road
 To bring us daily nearer God.

- 4 Only, O Lord, in thy dear love,
 Fit us for perfect rest above;
 And help us, this and every day,
 To live more nearly as we pray.

663

Love.

I. WATTS.

HAD I the tongues of Greeks and Jews,
 And nobler speech than angels use,
 If love be absent, I am found
 Like tinkling brass, an empty sound.

2 Were I inspired to preach and tell
 All that is done in heaven and hell—
 Or could my faith the world remove,
 Still I am nothing without love.

3 Should I distribute all my store
 To feed the hungry, clothe the poor;
 Or give my body to the flame,
 To gain a martyr's glorious name:—

4 If love to God and love to men
 Be absent, all my hopes are vain;
 Nor tongues, nor gifts, nor fiery zeal,
 The work of love can e'er fulfill.

664

Consistency.

I. WATTS.

So LET our lips and lives express
 The holy gospel we profess;
 So let our works and virtues shine,
 To prove the doctrine all divine.

2 Thus shall we best proclaim abroad
 The honors of our Saviour God;
 When his salvation reigns within,
 And grace subdues the power of sin.

3 Religion bears our spirits up,
 While we expect that blessed hope,—
 The bright appearance of the Lord:
 And faith stands leaning on his word.

665 C. M. Docility.—Ps. 131.

Is there ambition in my heart?
Search, gracious God, and see;
Or do I act a haughty part?
Lord, I appeal to thee.

2 I charge my thoughts, be humble still,
And all my carriage mild;
Content, my Father, with thy will,
And quiet as a child.

3 The patient soul, the lowly mind,
Shall have a large reward;
Let saints in sorrow lie resigned,
And trust a faithful Lord.

666 C. M. "The Head, even Christ." C. WESLEY.

BLEST be the dear, uniting love,
That will not let us part:
Our bodies may far off remove;
We still are one in heart.

2 Joined in one spirit to our Head,

We still in Jesus' footsteps tread,
And show his praise below.

3 Oh, may we ever walk in him,
And nothing know beside!
Nothing desire, nothing esteem,
But Jesus crucified!

4 Partakers of the Saviour's grace,
The same in mind and heart,
Not joy nor grief nor time nor place
Nor life nor death can part.

667 C. M. "Watch and Pray." T. HASTINGS.

THE Saviour bids thee watch and pray
Through life's momentous hour;
And grants the Spirit's quickening ray
To those who seek his power.

2 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray,
Maintain a warrior's strife;
O Christian! hear his voice to-day:
Obedience is thy life.

3 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray;
For soon the hour will come
That calls thee from the earth away
To thy eternal home.

4 The Saviour bids thee watch and pray,
Oh, hearken to his voice,
And follow where he leads the way,
To heaven's eternal joys!

I. WATTS.

668 L. M. Living to Christ. P. DODDRIDGE.

My gracious Lord, I own thy right
To every service I can pay,
And call it my supreme delight
To hear thy dictates and obey.

2 What is my being, but for thee,
Its sure support, its noblest end?
Thine ever-smiling face to see,
And serve the cause of such a Friend.

3 I would not breathe for worldly joy,
Or to increase my worldly good;
Nor future days nor powers employ
To spread a sounding name abroad.

4 "T is to my Saviour I would live,
To him who for my ransom died;
Nor could the bowers of Eden give
Such bliss as blossoms at his side.

5 His work my hoary age shall bless,
When youthful vigor is no more;
And my last hour of life confess
His dying love, his saving power.

669 S. M.

Psalm 103.

I. WATTS.

Oh, bless the Lord, my soul!
Let all within me join,
And aid my tongue to bless his name,
Whose favors are divine.

2 Oh, bless the Lord, my soul,
Nor let his inercies lie
Forgotten in unthankfulness,
And without praises die.

3 "T is he forgives thy sins,
"T is he relieves thy pain,
"T is he that heals thy sicknesses,
And makes thee young again.

4 He crowns thy life with love,
When ransomed from the grave;
He that redeemed my soul from hell,
Hath sovereign power to save.

5 He fills the poor with good;
He gives the sufferers rest:
The Lord hath judgments for the proud,
And justice for the oppressed.

6 His wondrous works and ways
He made by Moses known;
But sent the world his truth and grace
By his beloved Son.

670 7s. 6l. Acknowledgment. R. M. MC CHEYNE.

CHOSEN not for good in me,
Waked from coming wrath to flee,
Hidden in the Saviour's side,
By the Spirit sanctified—
Teach me, Lord, on earth to show,
By my love, how much I owe.

2 Oft I walk beneath the cloud,
Dark as midnight's gloomy shroud:
But, when fear is at the height,
Jesus comes, and all is light;
Blesséd Jesus! bid me show
Doubting saints how much I owe.

3 Oft the nights of sorrow reign—
Weeping, sickness, sighing, pain;
But a night thine anger burns—
Morning comes, and joy returns:
God of comforts! bid me show
To thy poor how much I owe.

4 When in flowery paths I tread,
Oft by sin I'm captive led;—
Oft I fall, but still arise—
Jesus comes—the tempter flies:
Blesséd Jesus! bid me show
Weary sinners all I owe.

671 C. M. Psalm 34. TATE-BRADY.

THROUGH all the changing scenes of life,
In trouble, and in joy,
The praises of my God shall still
My heart and tongue employ.

2 Of his deliverance I will boast,
Till all, who are distressed,
From my example comfort take,
And charm their grieves to rest.

3 Oh, magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name!
When in distress to him I called,
He to my rescue came.

4 The hosts of God encamp around
The dwellings of the just;
Deliverance he affords to all,
Who on his succor trust.

5 Oh, make but trial of his love;
Experience will decide,
How blest are they, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.

672 7s. Psalm 131.

C. WESLEY.

LORD, if thou thy grace impart,
Poor in spirit, meek in heart,
I shall as my Master be,—
Rooted in humility!

2 Simple, teachable, and mild,
Changed into a little child;
Pleased with all the Lord provides,
Weaned from all the world besides.

3 Father, fix my soul on thee;
Every evil let me flee;
Nothing want, beneath, above,
Happy in thy precious love.

4 Oh, that all may seek and find
Every good in Jesus joined!
Him let Israel still adore,
Trust him, praise him evermore.

673 S. M. Phil. 2: 13.

ANON.

HEIRS of unending life,
While yet we sojourn here,
Oh, let us our salvation work
With trembling and with fear.

2 God will support our hearts,
With might before unknown;
The work to be performed is ours,
The strength is all his own.

3 'T is he that works to will,
'T is he that works to do;
His is the power by which we act,
His be the glory too!

674 L. M. "Of one heart." A. L. BARBAULD.

How blest the sacred tie that binds,
In union sweet, according minds!
How swift the heavenly course they run,
Whose hearts and faith and hopes are one.

2 To each the soul of each how dear!
What jealous care, what holy fear!
How doth the generous flame within,
Refine from earth and cleanse from sin!

3 Their streaming tears together flow,
For human guilt and human woe;
Their ardent prayers united rise,
Like mingling flames in sacrifice.

4 Nor shall the glowing flame expire
'Mid nature's drooping, sickening fire:
Soon shall they meet in realms above—
A heaven of joy, because of love.

Completeness.

A. R. WOLFE.

COMPLETE in thee! no work of mine
May take, dear Lord, the place of thine;
Thy blood has pardon bought for me,
And I am now complete in thee.

3 Complete in thee—each want supplied,
And no good thing to me denied,
Since thou my portion, Lord, wilt be,
I ask no more—complete in thee.

4 Dear Saviour! when, before thy bar,
All tribes and tongues assembled are,
Among thy chosen may I be
At thy right hand—complete in thee.

Adoption.

S. STENNETT.

Not all the nobles of the earth,
Who boast the honors of their birth,
So high a dignity can claim,
As those who bear the Christian name.

2 To them the privilege is given
To be the sons and heirs of heaven;
Sons of the God who reigns on high,
And heirs of joy beyond the sky.

3 His will he makes them early know,
And teaches their young feet to go;
Whispers instruction to their minds,
And on their hearts his precepts binds.

4 Their daily wants his hands supply,
Their steps he guards with watchful eye;
Leads them from earth to heaven above,
And crowns them with eternal love.

1. Lord, how se - cure and blest are they Who feel the joys of par - doned sin!

Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea, Their minds have heaven and peace with - in.

677*Security and rest.*

I. WATTS.

- LORD, how secure and blest are they
Who feel the joys of pardoned sin!
Should storms of wrath shake earth and sea,
Their minds have heaven and peace within.
- 2 The day glides sweetly o'er their heads,
Made up of innocence and love;
And soft and silent as the shades,
Their nightly minutes gently move.

3 Quick as their thoughts their joys come on,
But fly not half so swift away:
Their souls are ever bright as noon,
And calm as summer evenings be.

4 How oft they look to heavenly hills,
Where streams of living pleasures flow;
And longing hopes and cheerful smiles
Sit undisturbed upon their brow!

5 They scorn to seek earth's golden toys,
But spend the day, and share the night,
In numbering o'er the richer joys
That heaven prepares for their delight.

678*Remembrance.*

J. BOWRING.

EARTH's transitory things decay;
Its pomps, its pleasures pass away;
But the sweet memory of the good
Survives in the vicissitude.

2 As, 'mid the ever-rolling sea,
The eternal isles established be,
'Gainst which the surges of the main
Fret, dash, and break themselves in vain;—

3 As in the heavens, the urns divine
Of golden light for ever shine;
Tho' clouds may darken, storms may rage,
They still shine on from age to age;—

4 So, through the ocean tide of years,
The memory of the just appears;
So, through the tempest and the gloom,
The good man's virtues light the tomb.

679*Perseverance.*

I. WATTS.

Who shall the Lord's elect condemn?
'Tis God who justifies their souls;
And mercy, like a mighty stream,
O'er all their sins divinely rolls.

2 Who shall adjudge the saints to hell?
'Tis Christ who suffered in their stead;
And their salvation to fulfill,
Behold him rising from the dead!

3 He lives! he lives! and sits above,
For ever interceding there:
Who shall divide us from his love,
Or what shall tempt us to despair?

4 Shall persecution or distress,
Famine, or sword, or nakedness?
He who hath loved us bears us through,
And makes us more than conquerors too.

5 Not all that men on earth can do,
Nor powers on high, nor powers below,
Shall cause his mercy to remove,
Or wean our hearts from Christ, our love.

686*Hiding-place.*

T. RAFFLES.

Thou art my hiding-place, O Lord!
In thee I put my trust;
Encouraged by thy holy word,
A feeble child of dust:
I have no argument beside,
I urge no other plea;
And 'tis enough my Saviour died,
My Saviour died for me!

2 When storms of fierce temptation beat,
And furious foes assail,
My refuge is the mercy-seat,
My hope within the vail:
From strife of tongues, and bitter words,
My spirit flies to thee;
Joy to my heart the thought affords,
My Saviour died for me!

3 And when thine awfvl voice commands
This body to decay,
And life in its last lingering sands,
Is ebbing fast away;—
Then, though it be in accents weak,
My voice shall call on thee,
And ask for strength in death to speak,
“My Saviour died for me.”

687*Union to Christ.*

J. G. DECK.

LORD Jesus, are we one with thee?
Oh, height! oh, depth of love!
With thee we died upon the tree,
In thee we live above.
Such was thy grace, that for our sake
Thou didst from heaven come down,
Thou didst of flesh and blood partake.
In all our sorrows one.

2 Our sins, our guilt, in love divine,
Confessed and borne by thee;
The gall, the curse, the wrath, were thine,
To set thy members free.
Ascended now, in glory bright,
Still one with us thou art;
Nor life, nor death, nor depth, nor height,
Thy saints and thee can part.

3 Oh, teach us, Lord, to know and own
This wondrous mystery,
That thou with ns art truly one,
And we are one with thee!
Soon, soon shall come that glorious day,
When, seated on thy throne,
Thou shalt to wondering worlds display,
That thou with us art one.

In Christ alone.

E. MOTE.

My hope is built on nothing less
Than Jesus' blood and righteousness;
I dare not trust the sweetest frame,
But wholly lean on Jesus' name:
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

2 When darkness seems to vail his face,
I rest on his unchanging grace;

AND CAN IT BE? L. M. 61.

OLD MELODY. FINE.

1. { And can it be that I should gain An int'rest in the Saviour's blood? }
D. C.—A - maz - ing love! how can it be, For me, who him to death pur - sued ? {
That thou, my Lord, shouldst die for me?

A - maz - ing love! how can it be, That thou, my Lord, shouldst die for me?

689

"No condemnation."

C. WESLEY.

And can it be that I should gain
An interest in the Saviour's blood?
Died he for me, who caused his pain?
For me, who him to death pursued?
Amazing love ! how can it be,
That thou, my Lord, shouldst die for me?
2 He left his Father's throne above;
(So free, so infinite his grace !)

In every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the vail;
On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

3 His oath, his covenant, and blood,
Support me in the whelming flood:
When all around my soul gives way,
He then is all my hope and stay:

On Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other ground is sinking sand.

Emptied himself of all but love,
And bled for Adam's helpless race;
'Tis mercy all, immense and free,
For, O my God, it found out me!

3 No condemnation now I dread,—
Jesus, with all in him, is mine;
Alive in him, my living Head,
And clothed in righteousness divine,
Bold I approach the eternal throne,
And claim the crown, thro' Christ my own.

690

Grace.

P. DODDRIDGE.

- GRACE! 'tis a charming sound!
Harmonious to mine ear!
Heaven with the echo shall resound,
And all the earth shall hear.

2 Grace first contrived a way
To save rebellious man;
And all the steps that grace display,
Which drew the wondrous plan.

3 Grace led my roving feet
To tread the heavenly road;
And new supplies each hour I meet
While pressing on to God.

4 Grace all the work shall crown,
Through everlasting days;
It lays in heaven the topmost stone,
And well deserves the praise.

691

God our Father. C. WINKWORTH, tr.

- HERE I can firmly rest;
I dare to boast of this,
That God, the highest and the best,
My Friend and Father is.

2 Nanght have I of my own,
Naught in the life I lead;
What Christ hath given, that alone
I dare in faith to plead.

3 I rest upon the ground
Of Jesus and his blood;
It is through him that I have found
My soul's eternal good.

- 4 At cost of all I have,
At cost of life and limb,
I cling to God who yet shall save;
I will not turn from him.

5 His Spirit in me dwells,
O'er all my mind he reigns;
My care and sadness he dispels,
And soothes away my pains.

6 He prospers day by day
His work within my heart,
Till I have strength and faith to say,
"Thou, God, my Father art!"

692

"It is well."

J. KENT.

WHAT cheering words are these;
Their sweetness who can tell?
In time, and to eternal days,
"Tis with the righteous well!"

- 2 Well when they see his face,
Or sink amidst the flood;
Well in affliction's thorny maze,
Or on the mount with God.

3 'Tis well when joys arise,
'Tis well when sorrows flow,
'Tis well when darkness vails the skies,
And strong temptations grow.

4 'Tis well when Jesus calls,—
"From earth and sin arise,
To join the hosts of ransomed souls,
Made to salvation wise!"

1. Be-hold what wondrous grace The Fa-ther has be-stowed On sin-ners of a mor-tal race, To call them sons of God!

693*Adoption.*

I. WATTS.

BEHOLD! what wondrous grace
The Father has bestowed
On sinners of a mortal race,
To call them sons of God!

2 Nor doth it yet appear
How great we must be made;
But when we see our Saviour here,
We shall be like our Head.

3 A hope so much divine
May trials well endure,
May purge our souls from sense and sin,
As Christ the Lord is pure.

4 If in my Father's love
I share a filial part,
Send down thy Spirit, like a dove,
To rest upon my heart.

5 We would no longer lie
Like slaves beneath the throne;
Our faith shall Abba, Father! cry,
And thou the kindred own.

THOU very present Aid
In suffering and distress,
The mind which still on thee is stayed,
Is kept^t in perfect peace.

2 The soul by faith reclined
On the Redeemer's breast,
'Mid raging storms, exults to find
An everlasting rest.

3 Sorrow and fear are gone,
Whene'er thy face appears;
It stills the sighing orphan's moan,
And dries the widow's tears.

4 Jesus, to whom I fly,
Doth all my wishes fill;
What though created streams are dry?
I have the fountain still.

5 Stripped of each earthly friend,
I find them all in One,
And peace and joy which never end,
And heaven, in Christ, alone.

695 L. M.Psalm 91.

I. WATTS.

He that hath made his refuge God,
Shall find a most secure abode;
Shall walk all day beneath his shade,
And there, at night, shall rest his head.

2 Then will I say, "My God! thy power
Shall be my fortress and my tower;
I, who am formed of feeble dust,
Make thine almighty arm my trust."

3 Thrice happy man! thy Maker's care
Shall keep thee from the fowler's snare;—
Satan, the fowler, who betrays
Unguarded souls a thousand ways.

4 If burning beams of noon conspire
To dart a pestilential fire;
God is thy life,—his wings are spread,
To shield thee with a healthful shade.

5 If vapors, with malignant breath,
Rise thick and scatter midnight death,
Israel is safe, the poisoned air
Grows pure, if Israel's God be there.

696 L. M.Psalm 85.

I. WATTS.

SALVATION is for ever nigh

The souls that fear and trust the Lord;
And grace, descending from on high,
Fresh hopes of glory shall afford.

2 Mercy and truth on earth are met,
Since Christ, the Lord, came down from
By his obedience so complete [heaven;
Justice is pleased, and peace is given.

3 Now truth and honor shall abound,
Religion dwell on earth again,
And heavenly influence bless the ground
In our Redeemer's gentle reign.

4 His righteousness is gone before,
To give us free access to God;
Our wandering feet shall stray no more,
But mark his steps and keep the road.

697 C. M.God's Peace.

ANON.

We bless thee for thy peace, O God!
Deep as the soundless sea,
Which falls like sunshine on the road
Of those who trust in thee.

2 We ask not, Father, for repose
Which comes from outward rest,
If we may have through all life's woes
Thy peace within our breast;

3 That peace which suffers and is strong,
Trusts where it cannot see,
Deems not the trial way too long,
But leaves the end with thee;—

4 That peace which flows serene and
A river in the soul, [deep—
Whose banks a living verdure keep:
God's sunshine o'er the whole!

5 Such, Father, give our hearts such
Whate'er the outward be, [peace,
Till all life's discipline shall cease,
And we go home to thee.

698 8s, 7s, D.The Pilgrim.

T. HASTINGS.

GENTLY, Lord, oh, gently lead us,
Through this lonely vale of tears;
Through the changes thou'st decreed us,
Till our last great change appears.
When temptation's darts assail us,
When in devious paths we stray,
Let thy goodness never fail us,
Lead us in thy perfect way.

2 In the hour of pain and anguish,
In the hour when death draws near,
Suffer not our hearts to languish,
Suffer not our souls to fear.
And when mortal life is ended,
Bid us in thine arms to rest,
Till, by angel bands attended,
We awake among the blest.

699 S. M.Psalm 61.

I. WATTS.

WHEN, overwhelmed with grief,
My heart within me dies;
Helpless, and far from all relief,
To heaven I lift mine eyes.

2 Oh, lead me to the rock,
That's high above my head;
And make the covert of thy wings
My shelter and my shade.

3 Within thy presence, Lord;
For ever I'll abide;
Thou art the tower of my defence,
The refuge where I hide.

4 Thou givest me the lot
Of those that fear thy name;
If endless life be their reward,
I shall possess the same.

700 L. M. 61. "Thy boundless love." J. WESLEY, tr.
JESUS, thy boundless love to me [clare;
No thought can reach, no tongue de-
Oh, knit my thankful heart to thee,
And reign without a rival there:
Thine wholly, thine alone, I am;
Be thou alone my constant flame.

2 Oh, grant that nothing in my soul
May dwell, but thy pure love alone:
Oh, may thy love possess me whole,—
My joy, my treasure, and my crown:
Strange flames far from my heart remove;
My every act, word, thought, be love.

3 O Love! how cheering is thy ray!
All pain before thy presence flies;
Care, anguish, sorrow, melt away,
Where'er thy healing beams arise:
O Jesus! nothing may I see,
Nothing desire, or seek but thee!

701 H. M. Protection.—Psalm 121. I. WATTS.
UPWARD I lift mine eyes,
From God is all my aid;
The God who built the skies,
And earth and nature made:
God is the tower | His grace is nigh
To which I fly; | In every hour.

2 My feet shall never slide,
Nor fall in fatal snares,
Since God, my guard and guide,
Defends me from my fears:
Those wakeful eyes | Shall Israel keep
That never sleep, | When dangers rise.

3 No burning heats by day,
Nor blasts of evening air,
Shall take my health away,
If God be with me there;
Thou art my sun, | To guard my head
And thou my shade, | By night or noon.

4 Hast thou not given thy word
To save my soul from death?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath:
I'll go and come, | Till, from on high
Nor fear to die, | Thou call me home.

702 L. M. At Jesus' Feet. MRS. E. REED.
Oh, that I could for ever dwell,
Delighted at the Saviour's feet;
Behold the form I love so well,
And all his tender words repeat!

2 The world shut out from all my soul,
And heaven brought in with all its bliss,—
Oh! is there aught, from pole to pole,
One moment to compare with this?

3 This is the hidden life I prize—
A life of penitential love;
When most my follies I despise,
And raise my highest thoughts above;

4 When all I am I clearly see,
And freely own, with deepest shame;
When the Redeemer's love to me
Kindles within a deathless flame.

5 Thus would I live till nature fail,
And all my former sins forsake;
Then rise to God within the veil,
And of eternal joys partake.

703 C. M. Our Father.—Psalm 31. A. STEELE.
My God, my Father!—blissful name!
Oh, may I call thee mine?
May I, with sweet assurance, claim
A portion so divine?

2 This only can my fears control,
And bid my sorrows fly:
What harm can ever reach my soul,
Beneath my Father's eye?

3 Whate'er thy providence denies,
I calmly would resign
For thou art just, and good, and wise;
Oh, bend my will to thine.

4 Whate'er thy sacred will ordains,
Oh, give me strength to bear;
And let me know my Father reigns,
And trust his tender care.

5 If pain and sickness rend this frame,
And life almost depart,
Is not thy mercy still the same,
To cheer my drooping heart?

6 My God, my Father! be thy name
My solace and my stay;
Oh, wilt thou seal my humble claim,
And drive my fears away?

1. Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan Hath taught each scene the notes of woe;

704*"Balm in Gilead."* W. SHIRLEY.

PEACE, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
Hath taught each scene the notes of woe,
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
And let thy tears forget to flow;
Behold, the precious balm is found,
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

2 Come, freely come, by sin oppressed;
On Jesus, cast thy weighty load;
In him thy refuge find, thy rest,
Safe in the mercy of thy God;
Thy God's thy Saviour—glorious word!
For ever love and praise the Lord.

705*"Eben-ezer."*

J. NEWTON.

BE still, my heart! these anxious cares
To thee are burdens, thorns, and snares;
They cast dishonor on thy Lord,
And contradict his gracious word;
Brought safely by his hand thus far,
Why wilt thou now give place to fear?

2 When first before his mercy-seat
Thou didst to him thy all commit,

He gave thee warrant from that hour
To trust his wisdom, love, and power:
Did ever trouble yet befall
And he refuse to hear thy call?

3 He who has helped thee hitherto,
Will help thee all thy journey through;
Though rough and thorny be the road,
It leads thee home, apace, to God;
Then count thy present trials small,
For heaven will make amends for all.

706*"As thy days."* L. H. H. SIGOURNEY.

WHEN adverse winds and waves arise,
And in my heart despondence sighs;
When life her throng of cares reveals,
And weakness o'er my spirit steals,
Grateful I hear the kind decree,
That "as my day, my strength shall be."

2 One trial more must yet be past,
One pang—the keenest and the last;
And when, with brow convulsed and pale,
My feeble, quivering heart-strings fail,
Redeemer! grant my soul to see
That "as my day, my strength shall be."

1. At eve-ning time let there be light; Life's lit - tle day draws near its close;

707

"At evening time."

ANON.

At evening time let there be light;
Life's little day draws near its close;
Around me fall the shades of night,
The night of death, the grave's repose;
To crown my joys, to end my woes,
At evening time let there be light.

2 At evening time let there be light;
Stormy and dark hath been my day—
Yet rose the morn divinely bright;
Dews, birds, and blossoms cheered the way;—

Oh, for one sweet, one parting ray!
At evening time let there be light.

3 At evening time there shall be light!
For God hath spoken; it must be;
Fear, doubt, and anguish take their flight;
His glory now is risen on me;

Mine eyes shall his salvation see;
"Tis evening time, and there is light!

708

"Jesus wept."

R. GRANT.

WHEN gathering clouds around I view,
And days are dark, and friends are few,

On him I lean, who, not in vain,
Experienced every human pain;
He sees my wants, allays my fears,
And counts and treasures up my tears.

2 If aught should tempt my soul to stray
From heavenly virtue's narrow way,—
To fly the good I would pursue,
Or do the sin I would not do,—
Still he, who felt temptation's power,
Shall guard me in that dangerous hour.

3 When sorrowing o'er some stone, I bend,
Which covers all that was a friend,
And from his voice, his hand, his smile,
Divides me, for a little while,
My Saviour sees the tears I shed,
For Jesus wept o'er Lazarus dead.

4 And, oh, when I have safely passed
Through every conflict, but the last,—
Still, still unchanging, watch beside
My painful bed,—for thou hast died;
Then point to realms of cloudless day,
And wipe my latest tear away.

Thanks for all.

J. CREWDSON.

- O THOU, whose bounty fills my cup
With every blessing meet !
- I give thee thanks for every drop—
The bitter and the sweet.
- 2 I praise thee for the desert road,
And for the river-side;
For all thy goodness hath bestowed,
And all thy grace denied.
- 3 I thank thee for both smile and frown,
And for the gain and loss;
- I praise thee for the future crown,
And for the present cross.
- 4 I thank thee for the wing of love,
Which stirred my worldly nest;
And for the stormy clouds which drove
The flutterer to thy breast.
- 5 I bless thee for the glad increase,
And for the waning joy;
And for this strange, this settled peace,
Which nothing can destroy.

"I firmly trust."

J. MONTGOMERY.

- ONE prayer I have—all prayers in one—
When I am wholly thine;
Thy will, my God, thy will be done,
And let that will be mine.
- 2 All-wise, almighty, and all-good,
In thee I firmly trust;
Thy ways, unknown or understood,
Are merciful and just.

3 May I remember that to thee
Whate'er I have I owe;
And back, in gratitude, from me
May all thy bounties flow.

4 And though thy wisdom takes away,
Shall I arraign thy will?
No, let me bless thy name, and say,
"The Lord is gracious still."

5 A pilgrim through the earth I roam,
Of nothing long possessed;
And all must fail when I go home,
For this is not my rest.

"Sweet to lie passive."

A. M. TOPLADY.

WHEN languor and disease invade
This trembling house of clay,
'Tis sweet to look beyond my pain,
And long to fly away;—

2 Sweet to look inward, and attend
The whispers of his love;
Sweet to look upward to the place
Where Jesus pleads above;—

3 Sweet on his faithfulness to rest,
Whose love can never end;
Sweet on his covenant of grace
For all things to depend;—

4 Sweet, in the confidence of faith,
To trust his firm decrees;
Sweet to lie passive in his hands,
And know no will but his.

WHEN musing sorrow weeps the past,
And mourns the present pain;
How sweet to think of peace at last,
And feel that death is gain!

- 2 'Tis not that murmuring thoughts arise,
And dread a Father's will;
'Tis not that meek submission flies,
And would not suffer still.
- 3 It is that heaven-born faith surveys
The path that leads to light,
And longs her eagle plumes to raise,
And lose herself in sight.
- 4 Oh, let me wing my hallowed flight
From earth-born woe and care;
And soar above these clouds of night,
My Saviour's bliss to share!

713*A pierced hand.*

J. EDMESTON.

O THOU, whose mercy guides my way,
Though now it seems severe,
Forbid my unbelief to say
There is no mercy here!

- 2 Oh, may I, Lord, desire the pain
That comes in kindness down,
Far more than sweetest earthly gain,
Succeeded by a frown.
- 3 Then though thou bend my spirit low,
Love only shall I see;
The gracious hand that strikes the blow,
Was wounded once for me.

715*"It is I."*

I hear a voice I know full well,—

"Tis I; be not afraid."
- 3 There is a gulf that must be crossed:
Saviour, be near to aid!
Whisper, when my frail bark is tossed,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."
- 4 There is a dark and fearful vale,
Death hides within its shade;
Oh, say, when flesh and heart shall fail,—
"Tis I; be not afraid."

WHEN our heads are bowed with woe;—
When our bitter tears o'erflow;—
When we mourn the lost, the dear,

2 When the heart is sad within,
With the thought of all its sin;
When the spirit shrinks with fear,

Thou the shame, the grief hast known;
Though the sins were not thine own,
Thou hast deigned their load to bear:
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

3 When our eyes grow dim in death;
When we heave the parting breath;
When our solemn doom is near,
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!
Thou hast bowed the dying head;
Thou the blood of life hast shed;
Thou hast filled a mortal bier:
Jesus, Son of Mary, hear!

717*Looking to Jesus.*

J. G. DECK.

When along life's thorny road,
Faints the soul beneath the load,
By its cares and sins oppressed,
Finds on earth no peace or rest;
When the wily tempter's near,
Filling us with doubt and fear:
Jesus, to thy feet we flee,
Jesus, we will look to thee.

2 Thou, our Saviour, from the throne
List'nest to thy people's moan;
Thou, the living Head, dost share
Every pang thy members bear;
Full of tenderness thou art,
Thou wilt heal the broken heart;
Full of power, thine arm shall quell
All the rage and might of hell.

3 Mighty to redeem and save,
Thou hast overcome the grave;
Thou the bars of death hast riven,
Opened wide the gates of heaven,
Soon in glory thou shalt come,
Taking thy poor pilgrims home;
Jesus, then we all shall be,
Ever—ever—Lord, with thee.

- In the dark and cloudy day,
 When earth's riches flee away,
 And the last hope will not stay,
 Saviour, comfort me !
 2 When the secret idol's gone
 That my poor heart yearned upon,— Desolate, bereft, alone,
 Saviour, comfort me !

3 Thou, who wast so sorely tried,
 In the darkness crucified,
 Bid me in thy love confide;
 Saviour, comfort me !

4 Comfort me; I am cast down:
 'Tis my heavenly Father's frown;
 I deserve it all, I own:
 Saviour, comfort me !

5 So it shall be good for me
 Much afflicted now to be,
 If thou wilt but tenderly,
 Saviour, comfort me !

 Only lean upon his word;
 Thou wilt soon have cause to bless
 His unchanging faithfulness.

2 He sustains thee by his hand,
 He enables thee to stand;
 Those, whom Jesus once hath loved,
 From his grace are never moved.

3 Heaven and earth may pass away,
 God's free grace shall not decay;
 He hath promised to fulfill
 All the pleasure of his will.

4 Jesus ! guardian of thy flock,
 Be thyself our constant rock;
 Make us by thy powerful hand,
 Firm as Zion's mountain stand.

Love seen in trials.

W. COWPER.

'Tis my happiness below
 Not to live without the cross,
 But the Saviour's power to know,
 Sanctifying every loss.

2 Trials must and will befall;
 But with humble faith to see
 Love inscribed upon them all,—
 This is happiness to me.

3 God in Israel sows the seeds
 Of affliction, pain and toil;
 These spring up and choke the weeds
 Which would else o'erspread the soil.

4 Did I meet no trials here,
 No chastisement by the way,
 Might I not with reason fear
 I should prove a castaway?

5 Trials make the promise sweet;
 Trials give new life to prayer;
 Trials bring me to his feet,
 Lay me low, and keep me there.

1. It is thy hand, my God; My sorrow comes from thee: I bow beneath thy chastening rod, 'Tis love that bruises me.

721*"Spare me."*

J. G. DECK.

- It is thy hand, my God;
My sorrow comes from thee:
I bow beneath thy chastening rod,
'Tis love that bruises me.
- 2 I would not murmur, Lord;
Before thee I am dumb:
Lest I should breathe one murmuring word,
To thee for help I come.
- 3 My God, thy name is Love;
A Father's hand is thine;

With tearful eyes I look above,
And cry, "Thy will be mine!"

- 4 Jesus for me hath died;
Thy Son thou didst not spare:
His pierced hands, his bleeding side,
Thy love for me declare.
- 5 Here my poor heart can rest;
My God, it cleaves to thee:
Thy will is love, thine end is blest,
All work for good to me.

722*Hereafter.*

- Along my earthly way,
How many clouds are spread!
Darkness, with scarce one cheerful ray,
Seems gathering o'er my head.
- 2 Yet, Father, thou art Love;
Oh, hide not from my view!
But when I look, in prayer, above,
Appear in mercy through!
- 3 My pathway is not hid;
Thou knowest all my need;

And I would do as Israel did,—
Follow where thou wilt lead.

- 4 Lead me, and then my feet
Shall never, never stray;
But safely I shall reach the seat
Of happiness and day.
- 5 And, oh, from that bright throne
I shall look back, and see,—
The path I went, and that alone
Was the right path for me.

1. If, through unruffled seas, Tow'r'd heaven we calmly sail, With grateful hearts, O God, to thee, We'll own the fav'ring gale, With grateful hearts, O God, to thee, We'll own the fav'ring gale.

723

"We walk by faith." A. M. TOPLADY.

IF, through unruffled seas,
Toward heaven we calmly sail,
With grateful hearts, O God, to thee,
We'll own the favoring gale.

2 But should the surges rise,
And rest delay to come,
Blest be the sorrow—kind the storm,
Which drives us nearer home.

3 Soon shall our doubts and fears
All yield to thy control:
Thy tender mercies shall illumine
The midnight of the soul.

4 Teach us, in every state,
To make thy will our own;
And when the joys of sense depart,
To live by faith alone.

724

Kindness even in affliction. T. HASTINGS.

How tender is thy hand,
O thou beloved Lord!
Afflictions come at thy command,
And leave us at thy word.

2 How gentle was the rod
That chastened us for sin!
How soon we found a smiling God,
Where deep distress had been!

3 A Father's hand we felt,
A Father's heart we knew;
With tears of penitence we knelt,
And found his word was true.

4 We told him all our grief,
We thought of Jesus' love;
A sense of pardon brought relief,
And bade our pains remove.

5 Now we will bless the Lord,
And in his strength confide;
For ever be his name adored;
For there is none beside.

725

Psalm 103.

I. WATTS.

My soul, repeat his praise,
Whose mercies are so great;
Whose anger is so slow to rise,
So ready to abate.

2 God will not always chide;
And when his strokes are felt,
His strokes are fewer than our crimes,
And lighter than our guilt.

3 The pity of the Lord
To those that fear his name,
Is such as tender parents feel:
He knows our feeble frame.

4 Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flower;
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

5 But thy compassions, Lord,
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

Into thy hand of love
I would my all resign;
Through sorrow, or through joy,
Conduct me as thine own,
And help me still to say,
My Lord, thy will be done!

2 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
Though seen through many a tear,
Let not my star of hope
Grow dim or disappear;
Since thou on earth hast wept,
And sorrowed oft alone,
If I must weep with thee,
My Lord, thy will be done!

3 My Jesus, as thou wilt!
All shall be well for me;
Each changing future scene
I gladly trust with thee;
Straight to my home above
I travel calmly on,
And sing, in life or death,
My Lord, thy will be done!

727 "He knoweth the way." H. BONAK.

THY way, not mine, O Lord,
However dark it be!
Lead me by thine own hand;
Choose out my path for me.
I dare not choose my lot:
I would not, if I might;
Choose thou for me, my God,
So shall I walk aright.

2 The kingdom that I seek
Is thine: so let the way
That leads to it be thine,
Else I must surely stray.
Take thou my cup, and it
With joy or sorrow fill,
As best to thee may seem;
Choose thou my good and ill.

3 Choose thou for me my friends,
My sickness or my health;
Choose thou my cares for me,
My poverty or wealth.
Not mine, not mine the choice,
In things or great or small;
Be thou my Guide, my Strength,
My Wisdom and my All.

O HOLY Saviour! Friend unseen,
Since on thine arm thou bid'st me lean,
Help me, throughout life's changing scene,
By faith to cling to thee!

2 What though the world deceitful prove,
And earthly friends and hopes remove;
With patient, uncomplaining love,
Still would I cling to thee.

3 Though oft I seem to tread alone
Life's dreary waste, with thorns o'ergrown,
Thy voice of love, in gentlest tone,
Still whispers, "Cling to me!"

4 Though faith and hope are often tried,
I ask not, need not, aught beside;
So safe, so calm, so satisfied,
The soul that clings to thee!

729

A will resigned.

J. G. WHITTIER.

I ASK not now for gold to gild,
With mocking shine, an aching frame;
The yearning of the mind is stilled—
I ask not now for fame.

2 But, bowed in lowliness of mind,
I make my humble wishes known;
I only ask a will resigned,
O Father, to thine own.

3 In vain I task my aching brain,
In vain the sage's thoughts I scan;
I only feel how weak I am,
How poor and blind is man.

4 And now my spirit sighs for home,
And longs for light whereby to see;
And, like a weary child, would come,
O Father, unto thee.

Still thine arm has been around me,

Craftier, stronger far than I;
And the strife may never fail me,
Well I know, before I die.

Therefore, Lord, I come believing
Thou canst give the power I need;

Strength—the Spirit's strength, indeed.

3 I would trust in thy protection,

Help me turn to thee when tried,
Still my footsteps, Father, viewing,
Keep me ever at thy side.

J. ROSCOE.

THY will be done! I will not fear
The fate provided by thy love;
Though clouds and darkness shroud me here,
I know that all is bright above.
2 Father, forgive the heart that clings,
Thus trembling, to the things of time;
And bid my soul, on angel wings,
Ascend into a purer clime.
3 There shall no doubts disturb its trust,
No sorrows dim celestial love;
But these afflictions of the dust,
Like shadows of the night, remove.
4 Ev'n now, above, there's radiant day,
While clouds and darkness brood below;
Then, Father, joyful on my way

738*"Thy will be done."*

C. ELLIOTT.

My God, my Father, while I stray
Far from my home, on life's rough way,

Oh, teach me from my heart to say,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

2 What though in lonely grief I sigh
For friends beloved no longer nigh;
Submissive still would I reply,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

3 If thou shouldst call me to resign
What most I prize,—it ne'er was mine;
I only yield thee what was thine:
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

4 If but my fainting heart be blest
With thy sweet Spirit for its guest,
My God, to thee I leave the rest;
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

5 Renew my will from day to day;
Blend it with thine, and take away
Whate'er now makes it hard to say,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

6 Then when on earth I breathe no more
The prayer oft mixed with tears before,
I'll sing, upon a happier shore,
"Thy will be done, thy will be done!"

739 s. d. "Thy Father."

Be tranquil, O my soul,
Be quiet, every fear!
Thy Father hath control,
And he is ever near.
Ne'er of thy lot complain,
Whatever may befall;
Sickness, or care, or pain,
'T is well-appointed all.

2 A Father's chastening hand
Is leading thee along;
Nor distant is the land,
Where swells the immortal song.
Oh, then, my soul, be still!
Await heaven's high decree;
Seek but thy Father's will,
It shall be well with thee.

740 s. m. Trusting.

"My times are in thy hand :"
My God! I wish them there;
My life, my soul, my all, I leave
Entirely to thy care.

2 "My times are in thy hand ;"
Whatever they may be;
Pleasing or painful, dark or bright,
As best may seem to thee.

3 "My times are in thy hand ;"—
Why should I doubt or fear?
My Father's hand will never cause
His child a needless tear.

4 "My times are in thy hand ;"
I'll always trust in thee;
Till I possess the promised land,
And all thy glory see.

741 c. m. Psalm 73.

God, my supporter and my hope,
My help for ever near,
Thine arm of mercy held me up,
When sinking in despair.

2 Thy counsels, Lord, shall guide my

Thine hand conduct me near thy seat,
To dwell before thy face.

3 Were I in heaven, without my God,
'T would be no joy to me;

T. HASTINGS.

And while the earth is my abode,
I long for none but thee.

4 What if the springs of life were broke,
And flesh and heart should faint,
Thou art my soul's eternal rock,
The strength of every saint.
5 Then to draw near to thee, my God,
Shall be my sweet employ;
My tongue shall sound thy works abroad,
And tell the world my joy.

742 l. m.Psalm 90: 12.

GUYON.

If life in sorrow must be spent,
So be it; I am well content;
And meekly wait my last remove,
Desiring only trustful love.

2 No bliss I'll seek, but to fulfill
In life, in death, thy perfect will;
No succor in my woes I want,
But what my Lord is pleased to grant.

3 Our days are numbered: let us spare
Our anxious hearts a needless care;
'Tis thine to number out our days;
'Tis ours to give them to thy praise.

4 Faith is our only business here—
Faith, simple, constant, and sincere;
Oh, blessed days thy servants see!
Thus spent O Lord! in pleasing thee.

743 c. m.Be ye also ready.

A. REED.

There is an hour when I must part
With all I hold most dear;
And life, with its best hopes, will then
As nothingness appear.

2 There is an hour when I must sink
Beneath the stroke of death;
And yield to him, who gave it first,
My struggling vital breath.

3 There is an hour when I must stand
Before the judgment-seat;
And all my sins, and all my foes,
In awful vision meet.

4 There is an hour when I must look
On one eternity;
And nameless woe, or blissful life,
My endless portion be.

5 O Saviour, then, in all my need
Be near, be near to me:
And let my soul, by steadfast faith,
Find life and heaven in thee.

I. WATTS.

744 S. M.Tell Jesus.

In every trying hour
My soul to Jesus flies ;
I trust in his almighty power,
When swelling billows rise.
2 His comforts bear me up ;
I trust a faithful God ;
The sure foundation of my hope
Is in my Saviour's blood.
3 Loud hallelujahs sing
To our Redeemer's name ;
In joy or sorrow—life or death—
His love is still the same.

745 L. M.*"Afterwards."*A. R. WOLFE.

I BLESS thee, Lord, for sorrows sent
To break the dream of human power.
For now my shallow cistern's spent,
I find thy fount and thirst no more.
2 I take thy hand and fears grow still :
Behold thy face, and doubts remove ;
Who would not yield his wavering will
To perfect truth and boundless love !
3 That truth gives promise of a dawn,
Beneath whose light I am to see,
When all these blinding vails are drawn,
This was the wisest path for me.
4 That love this restless soul doth teach
The strength of thy eternal calm ;
And tunes its sad and broken speech,
To sing ev'n now the angels' psalm.

746 L. M.*God is love.*J. BOWRING.

I CANNOT always trace the way
Where thou, Almighty One, dost move ;
But I can always, always say,
That God is love, that God is love.
2 When fear her chilling mantle flings
O'er earth, my soul to heaven above,
As to her native home, upsprings,
For God is love, for God is love.
3 When mystery clouds my darkened path,
I'll check my dread, my doubts reprove ;
In this my soul sweet comfort hath,
That God is love, that God is love.
4 Yes, God is love ;—a thought like this
Can every gloomy thought remove,
And turn all tears, all woes, to bliss,
For God is love, for God is love.

TARRY with me, O my Saviour !

For the day is passing by ;
See ! the shades of evening gather,
And the night is drawing nigh.

2 Deeper, deeper grow the shadows,
Paler now the glowing west,
Swift the night of death advances ;
Shall it be the night of rest ?

3 Lonely seems the vale of shadow ;
Sinks my heart with troubled fear ;
Give me faith for clearer vision,
Speak thou, Lord, in words of cheer.

4 Let me hear thy voice behind me,
Calming all these wild alarms ;
Let me, underneath my weakness,
Feel the everlasting arms.

5 Feeble, trembling, fainting, dying,
Lord, I cast myself on thee ;
Tarry with me through the darkness ;
While I sleep, still watch by me.

6 Tarry with me, O my Saviour !
Lay my head upon thy breast
Till the morning ; then awake me—
Morning of eternal rest !

748 6s., D.*More like God.*H. BONAR.

I DID thee wrong, my God,
I wrunged thy truth and love ;
I fretted at the rod,—
Against thy power I strove.

Come nearer, nearer still ;
Let not thy light depart ;
Bend, break this stubborn will ;
Dissolve this iron heart !

2 Less wayward let me be,
More pliable and mild ;
In glad simplicity
More like a trustful child.

Less, less of self each day,
And more, my God, of thee ;
Oh, keep me in the way,
However rough it be.

3 Less of the flesh each day,
Less of the world and sin :
More of thy Son, I pray,
More of thyself within.

More moulded to thy will,
Lord, let thy servant be ;
Higher and higher still,
More, and still more, like thee !

How charming is their voice!
How sweet their tidings are!

Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found.
How blessed are our eyes,
That see this heavenly light!
Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.

Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
The Lord makes bare his arm

LORD of the harvest! hear

Answer our faith's effectual prayer,
And all our wants supply.
On thee we humbly wait;
Our wants are in thy view;
The harvest truly, Lord! is great,
The laborers are few.

2 Convert and send forth more
Into thy Church abroad;
And let them speak thy word of power,
As workers with their God.
Give the pure Gospel-word,
The word of general grace;
Thee let them preach, the common Lord,
The Saviour of our race.
3 Oh, let them spread thy name;
Their mission fully prove;
Thy universal grace proclaim
Thy all-redeeming love.
On all mankind forgiven,
Empower them still to call,
And tell each creature under heaven,
That thou hast died for all.

On his great love | Of present grace
Our hopes we place, | And joys above.

These hallowed courts shall ring!
Our voices we will raise,
The Three in One to sing;

And thus proclaim | Both loud and long,
In joyful song, | That glorious Name.

The grace which we implore,
And may that grace once given,
Be with us evermore,—
Until that day | To endless rest
When all the blest | Are called away.

What can shake thy sure repose ?
With salvation's walls surrounded,

Springing from eternal love,
Well supply thy sons and daughters,

Never fails from age to age.

HEAR what God, the Lord hath spoken;
O my people, faint and few,
Comfortless, afflicted, broken,
Fair abodes I build for you;
Scenes of heartfelt tribulation
Shall no more perplex your ways ;
You shall name your walls "Salvation,"
And your gates shall all be "Praise."

2 There, like streams that feed the garden,
Pleasures without end shall flow ;
For the Lord, your faith rewarding,
All his bounty shall bestow.
Still in undisturbed possession
Peace and righteousness shall reign ;
Never shall you feel oppression,
Hear the voice of war again.

3 Ye, no more your suns descending,
Waning moons no more shall see,
But, your griefs for ever ending,
Find eternal noon in me.
God shall rise, and shining o'er you,
Change to day the gloom of night ;
He, the Lord, shall be your Glory,
God, your everlasting Light.

Amid the voices of this earth
How feeble is thy voice!
2 A little flock!—so calls he thee
Who bought thee with his blood;

But owned and loved of God.

3 Not many rich or noble called,
Not many great or wise;
They whom God makes his kings and priests
Are poor in human eyes.

Their feeble days are o'er,

Or as the early dew.

Was the first temple,—built by God;
His fiat laid the corner-stone,
And heaved its pillars, one by one.

The broad, illimitable sky;
He spread its pavement, green and bright,
And curtained it with morning light.

The sea—the sky—and “all was good;”
And when its first pure praises rang,
The “morning stars together sang.”

769*Church Dedication.* J. PIERPONT.

OH, bow thine ear, Eternal One!
 On thee our heart adoring calls;
 To thee the followers of thy Son
 Have raised, and now devote these walls.
 2 Here let thy holy days be kept;
 And be this place to worship given,
 Like that bright spot where Jacob slept,
 The house of God, the gate of heaven.
 3 Here may thine honor dwell; and here,
 As incense, let thy children's prayer,
 From contrite hearts and lips sincere,
 Rise on the still and holy air.
 4 Here be thy praise devoutly sung;
 Here let thy truth beam forth to save,
 As when, of old, thy Spirit hung,
 On wings of light, o'er Jordan's wave.
 5 And when the lips, that with thy name
 Are vocal now, to dust shall turn,
 On others may devotion's flame
 Be kindled here, and purely burn!

Psalm 48.

I. WATTS.

- FAR as thy name is known,
The world declares thy praise ;
Thy saints, O Lord, before thy throne,
Their songs of honor raise.
- 2 With joy thy people stand
On Zion's chosen hill,
Proclaim the wonders of thy hand,
And counsels of thy will.
- 3 Let strangers walk around
The city where we dwell,
Compass and view thine holy ground,
And mark the building well—
- 4 The order of thy house,
The worship of thy court,
The cheerful songs, the solemn vows ;
And make a fair report.
- 5 How decent, and how wise !
How glorious to behold !
Beyond the pomp that charms the eyes,
And rites adorned with gold.
- 6 The God we worship now
Will guide us till we die ;
Will be our God, while here below,
And ours above the sky.

7717s, 6s. The Church is Christ's.

S. J. STONE.

- THE Church's one foundation
Is Jesus Christ her Lord ;
She is his new creation
By water and the word :
From heaven he came and sought her,
To be his holy bride ;
With his own blood he bought her,
And for her life he died.
- 2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth ;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.
- 3 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore oppressed,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distressed,
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, “ How long ? ”
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

- 2 These temples of his grace,
How beautiful they stand !
The honors of our native place,
The bulwarks of our land.
- 3 In Zion God is known,
A refuge in distress :
How bright has his salvation shone
Through all her palaces !
- 4 Oft have our fathers told,
Our eyes have often seen,
How well our God secures the fold
Where his own sheep have been.
- 5 In every new distress
We'll to his house repair,
We'll think upon his wondrous grace,
And seek deliverance there.

- ANON.
- DAUGHTER of Zion ! awake from thy sadness :
Awake, for thy foes shall oppress thee
no more ;
Bright o'er thy hills dawns the day-star
of gladness ;
Arise ! for the night of thy sorrow is o'er.

2 Strong were thy foes, but the arm
that subdu'd them,
And scattered their legions, was mightier far ;
They fled, like the chaff, from the scourge
that pursued them ;
For vain were their steeds and their chariots of war !

3 Daughter of Zion ! the Power that hath saved thee,
Extolled with the harp and the timbrel should be :
Shout ! for the foe is destroyed that en-slaved thee,
Th' oppressor is vanquished, and Zion
is free !

7s. For Dedication. J. MONTGOMERY.

Lord of hosts ! to thee we raise
Here a house of prayer and praise :
Thou thy people's hearts prepare,
Here to meet for praise and prayer.

2 Let the living here be fed
With thy word, the heavenly bread :
Here, in hope of glory blest,
May the dead be laid to rest.

3 Here to thee a temple stand,
While the sea shall gird the land :
Here reveal thy mercy sure,
While the sun and moon endure.

4 Hallelujah !—earth and sky
To the joyful sound reply :
Hallelujah ! hence ascend
Prayer and praise till time shall end.

S. M. The Ministry. MRS. VOKE.

YE messengers of Christ !
His sovereign voice obey ;
Arise, and follow where he leads,
And peace attend your way.

2 The Master, whom you serve,
Will needful strength bestow ;
Depending on his promised aid,
With sacred courage go.

3 Mountains shall sink to plains,
And hell in vain oppose ;
The cause is God's—and will prevail,
In spite of all his foes.

ROLL on, thou mighty ocean ;
And, as thy billows flow,
Bear messengers of mercy
To every land below.

Arise, ye gales, and waft them
Safe to the destined shore ;
That man may sit in darkness,
And death's black shade no more.

2 O thou eternal Ruler,
Who holdest in thine arm
The tempests of the ocean,
Protect them from all harm !
Thy presence, Lord, be with them,
Wherever they may be :
Though far from us, who love them,
Still let them be with thee.

C. M. Church Opening.

I. WATTS.

ARISE, O King of grace, arise,
And enter to thy rest ;
Lo ! thy church waits, with longing eyes,
Thus to be owned and blest.

2 Enter with all thy glorious train,
Thy Spirit and thy word ;
All that the ark did once contain
Could no such grace afford.

3 Here, mighty God, accept our vows,
Here let thy praise be spread ;
Bless the provisions of thy house,
And fill thy poor with bread.

4 Here let the Son of David reign,
Let God's Anointed shine ;
Justice and truth his court maintain,
With love and power divine.

5 Here let him hold a lasting throne,
And as his kingdom grows,
Fresh honors shall adorn his crown,
And shame confound his foes.

WAKE ! the welcome day appeareth,
Every heart with joy it cheereth !
Wake ! the Lord's great year behold ;
That which holy men of old,
Those who throng the sacred pages,
Waited for through countless ages :

Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !
2 Patriarchs erst and priests aspiring,
Kings and prophets long desiring,
Saw not this before they died :—
Lo ! the light to them denied !
See its beams to earth directed !
Welcome, O thou long-expected !

Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !
3 In our stead himself he offers,
On the accurséd tree he suffers,
That his death's sweet savor may
Take our curse for aye away ;
Cross and curse for us enduring,
Hope and heaven to us securing :
Hallelujah ! Hallelujah !

4 Rent the temple curtain's centre ;
Come, ye nations, freely enter
Through the veil the holy place !
Freely stand before his face,
Here your grateful tributes bringing :
Come thou Bride, for ever singing,

Expedition.

J. MONTGOMERY.

WORK while it is to-day!

This was our Saviour's rule;
 With docile minds let us obey,
 As learners in his school.

- 2 Lord Christ, we humbly ask
 Of thee the power and will,
 With fear and meekness, every task
 Of duty to fulfill.
- 3 At home, by word and deed,
 Adorn redeeming grace;
 And sow abroad the precious seed
 Of truth in every place:—
- 4 That thus the wilderness
 May blossom like the rose,
 And trees spring up of righteousness,
 Where'er life's river flows.
- 5 For thee our all to spend,
 Still may we watch and pray,
 And, persevering to the end,
 Work while it is to-day.

780

Contribution.

W. W. HOW.

- WE give thee but thine own,
 Whate'er the gift may be:
 All that we have is thine alone,
 A trust, O Lord, from thee.
- 2 May we thy bounties thus
 As stewards true receive,
 And gladly, as thou blessest us,
 To thee our first-fruits give.

- 3 To comfort and to bless,
 To find a balm for woe,
 To tend the lone and fatherless
 Is angel's work below.
- 4 The captive to release,
 To God the lost to bring,
 To teach the way of life and peace—
 It is a Christ-like thing.

- 5 And we believe thy word,
 Though dim our faith may be;
 Whate'er for thine we do, O Lord,
 We do it unto thee.

ANON.

MOURN for the thousands slain,
 The youthful and the strong;
 Mourn for the wine-cup's fearful reign,
 And the deluded throng.

- 2 Mourn for the ruined soul,—
 Eternal life and light
 Lost by the fiery, maddening bowl,
 And turned to hopeless night.

- 3 Mourn for the lost,—but call,
 Call to the strong, the free;
 Rouse them to shun the dreadful fall,
 And to the refuge flee.
- 4 Mourn for the lost,—but pray,
 Pray to our God above,
 To break the fell destroyer's sway,
 And show his saving love.

J. MONTGOMERY.

Sow in the morn thy seed,
At eve hold not thy hand;
To doubt and fear give thou no heed;
Broad-cast it o'er the land.

2 And duly shall appear
In verdure, beauty, strength,
The tender blade, the stalk, the ear,
And the full corn at length.

3 Thou canst not toil in vain;
Cold, heat, the moist and dry,
Shall foster and mature the grain
For garners in the sky.

4 Then, when the glorious end,
The day of God shall come,
The angel-reapers shall descend,
And heaven sing "Harvest home!"

S. DYER.

WORK, for the night is coming;
Work, through the morning hours;
Work, while the dew is sparkling;
Work, 'mid springing flowers;
Work, when the day grows brighter,
Work, in the glowing sun;
Work, for the night is coming,
When man's work is done.

2 Work, for the night is coming,
Work through the sunny noon;
Fill brightest hours with labor,
Rest comes sure and soon.

Give every flying minute
Something to keep in store:
Work, for the night is coming,
When man works no more.

3 Work, for the night is coming,
Under the sunset skies;
While their bright tints are glowing,
Work, for daylight flies.
Work till the last beam fadeth,
Fadeth to shine no more;
Work while the night is darkening,
When man's work is o'er.

MISSION SONG. 8s, 7s. D.

P. P. VAN ARSDALE.

784 "The Laborers are few." D. MARCH.

HARK! the voice of Jesus calling,—
 Who will go and work to-day?
 Fields are white, the harvest waiting,—
 Who will bear the sheaves away?
 Loud and long the Master calleth,
 Rich reward he offers free;
 Who will answer, gladly saying,
 "Here am I, O Lord, send me."

2 If you cannot cross the ocean
 And the heathen lands explore,
 You can find the heathen nearer,
 You can help them at your door;
 If you cannot speak like angels,
 If you cannot preach like Paul,
 You can tell the love of Jesus,
 You can say he died for all.

3 While the souls of men are dying,
 And the Master calls for you,
 Let none hear you idly saying,
 "There is nothing I can do!"
 Gladly take the task he gives you,
 Let his work your pleasure be;
 Answer quickly when he calleth,
 "Here am I, O Lord, send me."

785 "What thy hand findeth." E. H. GATES.

If you cannot on the ocean
 Sail among the swiftest fleet,

Rocking on the highest billows,
 Laughing at the storms you meet,
 You can stand among the sailors,
 Anchored yet within the bay,
 You can lend a hand to help them,
 As they launch their boat away.
 2 If you are too weak to journey
 Up the mountain steep and high,
 You can stand within the valley,
 While the multitude go by;
 You can chant in happy measure,
 As they slowly pass along;
 Though they may forget the singer,
 They will not forget the song.
 3 If you have not gold and silver
 Ever ready to command;
 If you cannot toward the needy
 Reach an ever open hand,
 You can visit the afflicted,
 O'er the erring you can weep;
 You can be a true disciple
 Sitting at the Saviour's feet.
 4 If you cannot in the harvest
 Garner up the richest sheaf,
 Many a grain both ripe and golden
 Will the careless reapers leave;
 Go and glean among the briers,
 Growing rank against the wall,
 For it may be that the shadow
 Hides the heaviest wheat of all.

786 ss, ts. Christian Union. T. W. AVELING.

HAIL! thou God of grace and glory!

Who thy name hast magnified,
By redemption's wondrous story,

By the Saviour crucified;

Thanks to thee for every blessing,

Flowing from the Fount of love;

Thanks for present good unceasing,

And for hopes of bliss above.

2 Hear us, as thus bending lowly,
Near thy bright and burning throne;
We invoke thee, God most holy!
Through thy well-belovéd Son;

Send the baptism of thy Spirit,
Shed the pentecostal fire;
Let us all thy grace inherit,
Waken, crown each good desire.

3 Bind thy people, Lord! in union,
With the sevenfold cord of love;
Breathe a spirit of communion
With the glorious hosts above;
Let thy work be seen progressing;
Bow each heart, and bend each knee;
Till the world, thy truth possessing,
Celebrates its jubilee.

Sets the fettered spirit free,
Where it sheds its wondrous healing,
There, my soul, thy rest shall be!

Upward, onward, press my way!

Psalm 127.

VAINLY, through night's weary hours,
Keep we watch, lest foes alarm;
Vain our bulwarks, and our towers,
But for God's protecting arm.

2 Vain were all our toil and labor,
Did not God that labor bless;
Vain, without his grace and favor,
Every talent we possess.

3 Vainer still the hope of heaven,
That on human strength relies;
But to him shall help be given,
Who in humble faith applies.

4 Seek we, then, the Lord's Anointed;
He will grant us peace and rest;
Ne'er was suppliant disappointed,
Who thro' Christ his prayer addressed.

FATHER of mercies! send thy grace,
All powerful from above,
To form in our obedient souls
The image of thy love.

2 Oh, may our sympathizing breasts

The generous pleasure know,

Kindly to share in others' joy,

And weep for others' woe!

3 When the most helpless sons of grief

In low distress are laid,

Soft be our hearts their pains to feel,

And swift our hands to aid.

4 So Jesus looked on dying men,

When throned above the skies;

And mid the embraces of his God,

He felt compassion rise.

5 On wings of love the Saviour flew,

To raise us from the ground,

And made the richest of his blood

A balm for every wound.

795

God's hidden ones.

W. CROSWELL.

LORD, lead the way the Saviour went,
By lane and cell obscure,
And let love's treasures still be spent,
Like his, upon the poor.

2 Like him, through scenes of deep distress,
Who bore the world's sad weight,
We, in their crowded loneliness,
Would seek the desolate.

3 For thou hast placed us side by side
In this wide world of ill;
And that thy followers may be tried,
The poor are with us still.

4 Mean are all offerings we can make;
Yet thou hast taught us, Lord,
If given for the Saviour's sake,
They lose not their reward.

796

Minute fidelity.

ANON.

SCORN not the slightest word or deed,
Nor deem it void of power;
There's fruit in each wind-wafted seed,
That waits its natal hour.

2 A whispered word may touch the heart,

And call it back to life;

A look of love bid sin depart,

And still unholy strife.

3 No act falls fruitless; none can tell

How vast its power may be,

Nor what results infolded dwell

Within it silently.

4 Work on, despair not, bring thy mite,

Nor care how small it be;

God is with all that serve the right,

The holy, true, and free.

797

Psalm 41.

A. L. BARBAULD.

Blest is the man whose softening heart
Feels all another's pain;
To whom the supplicating eye
Was never raised in vain:—

2 Whose breast expands with generous warmth
A stranger's woes to feel; And bleeds in pity o'er the wound
He wants the power to heal.

3 He spreads his kind supporting arms
To every child of grief;
His secret bounty largely flows,
And brings unasked relief.

4 To gentle offices of love
His feet are never slow:
He views, through mercy's melting eye,
A brother in a foe.

5 Peace from the bosom of his God,
The Saviour's grace shall give;
And, when he kneels before the throne,
His trembling soul shall live.

O God of Bethel, by whose hand
Thy people still are fed;
Who through this weary pilgrimage
Hast all our fathers led!

Before thy throne of grace;
God of our fathers! be the God

Our wandering footsteps guide;
Give us, each day, our daily bread,
And raiment fit provide.

Our souls arrive in peace.

But richer far, for more it cost.

2 Water can cleanse the flesh, we own,
But Christ well knows, and Christ alone,
How dear to him our cleansing stood,
Baptized in fire, and bathed in blood.

3 He by his blood atoned for sin;
This precious blood can wash us clean;
And he arrays us in the dress
Of his unspotted righteousness.

The pleasant path.

A. JUDSON.

OUR Saviour bowed beneath the wave,
And meekly sought a watery grave;
Come, see the sacred path he trod,
A path well pleasing to our God.

2 His voice we hear, his footsteps trace,
And hither come to seek his face,
To do his will, to feel his love,
And join our songs with songs above.

3 Hosanna to the Lamb divine!
Let endless glories round him shine!
High o'er the heavens for ever reign,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain!

810

Invocation.

A. JUDSON.

COME, Holy Spirit, Dove divine,
On these baptismal waters shine,
And teach our hearts, in highest strain,
To praise the Lamb for sinners slain.

2 We love thy name, we love thy laws,
And joyfully embrace thy cause;
We love thy cross, the shame, the pain,
O Lamb of God, for sinners slain!

3 We sink beneath thy mystic flood,
Oh, bathe us in thy cleansing blood;
We die to sin, and seek a grave
With thee, beneath the yielding wave.

4 And as we rise, with thee to live,
Oh, let the Holy Spirit give
The sealing unction from above,
The breath of life, the fire of love!

Oh, the sweet wonders of that cross

With angels join to praise the Lamb,
And worship at his Father's throne.

Following Jesus. G. W. BETHUNE.

O thou who in Jordan didst bow thy meek head,
And whelmed in our sorrow didst sink to the dead,
Then rose from the darkness to glory above,
And claimed for thy chosen the kingdom of love; —

2 Thy footsteps we follow, to bow in the tide,
And are buried with thee in the death thou hast died,
Then wake with thy likeness to walk in the way
That brightens and brightens to shadow- less day.

3 O Jesus, our Saviour, O Jesus, our Lord,
By the life of thy passion, the grace of thy word,
Accept us, redeem us, dwell ever within,
To keep, by thy Spirit, our spirits from sin; —

4 Till, crowned with thy glory, and waving the palm,
Our garments all white from the blood of the Lamb,
We join the bright millions of saints gone before,
And bless thee, and wonder, and praise evermore.

COMMUNION. [No. 2.] C. M.

CHARLES ZEUNER.

1. In all my Lord's appointed ways My journey I'll pur-sue; hinder me not, ye much-loved saints, For I must go with you.

816

Gen. 24: 56.

J. RYLAND.

In all my Lord's appointed ways
My journey I'll pursue;
Hinder me not, ye much-loved saints,
For I must go with you.

- 2 Through floods and flames, if Jesus lead,
I'll follow where he goes;
Hinder me not! shall be my cry,
Though earth and hell oppose.
- 3 Through duties, and through trials too,
I'll go at his command;
Hinder me not, for I am bound
To my Immanuel's land.
- 4 And when my Saviour calls me home,
Still this my cry shall be,
Hinder me not! come, welcome death;
I'll gladly go with thee!

817

"This is my Son."

ENG. BAP. COLL.

T IS God the Father we adore
In this baptismal sign;
T IS he whose voice on Jordan's shore
Proclaimed the Son divine.

- 2 The Father owned him; let our breath
In answering praise ascend,
As in the image of his death
We own our heavenly Friend.
- 3 We seek the consecrated grave
Along the path he trod;
Receive us in the hallowed wave,
Thou holy Son of God.
- 4 Let earth and heaven our zeal record,
And future witness bear;
That we to Zion's mighty Lord
Our full allegiance swear.

818

"All righteousness."

B. BEDDOME.

BURIED beneath the yielding wave,
The great Redeemer lies;
Faith views him in the watery grave,
And thence beholds him rise.

- 2 Thus do his willing saints, to-day,
Their ardent zeal express,
And, in the Lord's appointed way,
Fulfill all righteousness.
- 3 With joy we in his footsteps tread,
And would his cause maintain;
Like him be numbered with the dead,
And with him rise and reign.
- 4 Now we, blest Saviour, would to thee
Our grateful voices raise;
Washed in the fountain of thy blood,
Our lives shall be thy praise.

819

Consecration.

B. BEDDOME.

WITNESS, ye men and angels, now
Before the Lord we speak;
To him we make our solemn vow,
A vow we dare not break:—

- 2 That, long as life itself shall last,
Ourselves to Christ we yield;
Nor from his cause will we depart,
Or ever quit the field.
- 3 We trust not in our native strength,
But on his grace rely,
That with returning wants the Lord
Will all our need supply. .
- 4 Oh, guide our doubtful feet aright,
And keep us in thy ways;
And, while we turn our vows to prayers,
Turn thou our prayers to praise.

OWEN. 8. M.

J. E. SWEETSER.

1 Oh, what, if we are Christ's, Is earthly shame or loss?
 Bright shall the crown of glory be, When we have borne the cross.

820

"Via crucis, via lucis."

H. W. BAKER.

- Oh, what, if we are Christ's,
 Is earthly shame or loss?
 Bright shall the crown of glory be,
 When we have borne the cross.
- 2 Keen was the trial once,
 Bitter the cup of woe,
 When martyred saints, baptized in blood,
 Christ's sufferings shared below.

3 Bright is their glory now,
 Boundless their joy above,
 Where, on the bosom of their God,
 They rest in perfect love.

4 Lord, may that grace be ours!
 Like them in faith to bear
 All that of sorrow, grief, or pain,
 May be our portion here!

5 Enough, if thou at last
 The word of blessing give,
 And let us rest beneath thy feet,
 Where saints and angels live!

821

"I can do all things."

ANON.

O SAVIOUR, who didst come
 By water and by blood;
 Confessed on earth, adored in heaven,
 Eternal Son of God!

2 Jesus, our life and hope,
 To endless years the same;
 We plead thy gracious promises;
 And rest upon thy name.

3 By faith in thee we live,
 By faith in thee we stand,
 By thee we vanquish sin and death,
 And gain the heavenly land.

4 O Lord, increase our faith;
 Our fearful spirits calm;
 Sustain us through this mortal strife,
 Then give the victor's palm!

822

"I have peace."

H. DONAR.

I HEAR the words of love,
 I gaze upon the blood,
 I see the mighty sacrifice,
 And I have peace with God.

2 'Tis everlasting peace,
 Sure as Jehovah's name;
 'Tis stable as his steadfast throne,
 For evermore the same.

3 The clouds may go and come,
 And storms may sweep my sky;
 This blood-sealed friendship changes not,
 The cross is ever nigh.

4 I change—he changes not;
 The Christ can never die;
 His love, not mine, the resting-place;
 His truth, not mine, the tie.

5 My love is oftentimes low,
 My joy still ebbs and flows;
 But peace with him remains the same,
 No change Jehovah knows.

823*"Christian Love."*

J. FAWCETT.

BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love:
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

- 2 Before our Father's throne
We pour our ardent prayers;
Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 We share our mutual woes,
Our mutual burdens bear;
And often for each other flows
The sympathizing tear.

4 When we asunder part,
It gives us inward pain;
But we shall still be joined in heart,
And hope to meet again.

5 This glorious hope revives
Our courage by the way;
While each in expectation lives,
And longs to see the day.

6 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
And sin, we shall be free,
And perfect love and friendship reign
Through all eternity.

JESUS, we look to thee,
Thy promised presence claim;
Thou in the midst of us shalt be,
Assembled in thy name.

- 2 Not in the name of pride
Or selfishness we meet;
From nature's paths we turn aside,
And worldly thoughts forget.
- 3 We meet the grace to take,
Which thou hast freely given;
We meet on earth for thy dear sake,
That we may meet in heaven.
- 4 Present we know thou art,
But, oh, thyself reveal!
Now, Lord, let every bounding heart
Thy mighty comfort feel.

5 Oh, may thy quickening voice
The death of sin remove;
And bid our inmost souls rejoice,
In hope of perfect love.

825*Christian Union.*

B. BEDDOME.

LET party names no more
The Christian world o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and bond and free,
Are one in Christ their head.

2 Among the saints on earth,
Let mutual love be found;
Heirs of the same inheritance,
With mutual blessings crowned.

3 Thus will the church below
Resemble that above;
Where streams of pleasure ever flow,
And every heart is love.

"One Family."

C. WESLEY.

Let saints below in concert sing
With those to glory gone;
For all the servants of our King
In earth and heaven are one.
One family—we dwell in him—
One church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream,
The narrow stream of death;—

2 One army of the living God,
To his command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.
Ev'n now to their eternal home
Some happy spirits fly;
And we are to the margin come,
And soon expect to die.

3 Ev'n now, by faith, we join our hands
With those that went before,
And greet the ransomed, blessed bands
Upon the eternal shore.
Lord Jesus! be our constant guide:
And, when the word is given,
Bid death's cold flood its waves divide,
And land us safe in heaven.

Hebrews, 12: 18-24.

L. WATTS.

Not to the terrors of the Lord,
The tempest, fire, and smoke;
Not to the thunder of that word
Which God on Sinai spoke;—
But we are come to Zion's hill,
The city of our God;
Where milder words declare his will,
And speak his love abroad.

2 Behold the innumerable host
Of angels clothed in light;
Behold, the spirits of the just,
Whose faith is turned to sight!
Behold the blest assembly there,
Whose names are writ in heaven!
And God, the Judge of all, declare
Their vilest sins forgiven.

3 The saints on earth, and all the dead,
But one communion make;
All join in Christ, their living Head,
And of his grace partake.
In such society as this
My weary soul would rest;
The man that dwells where Jesus is,
Must be for ever blest.

LORD, thou on earth didst love thine own,
Didst love them to the end;
Oh, still from thy celestial throne,
Let gifts of love descend.

2 The love the Father bears to thee,
His own eternal Son,
Fill all thy saints, till all shall be
In pure affection one.

3 As thou for us didst stoop so low,
Warmed by love's holy flame,
So let our deeds of kindness flow
To all that bear thy name.

4 One blessed fellowship of love,
Thy living church should stand,
Till, faultless, she at last above
Shall shine at thy right hand.

5 Oh, glorious day, when she, the Bride,
With her dear Lord appears!
Then, robed in beauty at his side,
She shall forget her tears!

1 John 4:21.

J. SWAIN.

How sweet, how heavenly is the sight,
When those who love the Lord
In one another's peace delight,
And so fulfill his word!

2 When each can feel his brother's sigh,
And with him bear a part!
When sorrow flows from every eye,
And joy from heart to heart!

3 When, free from envy, scorn, and pride,
Our wishes all above,
Each can his brother's failings hide,
And show a brother's love!

4 Let love, in one delightful stream,
Through every bosom flow;
And union sweet, and dear esteem
In every action glow.

The happy souls above;
And he's an heir of heaven who finds
His bosom glow with love.

Rich banquet of his flesh and blood!

A. STEELE.

- To JESUS, our exalted Lord,
That name in heaven and earth adored,
Fain would our hearts and voices raise

Are weak, and languishing, and low;
Far, far above our humble songs,
The theme demands immortal tongues.

Around thee on the cursed tree,
Some loyal, loving hearts there were,
Some pitying eyes that wept for thee.

Our dying Lord, tho' crowned with thorn;
Like thee, thy blessed self, endure
The cross with all its cruel scorn.

Show what thy brethren all should be;
Pilgrims on earth, disowned by those
Who see no beauty, Lord, in thee.
- 833 The day of Espousals. I. WATTS.
- JESUS, thou everlasting King!
Accept the tribute that we bring;
Accept the well-deserved renown,
And wear our praises as thy crown.

Like our espousals, Lord! to thee;
Like the dear hour, when, from above,
We first received thy pledge of love.
- 3 The gladness of that happy day—
Our hearts would wish it long to stay;
Nor let our faith forsake its hold,
Nor comfort sink, nor love grow cold.

R. ROBINSON.

COME, thou Fount of every blessing,
Tune my heart to sing thy grace;
Streams of mercy, never ceasing,
Call for songs of loudest praise;
Teach me some melodious sonnet,
Sung by flaming tongues above;
Praise the mount—I'm fixed upon it!—
Mount of thy redeeming love.

2 Here I'll raise mine Eben-ezer;
Hither by thy help I'm come;
And I hope, by thy good pleasure,
Safely to arrive at home.
Jesus sought me when a stranger,
Wandering from the fold of God;
He, to rescue me from danger,
Interposed his precious blood.

3 Oh, to grace how great a debtor
Daily I'm constrained to be!
Let thy goodness, like a fetter,
Bind my wandering heart to thee;
Prone to wander, Lord, I feel it;
Prone to leave the God I love;
Here's my heart; oh, take and seal it;
Seal it for thy courts above.

"Till he come."

G. RAWSON.

By Christ redeemed, in Christ restored,
We keep the memory adored,
And show the death of our dear Lord,
Until he come.

4 And thus that dark betrayal night,
With the last advent we unite—
The shame, the glory, by this rite,
Until he come.

2 His body broken in our stead
Is here, in this memorial bread;
And so our feeble love is fed,
Until he come.

5 Until the trump of God be heard,
Until the ancient graves be stirred,
And with the great commanding word,
The Lord shall come.

3 His fearful drops of agony,
His life-blood shed for us we see:
The wine shall tell the mystery,
Until he come.

6 Oh, blessed hope! with this elate,
Let not our hearts be desolate,
But, strong in faith, in patience wait,
Until he come!

1. Je - sus is gone a - bove the skies, Where our weak sens - es reach him not;
And car - nal ob - jects court our eyes, To thrust our Sav - iour from our thought.

839*The Memorial of our Lord.* I. WATTS.

- JESUS is gone above the skies,
Where our weak senses reach him not;
And carnal objects court our eyes,
To thrust our Saviour from our thought.
2 He knows what wandering hearts we have,
Apt to forget his lovely face;
And, to refresh our minds, he gave
These kind memorials of his grace.
3 Let sinful sweets be all forgot,
And earth grow less in our esteem;
Christ and his love fill every thought;
And faith and hope be fixed on him..
4 While he is absent from our sight,
'Tis to prepare our souls a place,
That we may dwell in heavenly light,
And live for ever near his face.

840*"We would see Jesus."* I. WATTS.

- HERE let us see thy face, O Lord,
And view salvation with our eyes,
And taste and feel the living Word,
The Bread descending from the skies.
2 Thou hast prepared this dying Lamb,
Hast set his blood before our face,
To teach the terrors of thy name,
And show the wonders of thy grace.
3 Jesus, our Light! our Morning-star!
Shine thou on nations yet unknown;
The glory of thy people here,
And joy of spirits near thy throne.

841*Feeding on Christ.* J. MONTGOMERY.

- I FEED by faith on Christ; my bread,
His body broken on the tree;
I live in him, my living Head,
Who died, and rose again for me.
2 This be my joy and comfort here,
This pledge of future glory mine:
Jesus, in spirit now appear,
And break the bread, and pour the wine.
3 From thy dear hand, may I receive
The tokens of thy dying love,
And, while I feast on earth, believe
That I shall feast with thee above.

842*"Eat, O friends."* A. R. WOLFE.

- DRAW near, O Holy Dove, draw near,
With peace and gladness on thy wing;
Reveal the Saviour's presence here,
And light, and life, and comfort bring.
2 "Eat, O my friends—drink, O beloved!"
We hear the Master's voice exclaim:
Our hearts with new desire are moved,
And kindled with a heavenly flame.
3 No room for doubt, no room for dread,
Nor tears, nor groans, nor anxious sighs;
We do not mourn a Saviour dead,
But hail him living in the skies!
4 While this we do, remembering thee,
Dear Saviour, let our graces prove
We have thy blessed company,
Thy banner over us is love.

GOLDEN HILL. S. M.

843

"We are thine."

P. DODDRIDGE.

DEAR Saviour! we are thine,
By everlasting bands;
Our hearts, our souls, we would resign
Entirely to thy hands.

- 2 To thee we still would cleave
With ever-growing zeal;
If millions tempt us Christ to leave,
Oh, let them ne'er prevail!
- 3 Thy Spirit shall unite
Our souls to thee, our Head;
Shall form in us thine image bright,
And teach thy paths to tread.
- 4 Death may our souls divide
From these abodes of clay;
But love shall keep us near thy side,
Through all the gloomy way.
- 5 Since Christ and we are one,
Why should we doubt or fear?
If he in heaven has fixed his throne,
He'll fix his members there.

844

At closing.

A. R. WOLFE.

- A PARTING hymn we sing,
Around thy table, Lord;
Again our grateful tribute bring,
Our solemn vows record.
- 2 Here have we seen thy face,
And felt thy presence here;
So may the savor of thy grace
In word and life appear.
- 3 The purchase of thy blood—
By sin no longer led—
The path our dear Redeemer trod
May we rejoicing tread.
- 4 In self-forgetting love
Be our communion shown,
Until we join the church above,
And know as we are known.

845

The invitation.

I. WATTS.

JESUS invites his saints
To meet around his board;
Here pardoned rebels sit and hold
Communion with their Lord.

- 2 This holy bread and wine
Maintains our fainting breath,
By union with our living Lord,
And interest in his death.
- 3 Our heavenly Father calls
Christ and his members one;
We, the young children of his love,
And he, the first-born Son.
- 4 Let all our powers be joined,
His glorious name to raise;
Pleasure and love fill every mind
And every voice be praise.
- 5 To God, the Father, Son,
And Spirit, glory be,
As was, and is, and shall remain
Through all eternity!

846

Great wishes.

C. WESLEY.

- JESUS, my strength, my hope,
On thee I cast my care,
With humble confidence look up,
And know thou hear'st my prayer.
- 2 I want a sober mind,
A self-renouncing will,
That tramples down, and casts behind
The lures of pleasing ill;—
 - 3 I want a godly fear,
A quick-discriminating eye,
That looks to thee when sin is near,
And sees the tempter fly;—

And armed with jealous care,
For ever standing on its guard,
And watching unto prayer.

847*The Ark of God.* W. A. MUHLENBERG.

- LIKE Noah's weary dove,
That soared the earth around,
But not a resting-place above
The cheerless waters found;—
2 Oh, cease, my wandering soul,
On restless wing to roam;
All this wide world, to either pole,
Hath not for thee a home.
3 Behold the ark of God !
Behold the open door !
Oh, haste to gain that dear abode,
And rove, my soul, no more.
4 There safe thou shalt abide,
There sweet shall be thy rest;
And every longing satisfied,
With full salvation blest.

848*"This is my blood."* E. DENNY.

- BLEST feast of love divine !
'Tis grace that makes us free
To feed upon this bread and wine,
In memory, Lord, of thee.
2 That blood which flowed for sin,
In symbol here we see,
And feel the blessed pledge within,
That we are loved of thee.
3 Oh, if this glimpse of love
Be so divinely sweet,
What will it be, O Lord, above,
Thy gladdening smile to meet !

849*Christ, our Righteousness.* C. WESLEY, alt.

- For ever here my rest !
Close to thy bleeding side ;
This all my hope, and all my plea—
For me the Saviour died.
2 My Saviour, and my God !
Fountain for guilt and sin !
Sprinkle me ever with thy blood !
And cleanse and keep me clean.

850*"The banqueting house."*

C. WESLEY.

- JESUS, we thus obey
Thy last and kindest word,
And in thine own appointed way
We come to meet thee, Lord !
2 Thus we remember thee,
And take this bread and wine
As thine own dying legacy,
And our redemption's sign.
3 Thy presence makes the feast;
Now let our spirits feel
The glory not to be expressed,—
The joy unspeakable !
4 With high and heavenly bliss
Thou dost our spirits cheer;
Thy house of banqueting is this,
And thou hast brought us here.
5 Now let our souls be fed
With manna from above,
And over us thy banner spread
Of everlasting love.

851*"Christ, our Passover."* R. CAMPBELL, tr.

At the Lamb's high feast we sing
Praise to our victorious King,
Who hath washed us in the tide,
Flowing from his wounded side.

2 Where the Paschal blood is poured,
Death's dark angel sheathes his sword;
Israel's hosts triumphant go
Through the wave that drowns the foe.

3 Christ, our Paschal Lamb, is slain,
Holy victim, without stain;
Death and hell defeated lie,
Heaven unfolds its gates on high.

4 Hymns of glory and of praise,
Father, unto thee we raise;
Risen Lord, all praise to thee,
With the Spirit ever be.

852*"This is my Body."*

J. CONDER.

BREAD of heaven! on thee we feed,
For thy flesh is meat indeed:
Ever let our souls be fed
With this true and living bread!

2 Vine of heaven! thy blood supplies
This blest cup of sacrifice:
Lord! thy wounds our healing give,
To thy cross we look and live.

3 Day by day, with strength supplied,
Through the life of him who died:
Lord of life! oh, let us be,
Rooted, grafted, built on thee!

853*"Wounded for us."*

ANON.

JESUS, Master! hear me now,
While I would renew my vow,
And record thy dying love;
Hear, and help me from above.

2 Feed me, Saviour, with this bread,
Broken in thy body's stead;
Cheer my spirit with this wine,
Streaming like that blood of thine.

3 And as now I eat and drink,
Let me truly, sweetly think,
Thou didst hang upon the tree,
Broken, bleeding, there—for me!

854*"Thine for ever."*

M. F. MAUDRE.

THINE for ever! God of love,
Hear us from thy throne above!
Thine for ever may we be,
Here and in eternity!

2 Thine for ever! oh, how blest
They who find in thee their rest!
Saviour, Guardian, heavenly Friend,
Oh, defend us to the end!

3 Thine for ever! Saviour keep
These thy frail and trembling sheep;
Safe alone beneath thy care,
Let us all thy goodness share.

4 Thine for ever! thou our Guide,—
All our wants by thee supplied,—
All our sins by thee forgiven,—
Lead us, Lord, from earth to heaven!

1. When on Sinai's top I see God descend, in ma - jes - ty, To proclaim his ho - ly law, All my spirit sinks with awe.

855*Three Mountains.* J. MONTGOMERY.

WHEN on Sinai's top I see
God descend, in majesty,
To proclaim his holy law,
All my Spirit sinks with awe.

2 When, in ecstasy sublime,
Tabor's glorious steep I climb,
At the too transporting light,
Darkness rushes o'er my sight.

3 When on Calvary I rest,
God, in flesh made manifest,
Shines in my Redeemer's face,
Full of beauty, truth, and grace.

4 Here I would for ever stay,
Weep and gaze my soul away;
Thou art heaven on earth to me,
Lovely, mournful Calvary !

856*"Lovest thou me?"*

W. COWPER.

HARK ! my soul ! it is the Lord;
"Tis thy Saviour—hear his word;
Jesus speaks, and speaks to thee,
"Say, poor sinner, lovtest thou me ?

2 "I delivered thee when bound,
And when bleeding, healed thy wound;
Sought thee wandering, set thee right,
Turned thy darkness into light.

3 "Can a woman's tender care
Cease towards the child she bare?
Yes, she may forgetful be,
Yet will I remember thee.

4 "Mine is an unchanging love,
Higher than the heights above;
Deeper than the depths beneath—
Free and faithful—strong as death.

5 "Thou shalt see my glory soon,
When the work of grace is done;
Partner of my throne shalt be !
Say, poor sinner ! lovtest thou me ?"

6 Lord ! it is my chief complaint,
That my love is weak and faint;
Yet I love thee, and adore;—
Oh, for grace to love thee more.

857*"Thy people shall be my people."* J. MONTGOMERY.

PEOPLE of the living God,
I have sought the world around,
Paths of sin and sorrow trod,
Peace and comfort nowhere found.

2 Now to you my spirit turns—
Turns, a fugitive unblest;
Brethren, where your altar burns,
Oh, receive me into rest !

3 Lonely I no longer roam,
Like the cloud, the wind, the wave:
Where you dwell shall be my home,
Where you die shall be my grave;—

4 Mine the God whom you adore,
Your Redeemer shall be mine;
Earth can fill my soul no more,
Every idol I resign.

J. CENNICK.

TOGETHER with these symbols, Lord,
Thy blessed self impart;
And let thy holy flesh and blood
Feed the believing heart.

2 Let us from all our sins be washed
In thy atoning blood;
And let thy Spirit be the seal
That we are born of God.

3 Come, Holy Ghost, with Jesus' love,
Prepare us for this feast;
Oh, let us banquet with our Lord,
And lean upon his breast.

859*"Friend of Sinners."*

R. BURNHAM.

Jesus! thou art the sinner's Friend;
As such I look to thee;
Now, in the fullness of thy love,
O Lord! remember me.

2 Remember thy pure word of grace,—
Remember Calvary;
Remember all thy dying groans,
And then remember me.

3 Thou wondrous Advocate with God!
I yield myself to thee;
While thou art sitting on thy throne,
Dear Lord! remember me.

4 Lord! I am guilty—I am vile,
But thy salvation's free;
Then, in thine all-abounding grace,
Dear Lord! remember me.

860*"Prepare us, Lord."*

T. COTTERILL.

PREPARE us, Lord, to view thy cross,
Who all our griefs hast borne;
To look on thee, whom we have pierced—
To look on thee and mourn.

2 While thus we mourn, we would rejoice;
And as thy cross we see,
Let each exclaim, in faith and hope,
"The Saviour died for me!"

861*Persistent Love.*

I. WATTS.

HOW SWEET and awful is the place,
With Christ within the doors,
While everlasting love displays
The choicest of her stores.

2 While all our hearts, and all our songs,
Join to admire the feast,
Each of us cries with thankful tongue,—
"Lord, why was I a guest?"

3 "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
And enter while there's room,
When thousands make a wretched choice,
And rather starve than come?"

4 'Twas the same love that spread the feast,
That sweetly drew us in;
Else we had still refused to taste,
And perished in our sin.

5 Pity the nations, O our God!
Constrain the earth to come;
Send thy victorious word abroad,
And bring the strangers home.

862 "I will remember thee." J. MONTGOMERY.

ACCORDING to thy gracious word,
 In meek humility,
 This will I do, my dying Lord,
 I will remember thee.

2 Thy body, broken for my sake,
 My bread from heaven shall be;
 Thy testimonial cup I take,
 And thus remember thee.

3 Gethsemane can I forget?
 Or there thy conflict see,
 Thine agony and bloody sweat,
 And not remember thee?

4 When to the cross I turn mine eyes,
 And rest on Calvary,
 O Lamb of God, my sacrifice!
 I must remember thee:—

5 Remember thee, and all thy pains
 And all thy love to me;
 Yea, while a breath, a pulse remains,
 Will I remember thee.

6 And when these failing lips grow dumb,
 And mind and memory flee,
 When thou shalt in thy kingdom come,
 Then, Lord, remember me!

863

"The cup of blessing." C. WESLEY.

JESUS, at whose supreme command,
 We now approach to God,
 Before us in thy vesture stand,
 Thy vesture dipped in blood.

2 Now, Saviour, now thyself reveal,
 And make thy nature known;
 Affix thy blessed Spirit's seal,
 And stamp us for thine own.

3 Obedient to thy gracious word,
 We break the hallowed bread,
 Commemorate our dying Lord,
 And trust on thee to feed.

4 The cup of blessing, blessed by thee,
 Let it thy blood impart;
 The broken bread thy body be,
 To cheer each languid heart.

864 "Greater love hath no man." G. T. NOEL.

IF human kindness meets return,
 And owns the grateful tie:
 If tender thoughts within us burn,
 To feel a friend is nigh;—

2 Oh, shall not warmer accents tell
 The gratitude we owe
 To him, who died our fears to quell—
 Who bore our guilt and woe!

3 While yet in anguish he surveyed
 Those pangs he would not flee,
 What love his latest words displayed,—
 "Meet and remember me!"

4 Remember thee—thy death, thy shame,
 Our sinful hearts to share!—
 O memory! leave no other name
 But his recorded there.

SWEET the moments, rich in blessing,
Which before the cross we spend;
Life, and health, and peace possessing,
From the sinner's dying Friend.

2 Truly blessed is this station,
Low before his cross to lie,
While we see divine compassion,
Beaming in his gracious eye.

3 Love and grief our hearts dividing,
With our tears his feet we bathe;
Constant still, in faith abiding,
Life deriving from his death.

4 For thy sorrows we adore thee,
For the pains that wrought our peace,
Gracious Saviour! we implore thee
In our souls thy love increase.

5 Here we feel our sins forgiven,
While upon the Lamb we gaze;
And our thoughts are all of heaven,
And our lips o'erflow with praise.

6 Still in ceaseless contemplation,
Fix our hearts and eyes on thee,
Till we taste thy full salvation,
And, unvailed, thy glories see.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me!
Let me hide myself in thee;
Let the water and the blood,
From thy wounded side that flowed,
Be of sin the perfect cure;
Save me, Lord! and make me pure.

2 Should my tears for ever flow,
Should my zeal no languor know,
This for sin could not atone,
Thou must save and thou alone:
In my hand no price I bring;
Simply to thy cross I cling.

Rock of ages, cleft for me!

"Manifest thyself."

R. MANT.

Son of God! to thee I cry:
By the holy mystery
Of thy dwelling here on earth,
By thy pure and holy birth,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

2 Lamb of God! to thee I cry:
By thy bitter agony,
By thy pangs to us unknown,
By thy spirit's parting groan,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

3 Prince of Life! to thee I cry:
By thy glorious majesty,
By thy triumph o'er the grave,
Meek to suffer, strong to save,
Lord, thy presence let me see,
Manifest thyself to me.

4 Lord of glory, God most high,
Man exalted to the sky!

Prompt me to perform thy will;
Then thy glory I shall see,

E. H. BICKERSTETH.

"TILL He come:" oh, let the words
Linger on the trembling chords;
Let the little while between
In their golden light be seen;
Let us think how heaven and home
Lie beyond that—"Till he come."

2 When the weary ones we love
Enter on their rest above,
Seems the earth so poor and vast,
All our life joy overcast?
Hush, be every murmur dumb;
It is only—"Till he come."

3 See, the feast of love is spread,
Drink the wine, and break the bread;
Sweet memorials,—till the Lord
Call us round his heavenly board;
Some from earth, from glory some,
Severed only—"Till he come."

ROCK of Ages, cleft for me !

Let the water and the blood,

Be of sin the double cure;
Cleanse me from its guilt and power.

Could my zeal no respite know,
Could my tears for ever flow,
All for sin could not atone;
Thou must save, and thou alone.

3 Nothing in my hand I bring,
Simply to thy cross I cling;
Naked, come to thee for dress,
Helpless, look to thee for grace;
Vile, I to the fountain fly,
Wash me, Saviour, or I die !

When I soar to worlds unknown,
See thee on thy judgment throne,
Rock of Ages, cleft for me !
Let me hide myself in thee.

875 "Take my Heart." C. WESLEY.

FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost,
One in Three, and Three in One,
As by the celestial host,
Let thy will on earth be done;
Praise by all to thee be given,
Glorious Lord of earth and heaven !

2 Vilest of the fallen race,
Lo, I answer to thy call;
Meanest vessel of thy grace,
Grace divinely free for all;
Lo, I come to do thy will,
All thy counsel to fulfill.

3 If so poor a worm as I
May to thy great glory live,
All my actions sanctify,
All my words and thoughts receive;
Claim me for thy service, claim
All I have, and all I am.

4 Take my soul and body's powers,
Take my memory, mind and will,
All my goods, and all my hours,
All I know and all I feel,
All I think, or speak, or do;
Take my heart, but make it new.

Here would I touch and handle things ² I am not worthy to be thought thy child;

Here grasp with firmer hand the eternal grace, Too long a wanderer, and too oft beguiled,

ANON.

WE would see Jesus—for the shadows lengthen
Across this little landscape of our life;
We would see Jesus, our weak faith to strengthen
For the last weariness—the final strife.

- 2 We would see Jesus—the great Rock Foundation,
Whereon our feet were set with sovereign grace;
Not life, nor death, with all their agitation,
Can thence remove us, if we see his face.
- 3 We would see Jesus—other lights are pal-ing,
Which for long years we have rejoiced to see;
The blessings of our pilgrimage are failing,
We would not mourn them, for we go to thee.

- 4 We would see Jesus—this is all we're needing,
Strength, joy, and willingness come with the sight;
We would see Jesus, dying, risen, pleading,
Then welcome day, and farewell mortal night!

879

Trust, strength, calmness.

S. JOHNSON, alt.

SAVIOUR, in thy mysterious presence kneeling,
Fain would our souls feel all thy kindling love;
For we are weak, and need some deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

- 2 Lord, we have wandered forth through doubt and sorrow,
And thou hast made each step an onward one;
And we will ever trust each unknown morn-row,—
Thou wilt sustain us till its work is done.
- 3 In the heart's depths a peace serene and holy Abides, and when pain seems to have its will,
Or we despair,—oh, may that peace rise slowly,
Stronger than agony, and we be still!

- 4 Now, Saviour, now, in thy dear presence kneeling,
Our spirits yearn to feel thy kindling love;
Now make us strong, we need thy deep revealing
Of trust, and strength, and calmness from above.

SSO 7s, 6s, 8s. "Calvary."

LAMB of God, whose dying love

We now recall to mind,

Send the answer from above,

And let us mercy find :

Think on us who think on thee,

And every struggling soul release;

Oh, remember Calvary,

And bid us go in peace !

2 By thine agonizing pain,

And bloody sweat, we pray,

By thy dying love to man,

Take all our sins away :

Burst our bonds, and set us free ;

From all iniquity release ;

Oh, remember Calvary.

And bid us go in peace !

3 Let thy blood, by faith applied,

The sinner's pardon seal;

Speak us freely justified,

And all our sickness heal :

By thy passion on the tree,

Let all our griefs and troubles cease ;

Oh, remember Calvary,

And bid us go in peace !

T. HASTINGS.

FORGET thyself ! Christ bade thee come

To think upon his love,

Which could reverse the sinner's doom,

And write his name above ;

Bid the returning rebel live,

And freely all his sins forgive.

2 Forget thyself ! and think what pain,

What agony he bore,

To wash away each guilty stain,

To bless thee evermore :

To fit thee for his high abode,

The temple of the living God.

3 Forget thyself ! but let thy soul

With memories o'erflow,

Rejoice in his supreme control,

And seek his will to know :

With thankful heart approach the feast,

And thou wilt be a welcome guest.

A. STEELE.

DEAR Saviour, when my thoughts recall

The wonders of thy grace,

Low at thy feet ashamed, I fall,

And hide this wretched face.

2 Shall love like thine be thus repaid ?

Ah, vile, ungrateful heart !

By earth's low cares so oft betrayed,
From Jesus to depart.3 But he for his own mercy's sake,
My wandering soul restores ;
He bids the mourning heart partake
The pardon it implores.4 Oh, while I breathe to thee, my Lord,
The deep repentant sigh,
Confirm the kind, forgiving word,
With pity in thine eye.5 Then shall the mourner at thy feet
Rejoice to seek thy face ;
And, grateful, own how kind, how sweet,
Thy condescending grace.SS3 7s, 6s. "In remembrance."

Fountain of redeeming grace,
Let us now thy fullness see,
While we here converse with thee ;
Hearken to our ardent prayer,—
Let us all thy blessing share.2 While we thus, with glad accord,
Meet around thy table, Lord,
Bid us feast with joy divine,
On the appointed bread and wine :
Emblems may they truly prove,
Of our Saviour's bleeding love.3 Weak, unworthy, sinful, vile,
Yet we seek thy heavenly smile :
Canst thou all our sins forgive ?
Dost thou bid us look and live ?
Lord, we wonder and adore !
Oh, for grace to love thee more !SS4 C. M. "Planted in Christ."

S. F. SMITH.

PLANTED in Christ, the living vine,
This day, with one accord,
Ourselves, with humble faith and joy,
We yield to thee, O Lord !2 Joined in one body may we be :
One inward life partake ;
One be our heart, one heavenly hope
In every bosom wake.3 In prayer, in effort, tears, and toils,
One wisdom be our guide ;
Taught by one Spirit from above,
In thee may we abide.4 Then, when among the saints in light
Our joyful spirits shine,
Shall anthems of immortal praise,
O Lamb of God, be thine !

885 7s, 6s, d. Ancient Hymn.

RAY PALMER, tr.

O BREAD, to pilgrims given,
O Food, that angels eat,
O manna, sent from heaven,
For heaven-born natures meet !
Give us, for thee long pining,
To eat till richly filled ;
Till, earth's delights resigning,
Our every wish is stilled.

2 O Water, life-bestowing,
From out the Saviour's heart !
A fountain purely flowing,
A fount of love thou art ;
Oh, let us, freely tasting,
Our burning thirst assuage !
Thy sweetness, never wasting,
Avails from age to age.

3 Jesus ! this feast receiving,
We thee unseen adore ;
Thy faithful word believing,
We take, and doubt no more ;
Give us, thou true and loving !
On earth to live in thee ;
Then, death the veil removing,
Thy glorious face to see.

886 7s, 6s, d. Hope at the Cross.

WHEN human hopes all wither,
And friends no aid supply,
Then whither, Lord, ah ! whither
Can turn my straining eye ?
'Mid storms of grief still rougher,
'Midst darker, deadlier shade,
That cross where thou didst suffer,
On Calvary was displayed.

2 On that my gaze I fasten,
My refuge that I make ;
Though sorely thou mayst chasten,
Thou never canst forsake :
Thou, on that cross didst languish,
Ere glory crowned thy head !
And I, through death and anguish,
Must be to glory led.

887 L. M. Crucifying Afresh. C. F. ALEXANDER.

O JESUS ! bruised and wounded more
Than bursted grape, or bread of wheat,
The Life of life within our souls,
The Cup of our salvation sweet ; —

- 2 We come to show thy dying hour,
Thy streaming vein, thy broken flesh ;
And still the blood is warm to save,
And still the fragrant wounds are fresh.
3 O Heart ! that, with a double tide
Of blood and water, maketh pure ;
O Flesh ! once offered on the cross,
The gift that makes our pardon sure ; —
4 Let never more our sinful souls
The anguish of thy cross renew ;
Nor forge again the cruel nails,
That pierced thy victim body through.

888 L. M. Consecration. J. MONTGOMERY.

- JESUS ! our best belovéd Friend,
On thy redeeming name we call ;
Jesus ! in love to us descend,
Pardon and sanctify us all.
2 Our souls and bodies we resign,
To fear and follow thy commands ;
Oh, take our hearts, our hearts are thine,
Accept the service of our hands.
3 Firm, faithful, watching unto prayer,
Our Master's voice will we obey,
Toil in the vineyard here, and bear
The heat and burden of the day.
4 Yet, Lord, for us a resting-place,
In heaven, at thy right hand prepare ;
And till we see thee face to face,
Be all our conversation there.

ANON.

- 889 L. M. "Our Lord is Crucified." F. W. FABER.
Oh, come, and mourn with me awhile ;
Oh, come ye to the Saviour's side ;
Oh, come, together let us mourn ;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
2 Have we no tears to shed for him,
While soldiers scoff and Jews deride ?
Ah, look how patiently he hangs ;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
3 Come, let us stand beneath the cross ;
So may the blood from out his side
Fall gently on us drop by drop ;
Jesus, our Lord, is crucified.
4 A broken heart, a fount of tears
Ask, and they will not be denied ;
Lord Jesus, may we love and weep,
Since thou for us art crucified.

890 "Come over, and help us." R. HEBER.

FROM Greenland's icy mountains,
From India's coral strand,
Where Afric's sunny fountains
Roll down their golden sand,—
From many an ancient river,
From many a palmy plain,
They call us to deliver
Their land from error's chain.

2 What though the spicy breezes
Blow soft o'er Ceylon's isle;
Though every prospect pleases,
And only man is vile;
In vain with lavish kindness
The gifts of God are strown;
The heathen, in his blindness,
Bows down to wood and stone !

3 Shall we, whose souls are lighted
With wisdom from on high,—
Shall we, to men benighted,
The lamp of life deny?
Salvation, oh, salvation !
The joyful sound proclaim,
Till earth's remotest nation
Has learned Messiah's name.

4 Waft, waft, ye winds, his story,
And you, ye waters, roll,
Till, like a sea of glory,
It spreads from pole to pole;

Till o'er our ransomed nature
The Lamb for sinners slain,
Redeemer, King, Creator,
In bliss returns to reign !

891 The day of Jubilee. B. GOUGH.

How BEAUTEOUS on the mountains,
The feet of him that brings,
Like streams from living fountains,
Good tidings of good things;
That publisheth salvation,
And jubilee release,
To every tribe and nation,
God's reign of joy and peace !

2 Lift up thy voice, O watchman !
And shout, from Zion's towers,
Thy hallelujah chorus,—
"The victory is ours!"
The Lord shall build up Zion
In glory and renown,
And Jesus, Judah's lion,
Shall wear his rightful crown.

3 Break forth in hymns of gladness;
O waste Jerusalem !
Let songs, instead of sadness,
Thy jubilee proclaim;
The Lord, in strength victorious,
Upon thy foes hath trod;
Behold, O earth ! the glorious
Salvation of our God !

OUR country's voice is pleading.

Invite the reaper's toil.

2 Go, where the waves are breaking
On California's shore,
Christ's precious gospel taking,
More rich than golden ore;
On Alleghany's mountains,

Through all the western vale,
Beside Missouri's fountains,
Rehearse the wondrous tale.

3 The love of Christ unfolding,
Speed on from east to west,
Till all, his cross beholding,
In him are fully blest.
Great Author of salvation,
Haste, haste the glorious day,
When we, a ransomed nation,
Thy sceptre shall obey.

893

Christian Union. J. BORTHWICK.

AND is the time approaching,
By prophets long foretold,

When all shall dwell together,
One shepherd and one fold?
Shall every idol perish,
To moles and bats be thrown,
And every prayer be offered
To God in Christ alone?
2 Shall Jew and Gentile, meeting
From many a distant shore,
Around one altar kneeling,
One common Lord adore?
Shall all that now divides us
Remove and pass away,
Like shadows of the morning
Before the blaze of day?
3 Shall all that now unites us
More sweet and lasting prove,
A closer bond of union,
In a blest land of love?
Shall war be learned no longer,
Shall strife and tumult cease,
All earth his blessed kingdom,
The Lord and Prince of Peace?
4 O long-expected dawning,
Come with thy cheering ray!
When shall the morning brighten,
The shadows flee away?
O sweet anticipation!
It cheers the watchers on,
To pray, and hope, and labor,
Till the dark night be gone.

894

Psalm 72.

J. MONTGOMERY.

HAIL to the Lord's anointed,
Great David's greater Son!
Hail, in the time appointed,
His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression,
To set the captive free,
To take away transgression,
And rule in equity.

2 He comes, with succor speedy,
To those who suffer wrong;
To help the poor and needy,
And bid the weak be strong;
To give them songs for sighing,
Their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying,
Were precious in his sight.

3 He shall come down like showers
Upon the fruitful earth,
And love, and joy, like flowers,
Spring in his path to birth:
Before him, on the mountains,
Shall peace the herald go,
And righteousness in fountains
From hill to valley flow.

4 Arabia's desert-ranger
To him shall bow the knee;
The Ethiopian stranger
His glory come to see:

With offerings of devotion,
Ships from the isles shall meet,
To pour the wealth of ocean
In tribute at his feet.

5 Kings shall fall down before him,
And gold and incense bring:
All nations shall adore him;
His praise all people sing;
For he shall have dominion
O'er river, sea, and shore,
Far as the eagle's pinion
Or dove's light wing can soar.

6 For him shall prayer unceasing
And daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing,
A kingdom without end.
The heavenly dew shall nourish
A seed in weakness sown,
Whose fruit shall spread and flourish,
And shake like Lebanon.

7 O'er every foe victorious,
He on his throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious,
All-blessing and all-blessed.
The tide of time shall never
His covenant remove;
His name shall stand for ever;
His great, best name of Love!

895 7s, 6s. The morning light.

S. F. SMITH.

THE morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;

While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation !
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

2 Hail to the brightness of Zion's glad morning,
Long by the prophets of Israel foretold;
Hail to the millions from bondage returning;
Gentile and Jew the blest vision behold.

3 Lo! in the desert rich flowers are springing,
Streams ever copious are gliding along;
Loud from the mountain-tops echoes are ringing,
Wastes rise in verdure, and mingle in song.

4 See, from all lands—from the isles of the ocean,
Praise to Jehovah ascending on high;
Fallen are the engines of war and commotion,
Shouts of salvation are rending the sky.

J. NEWTON.

- SAVIOUR, visit thy plantation!
Grant us, Lord, a gracious rain:
All will come to desolation,
Unless thou return again.
2 Keep no longer at a distance,
Shine upon us from on high,
Lest, for want of thine assistance,
Every plant should droop and die.
3 Once, O Lord, thy garden flourished;
Every part looked gay and green;
Then thy word our spirits nourished:
Happy seasons we have seen.
4 But a drought has since succeeded,
And a sad decline we see:
Lord, thy help is greatly needed;
Help can only come from thee.
5 Let our mutual love be fervent:
Make us prevalent in prayer;
Let each one esteemed thy servant
Shun the world's bewitching snare.
6 Break the tempter's fatal power,
Turn the stony heart to flesh,
And begin from this good hour
To revive thy work afresh.

The truth for which the martyrs bled;
Along the line, to either pole,

Worn out with these long years of ill,
These ages of delay.
4 Come, and make all things new,

Meet to recount their solemn vows,
And bless thee as their Lord!

4 Thou, thou alone canst give

3 Thy Spirit then will speak
Through lips of feeble clay,
And hearts of adamant will break,
And rebels will obey.

Oh, listen to our cry;
Oh, come and bring salvation here:
Our hopes on thee rely.

Psalm 46.

1. WATTS.

God is the refuge of his saints,
 When storms of sharp distress invade;
 Ere we can offer our complaints,
 Behold him present with his aid.

2 Let mountains from their seats be hurled
 Down to the deep, and buried there,
 Convulsions shake the solid world—
 Our faith shall never yield to fear.

3 Loud may the troubled ocean roar—
 In sacred peace our souls abide;
 While every nation, every shore,
 Trembles, and dreads the swelling tide.

4 There is a stream, whose gentle flow
 Supplies the city of our God;
 Life, love, and joy, still gliding through,
 And watering our divine abode.

5 That sacred stream, thy holy word,
 Our grief allays, our fear controls;
 Sweet peace thy promises afford,
 And give new strength to fainting souls.

6 Zion enjoys her Monarch's love,
 Secure against a threatening hour;
 Nor can her firm foundation move,
 Built on his truth, and armed with power.

920

Psalm 72.

1. WATTS.

GREAT God ! whose universal sway
 The known and unknown worlds obey;
 Now give the kingdom to thy Son;
 Extend his power, exalt his throne.

2 As rain on meadows newly mown,
 So shall he send his influence down;
 His grace, on fainting souls, distills
 Like heavenly dew on thirsty hills.

3 The heathen lands, that lie beneath
 The shades of overspreading death,
 Revive at his first dawning light,
 And deserts blossom at the sight.

4 The saints shall flourish in his days,
 Dressed in the robes of joy and praise;
 Peace, like a river, from his throne,
 Shall flow to nations yet unknown.

921*"Triumphant Zion."* P. DODDRIDGE.

TRIUMPHANT Zion, lift thy head
From dust, and darkness, and the dead;
Though humbled long, awake at length,
And gird thee with thy Saviour's strength.
2 Put all thy beauteous garments on,
And let thy various charms be known:
The world thy glories shall confess,
Decked in the robes of righteousness.

3 No more shall foes unclean invade,
And fill thy hallowed walls with dread;
No more shall hell's insulting host
Their victory and thy sorrows boast.

4 God, from on high, thy groans will hear;
His hand thy ruins shall repair;
Nor will thy watchful Monarch cease
To guard thee in eternal peace.

922*Ancient Israel.*

J. JOYCE.

WHY on the-bending willows hung,
Israel! still sleeps thy tuneful string?—
Still mute remains thy sullen tongue,
And Zion's song denies to sing?

2 Awake! thy sweetest raptures raise;
Let harp and voice unite their strains:
Thy promised King his sceptre sways:
Jesus, thine own Messiah, reigns!

3 No taunting foes the song require;
No strangers mock thy captive chain;
But friends provoke the silent lyre,
And brethren ask the holy strain.

4 Nor fear thy Salem's hills to wrong,
If other lands thy triumphs share:
A heavenly city claims thy song;
A brighter Salem rises there.
5 By foreign streams no longer roam;
Nor, weeping, think of Jordan's flood:
In every clime behold a home,
In every temple see thy God.

923*Home Missions.* W. C. BRYANT.

LOOK from thy sphere of endless day,
O God of mercy and of might!
In pity look on those who stray,
Benighted in this land of light.

2 In peopled vale, in lonely glen,
In crowded mart, by stream or sea,
How many of the sons of men
Hear not the message sent from thee!

3 Send forth thy heralds, Lord, to call
The thoughtless young, the hardened old,
A scattered, homeless flock, till all
Be gathered to thy peaceful fold.

4 Send them thy mighty word to speak,
Till faith shall dawn, and doubt depart,
To awe the bold, to stay the weak,
And bind and heal the broken heart.

5 Then all these wastes, a dreary scene,
That makes us sadden as we gaze,
Shall grow with living waters green,
And lift to heaven the voice of praise.

Psalm 87.

I. WATTS.

God, in his earthly temple, lays
Foundations for his heavenly praise ;
He likes the tents of Jacob well ;
But still in Zion loves to dwell.

2 His mercy visits every house
That pay their night and morning vows,
But makes a more delightful stay
Where churches meet to praise and pray.

3 What glories were described of old !
What wonders are of Zion told !
Thou city of our God below !
Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.

4 Egypt and Tyre, and Greek and Jew,
Shall there begin their lives anew ;
Angels and men shall join to sing
The hill where living waters spring.

5 When God makes up his last account
Of natives in his holy mount,
'T will be an honor to appear,
As one new-born, or nourished there.

Psalm 80.

I. WATTS.

GREAT Shepherd of thine Israel !
Who didst between the cherubs dwell,
And lead the tribes, thy chosen sheep,
Safe through the desert and the deep ; —

2 Thy Church is in the desert now ;
Shine from on high and guide us through ;
Turn us to thee, thy love restore ;
We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

3 Hast thou not planted, with thy hand,
A lovely vine in this our land ?
Did not thy power defend it round,
And heavenly dews enrich the ground ?

4 Return, almighty God ! return,
Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn :
Turn us to thee, thy love restore ;
We shall be saved, and sigh no more.

“Alleluia.”

ANON.

Hallelujah ! song of gladness,
Song of everlasting joy ;
Hallelujah ! song the sweetest
That can angel-hosts employ ;
Hymning in God's holy presence
Their high praise eternally.

2 Hallelujah ! church victorious,
Thou mayst lift this joyful strain :
Hallelujah ! songs of triumph

Well befit the ransomed train :
We our song must raise with sadness,
While in exile we remain.

3 Hallelujah ! strains of gladness
Suit not souls with anguish torn ;
Hallelujah ! notes of sadness
Best befit our state forlorn :
For, in this dark world of sorrow,
We, with tears, our sin must mourn.

4 But our earnest supplication,
Holy God, we raise to thee ;
Bring us to thy blissful presence,
Make us all thy joys to see ;
Then we'll sing our Hallelujah,—
Sing to all eternity.

Psalm 14.

H. F. LYTHE.

Oh, that the Lord's salvation
Were out of Zion come,
To heal his ancient nation,
To lead his outcasts home !
How long the holy city
Shall heathen feet profane ?
Return, O Lord, in pity,
Rebuild her walls again.

2 Let fall thy rod of terror,
Thy saving grace impart,
Roll back the vail of error,
Release the fettered heart ;
Let Israel, home returning,
Their lost Messiah see ;
Give oil of joy for mourning,
And bind thy Church to thee.

The Gospel Banner.

T. HASTINGS.

Now be the gospel banner,
In every land unfurled ;
And be the shout,—“Hosanna !”
Re-echoed through the world ;
Till every isle and nation,

Till every tribe and tongue,
Receive the great salvation,
And join the happy throng.

2 Yes,—thou shalt reign for ever,
O Jesus, King of kings !
Thy light, thy love, thy favor,
Each ransomed captive sings :
The isles for thee are waiting,
The deserts learn thy praise,
The hills and valleys greeting,
The song responsive raise.

C. WESLEY.

SEE! how great a flame aspires,
Kindled by a spark of grace!
Jesus' love the nations fires,—
Sets the kingdoms on a blaze;
Fire to bring on earth he came;
Kindled in some hearts it is;
Oh, that all might catch the flame,
All partake the glorious bliss!

2 When he first the work begun,
Small and feeble was his day:
Now the word doth swiftly run;
Now it wins its widening way:
More and more it spreads and grows,
Ever mighty to prevail;
Sin's strongholds it now o'erthrows,—
Shakes the trembling gates of hell.

3 Sons of God! your Saviour praise;
He the door hath opened wide;
He hath given the word of grace;
Jesus' word is glorified;
Jesus, mighty to redeem—
He alone the work hath wrought;
Worthy is the work of him,—
Him who spake a world from naught.

930 C. M.Psalm 102.

I. WATTS.

LET Zion and her sons rejoice—
Behold the promised hour!
Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
And comes to exalt his power.

2 Her dust and ruins that remain
Are precious in our eyes;
Those ruins shall be built again,
And all that dust shall rise.

3 The Lord will raise Jerusalem,
And stand in glory there;
Nations shall bow before his name,
And kings attend with fear.

4 He sits a sovereign on his throne,
With pity in his eyes;
He hears the dying prisoners' groan,
And sees their sighs arise.

5 He frees the souls condemned to death;
Nor, when his saints complain,
Shall it be said that praying breath
Was ever spent in vain.

931 C. M.Isaiah 52: 1, 2.

J. MONTGOMERY.

DAUGHTER of Zion! from the dust
Exalt thy fallen head;
Again in thy Redeemer trust,—
He calls thee from the dead.

2 Awake, awake, put on thy strength,—
Thy beautiful array;
The day of freedom dawns at length,—
The Lord's appointed day.

3 Rebuild thy walls, thy bounds enlarge,
And send thy heralds forth;
Say to the south,—“ Give up thy charge,
And keep not back, O north !”

4 They come! they come! thine exiled bands,
Where'er they rest or roam,
Have heard thy voice in distant lands,
And hasten to their home.

5 Thus, though the universe shall burn,
And God his works destroy,
With songs, the ransomed shall return,
And everlasting joy.

Aught of joy or hope foretell?—
Traveler! yes; it brings the day,
Promised day of Israel :—

2 Watchman! tell us of the night;
Higher yet that star ascends;—
Traveler! blessedness and light,
Peace and truth, its course portends;—
Watchman! will its beams alone
Gild the spot that gave them birth?—
Traveler! ages are its own;
See, it bursts o'er all the earth!—

3 Watchman! tell us of the night,
For the morning seems to dawn;—
Traveler! darkness takes its flight,
Doubt and terror are withdrawn;—

Hie thee to thy quiet home!—
Traveler! lo! the Prince of Peace,
Lo! the Son of God, is come!

W. B. O. PEABODY.

BEHOLD the western evening light!
It melts in deepening gloom:
So calmly Christians sink away,
Descending to the tomb.
The winds breathe low, the withering leaf
Scarce whispers from the tree:
So gently flows the parting breath,
When good men cease to be.

2 How beautiful on all the hills
The crimson light is shed!
'Tis like the peace the Christian gives
To mourners round his bed.

How mildly on the wandering cloud
The sunset beam is cast!
'Tis like the memory left behind
When loved ones breathe their last.

3 And now above the dews of night
The rising star appears:
So faith springs in the heart of those Whose eyes are bathed in tears.
But soon the morning's happier light
Its glory shall restore,
And eyelids that are sealed in death
Shall wake to close no more.

R. HEBER.

BENEATH our feet and o'er our head
Is equal warning given;
Beneath us lie the countless dead,
Above us is the heaven!
Death rides on every passing breeze,
And lurks in every flower;
Each season hath its own disease,
Its peril every hour!

2 Our eyes have seen the rosy light
Of youth's soft cheek decay;
And fate descend in sudden night
On manhood's middle day.
Our eyes have seen the steps of age
Halt feebly to the tomb;
And yet shall earth our hearts engage,
And dreams of days to come?

3 Then, mortal, turn! thy danger know;
Where'er thy foot can tread,
The earth rings hollow from below,
And warns thee of her dead!
Turn, mortal, turn! thy soul apply
To truths divinely given:
The dead, who underneath thee lie,
Shall live for hell or heaven!

Why should we start, and fear to die?
What timorous worms we mortals are!
Death is the gate of endless joy,

2 The pains, the groans, the dying strife
Fright our approaching souls away;
We still shrink back again to life,
Fond of our prison and our clay.

951*"I shall go to him."*

H. K. WHITE.

- THROUGH sorrow's night, and danger's path,
 Amid the deepening gloom,
 We, followers of our suffering Lord,
 Are marching to the tomb.
- 2 There, when the turmoil is no more,
 And all our powers decay,
 Our cold remains, in solitude,
 Shall sleep the years away.
- 3 Our labors done, securely laid
 In this our last retreat,
 Unheeded o'er our silent dust
 The storms of earth shall beat.
- 4 Yet not thus buried or extinct,
 The vital spark shall lie:
 For o'er life's wreck that spark shall rise
 To seek its kindred sky.

5 These ashes, too, this little dust,
 Our Father's care shall keep,
 Till the last angel rise and break
 The long and dreary sleep.

6 Then love's soft dew o'er every eye
 Shall shed its mildest rays,
 And the long silent voice awake
 With shouts of endless praise.

952*Resurrection sure.*

RAY PALMER.

- WHEN downward to the darksome tomb
 I thoughtful turn my eyes,
 Frail nature trembles at the gloom,
 And auxious fears arise.
- 2 Why shrinks my soul?—in death's embrace
 Once Jesus captive slept:
 And angels, hovering o'er the place,
 His lowly pillow kept.
- 3 Thus shall they guard my sleeping dust,
 And, as the Saviour rose,
 The grave again shall yield her trust,
 And end my deep repose.
- 4 My Lord, before to glory gone,
 Shall bid me come away;
 And calm and bright shall break the dawn
 Of heaven's eternal day,
- 5 Then let my faith each fear dispel,
 And gild with light the grave;
 To him my loftiest praises swell,
 Who died, from death to save.

953*"We are confident."*

I. WATTS.

WHY do we mourn departing friends,
 Or shake at death's alarms?

'Tis but the voice that Jesus sends,
 To call them to his arms.

2 Are we not tending upward, too,
 As fast as time can move?

Nor would we wish the hours more slow,
 To keep us from our love.

3 Why should we tremble to convey
 Their bodies to the tomb?

There the dear flesh of Jesus lay,
 And scattered all the gloom.

4 The graves of all the saints he blessed,
 And softened every bed;
 Where should the dying members rest,
 But with the dying Head?

5 Thence he arose, ascending high,
 And showed our feet the way;
 Up to the Lord we, too, shall fly
 At the great rising-day.

6 Then let the last loud trumpet sound,
 And bid our kindred rise;
 Awake! ye nations under ground;
 Ye saints! ascend the skies.

Heaven alone unfading. D. E. FORD.

How VAIN is all beneath the skies !
How transient every earthly bliss !
How slender all the fondest ties
That bind us to a world like this !
2 The evening-cloud, the morning dew,
The withering grass, the fading flower,
Of earthly hopes are emblems true,—
The glory of a passing hour.
3 But, though earth's fairest blossoms die,
And all beneath the skies is vain,
There is a land whose confines lie
Beyond the reach of care and pain.
4 Then let the hope of joys to come
Dispel our cares and chase our fears:
If God be ours, we're traveling home,
Though passing through a vale of tears.

I. WATTS.

WHAT sinners value I resign;
Lord ! 'tis enough that thou art mine;
I shall behold thy blissful face,
And stand complete in righteousness.
2 This life's a dream—an empty show;
But the bright world, to which I go,
Hath joys substantial and sincere;
When shall I wake, and find me there ?
3 Oh, glorious hour ! oh, blest abode !
I shall be near, and like my God;
And flesh and sin no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.
4 My flesh shall slumber in the ground,
Till the last trumpet's joyful sound;
Then burst the chains, with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise !

Before thy feet with them to bow,
Though vilest of them all;
But, can I bear the piercing thought,
What if my name should be left out,
When thou for them shalt call?

3 O Lord, prevent it by thy grace,
Be thou my only hiding-place,
In this the accepted day;
Thy pardoning voice, oh, let me hear,
To still my unbelieving fear,
Nor let me fall, I pray.

4 Among thy saints let me be found,
Whene'er the archangel's trumpet shall sound,
To see thy smiling face;
Then loudest of the throng I'll sing,
While heaven's resounding mansions ring
With shouts of sovereign grace.

958 Our fathers; where are they. P. DODDRIDGE.
How SWIFT the torrent rolls,
That bears us to the sea,
The tide that hurries thoughtless souls
To vast eternity!

2 Our fathers, where are they,
With all they called their own?
Their joys and griefs, and hopes and cares,
And wealth and honor gone.

3 God of our fathers, hear,
Thou everlasting Friend!
While we, as on life's utmost verge,
Our souls to thee command.

4 Of all the pious dead
May we the footsteps trace,
Till with them, in the land of light,
We dwell before thy face.

959 "How long, O Lord!"

H. BONAR.

THE Church has waited long
Her absent Lord to see;
And still in loneliness she waits,
A friendless stranger she.

2 How long, O Lord our God,
Holy and true and good,
Wilt thou not judge thy suffering Church,
Her sighs and tears and blood?

3 Saint after saint on earth,
Has lived and loved and died;
And as they left us, one by one,
We laid them side by side.

- 4 We laid them down to sleep,
But not in hope forlorn;
We laid them but to ripen there,
Till the last glorious morn.
- 5 We long to hear thy voice,
To see thee face to face,
To share thy crown and glory then,
As now we share thy grace.
- 6 Come, Lord, and wipe away
The curse, the sin, the stain,
And make this blighted world of ours
Thine own fair world again.

960*The Pious Dead.*

For all thy saints, O God,
Who strove in Christ to live,
Who followed him, obeyed, adored,
Our grateful hymn receive.

2 For all thy saints, O God,
Accept our thankful cry,
Who counted Christ their great reward,
And yearned for him to die.

3 They all, in life and death,
With him, their Lord, in view,
Learned from thy Holy Spirit's breath
To suffer and to do.

4 For this thy name we bless,
And humbly pray that we
May follow them in holiness,
And live and die in thee.

1. It is not death to die— To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high, To be at home with God.

961 "Where is thy victory?" G. W. BETHUNE.

- It is not death to die—
To leave this weary road,
And 'mid the brotherhood on high,
To be at home with God.
- 2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.
- 3 It is not death to bear
The wrench that sets us free
From dungeon chain,—to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.
- 4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong exulting wing,
To live among the just.
- 5 Jesus, thou Prince of life !
Thy chosen cannot die;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

962 Death of a Minister. J. MONTGOMERY.

SERVANT of God, well done !
Rest from thy loved employ:
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy !

2 The voice at midnight came;
He started up to hear;
A mortal arrow pierced his frame;
He fell, but felt no fear.

- 3 His spirit with a bound
Left its encumbering clay:
His tent, at sunrise, on the ground
A darkened ruin lay.
- 4 The pains of death are past,
Labor and sorrow cease,
And, life's long warfare closed at last,
His soul is found in peace.
- 5 Soldier of Christ, well done !
Praise be thy new employ;
And, while eternal ages run,
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

963 "With thy might."

H. BONAR.

- MAKE haste, O man, to live,
For thou so soon must die;
Time hurries past thee like the breeze;
How swift its moments fly !
- 2 To breathe, and wake, and sleep,
To smile, to sigh, to grieve,
To move in idleness through earth—
This, this is not to live.
- 3 Make haste, O man, to do
Whatever must be done;
Thou hast no time to lose in sloth,
Thy day will soon be gone.
- 4 Up, then, with speed, and work ;
Fling ease and self away—
This is no time for thee to sleep—
Up, watch, and work, and pray !

Psalm 90.

Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come ;
Our shelter from the stormy blast,
And our eternal home :—
Under the shadow of thy throne
Thy saints have dwelt secure ;
Sufficient is thine arm alone,
And our defence is sure.
2 Before the hills in order stood,
Or earth received her frame,
From everlasting thou art God,
To endless years the same.
A thousand ages, in thy sight,
Are like an evening gone ;
Short as the watch that ends the night,
Before the rising sun.

3 Time, like an ever-rolling stream,
Bears all its sons away ;
They fly, forgotten, as a dream
Dies at the opening day.
Our God, our help in ages past,
Our hope for years to come,
Be thou our guard while troubles last,
And our eternal home.

Trembling, hoping, lingering, flying—
Oh, the pain !—the bliss of dying !

2 Hark ! they whisper ; angels say,
“ Sister spirit, come away ;”
What is this absorbs me quite ?—
Steals my senses, shuts my sight,
Drowns my spirits, draws my breath ?—
Tell me, my soul, can this be death ?

3 The world recedes—it disappears !
Heaven opens on my eyes !—my ears
With sounds seraphic ring !
Lend, lend your wings ! I mount ! I fly !

O Death ! where is thy sting ?”

R. BLAIR.

How still and peaceful is the grave !

Where, life's vain tumults past,
The appointed house, by heaven's decree,
Receives us all at last.

2 The wicked there from troubling cease ;
Their passions rage no more ;
And there the weary pilgrim rests
From all the toils he bore.

3 There servants, masters, small and
Partake the same repose ; [great,
And there, in peace, the ashes mix
Of those who once were foes.

4 All, leveled by the hand of death,
Lie sleeping in the tomb,
Till God in judgment calls them forth
To meet their final doom.

To die is gain.

W. H. BATHURST.

Why should our tears in sorrow flow,
When God recalls his own ;
And bids them leave a world of woe
For an immortal crown ?

2 Is not ev'n death a gain to those Whose life to God was given ?
Gladly to earth their eyes they close,
To open them in heaven.

3 Their toils are past, their work is done,
And they are fully blest :
They fought the fight; the victory won,
And entered into rest.

4 Then let our sorrows cease to flow,—
God has recalled his own ;
And let our hearts in every woe,
Still say,—“Thy will be done !”

This place is holy ground !

World, with its cares, away !
A holy, solemn stillness, round
This lifeless, mouldering clay ;
Nor pain, nor grief, nor anxious fear,
Can reach the peaceful sleeper here.

2 Behold the bed of death,
The pale and mortal clay !
Heard ye the sob of parting breath ?
Marked ye the eye's last ray ?
No ! life so sweetly ceased to be,
It lapsed in immortality.

In stillness o'er the loss !

Bury the dead ! in Christ they sleep
Who bore on earth his cross ;
And from the grave their dust shall rise,

JUDGMENT HYMN. P. M.

JOSEPH KLUG'S GESANGBUCH.

1. { Great God, what do I see and hear ! The end of things cre - a - ted !

graves restore The dead which they contained before; Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

976 Prepare to meet God. W. B. COLLYER, tr.

GREAT God, what do I see and hear !
The end of things created !
The Judge of man I see appear,
On clouds of glory seated:
The trumpet sounds; the graves restore
The dead which they contained before;
Prepare, my soul, to meet him.

2 The dead in Christ shall first arise,
At the last trumpet's sounding—
Caught up to meet him in the skies,
With joy their Lord surrounding;
No gloomy fears their souls dismay,
His presence sheds eternal day
On those prepared to meet him.

3 But sinners, filled with guilty fears,
Behold his wrath prevailing;
For they shall rise, and find their tears
And sighs are unavailing:
The day of grace is past and gone;
Trembling they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet him.

4 Great God ! what do I see and hear !
The end of things created !
The Judge of man I see appear,
On clouds of glory seated:
Beneath his cross I view the day
When heaven and earth shall pass away,
And thus prepare to meet him.

977

"Into thine hand."

GERMAN.

WHEN my last hour is close at hand,
My last sad journey taken,
Do thou, Lord Jesus ! by me stand;
Let me not be forsaken:
O Lord ! my spirit I resign
Into thy loving hands divine;
'Tis safe within thy keeping.

2 Countless as sands upon the shore,
My sins may then appall me;
Yet, though my conscience vex me sore.
Despair shall not enthrall me;
For as I draw my latest breath,
I'll think, Lord Christ ! upon thy death,
And there find consolation.

3 I shall not in the grave remain,
Since thou death's bonds hast severed
By hope with thee to rise again,
From fear of death delivered,
I'll come to thee, where'er thou art,—
Live with thee, from thee never part;
Therefore I die in rapture.

4 And so to Jesus Christ I'll go,
My longing arms extending;
So fall asleep, in slumber deep,
Slumber that knows no ending;
Till Jesus Christ, God's only Son,
Opens the gates of bliss, leads on
To heaven, to life eternal.

978*All over and gone.*

EARTH is past away and gone,
All her glories, every one,
All her pomp is broken down ;
God is reigning, God alone !

2 All her high ones lowly lie,
All her mirth hath passéd by,
All her merry-hearted sigh ;
God is reigning, God on high !

3 No more sorrow, no more night ;
Perfect joy and purest light !
With his spotless saints and bright,
God is reigning in the height !

4 Blessing, praise and glory bring ;
Offer every holy thing ;
Everlasting praises sing ;
God is reigning, God our King !

BEHOLD, the day is come ;
The righteous Judge is near ;
And sinners, trembling at their doom,
Shall soon their sentence hear.

2 How awful is the sight !
How loud the thunders roar !
The sun forbears to give his light,
And stars are seen no more.

3 The whole creation groans ;
But saints arise and sing :
They are the ransomed of the Lord,
And he their God and King.

980*s. m.Now is the time.P. DODDRIDGE.*

And must the dead arise,
And not a single soul escape
His all-discerning eyes ?

2 How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day,
When earth and heaven before his face
Astonished shrink away ?

3 But, ere the trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead,
Hark, from the gospel's cheering sound
What joyful tidings spread !

4 Ye sinners ! seek his grace
Whose wrath ye cannot bear ;
Fly to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.

H. ALFORD.981L. M. "The Day of the Lord."w. SCOTT.

The day of wrath ! that dreadful day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away !
What power shall be the sinner's stay ?
How shall he meet that dreadful day ?—

2 When, shriveling like a parchéd scroll,
The flaming heavens together roll,
And louder yet, and yet more dread,
Swells the high trump that wakes the dead !

3 Oh, on that day, that wrathful day,
When man to judgment wakes from clay,
Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

982*s. s., 4. "The Mighty God."w. GOODE.*

Lo ! the mighty God appearing—

From on high Jehovah speaks !

Eastern lands the summons hearing,

O'er the west his thunder breaks :

Earth beholds him :

Universal nature shakes.

2 Zion, all its light unfolding,
God in glory shall display :

Lo ! he comes,—nor silence holding,

Fire and clouds prepare his way :

Tempests round him

Hasten on the dreadful day.

3 To the heavens his voice ascending,

To the earth beneath he cries—

“Souls immortal now descending,

Let the sleeping dust arise !

Rise to judgment ;

Let my throne adorn the skies.

4 “Gather first my saints around me,

Those who to my covenant stood ;

Those who humbly sought and found me,
Through the dying Saviour's blood :

Blest Redeemer !

Choicest sacrifice to God !”

5 Now the heavens on high adore him,

And his righteousness declare :

Sinners perish from before him,

But his saints his mercies share :

Just his judgment !

God, himself the Judge, is there.

983 7s. 3l."Dies irae."

DAY of anger ! that dread day
Shall the sign in heaven display,
And the earth in ashes lay !

2 Oh, what trembling shall appear,
When his coming shall be near,
Who shall all things strictly clear !

3 When the trumpet shall command,
Through the tombs of every land,
All before the throne to stand !

4 What shall I before him say ?
How shall I be safe that day—
When the righteous scarcely may ?

5 King of awful majesty,
Saving sinners graciously,—
Fount of mercy ! save thou me !

6 Leave me not, my Saviour ! one,
For whose soul thy course was run !
Lest I be that day undone !

7 Though unworthy is my prayer,
Make my soul thy mercy's care,
And from death eternal spare !

8 When thy voice in wrath shall say,
Cursèd one, depart away !
Call me with thy blest, I pray !

THE Lord shall come ! the earth shall quake !

The mountains to their centre shake ;
And, withering from the vault of night,
The stars withdraw their feeble light.

2 The Lord shall come ! but not the same
As once in lowly form he came,—
A silent Lamb before his foes,
A weary man, and full of woes.

3 The Lord shall come ! a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub-wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human kind !

4 While sinners in despair shall call,
"Rocks, hide us ! mountains, on us fall!"
The saints, ascending from the tomb,
Shall sing for joy, "The Lord is come !"

ETERNITY ! eternity !
How long art thou, eternity !

Or swift as couriers homeward go,
Or ships to port, or shafts from bow ;
Ponder, O man, eternity !

2 Eternity ! eternity !
How long art thou, eternity !
As long as God is God, so long

So long the joys of heaven remain ;
Oh, lasting joy ! oh, lasting pain !
Ponder, O man, eternity !

3 Eternity ! eternity !
How long art thou, eternity !
O man, full oft thy thoughts should dwell
Upon the pains of sin and hell,

That do beyond all time endure ;

c. WESLEY.

Lo ! he comes with clouds descending,
Once for favored sinners slain !
Thousand thousand saints attending,
Swell the triumph of his train !
Hallelujah !
Jesus comes, and comes to reign.

2 Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty !
Those who set at naught and sold him,
Pierced and nailed him to the tree,
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see ?

3 Lo ! the last long separation,
As the cleaving crowds divide,
And one dread adjudication
Sends each soul to either side !

Lord of mercy !
How shall I that day abide ?

4 Yea, Amen ! let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne !
Saviour, take the power and glory ;
Make thy righteous sentence known !
Men and angels
Kneel and bow to thee alone !

THAT awful day will surely come,
The appointed hour makes haste,
When I must stand before my Judge,
And pass the solemn test.
2 Thou lovely Chief of all my joys,
Thou Sovereign of my heart!
How could I bear to hear thy voice
Pronounce the sound, "Depart!"
3 Jesus, I throw my arms around,
And hang upon thy breast:

Without one gracious smile from thee,
My spirit cannot rest.

- 4 Oh, tell me that my worthless name
Is graven on thy hands!
Show me some promise in thy book,
Where my salvation stands.
5 Give me one kind, assuring word,
To sink my fears again;
And cheerfully my soul shall wait
Her threescore years and ten.

On Jordan's rugged banks I stand,
And cast a wishful eye
To Canaan's fair and happy land,
Where my possessions lie.

2 Oh, the transporting, rapturous scene,
That rises to my sight!
Sweet fields arrayed in living green,
And rivers of delight!

3 O'er all those wide extended plains
Shines one eternal day;
There God, the Son, for ever reigns,
And scatters night away.

4 No chilling winds, or poisonous breath,
Can reach that healthful shore;
Sickness and sorrow, pain and death,
Are felt and feared no more.

5 When shall I reach that happy place,
And be for ever blest?
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest?

Can here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

 Stand dressed in living green;
 So to the Jews old Canaan stood,
 While Jordan rolled between.
 But timorous mortals start and shrink
 To cross this narrow sea;
 And linger, shivering on the brink,
 And fear to launch away.

3 Oh, could we make our doubts remove,
 These gloomy doubts that rise,
 And see the Canaan that we love

 How soon they tire and faint!
 How many a spot defiles the robe
 That wraps an earthly saint!
 Oh, for a heart that never sins!
 Oh, for a soul washed white!
 Oh, for a voice to praise our King,

3 Here faith is ours, and heavenly hope,
 And grace to lead us higher;

1015*Not our Rest.*

H. BONAR.

THIS is not my place of resting,—
Mine's a city yet to come;
Onward to it I am hastening—
On to my eternal home.

2 In it all is light and glory;
O'er it shines a nightless day:
Every trace of sin's sad story,
All the curse, hath passed away.

3 There the Lamb, our Shepherd, leads us
By the streams of life along,—
On the freshest pastures feeds us,
Turns our sighing into song.

4 Soon we pass this desert dreary,
Soon we bid farewell to pain;
Never more are sad or weary,
Never, never sin again !

1016*"The sea of glass."* C. WORDSWORTH.

HARK ! the sound of holy voices,
Chanting at the crystal sea,
Hallelujah, hallelujah,
Hallelujah, Lord, to thee !

2 Multitudes, which none can number,
Like the stars in glory stand,
Clothed in white apparel, holding
Palms of victory in their hands.

3 They have come from tribulation,
And have washed their robes in blood,
Washed them in the blood of Jesus;
Tried they were and firm they stood.

4 Mocked, imprisoned, stoned, tormented,
Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
They have conquered death and Satan
By the might of Christ the Lord.

5 Love and peace they taste for ever,
And all truth and knowledge see
In the Beatific Vision
Of the blessed Trinity.

1017*The City.*

S. BARING-GOULD.

DAILY, daily sing the praises
Of the City God hath made;
In the beauteous fields of Eden
Its foundation-stones are laid.

2 In the midst of that dear City
Christ is reigning on his seat,
And the angels swing their censers
In a ring about his feet.

3 From the throne a river issues,
Clear as crystal, passing bright,
And it traverses the City
Like a sudden beam of light.

4 There the wind is sweetly fragrant,
And is laden with the song
Of the seraphs, and the elders,
And the great redeemed throng.

5 Oh, I would my ears were open
Here to catch that happy strain !
Oh, I would my eyes some vision
Of that Eden could attain !

TIME, thou speedest on but slowly,
 Hours, how tardy is your pace !
 Ere with Him, the high and holy,
 I hold converse face to face.
 Here is naught but care and mourning;
 Comes a joy, it will not stay;
 Fairly shines the sun at dawning,
 Night will soon o'ercloud the day.

2 Onward then ! not long I wander
 Ere my Saviour comes for me,
 And with him abiding yonder,
 All his glory I shall see.
 Oh, the music and the singing
 Of the host redeemed by love !
 Oh, the hallelujahs ringing
 Through the halls of light above !

The Consummation.

J. CONDER.

JESUS, blesséd Mediator !
 Thou the airy path hast trod;

Thou the Judge, the Consummator !

Shepherd of the fold of God !

Can I trust a fellow-being ?

Can I trust an angel's care ?

O thou merciful All-seeing !

Beam around my spirit there.

2 Blesséd fold ! no foe can enter,
 And no friend departeth thence ;
 Jesus is their sun, their centre,
 And their shield—Omnipotence !
 Blesséd, for the Lamb shall feed them,
 All their tears shall wipe away,
 To the living fountains lead them,
 Till fruition's perfect day.

3 Lo ! it comes, that day of wonder !
 Louder chorals shake the skies :
 Hadés' gates are burst asunder ;
 See ! the new-clothed myriads rise !
 Thought ! repress thy weak endeavor ;
 Here must reason prostrate fall ;
 Oh, the ineffable Forever !
 And the eternal All in All !

I hope thee, wish thee, sing thee,

3 O sweet and blessed Country!
Shall I e'er see thy face?
O sweet and blessed Country!
Shall I e'er win thy grace?
Exult, O dust and ashes!
The Lord shall be thy part;
His only, his for ever,

1021 "Lamps trimmed." J. BORTHWICK, tr.
REJOICE, rejoice, believers!
And let your lights appear!

The shades of eve are thickening,
And darker night is near;
The Bridegroom is advancing;
Each hour he draws more nigh;
Up! watch and pray, nor slumber;
At midnight comes the cry.
2 See that your lamps are burning,
Your vessels filled with oil;
Wait calmly your deliverance
From earthly pain and toil.
The watchers on the mountains
Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go, meet him, as he cometh,
With hallelujahs clear.
3 The saints, who here in patience
Their cross and sufferings bore,
With him shall reign for ever,
When sorrow is no more:
Around the throne of glory
The Lamb shall they behold,
Adoring cast before him
Their diadems of gold.
4 Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear!
Arise, thou Sun so looked-for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of our redemption,
And ever be with thee.

JERUSALEM, the golden,
 With milk and honey blest !
 Beneath thy contemplation
 Sink heart and voice oppressed:
 I know not, oh, I know not,
 What social joys are there,
 What radiancy of glory,
 What light beyond compare.

2 They stand, those halls of Zion,
 All jubilant with song,
 And bright with many an angel,
 And all the martyr throng;
 The Prince is ever in them,
 The daylight is serene;
 The pastures of the blessed
 Are decked in glorious sheen.

3 There is the throne of David;
 And there, from care released,
 The song of them that triumph,
 The shout of them that feast:
 And they who, with their Leader,
 Have conquered in the fight
 For ever and for ever
 Are clad in robes of white.

"Short toil." J. M. NEALE, tr.

BRIEF life is here our portion;
 Brief sorrow, short-lived care;
 The life, that knows no ending,
 The tearless life, is there:
 Oh, happy retribution !
 Short toil, eternal rest;
 For mortals, and for sinners,
 A mansion with the blest !

2 And there is David's fountain,
 And life in fullest glow;
 And there the light is golden,
 And milk and honey flow;
 The light, that hath no evening,
 The health, that hath no sore,
 The life, that hath no ending,
 But lasteth evermore.

3 There Jesus shall embrace us,
 There Jesus be embraced,—
 That spirit's food and sunsh'ne;
 Whence earthly love is chased:
 Yes ! God my King and Portion,
 In fullness of his grace,
 We then shall see for ever,
 And worship face to face.

BRIDE of the Lamb, awake, awake!
Why sleep for sorrow now?
The hope of glory, Christ, is thine,
A child of glory thou.
Thy spirit, through the lonely night,
From earthly joy apart,
Hath sighed for one that's far away,—
The Bridegroom of thy heart.

2 But see! the night is waning fast,
The breaking morn is near;
And Jesus comes, with voice of love,
Thy drooping heart to cheer.
Then weep no more; 'tis all thine own,
His crown, his joy divine;
And, sweeter far than all beside,
He, he himself is thine!

"Behold, I come quickly."

ANON.

Soon will the heavenly Bridegroom come;
Ye wedding-guests, draw near,
And slumber not in sin, when he,
The Son of God, is here!
Come, let us haste to meet our Lord,
And hail him with delight;
Who saved us by his precious blood,
And sorrows infinite!

2 Beside him all the patriarchs old,
And holy prophets stand;
The glorious apostolic choir,
And noble martyr band.

As brethren dear they welcome us,
And lead us to the throne,
Where angels bow their vailéd heads,
Before the Three in One;—

3 Where we, with all the saints of God,
A white-robed multitude,
Shall praise the ascended Lord, who deigns
To bear our flesh and blood!
Our lot shall be for aye to share
His reign of peace above:
And drink, with unexhausted joy,
The river of his love.

"Come, Lord Jesus."

E. DENNY.

HOPE of our hearts, O Lord, appear,
Thou glorious Star of day!
Shine forth, and chase the dreary night,
With all our tears, away.
No resting-place we seek on earth,
No loveliness we see;
Our eye is on the royal crown,
Prepared for us—and thee!

2 But, dearest Lord, however bright,
That crown of joy above,
What is it to the brighter hope
Of dwelling in thy love?
What to the joy, the deeper joy,
Unmingled, pure, and free,
Of union with our living Head,
Of fellowship with thee?

Messiah's Reign.

M. BRUCE.

BEHOLD, the mountain of the Lord
In latter days shall riseOn mountain tops, above the hills,
And draw the wondering eyes.2 The beam that shines from Zion's hill
Shall lighten every land:
The King who reigns in Salem's towers
Shall all the world command.3 No strife shall vex Messiah's reign,
Or mar the peaceful years;
To ploughshares men shall beat their swords,
To pruning-hooks their spears.

"Come, blessed Lord?"

E. DENNY.

LIGHT of the lonely pilgrim's heart!
Star of the coming day!
Arise, and with thy morning beams
Chase all our griefs away.2 Come, blessed Lord! let every shore
And answering island sing
The praises of thy royal name,
And own thee as their King.3 Jesus! thy fair creation groans,—
The air, the earth, the sea,—
In unison with all our hearts,
And calls aloud for thee.4 Thine was the cross, with all its fruits
Of grace and peace divine;
Be thine the crown of glory now,
The palm of victory thine.

Beside its ancient portal
A silent sentry stands;
He only can undo it,

The New Paradise.

T. DAVIS.

O PARADISE eternal!
What bliss to enter thee,
And, once within thy portals,
Secure for ever be!
In thee no sin nor sorrow,
No pain nor death, is known;
But pure glad life, enduring
As heaven's benignant throne.

- 2 There all around shall love us,
And we return their love;
One band of happy spirits,
One family above:
There God shall be our portion,
And we his jewels be;
And gracing his bright mansions,
His smile reflect and see.

- 3 So songs shall rise for ever,
While all creation fair,
Still more and more revealéd,
Shall wake fresh praises there.
O Paradise eternal!
What joys in thee are known!
O God of mercy! guide us,
Till all be felt our own.

Now LET our souls, on wings sublime,
Rise from the vanities of time,

2 Born by a new celestial birth,
Why should we grovel here on earth?
Why grasp at transitory toys,
So near to heaven's eternal joys?

3 Should aught beguile us on the road,
When we are walking back to God?
For strangers into life we come,
And dying is but going home.

4 To dwell with God—to feel his love,
Is the full heaven enjoyed above;
And the sweet expectation now
Is the young dawn of heaven below.

"A Rest."

RAY PALMER.

LORD, thou wilt bring the joyful day !
Beyond earth's weariness and pains,
Thou hast a mansion far away,
Where for thine own a rest remains.

2 No sun there climbs the morning sky,
There never falls the shade of night;
God and the Lamb, for ever nigh,
O'er all shed everlasting light.

3 The bow of mercy spans the throne,
Emblem of love and goodness there;
While notes to mortals all unknown,
Float on the calm celestial air.

4 Around that throne bright legions stand,
Redeemed by blood from sin and hell;
And shining forms, an angel band,
The mighty chorus join to swell.

5 O Jesus, bring us to that rest,
Where all the ransomed shall be found,
In thine eternal fullness blest,
While ages roll their cycles round !

1034

"Many mansions."

RAY PALMER.

THY Father's house ! thine own bright home !
And thou hast there a place for me !
Though yet an exile here I roam,
That distant home by faith I see.

2 I see its domes resplendent glow,
Where beams of God's own glory fall;
And trees of life immortal grow,
Whose fruits o'erhang the sapphire wall

3 I know that thou, who on the tree
Didst deign our mortal guilt to bear,
Wilt bring thine own to dwell with thee,
And waitest to receive me there !

4 Thy love will there array my soul
In thine own robe of spotless hue;
And I shall gaze, while ages roll,
On thee, with raptures ever new !

5 Oh, welcome day ! when thou my feet
Shalt bring the shining threshold o'er;
A Father's warm embrace to meet,
And dwell at home for evermore !

 Faith views the radiant dome,
 And a lustre flashes keen
 From the new Jerusalem.

3 Oh, holy, heavenly home!
 Oh, rest eternal there!
 When shall the exiles come,
 Where they cease from earthly care,
 In the new Jerusalem!

4 Our hearts are breaking now
 Those mansions fair to see;
 O Lord, thy heavens bow,
 And raise us up with thee,

BETTER LAND. 7s. 6l.

WM. F. SHERWIN.

1. Life has many a pleasant hour, Many a bright and cloudless day; Singing bird and smiling flower, Scatter sunbeams on our way; But the sweetest blossoms grow In the land to which we go.

1036 The better land. F. C. VAN ALSTYNE.

LIFE has many a pleasant hour,
Many a bright and cloudless day;
Singing bird and smiling flower,
Scatter sunbeams on our way;
But the sweetest blossoms grow
In the land to which we go.

2 Earth has many a cool retreat,
Many a spot to memory dear;
Oft we find our weary feet
Lingering by some fountain clear;
Yet the purest waters flow
In the land to which we go.

3 Like a cloud that floats away,
Like the early morning dew,
Here the fairest things decay;
There, are pleasures ever new.
Only joy the heart will know
In the land to which we go.

4 'Tis the Christian's promised land;
There is everlasting day;
There a Saviour's loving hand
Wipes the mourner's tears away;
Oh! the rapture we shall know
In the land to which we go.

1037 P. M. Immanuel's Land. A. R. COUSIN.

THE sands of time are sinking,
The dawn of heaven breaks,
The summer morn I've sighed for,
The fair sweet morn awakes:
Dark, dark hath been the midnight,
But day-spring is at hand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

2 Oh, Christ, he is the fountain,
The deep sweet well of love;
The streams of earth I've tasted,
More deep I'll drink above.

There to an ocean fullness
His mercy doth expand,
And glory, glory dwelleth
In Immanuel's land.

3 The bride eyes not her garment,
But her dear bridegroom's face;
I will not gaze at glory,
But on my King of Grace—
Not at the crown he gifteth,
But on his pierc'd hand;—
The Lamb is all the glory
Of Immanuel's land.

1038 C. P. M. Celestial Praise.

THY mighty working, mighty God !
Wakes all my powers ; I look abroad,
And can no longer rest ;
I, too, must sing when all things sing,
And from my heart the praises ring
The Highest loveth best.

2 If thou, in thy great love to us,
Wilt scatter joy and beauty thus
O'er this poor earth of ours ;
What nobler glories shall be given
Hereafter in thy shining heaven,
Set round with golden towers !

3 What thrilling joy, when on our sight
Christ's garden beams in cloudless light
Where all the air is sweet ;
Still laden with the unwearied hymn
From all the thousand seraphim
Who God's high praise repeat !

4 Oh, were I there ! oh, that I now
Before thy throne, my God, could bow,
And bear my heavenly palm !
Then, like the angels, would I raise
My voice, and sing thine endless praise
In many a sweet-toned psalm.

1039 L. M. " The Lamb is the Light." A. STEELE.
Oh, for a sweet, inspiring ray,
To animate our feeble strains,
From the bright realms of endless day—
The blissful realms where Jesus reigns !

2 There, low before his glorious throne,
Adoring saints and angels fall ;
And, with delightful worship, own
His smile their bliss, their heaven, their all.

3 Immortal glories crown his head,
While tuneful hallelujahs rise,
And love and joy, and triumph spread
Through all the assemblies of the skies.

4 He smiles,—and seraphs tune their songs
To boundless rapture, while they gaze ;
Ten thousand thousand joyful tongues
Resound his everlasting praise.

5 There all the followers of the Lamb
Shall join at last the heavenly choir :
Oh, may the joy-inspiring theme
Awake our faith and warm desire !

1040S. M. D. " Non igit there." F. M. KNOLLIS.

THERE is no night in heaven ;
In that blest world above
Work never can bring weariness,
For work itself is love.
There is no grief in heaven ;
For life is one glad day,
And tears are of those former things
Which all have passed away.

2 There is no want in heaven ;
The Lamb of God supplies
Life's tree of twelve-fold fruitage still,
Life's spring which never dries.
There is no sin in heaven ;
Behold that blessed throng !
All holy is their spotless robe,
All holy is their song.

3 There is no death in heaven ;
For they who gain that shore
Have won their immortality,
And they can die no more.
There is no death in heaven ;
But when the Christian dies,
The angels wait his parted soul,
And waft it to the skies !

EARTH has engrossed my love too long ;
'T is time I lift mine eyes
Upward, dear Father, to thy throne,
And to my native skies.

2 There the blest Man, my Saviour, sits ;
The God, how bright he shines !
And scatters infinite delights
On all the happy minds.

3 Seraphs with elevated strains
Circle the throne around ;
And move, and charm the starry plains
With an immortal sound.

4 Jesus, the Lord, their harps employs ;
Jesus, my love, they sing ;
Jesus, the life of both our joys,
Sounds sweet from every string.

5 Now let me dwell on earth no more,
But mount in haste above,
To bless the God that I adore,
And sing the Man I love.

1042 7s, 6s, D. "A Holy City."

THERE is a holy city,
A happy world above,
Beyond the starry regions,
Built by the God of love ;
An everlasting temple—
And saints arrayed in white,
There serve their great Redeemer,
And dwell with him in light.

ANON.

- 2 The meanest child of glory
Outshines the radiant sun ;
But who can speak the splendor
Of that eternal throne
Where Jesus sits exalted,
In god-like majesty ?
The elders fall before him,
The angels bend the knee.
- 3 The hosts of saints around him
Proclaim his work of grace ;
The patriarchs and prophets,
And all the godly race,
Who speak of fiery trials
And tortures on their way—
They came from tribulation
To everlasting day.

4 And what shall be my journey,
How long my stay below,
Or what shall be my trials,
Are not for me to know ;
In every day of trouble,
I'll raise my thoughts on high ;
I'll think of the bright temple,
And crowns above the sky.

1043 6s, D. "The Rest remaineth."

H. W. BAKER.

THERE is a blessed home
Beyond this land of woe,
Where trials never come,
Nor tears of sorrow flow ;
Where faith is lost in sight,
And patient hope is crowned,
And everlasting light
Its glory throws around.
2 There is a land of peace,
Good angels know it well ;
Glad songs that never cease
Within its portals swell ;
Around its glorious throne
Ten thousand saints adore
Christ, with the Father One,
And Spirit, ever more.

3 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe ;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

BLESSED Salem, long expected,
Vision bright of peace and dear !
Who, of living stones erected,
Moulded in the heavenly sphere,
And, by angel-guards protected,
Dost in bridal-pomp appear.

- 2 From the heaven of heavens descend—
All prepared to meet thy Head, [ing,
In thy robes of light attending,
Thou art to his presence led ;
Golden glories, richly blending,
Round thy streets and walls are shed.
- 3 Bright with pearls thy gates are beam—
Wide unfolded they remain : [ing,
Thither come, through grace redeeming,
All who wear Christ's lowly chain :
And, his last award esteeming,
Gladly share his cup of pain.

1045 P. M. "The Golden Shore."

ANON.

Lo, the seal of death is breaking ;
Those who slept its sleep are waking,
Heaven opes its portals fair !
Hark ! the harps of God are ringing,
Hark ! the seraph's hymn is flinging
Music on immortal air.

2 There, no more at eve declining,
Suns without a cloud are shining
O'er the land of life and love ;
There the founts of life are flowing,
Flowers unknown to time are blowing,
In that radiant scene above.

3 There no sigh of memory swelleth ;
There no tear of misery welleth ;
Hearts will bleed or break no more ;
Past is all the cold world's scorning,
Gone the night and broke the morning
Over all the golden shore !

 Come to God's own temple, come,

 Fruit unto his praise to yield:
 Wheat and tares together sown,
 Unto joy or sorrow grown:
 First the blade, and then the ear,
 Then the full corn shall appear:
 Grant, O Harvest-Lord, that we
 Wholesome grain and pure may be!

3 For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take his harvest home:
 From his field shall in that day
 All offences purge away:
 Give his angels charge at last
 In the fire the tares to cast:
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In his garner evermore.

4 Then, thou Church Triumphant, come,
 Raise the song of Harvest Home!
 All are safely gathered in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin:

There, for ever purified,
 In God's garner to abide:
 Come, ten thousand angels, come,
 Raise the glorious Harvest Home!

The close of the year. RAY PALMER.

THOU who roll'st the year around,
 Crowned with mercies large and free,
 Rich thy gifts to us abound,
 Warm our praise shall rise to thee.
 Kindly to our worship bow,
 While our grateful thanks we tell,
 That, sustained by thee, we now
 Bid the parting year—farewell!

2 All its numbered days are sped,
 All its busy scenes are o'er,
 All its joys for ever fled,
 All its sorrows felt no more.
 Mingled with the eternal past,
 Its remembrance shall decay;
 Yet to be revived at last
 At the solemn judgment-day.

3 All our follies, Lord, forgive!
 Cleanse us from each guilty stain;
 Let thy grace within us live,
 That we spend not years in vain.
 Then, when life's last eve shall come,
 Happy spirits, may we fly
 To our everlasting home,
 To our Father's house on high!

New Year.

J. NEWTON.

WHILE, with ceaseless course, the sun
Hasted through the former year,
Many souls their race have run,
Nevermore to meet us here:
Fixed in an eternal state,
They have done with all below;
We a little longer wait,—
But how little none can know.

2 As the wingéd arrow flies
Speedily the mark to find;
As the lightning from the skies
Darts, and leaves no trace behind,
Swiftly thus our fleeting days
Bear us down life's rapid stream;
Upward, Lord, our spirits raise,
All below is but a dream.

3 Thanks for mercies past receive;
Pardon of our sins renew;
Teach us henceforth how to live,
With eternity in view:
Bless thy word to young and old;
Fill us with a Saviour's love;
And, when life's short tale is told,
May we dwell with thee above!

1049

Independence Day.

N. STRONG.

SWELL the anthem, raise the song;
Praises to our God belong;
Saints and angels join to sing
Praises to the heavenly King.

Blessings from his liberal hand
Flow around this happy land:
Kept by him, no foes annoy;
Peace and freedom we enjoy.

2 Here, beneath a virtuous sway
May we cheerfully obey;
Never feel oppression's rod,
Ever own and worship God.
Hark! the voice of nature sings
Praises to the King of kings;
Let us join the choral song,
And the grateful notes prolong.

1050

Thanksgiving.

A. L. BARBAULD.

PRAISE to God, immortal praise,
For the love that crowns our days!
Bounteous Source of every joy,
Let thy praise our tongues employ.
For the blessings of the field,
For the stores the gardens yield;
For the fruits in full supply,
Ripened 'neath the summer sky;—

2 All that spring with bounteous hand
Scatters o'er the smiling land;
All that liberal autumn pours
From her rich, o'erflowing stores;
These to thee, my God, we owe,
Source whence all our blessings flow;
And for these my soul shall raise
Grateful vows and solemn praise.

GLASGOW. C. M.

The musical score consists of two staves. The top staff is in common time (indicated by 'C') and the bottom staff is in common time (indicated by 'C'). The key signature is one flat. The melody is simple, with most notes being quarter notes. The lyrics are as follows:

1 Lord! while for all man - kind we pray, Of ev - ery clime and coast,
Oh, hear us for our na - tive land, The land we love the most.

1051*National.*

J. R. WREFORD.

LORD! while for all mankind we pray,
Of every clime and coast,
Oh, hear us for our native land,
The land we love the most.

2 Oh, guard our shores from every foe,
With peace our borders bless,
With prosperous times our cities crown,
Our fields with plenteousness.

3 Unite us in the sacred love
Of knowledge, truth, and thee:
And let our hills and valleys shout
The songs of liberty.

4 Here may religion, pure and mild,
Smile on our Sabbath hours;
And piety and virtue bless
The home of us and ours.

5 Lord of the nations, thus to thee
Our country we commend;
Be thou her refuge and her trust,
Her everlasting friend.

1052*The Traveler's Hymn.*

J. ADDISON.

How ARE thy servants blest, O Lord !
How sure is their defence!
Eternal wisdom is their guide,
Their help, Omnipotence.

2 In foreign realms, and lands remote,
Supported by thy care,
Through burning climes they pass unhurt,
And breathe in tainted air.

3 When by the dreadful tempest borne
High on the broken wave,
They know thou art not slow to hear,
Nor impotent to save.

4 The storm is laid, the winds retire,
Obedient to thy will;
The sea, that roars at thy command,
At thy command is still.

5 In midst of dangers, fears, and deaths,
Thy goodness we'll adore;
We'll praise thee for thy mercies past,
And humbly hope for more.

6 Our life, while thou preserv'st that life,
Thy sacrifice shall be;
And death, when death shall be our lot,
Shall join our souls to thee.

1053*Prayer for Seamen.*

L. BACON.

We come, O Lord, before thy throne,
And, with united plea,
We meet and pray for those who roam
Far off upon the sea.

2 Oh, may the Holy Spirit bow
The sailor's heart to thee,
Till tears of deep repentance flow,
Like rain-drops in the sea !

3 Then may a Saviour's dying love
Pour peace into his breast,
And waft him to the port above
Of everlasting rest.

ANON.

OUR Father! through the coming year
 We know not what shall be;
 But we would leave without a fear
 Its ordering all to thee.

2 It may be we shall toil in vain
 For what the world holds fair;
 And all the good we thought to gain
 Deceive and prove but care.

3 It may be it shall darkly blend
 Our love with anxious fears,
 And snatch away the valued friend,
 The tried of many years.

4 It may be it shall bring us days
 And nights of lingering pain;
 And bid us take a farewell gaze
 Of these loved haunts of men.

5 But calmly, Lord, on thee we rest;
 No fears our trust shall move;
 Thou knowest what for each is best,
 And thou art Perfect Love.

Close of the Year.

I. WATTS.

THEE we adore, eternal Name!
 And humbly own to thee
 How feeble is our mortal frame,
 What dying worms are we!

2 The year rolls round, and steals away
 The breath that first it gave;
 Whate'er we do, where'er we be,
 We're traveling to the grave.

3 Great God! on what a slender thread
 Hang everlasting things!
 The eternal state of all the dead
 Upon life's feeble strings!

4 Infinite joy, or endless woe,
 Attends on every breath;
 And yet, how unconcerned we go
 Upon the brink of death!

5 Waken, O Lord, our drowsy sense
 To walk this dangerous road!
 And if our souls are hurried hence,
 May they be found with God.

1056

Close of the Year. P. DODDRIDGE.

AWAKE, ye saints! and raise your eyes,
 And raise your voices high:
 Awake, and praise the sovereign love,
 That shows salvation nigh.

2 Swift on the wings of time it flies,
 Each moment brings it near:
 Then welcome each declining day,
 Welcome each closing year.

3 Not many years their rounds shall run,
 Nor many mornings rise,
 Ere all its glories stand revealed,
 To our admiring eyes.

4 Ye wheels of nature! speed your course;
 Ye mortal powers! decay;
 Fast as ye bring the night of death,
 Ye bring eternal day.

S. F. SMITH.

My country ! 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died !
Land of the Pilgrims' pride !
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring !

2 My native country, thee—
Land of the noble, free—
Thy name I love;
I love thy rocks and rills,
Thy woods and templed hills;
My heart with rapture thrills
Like that above.

3 Let music swell the breeze,
And ring from all the trees
Sweet freedom's song:
Let mortal tongues awake;
Let all that breathe partake;
Let rocks their silence break,—
The sound prolong.

4 Our fathers' God ! to thee,
Author of liberty,
To thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by thy might,
Great God, our King !

Forefathers' Day.

L. BACON.

O God, beneath thy guiding hand,
Our exiled fathers crossed the sea,
And when they trod the wintry strand,
With prayer and psalm they worshiped thee.

2 Thou heardest, well pleased, the song, the prayer—
Thy blessing came; and still its power
Shall onward through all ages bear
The memory of that holy hour.

3 What change! through pathless wilds
no more
The fierce and naked savage roams:
Sweet praise, along the cultured shore,
Breaks from ten thousand happy homes.

4 Laws, freedom, truth, and faith in God
Came with those exiles o'er the waves,
And where their pilgrim feet have trod,
The God they trusted guards their graves.

5 And here thy name, O God of love,
Their children's children shall adore,
Till these eternal hills remove,
And spring adorns the earth no more.

1061

The New Year. P. DODDRIDGE.

GREAT God! we sing, that mighty hand
By which supported still we stand;
The opening year thy mercy shows;
Let mercy crown it till it close.

2 By day, by night, at home, abroad,
Still we are guarded by our God;

By his incessant bounty fed,
By his unerring counsel led.

3 With grateful hearts the past we own;
The future, all to us unknown,
We to thy guardian care commit,
And peaceful leave before thy feet.

4 In scenes exalted or depressed,
Be thou our joy, and thou our rest;
Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
Adored through all our changing days.

5 When death shall interrupt our songs,
And seal in silence mortal tongues,
Our Helper, God, in whom we trust,
In better worlds our souls shall boast.

1062

The New Year.

P. DODDRIDGE.

OUR Helper, God! we bless thy name,
Whose love forever is the same;
The tokens of thy gracious care
Open, and crown, and close the year.

2 Amid ten thousand snares we stand,
Supported by thy guardian hand;
And see, when we review our ways,
Ten thousand monuments of praise.

3 Thus far thine arm has led me on;
Thus far we make thy mercy known;
And while we tread this desert land,
New mercies shall new songs demand.

4 Our grateful souls, on Jordan's shore,
Shall raise one sacred pillar more;
Then bear in thy bright courts above,
Inscriptions of immortal love.

GRANDER than ocean's story,
Or songs of forest trees—
Purer than breath of morning,
Or evening's gentle breeze—
Clearer than mountain echoes
Ring out from peaks above—
Rolls on the glorious anthem
Of God's eternal love.

2 Dearer than any lovings,
The truest friends bestow;
Stronger than all the yearnings,
A mother's heart can know;
Deeper than earth's foundations,
And far above all thought;
Broader than heaven's high arches—
The love that Christ has brought.

3 Richer than all earth's treasure,
The wealth my soul receives;
Brighter than royal jewels,
The crown that Jesus gives;
Wondrous the condescension,
And grace beyond degree!
I would be ever singing
The love of Christ to me.

1079Psalm 51.*

- 1 HAVE mercy upon me, O God, according to thy | loving- | kindness: || According unto the multitude of thy tender mercies | blot out | my trans- | gressions.
- 2 Wash me thoroughly from | mine in- | iniquity, || And | cleanse me | from my | sin.
- 3 For I acknowledge | my trans- | gressions: | And my | sin is | ever | be- | fore me.
- 4 Hide thy face | from my | sins, || And blot out | all — | mine in- | iniquities.
- 5 Create in me a clean | heart, O | God; || And renew a right | spirit | with- | in — | me.
- 6 Cast me not away | from thy | presence; || And take not thy | Holy | Spirit | from me.
- 7 Restore unto me the joy of thy sal- | vation; || And uphold me | with thy | free- | Spirit.
- 8 Then will I teach trans- | gressors | thy | ways; || And sinners shall be con- | verted | unto | thee.
- 9 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of | my sal- | vation: || And my tongue shall sing aloud | of thy | righteous- | ness.
- 10 O Lord, open | thou my | lips: || And my mouth shall | shew forth | thy — | praise.
- 11 For thou desirest not sacrifice; | else | would I | give it: || Thou delightest | not in burnt— | offering.
- 12 The sacrifices of God are a | broken | spirit: || A broken and contrite heart, O God, | thou wilt | not de- | spise.

DEUS MISEREATUR.

1080Psalm 67.*

- 1 God be merciful unto | us, and | bless us; || And show us the light of his countenance, and be | merci- | ful | unto | us.
- 2 That thy way may be known | up | on | earth; || Thy saving | health a- | mong all | nations.
- 3 Let the people praise thee, | O— | God. || Yea, let | all the | people | praise— | thee.
- 4 Oh, let the nations rejoice | and be | glad; || For thou shall judge the people right- eously, and govern the | na- | tions | upon | earth.
- 5 Let the people praise thee, | O— | God; || Yea, let | all the | people | praise— | thee.
- 6 Then shall the earth bring | forth her | increase; || And God, even our own | God shall | give us | his | blessing.
- 7 God shall | bless— | us; || And all the ends of the | world shall | fear— | him.
- 8 Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son, || And | to the | Holy | Ghost; ||

"A little while."

J. CREWDSON.

Oh, for the peace which floweth like a river,
Making life's desert places bloom and smile!
Oh, for the faith to grasp heaven's bright
"forever,"
Amid the shadows of earth's "little while!"

- 2 A little while for patient vigil-keeping,
To face the storm, to battle with the strong;
A little while to sow the seed with weeping,
Then bind the sheaves and sing the harvest song !

3 A little while to keep the oil from failing,
A little while faith's flickering lamp to trim;
And then, the Bridegroom's coming footsteps hailing,
To haste to meet him with the bridal hymn !

4 And he who is himself the gift and giver,—
The future glory and the present smile,—
With the bright promise of the glad "for ever"
Will light the shadows of the "little while!"

ASSURANCE. 108.

WM. F. SHERWIN.

1. Why is thy faith, O child of God, so small? Why doth thy heart shrink back at duty's call?
 Art thou o - bey - ing this—"Abide in me," And doth the Mas - ter's word a - bide in thee?

1083

"Abide in me."

W. F. SHERWIN.

WHY is thy faith, O child of God, so small? 3 "Ask what thou wilt," but, oh, remember
 Why doth thy heart shrink back at duty's this,— call?

We ask and have not, for we ask amiss
 Art thou obeying this—"Abide in me," When, weak in faith, we only half believe
 And doth the Master's word abide in thee? That what we ask we really shall receive.

2 Oh, blest assurance from our risen Lord! 4 Increase our faith, and clear our vision,
 Oh, precious comfort breathing from the Lord;

 How great the promise! could there great- No more with cold distrust to bring thee

1085Selections.*

- 1 BLESSED are the dead, who die in the | Lord from | henceforth; || Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, | and their | works do | follow them.
- 2 Our days on earth are as a shadow, and there is | none a- | biding; || We are but of yesterday; there is but a | step .. between | us and | death;

- 4 Watch ! for ye know not what hour your | Lord doth | come; || Be ye also ready; for in such an hour as ye think not, the | Son of | Man— | cometh.
- 5 It is the Lord; let him do what | seemeth .. him | good; || The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away, and | blessed .. be the | name .. of the | Lord.

CUTTING. 6s, 4s.

WM. F. SHERWIN.

1. Christ for the world we sing; The world to Christ we bring, With loving zeal; The poor, and them that mourn, The faint and over-borne,

Sin - sick and sor-row-worn, Whom Christ doth heal.

1086 Christ for the World. S. WOLCOTT.

CHRIST for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With loving zeal;
The poor, and them that mourn,
The faint and overborne,
Sin-sick and sorrow-worn,
Whom Christ doth heal.

2 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With fervent prayer;

The wayward and the lost,
By restless passions tossed,
Redeemed, at countless cost,
From dark despair.

- 3 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With one accord;
With us the work to share,
With us reproach to dare,
With us the cross to bear,
For Christ our Lord.
- 4 Christ for the world we sing;
The world to Christ we bring,
With joyful song;
The new-born souls, whose days,
Reclaimed from error's ways,
Inspired with hope and praise,
To Christ belong.

YE angels round the throne,
And saints that dwell below,
Worship the Father, praise the Son,
And bless the Spirit, too.

Angels waiting on his word,
Saints that walk with him in white
Pilgrims walking in his light :
Glory to the Eternal One,
Glory to his only Son,
Glory to the Spirit be
Now, and through eternity.

13

C. P. M.

To FATHER, Son, and Holy Ghost,
Be praise amid the heavenly host,
And in the church below;
From whom all creatures draw their breath,
By whom redemption blessed the earth,
From whom all comforts flow.

14

8s, 7s.

PRAISE the Father, earth and heaven,
Praise the Son, the Spirit praise;
As it was, and is, be given
Glory through eternal days.

15

8s, 7s. 6s.

PRAISE and honor to the Father,
Praise and honor to the Son,

Ever Three and ever One;
One in might and one in glory,
While eternal ages run.

16

PRAISE the God of all creation;
Praise the Father's boundless love:
Praise the Lamb, our expiation,

Praise the Fountain of salvation,
Him by whom our spirits live:
Undivided adoration
To the one Jehovah give.

17

8s, 7s, 4s.

GLORY be to God the Father,

God the Father, God the Son,
God the Spirit, joined in glory
On the same eternal throne;
Endless praises
To Jehovah, Three in One.

19

And spread his fame, till time shall be

To FATHER and to Son,
And, Holy Ghost! to thee,

Holy, holy, holy Lord,
All glory be to thee!

23

11s, or 5s, 6s.

O FATHER Almighty, to thee be addressed,
With Christ and the Spirit, one God ever
blest,
All glory and worship, from earth and
from heaven,
As was, and is now, and shall ever be given.

24

6s, 4s.

To God—the Father, Son,
And Spirit—Three in One,
All praise be given!
Crown him in every song;
To him your hearts belong;
Let all his praise prolong—
On earth, in heaven.

	HYMN.		HYMN.
Time is winging us away.....	940	What shall I render to my God	186
Time, thou speedest on but slowly.....	1018	What sinners value I resign.....	955
'Tis a point I long to know.....	499	What various hindrances we meet.....	77
'Tis by the faith of joys to come.....	661	When adverse winds and waves arise.....	706
"'Tis finished!"—so the Saviour cried.....	274	When all thy mercies, O my God	187
'Tis God the Father we adore.....	817	When along life's thorny road.....	717
'Tis God the Spirit leads.....	365	When, as returns this solemn day	53
'Tis midnight; and on Olive's brow.....	273	When downward to the darksome tomb.....	952
'Tis my happiness below.....	720	When gathering clouds around I view	708
'Tis not a cause of small import.....	761	When God, of old, came down from heaven.....	379
'Tis not that I did choose thee.....	178	When human hopes all wither	886
To God the Father, God the Son.....	81	When I can read my title clear	682
To God the only wise.....	121	When I survey the wondrous cross	275
To Jesus, our exalted Lord.....	831	When I view my Saviour bleeding	283
To our Redeemer's glorious name.....	296	When Jordan hushed his waters still	242
To thee, my God and Saviour.....	639	When languor and disease invade	711
To thee, O God, we raise.....	219	When, like a stranger on our sphere	239
To thy pastures fair and large.....	4	When, marshaled on the mighty plain	241
To thy temple we repair.....	3	When musing sorrow weeps the past	714
To us a Child of hope is born.....	237	When my last hour is close at hand	977
Together with these symbols, Lord.....	858	When on Sinai's top I see	855
Traveling to the better land.....	573	When, overwhelmed with grief	699
Trembling before thine awful throne.....	477	When our heads are bowed with woe	716
Triumphant, Lord, thy goodness reigns.....	228	When, rising from the bed of death	988
Triumphant Zion, lift thy head.....	921	When sins and fears, prevailing, rise	527
'Twas by an order from the Lord.....	159	When streaming from the eastern skies	9
'Twas the day when God's Anointed.....	287	When thou, my righteous Judge, shalt come	957
Unshaken as the sacred hill.....	571	When waves of trouble round me swell	715
Unfail thy bosom, faithful tomb.....	966	Where high the heavenly temple stands	75
Upon the gospel's sacred page.....	163	Where the woodman's axe is ringing	899
Upward I lift mine eyes.....	701	Where two or three, with sweet accord	59
Vain are the hopes the sons of men.....	388	While in sweet communion feeding	865
Vain, delusive world, adieu.....	479	While my Redeemer's near	578
Vainly through night's weary hours.....	791	While shepherds watched their flocks	238
Vital spark of heavenly flame.....	967	While thee I seek, protecting Power	185
Wait, my soul, upon the Lord.....	584	While we lowly bow before thee	153
Wait, O my soul! thy Maker's will.....	182	While, with ceaseless course, the sun	1018
Wake, O my soul, and hail the morn.....	255	Who are these in bright array	999
Wake! the welcome day appeareth	778	Who is this that comes from Edom	310
Walk in the light! so shalt thou know	655	Who shall the Lord's elect condemn	679
Watchman! tell us of the night.....	932	Why do we mourn departing friends	953
We are on our journey home.....	1035	Why is thy faith, O child of God	1083
We are watching, we are waiting.....	787	Why on the bending willows hung	922
We bid thee welcome in the name.....	763	Why should our tears in sorrow flow	970
We bless thee for thy peace, O God.....	697	Why should the children of a King	359
We come, O God, before thy throne	1053	Why should we start, and fear to die	941
We give immortal praise.....	230	Why will ye waste on trifling cares	423
We give thee but thine own.....	780	With all my powers of heart and tongue	233
We may not climb the heavenly steeps	271	With broken heart and contrite sigh	456
We praise thee, O God; we acknowledge	1074	With deepest reverence at thy throne	180
We shall see Him, in our nature	304	With heavenly power, O Lord, defend	768
We stand in deep repentance	465	With joy we hail the sacred day	24
We would see Jesus—for the shadows	878	With joy we lift our eyes	33
Weary, Lord, of struggling here	483	With songs and honors sounding loud	1068
Weeping will not save me	430	With tearful eyes I look around	508
Welcome, delightful morn	10	Witness, ye men and angels, now	819
Welcome, sweet day of rest	30	Work, for the night is coming	783
What a Friend we have in Jesus.....	567	Work while it is to-day	779
What cheering words are these	682	Would you win a soul to God	443
What equal honors shall we bring	338	Ye angels! who stand round the throne	625
What finite power, with ceaseless toil	190	Ye messengers of Christ	775
What grace, O Lord, and beauty shone	264	Ye servants of God, your Master proclaim	97
What is life? 'tis but a vapor.....	956	Your harps, ye trembling saints	553
		Zion! awake, thy strength renew	906

¶ And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will to men.

And they sang a new song
saying with a loud voice,

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain
to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.

And every creature which is in heaven,
and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying,

Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.
